Campus Voice gears up for summer

Welcome to the first summer edition of Campus Voice! Campus Voice will be published on the first Monday of the month June through August. The regular weekly schedule resumes in September. Don't forget to check us out on the PLU web site (<http://www.plu.edu>) under campus information. Back issues are also available on the site.

Saturday Markets held on Garfield St.

The summer Garfield Street Saturday Markets kicked off last weekend. The market runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. every Saturday and features fresh produce from local farms, and quality arts and crafts from area vendors.

AMA sponsors golf tournament

The PLU chapter of the American Marketing Association is hosting a summer Scramble Golf Tournament on June 22 at the PLU golf course. The entry fee is $35 per player and proceeds benefit PLU's chapter of AMA. The tournament is a four-person team scramble. Tee times start at 9 a.m. Call the PLU Pro Shop, 7393, after June 15 for your tee time. Arrive 30 minutes prior to your tee time for registration and tee favors. To register, call 360-923-5825, or email AMA@plu.edu.

Create a typical American dinner for Russian executives

The Center for Executive Development is looking for people to host groups of three or four Russian executives in a "typical American home" for dinner on July 1. The Russians are here to attend a two-week executive education program. At least one member of the group is able to speak English and will help facilitate conversations. Six or seven hosts are needed for the evening. Call Catherine Pratt, 7334, to sign up.

Be a host family

Host families are needed from July 19-Aug. 19 for Japanese high school students attending PLU's IELI program in Lakewood. Meals, shelter and transportation to classes are needed for each student. Classes are held Monday through Friday with one day reserved for field trips. Call April, 539-9052, by June 15 for more information.
