A Note from President Anderson

To all faculty and staff:

Last Sunday's (5/5/96) editorial in The News Tribune entitled, "A Streamlined PLU Regains Its Footing," shared significant good news about the university's progress over the last several years. There was, however, one major inaccuracy! The credit for what has happened belongs to no single individual, but to each of you who have been open to change, accepted yet additional duties, and -- through it all -- have rendered dedicated and outstanding service to our students. My thanks go to each of you. It is an honor to serve with you.

Q Club Banquet celebrates 25 years of giving scholarships

Q Club's 25th anniversary was celebrated with an awards banquet for all members on May 4 in Olson Auditorium. A number of PLU faculty and staff were honored for their giving. Of the 100 charter members that founded Q Club in 1972, 52 are still members and four of them are PLU faculty and staff. Honored were David and Carolee Berntsen (President's Circle), Edgar and Betty Larson (Senior Fellows), David and Anita Christian (Fellows) and Marlen and Ann Miller (Members). Awards were also given to members of the Lifetime Giving Society. PLU faculty Paul and Megan Benton were given the Mentors Award for lifetime giving totaling $50,000- $99,999. Sustainer awards ($25,000- $49,999) were given to PLU faculty and staff members Loren and MaryAnn Anderson, Luther and Lois Bekemeier (retired), Jan Brazzell and Wolfgang Opitz, David and Anita Christian, Kenneth and Phyllis
