

19 Are on College Honor Roll; 11 On High School List

Georgianna McClure Leads College in Scholarship; Daniel Flore Achieves High Distinctive Roll

With nineteen names on the college list and eleven on the high school roll, the honor rolls for the third quarter have been compiled by the office administration. Of the eleven on the high school list, one—Daniel Flore—achieves a place on the high school distinctive honor roll. Only three high school students were placed on the distinctive roll.

On the college list, unusually high ratings were obtained by Georgianna McClure, secretary of the student body, and Edgar Lund, whose ratings were 2.87 and 2.83, respectively. The lists as compiled and announced by the registrar's office follows:

| College            | Rating |
|--------------------|--------|
| Georgianna McClure | 2.87   |
| Edgar Lund         | 2.83   |
| Virginia Byers     | 2.66   |
| Gladys Peterson    | 2.35   |

French and German Clubs Plan Plays

Members of the German club have been preparing for presentation the play, "Karl hat Oahnsehmerzen." In the cast are: Karl, William Fluenger; Minnie, his sister, Margaret Wesson; Adelheid, the aunt, Lorraine Thoren; Frau Gruenel, the cook, Kathleen Forath; Herr Krause, homoopathescher, Clarence Roen; Johann, Karl's friend, Oscar Anderson.

This play will be given here at school, and before the International club of Lincoln High School in Tacoma.

The French club will present the French play, "Le Medecin Mystere." The cast includes: le medecin, Edgar Larson; la dame, Hasei Monson; la vieille pauvre, Carrie Hvinding.

A talk on Medsen Fyrolvinn by Gilbert Spjove featured the German club meeting on Tuesday April 11. The program also included news of German politics by Leonard Wesson.

On Monday April 17, the club membership will go as a group to the Buckley King Mortuary in Tacoma by having fifty people attend in the name of the club, the club will earn $10.00.

John Paton Subject of Talk At Mission Society Meeting

At the Mission Society meeting held last Wednesday evening, Frank Elliot had charge of the scripture lesson. Ellen Soley played the piano, and Walter Young spoke on John Paton, missionary in the South Sea Islands.

At the business meeting, it was announced that the envelopes which have been distributed among the students to be filled for the support of a boy who is studying to be a missionary in Madagascar, would be again collected the following Friday.

Tuition and Salary Decreases Voted by Board of Trustees

Members of the Board of Trustees of Pacific Lutheran College met last Wednesday at the home of President Tingestad to discuss problems relative to the continuance of the school, and to its operation for the next school year. Chief among the actions taken by the board was that regarding teachers' salaries, concerning which the board adopted the same principles which guided the Board of Regents of the University of Washington, and left it to the college administrative officials to adjust the details. However, according to President Tingestad, an attempt will be made to retain the whole staff intact.

Tuition fees for the high school department were reduced from $45 to $30 per semester, applicable all four years during the period of experimentation with the new scholarship policy. According to this policy, individual congregations will be invited to establish scholarships rather than the college. Final approval on the budget for the next school year was postponed until the next meeting, which will probably be held the morning of Commencement Day, May 29.

Other actions taken by the Board of Trustees at last Wednesday's meeting included the ratification of the action of the executive committee approving the choir trip; the reducing of the music fee for beginners from $1.50 to $1.00 per lesson; and the changing of the registration methods, so that students will be officially registered with the college only for the period for which they pay at the beginning of the semester. According to this new registration policy, students may register for nine weeks, instead of being required to register for the entire semester.

From the Women's Missionary Federation, the South Puget Sound Circuit of which held its convention in the Trinity Lutheran Church at the same time the Board was meeting, Paul Preus reported to the Board that the national Women's Missionary Federation is being organized for a nationwide effort on behalf of Pacific Lutheran College, beginning after Easter and continuing through 1934.

French, German Clubs Meet; Hear Programs

On Tuesday, March 28, a walk was taken by a P. L. C. graduate of the class of '33, gave a talk on the German composer Wagner and his opera.

French club members discussed the club constitution, and prepared it for filing with the Student Board of Control at the meeting last Friday.

Choir Tour Guaranteed to Be Self-Supporting; Interest High in Cities Named on Tentative Itinerary

With the guarantee that it will be a self-supporting enterprise, the Pacific Lutheran College "Choir of the West" will begin its trip through Oregon and Southern Washington on April 21, visiting Aberdeen, Raymond, Chinook, Astoria, Tillamook, Albany, Corvallis, Salem, Silverton, Canby, Portland, Longview, Winlock, and Olympia, as scheduled, although the itinerary is subject to change. May 5 is the date set for the choir's return to Parkland.

According to those in authority, much enthusiasm for the coming concert is being shown in the places where the choir will stop, a good example being in Astoria where in the bulletin of the Norwegian Lutheran Church, Rev. M. A. Christensen announces as follows: "And now for more grand music: The 'Choir of the West,' 45 members from Pacific Lutheran College will give a sacred concert in the Methodist Church, Sunday evening, April 23. Ask any of the P.L.C. alumni in Astoria about it. Olga Henningson, Elmer and Eric Hauke, Walter and Ferdinand Christensen, Johanna Rasmussen, E. B. Hauke, Stanley Johnson, Hilda Simonson, and others. This choir gives a wonderful concert and we want to give them a worthy reception Sunday night in the Methodist Church. Other churches in the city have already signified their intention of cancelling their evening services and attending this sacred concert." The choir is expected not only to pay its own expenses, but create good will for the college as well as an interest in its activities, according to Paul A. Preus, who has arranged the trip.

Mrs. Krellder and Mr. Olson will accompany the choir as chaperon and manager respectively.

The choir will render the following program:

- I. Choir
  - O Sacred Head ..... Christensen
  - Glorious Christ ..... Edwards
  - In Heaven Above ..... Christensen
  - Solo, Walter Ustad
  - O Praise Ye ..... Tschalkowsky
- II. Soprano
  - O Divine Redeemer ..... Gounod
  - He Shall Feed His Flock ..... Handel
  - Spirit Flower ..... Campbell-Tipton
  - Anna Mikkelsen
- III. Choir

  - Solo, Bruce Thayer
  - Gospod Pomilul ..... Lvovsky
  - (Russian Prayer: Lord, Our God, Have Mercy)
  - Beautiful Saviour ..... Christensen
  - Solo, Mildred Monson
- IV. Piano
  - Scherzo in E Flat Minor ..... Brahms
  - Vals (op. 94, No. 2) ..... Chopin
  - Perpetual Motion ..... Weber
  - J. O. Edwards
- V. Choir
  - Three Kings ..... Romeu
  - Solo, Anna Mikkelsen
  - Night and a Lonely Star
  - Christensen
  - He Is Blessed ..... Soderman
  - Hosanna in the Highest ..... Soderman

Footlight Revelers Win Drama Honor

Ray Lerback's Group Also Gets First Place for Last Presentation; Party to Be May 5

The "Footlight Revelers," group number one, whose leader this semester is Ray Lerback, won this year's contest among the three groups of the Dramatic Club, as announced by Clarence Lemming, the president, at the club's meeting last Monday. The winning group had a total of 25 points for the year. Group number 3, the "Dramatics," under the leadership of Norda Arneson, came second, with 30 points, and group number 2, the "Stage Steppers," whose head is Nellie Olson, third, with 35 points.

The fall semester leaders of these groups were Dickie Leland, Clarence Lemming, and Rachel Flint, respectively.

The last group of plays of the contest were presented March 31, "Elmer," presented by group one, won first place. The cast included: William Zier as Elmer, Louise Jackson as Susie, Irene Ludaahl as Jennie, Helen Garbellas as Jennie, Lila Rudd as Miss Finney, Ella Johnson as Mrs. Collins, Norman Westling as Hubert Brown, Agnes Langness as Fannie Belle, and Deimar Morterson as Russ Jamison.

"Romantic Melange," offered by group three, won second place, and "Don't," given by group two, third place. The cast of "Romantic Melange" consisted of Virginia Davis as Melinda, Harold Anderson as Methodist, Jennie Lee as Isabel Dean, Hans Monson as Ada Porter, and Bruce Thayer as Bob Porter. The cast of "Don't" was composed of Alberta (Continued on Page Four)

Announce Casts of Two One-Act Plays For Grad Classes

'The Forfeit,' 'Station YYY' To Be Given Instead of Comedy Drama; Choir Trip Necessitates Change

That "The Forfeit" and "Station YYY" one act plays, will take the place of "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," as the presentation of this year's graduating classes, the comedy drama formerly chosen was the announcement made by Mrs. Taylor, director. The president of the college graduating class, with Mrs. Taylor, will appoint the committees to make arrangements for the plays, which are tentatively scheduled for May 13.

"The Forfeit," a one-act drama by T. B. Rogers has the following cast: Mr. Sheldon, Gilbert Sydow; Miss Hyde, Ellen Soley; Mr. Pembrey, Walter Young; Mrs. Mullins, Dickie Leland; Thrupp, William Fluenger.

Booth Tarkington is the author of "Station YYY," the cast of which includes: Mrs. Winstead, Alberta Schmitz; Herbert, Edgar Larson; Anita, Nellie Olson; Caroline, Kathleen Forath; Roger, Norman Westling; Mr. Winstead, Trygve Runsvold; the chauffeur, to be selected; Anne, Helen Collins.

The change from the comedy drama formerly selected was made necessary by the choir trip. Although choir members are in these plays, there will be time after their trip to practice the parts, according to Mrs. Taylor, who is in charge. Between the two plays, a musical program will be presented by members of the graduating classes from both the high school and college departments.

Party for Grads Is Next Tuesday

Freshmen to Entertain This Year's High School and College Classes at King Roller Rink

Members of the Freshman Class will honor this year's graduates at a skating party to be held next Tuesday evening at the King Roller Rink, 27th and Pacific Avenue from 10-12 p. m. Graduates in this year's classes from both the high school and the college departments will be guests of the freshmen, with only college sophomores and high school undergraduates being barred.

During the evening, races and contests will be held, for which prizes will be given. Refreshments will be served in the form of "hot dogs," by a committee of which Evelyn Irwin is chairman. Clarence Lemming and Irene Ludaahl are in charge of entertainment. No charge will be made, of course, and no outsiders will be admitted. Mrs. Krellder and Prof. Beck, Freshman Class advisor, will be the chaperones.

"Even though the party is on a school night, we hope every graduate and college freshman will be present," stated Clarence Lemming. "The party was to have been held the following Saturday evening, but owing to the choir trip, the date was changed so that choir members could attend."

To Go to Alaska

Jens Ribsheden, member of this year's college graduating class, will leave sometime this week-end for Alaska, where he will work in the fishing industry. Jens has had this job for several years.

200 Attend W.M.F. Convention Here

With more than 200 in attendance, the South Puget Sound circuit of the Woman's Missionary Federation held their spring convention in the Trinity Lutheran Church of Parkland last Wednesday. Highlights of the meeting, over which Mrs. George O. Lane of Seattle presided, included a missionary talk by Rev. O. L. Hofstad, a missionary from Madagascar, and a talk on "Lutheran Daughters of the Reformation" by Mrs. E. N. Roe of Gig Harbor, circuit helper for the young girls' group.

Music for the convention was furnished by the Pacific Lutheran College choir at the regular chapel exercises that morning, the faculty wives quilled, a trio of Mrs. Haug, Mrs. Olson and Rev. Svare, college pastor.

Officers elected by the group included: President, Mrs. George O. Lane of Seattle; vice president, Mrs. Ditman Larson of Tacoma; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. O. L. Haavik of Seattle, wife of the President of the Pacific Lutheran College Board of Trustees; historian, Mrs. Theodore Holmstad of Bremerton. The offering of this circuit convention was to go to P.L.C. During the convention, there was a display of posters made by the college art department, under the direction of Mrs. Krellder. The next circuit meeting of the group was announced for September in the church of Rev. E. N. Roe at Gig Harbor.

Are You at Fault?

About a year ago there was launched at Pacific Lutheran College a movement which seemingly created great interest among the students at that time. Many subscribed to this new interest—the Pocket Testament League—agreeing to read a portion of the Bible every day.

Even this fall there seemed to be some students who took interest in it under the furtherance of the Mission Society, but now even this has died out. What is wrong with it? Has this nation-wide movement failed entirely, or is it only the fault of Pacific Lutheran College groups and students?

The Pocket Testament League sought to interest Lutheran young people in the Word of God, by asking its members to agree to read some part of the Bible every day and to carry it with them always. The purpose of the movement was not to drive young people to live up to a hard and fast rule, but to encourage the spread of Christianity through the reading of the Word of God. We should like to see more interest taken in this, and hope to someday see Pacific Lutheran College one hundred per cent enrolled in the Pocket Testament League.

Easter Vacations

Many of us have no doubt noticed that public schools together with many colleges and the university have had their spring vacations during the past week, whereas we will have ours immediately before Easter, during Passion Week. Perhaps this is just a coincidence, but it seems to have some relation with the fact that Pacific Lutheran College is a Christian institution; and, therefore, that we who attend college here celebrate Easter and the week of our Savior's greatest suffering with a bit more reverence and gratitude for the great sacrifice which the Lord made for humanity at this time. Perhaps, to us, these days which are not filled with classes are just a little less "vacation," and more of a time when we may "count our many blessings."

Let's Back the Choir Trip

The "Choir of the West" and those who are behind its tour are to be commended for their courage in bringing their message to the friends of the college during the present financial crisis. Members of the choir have contributed five dollars each to help pay the expenses of the trip, and the congregations where the choir will sing have guaranteed funds for this purpose also, so the burden will not fall on the general college fund. Now that arrangements and sacrifices in time and money have been made, have these young people not the right to expect the support and enthusiasm of the entire college constituency in their efforts to "lick Old Man Depression"?

HAVE YOU MET?

"Quiet and busy" describes a boy in Pacific Lutheran College; but perhaps he's not so quiet at times. Anyway, he's always busy, and when he's not doing things for the school, they're for someone else. A dark complexion, brown eyes, and a big smile that turns into a laugh every once in a while point him out to students as a grand kid. Duties on the Board of Control occupy much of his time; and Drama Club as well as Die Deutche Verein are two organizations which claim him as a member. We'll be missing him from school in a few days, because he is to travel with the school songsters to Oregon. You ought to know him.

Brunette and beautiful with brown eyes and a pretty smile—know who? You should, because she's quite well known around Pacific Lutheran, since this is her third year in this grand institution. She is an active member of the Drama Club, and sings in the college choir. Now here's a secret—she's recently been seen walking to the kidding post with a brunette undergraduate boy. We don't wonder though, because where is the boy in P.L.C. who wouldn't like to take a walk with this young lady?

PREXY'S CORNER

Three hundred fifty young people, the largest Lutheran audience yet assembled in Astoria, in the opinion of a veteran pastor, gathered in Trinity Church last Sunday afternoon and evening in a double-session Luther League rally meeting sponsored by the four local Luther Leagues of Astoria: Trinity (Augustana), Bethany (Lutheran Free), the Finnish Lutheran, and the Norwegian Lutheran. Theme: Our Christian Life: Joyful, Prayerful, moderate, thankful, inspiring messages from League members on the four aspects. Beautiful sacred music, Wonderful encouragement from and for the coming generation of Astorians. I am glad I was there. I am glad the P.L.C. Choir will be there. God willing, on April 23.

International Relations Club Has Constitution

In their second meeting since their organization on March 20, the International Relations Club of Pacific Lutheran College met yesterday to discuss the constitution drawn up by the officers. Because of the long length, it was moved that a committee read it, approve it, and present it to the student Board of Control, after having made the necessary improvements. President Leif Klippen appointed Hazel Monsen (chairman), John Zachrisson, Mary Louise Preus and Ellen Soley on the committee.

That the group will meet on alternate Tuesdays, with the German Club at noon, was decided by a motion, the next meeting to be held next Tuesday, April 18. The president was to see Prof. Beck to have him address the group on "Hitler in Germany" to fill the time before the literature for study has arrived from the Carnegie Foundation, which must approve the constitution and present a charter before sending any material.

Sore Backs, Muscles Rewarded by Clean Campus And Improved Baseball Diamond and Tennis Courts

By Mary Lou Preus

A clean campus was the compensation which the workers got for the sore arms, sore legs, and sore backs that followed Campus Day which was held last Monday. The tennis courts and baseball diamond were scenes of furious activity for the greater part of the day and have been in use almost incessantly ever since. In practically all the other sections, the work was finished early, and members of those crews were free to make the annual pilgrimage to P.L.C.'s penthouse on the roof, there to enjoy the sweet music of the band and to get a bird's-eye view of the campus, the town, and the surrounding countryside.

Promptly at three o'clock all labors ceased, and everyone gathered at the stand behind the chapel where coffee and doughnuts were served (three doughnuts were allotted to each, but no count was kept of the amount of coffee consumed). After refreshments, the faculty accepted the students' challenge to a baseball game to inaugurate the newly completed diamond. Although the faculty presented an unexpectedly hard battle, the students came out at the big end of a 12-5 score. (There was some dispute about the total owing to the fact that no one kept official score.)

A self-appointed ducking committee captured Clix Roen, after sprinting several blocks in pursuit of him, and dumped him in the creek dragging him across by a rope tied around his ankles.

John Zacharson and Jack Hudson also received this peculiar wet, cold honor. In the evening, students did a serpentine act and sang songs around the roaring bonfire, which was made up of all the debris gathered from the campus. After the bonfire, Paul A. Preus showed the movies which he took of the P.L.C. mountain trip, after which everyone went home at the end of a perfect day for which they had waited for a whole week.

Perhaps you have noticed that no mention was made of the noon meal which certainly "hit the right spot"; but we don't like to call to mind the undignified positions which students and even faculty members were forced to take because of lack of table space.

Society

P.L.C. students attending a surprise birthday party on Ray Hinderle Thursday evening, March 30, were Virginia Lou Harris, Paul Preus, Alice Boe, Ted Thompson, and Lloyd Thompson.

In a program given at Bethel Lutheran Church Friday, March 24, several students from school participated. Alice Peterson played violin selections, Kathryn Patten sang a soprano solo, and Margaret Wesson gave readings. Ardis Aarhus accompanied the musical numbers on the piano.

Bill Whalen spent the week end of April 1 at his home in Stanwood.

Nordis Arneson's mother visited over the week end of April 1 and 2 at school.

Returning from the east where Mr. Runsvold has been recuperating from a recent illness, Mr. and Mrs. Runsvold visited their son, Tryg, last week. Nedra Dubig spent last week end at the home of her parents in Concrete, Wash.

Mary Nash recently visited her sister in Seattle.

Alice Alvins was confined to her home in South Bend last week because of illness.

Ellen Soley spent April 1 and 2 in Everett with her parents.

Mrs. E. H. Bondy and Mrs. O. A. Tingelstad are to be guests of the French section of the American Association of University Women at Weyerhaeuser Hall in the Y.W.C.A. this evening.

The program of the last meeting of the Pep club consisted of a piano solo by Mary Nash and a reading by Olga Overlie. Virginia Mancke and Jean-Marie Fowler were the hostesses.

Ylvisaker Will Speak At Rallies In District

Rallies will be held at various places in the Pacific District of the Norwegian Lutheran church in connection with the visit of Rev. N. M. Ylvisaker, executive secretary of the International Young Peoples' Luther League, who is speaker for the Pacific District Young People's Luther League Convention to be held in Silverton, Oregon, May 5 to 7. Reverend Ylvisaker will speak at the following rallies, together with others for which arrangements are not yet complete: Tuesday evening, May 2, Bremerton, Washington; Reverend Hokenstad, pastor; Wednesday evening, May 3, Tacoma, First Norwegian Lutheran Church; Reverend Edwards, pastor; Thursday evening, May 11, Seattle; Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church; Reverend Lane, pastor.

The local Luther Leagues will sponsor the meetings, arranging the program, and entertaining with a social hour following the rally.

Girls Will Entertain Faculty Wives May 3; Pflueger Tells of India

At the Lutheran Daughters of the Reformation meeting at the home of Mrs. J. O. Edwards Tuesday, April 4, plans were discussed for the next meeting at which the girls will entertain the faculty members' wives, who have been their hostesses during the last year. The meeting, which will be the last of the year, will be held May 3. At this meeting also, Anna Mikkelsen and President Kathryn Johnson, will give reports of the Women's Missionary Federation convention, which they attended last Wednesday as delegates of the L.D.R. group.

Prof. J. P. Pflueger was the main speaker of the April meeting, telling of his experiences in India. Other numbers on the program included a vocal selection by Nellie Olson, accompanied by Ellen Soley, and piano numbers by Ardis Aarhus. Assisted by Mrs. Edwin Tingelstad, Mrs. Edwards served refreshments to the girls present.

In this week's "Have You Met," Jesse Pflueger and Nellie Olson were described.

Students Present Booster Programs

7 Visit High Schools in Pierce and Thurston Counties to Advertise Activities and Courses At Pacific Lutheran College

To acquaint students of high schools of outlying districts with the activities and courses of Pacific Lutheran College, a group of students have taken several tours into Pierce and Thurston counties, visiting twelve high schools. A show program, representing the school's numerous activities, was given by seven students, while Coach Olson held conferences with prospective students, leaving catalogues in the office of each institution visited.

Anna Mikkelsen sang a group of numbers, and Margaret Wesson entertained with readings. Mr. Hunter was well received in saxophone numbers, and Walter Ustad and Bruce Thayer took alternate trips, completing the programs with songs. "Swede" Willard spoke on football, stressing the point that athletics were much more easily participated in at a small college than at a large one. Clarence Lemming acted as chairman, presenting each entertainer by telling something about the activities he represented in Pacific Lutheran College. Ardis Aarhus accompanied the musicians on the piano.

The list of schools visited includes Enumclaw, Buckley, Ordry, Roy, Yelm, Eatonville, Kapowsin, and Olig Harbor. Yesterday the group presented four programs, visiting Olig Harbor, Poulsbo, Silverdale, and Port Orchard. After Easter, more programs will be presented, probably including Stadium, Lincoln and Sumner High Schools. At each school the group from Parkland was well received, according to those who have taken part in the programs.

Rambling Around

We've noticed that: The nets finally arrived on the tennis courts, and the tennis fiends are finding out who put the bliss in blissers.

Carl Martin took Helen Collins to the theater party. Getting big-hearted, Carl?

As seen on Campus Day, not only bathing suits reveal what shape the college is in:

The dorm girls gave the day girls a drubbing in baseball.

Del Mortenson's Campus Day shirt had seen its best days;

Prof. Highby is becoming famous for his intimate connection with worms; Since nice weather has come to stay, Major has had a hard time keeping track of the Kicking Post hikers;

Stan Score and Gerry Pflueger still like to wallow in the mud (the little pigs);

Anna Mikkelsen's first love is baseball;

Clarabel Roberts helps Bruce Thayer with his washing;

Florence Post played chauffeur to nearly a dozen of the youth of P.L.C. the night of the theater party;

Jeanette Knutzen has a very stiff neck;

In his classes in freshman composition Prof. J. J. Hone has been instructing the students in punctuation capitalization and other part of the rhetoric of the English language so that now they are well versed in the use of the semicolon period question mark dash and comma and know enough to put an apostrophe before the t in dent.

Service Is Sunday

Interest High in Luther League Program and Breakfast

Interest is high among day students and those in the dormitories who will not go home for vacation, in the Easter sunrise service and breakfast which will be held here at 8:30 next Sunday morning. In case of rain, the service, which as now planned will be on the Chataqua grounds, will be in the chapel of the college. The breakfast will be in the basement of the chapel. No charge will be made, but a collection will be taken to cover expenses.

Because Dr. Tingelstad will be in the East, Rev. J. P. Pflueger will be present at the service, instead of the college president, as formerly announced. The complete program for the service follows:

- Among Pacific Lutheran College associates who are in charge of the affair are Mary Lou Preus, Walter Young, Berdine Knutzen, Margaret and Leonard Wesson and Hazel Monsen.
- Devotion ..... Leonard Wesson
- Talk ..... Hugh Tallant
- Violin ..... Walls Kerr
- Talk ..... Margaret Roem
- Lead's Vocal Quartette
- Talk ..... Carsten Pedersen
- Trombone Duet
- Frank Elliot, Clifford Ophelm
- Benediction ..... Rev. J. P. Pflueger

After considering all that God has done for us, should we not be willing to say as Christ said, "Not my will but thy will be done."—Xavier

Man is apt to try to compromise between Jesus and the world as Pilate did with Jesus and the Jews. Pilate eventually brought damnation upon himself; will man not do likewise?—Foss

ALUMNI

William Knutzen, '32, who has been attending the state college at Pullman, underwent a major operation last week at the Tacoma General Hospital. Bill was stricken while spending a few days of his spring vacation visiting his brother Victor, and his former school-mates at P.L.C.

Harold Gray, '32 has been seen on the campus several times during the past few weeks. Harold is teaching at Midland Junior High.

Ola Hagness, '31, who is teaching at Flie, visited school last week, and it is rumored, too, one of our well-known athletes down the line in a little game of ping pong.

Earl Percival, '32, dropped in on us from Chehalis where he is teaching, and in a greeting to the student body, advised us to study hard in order to get the most out of our school days. Well spoken, Percy.

Fred Scheel and Ole Floe visited school on Tuesday, March 28. Fred will soon leave for Alaska.

Solveig Wangen, '31, is teaching at Eagle Grove, Wash.

Bernice Schafer, '32, visited P.L.C. recently. Bernice is teaching at Vaughn.

God, as well as man, regards the march of Jesus into Jerusalem as one of the most important events in the Savior's life, and He has caused it to be recorded in each of the gospels as well as in prophesies. An event so heralded is surely worthy of all the reverence which man can show.—Pflueger

Students, Faculty Turn Interests To Golf and Tennis

46 Boys, 16 Girls Sign Up For Court Tournaments; 2 Lettermen Return for Links Contest; Outlook Is Bright

Soon after Easter vacation, the interest of the student body and faculty will be directed toward the tennis and golf tournaments. Everything has been arranged and is in readiness for the opening matches, according to Coach Olson, who is in charge. The date has not been set, but will be revealed by Coach Olson as soon as the weather will remain fair enough for some length of time to warrant such a step.

Forty-six boys have entered the tennis tournament and twenty-four have signed up for the golf tournament. This is more than a fair representation, but more are expected to sign up before the matches will be played off. Sixteen co-eds have been matched up for the tennis, and so far only seven have entered the proposed golf tournament. Judging from the number of entrants, a definite schedule will have to be arranged for the matches, to prevent any conflicts.

Bill Whalen and John Fadness are the only lettermen back from last year's tennis team, and are expected to battle it out in the finals. Many promising aspirants have been doing their stuff on the courts lately and may provide plenty of competition for the two lettermen.

The outlook for this year's golf team is much brighter. Four out of the five lettermen are back and are playing better golf each day. The four—Paul Preus, Norman Westling, Ray Hinderlie, and Johnny Stuen—will compose a nucleus around which Coach Olson will be able to build a strong team. These men went through the season undefeated last year and show greater possibilities of turning in better scores this year.

Sport Slants

By C. Madsen

The spring days are back again and with them has come such things as baseball, tennis, and golf. An active step has been taken in these sports to counteract the spring fever which is bound to ensue.

—SS—
Campus day left our tennis courts and baseball diamond in fine shape; and as a result, the students are making good use of them— which is a good sign.

—SS—
 Don't consider me too forward for proposing something, but since spring just has to come and we can't do anything about it, I suggest that we make it a little more interesting by arranging our inter-mural sports on a more competitive basis.

—SS—
We have the Dormitory Union (fish), the grand order of the various forms of shacks, and the superior day students. These three organizations could be easily arranged into a tri-league baseball pennant race—the pennant to be furnished by the Women's Athletic Association. At the close of this twelve-game series, the winning team would be presented the pennant during a student body meeting.

—SS—
 We could also widen our field with these three clubs having their tennis and golf teams competing against each other. Think what enthusiasm would prevail on the campus during the spring term if such a step would materialize. Why! everybody would get up for breakfast—even Carl Martin.

—SS—
It won't be long now, until the tennis and golf tournaments will be run off. Last year they were conducted nicely and both tournaments were run off smoothly; but there is a tendency, especially in tennis, to put off the matches until the tournament has to be rushed through. In order to cooperate with those in charge, everyone, both in tennis and golf should complete his matches as soon as possible. This would also give Coach Olson ample time to select the respective team members and arrange his schedule accordingly.

—SS—
 Special consideration should be given to two members of our student body, who have attained the goal which has been the dream and desire of every student of our school; two members who fought willingly—but blushing—to conquer in the end. As you glance upon these names, think of what these people have attained for their hard work—work that resulted in discouragement for Oscar Anderson, who has been, ever since his arrival at P.L.C., ping pong minded. Ah! 'tis sad, but Oscar took it very nicely when he saw it was Dickie Leland and Paul Preus that had attained this goal. Who wouldn't?

—SS—
A lot of us laughed up our sleeve when we heard that the faculty was slated to tangle with the students in a baseball game on campus day. But how many inhibited that laugh when they saw that game? I did. Those teachers put everything they had into that game and gave us a real exhibition, but I still maintain that Ramstad can't run with sixteen inch boots on.

W.A.A. Presents First Sport Night

Feature Campus Day Films; Pflueger Gives Archery Exhibition; Girl Basketeers Defeat Boys

None of their major activities of the year the Women's Athletic Association showed the student body that they were on the map by sponsoring the first "Sport's Night" in the history of the school.

Opening the program, which was held in the gymnasium last Friday evening, Anna Mikkelsen gave two vocal solos, "Happy Song" and "Lover, Come Back to Me." Following these, Mr. Preus showed motion pictures of the choir and those he had taken Campus Day.

Preceding a group of songs and a pantomime baseball game by the W.A.A. girls, Evelyn Monson, dressed in rompers, clogged. Patricia Preus and Barbara Xavier next presented a novelty tap dance. Four girls donned boys' basketball trunks and jerseys and boxing gloves and clogged to the tune of music played by Nordis Arneson.

Mr. Pflueger, with several bows and arrows made by himself, explained some of the arts of archery and gave a practical demonstration.

Eight girls then showed their ability at tumbling which they followed with freck relay races. A basketball game between a men's and a women's team completed the program. Because they had to wear gunny sacks, the boys under went a handicap and lost to the girls, 8 to 4.

Margaret Jacobson, as referee, made many enemies among the boys because, they claim, "she didn't ref' fair." At the end of the half the forwards on the men's team were further adorned with boxing gloves.

Members of the Women's Athletic Association who helped to make this affair successful were Alice Alvnes, Ella Johnson, Jeanette Knutsen, Dickie Leland, Evelyn Monson, Mildred Monson, Mary Nash, Olga Overlie, Dorothy Peterson, Kathleen Porth, Alice Roe, Dorees Roe, and Jean-Marie Fowler.

Leland, Preus Win Ping Pong Tourneys

Dickie Leland and Paul Preus held the distinction, as a result of a ping pong tournament recently staged at Pacific Lutheran College, of being the first champions in this particular sport in the history of this school. Dickie came through the tournament giggling, though pressed hard by the other contestants, while Paul remained calm when he finally collected the championship prize.

In the first round, Rolf Preus was defeated by Victor Knutsen; Stanley Score defeated Ted Thompson; Tryg Runsvold defeated Hal Vokav; Norman Westling defeated Bill Whalen, and Paul Preus vanquished Willie Pflueger. The second round was won by Score, Westling, and Paul Preus, and in the final match, Paul Preus emerged victorious over Stan Score, in a hard fought match.

Although not many entered the girls' tournament, those who did gave the onlookers plenty of thrills. In the final match, Dickie barely nosed out Jeanette Knutsen.

 Schmitz as Mr. Harper, Gilbert Sydow as Kirk Brightwell, Carl Martin as Uncle John, Shirley Hecht as Carrie Harper, Ervin Palmel as Parson Oden, Willie Pflueger as Bob Harper, and Ditle Quale as Mrs. Doler.

The winning group will be given a party by the two losing groups. At their meeting Monday, the club members voted to have the party Friday, May 5. The president appointed the group leaders as a committee to make general arrangements for the affair.

As this was the last scheduled meeting of the club this year, the president expressed his appreciation for the cooperation given him by the club members, particularly by the group leaders and those who worked on the repairing of the stage.
