Haiti's first Minister of Woman's Affairs to speak

Dr. Lise Marie Dejean, Haiti's Minister of Women's Affairs and Medical Director of KLINK FANM, will be speak at noon on Nov. 11 in Ramstad 204 on "Combating Rape as a Weapon of War in Haiti." An informal discussion will follow from 1-2:00 pm. Dr. Dejean will speak about how, historically, rape during war has been used to destroy not only individual women, but entire communities. She will confront war-time rape from an historical and international perspective and make connections between rape during war and violence against women that affects all of people's lives.

What would you like to see happen on Garfield Street?

At 7:30 pm on Nov. 10 at Parkland Christian Church, 12305 Spanaway Loop Road, Parkland Community Association presents Pierce County planners Rob Jenkins and Chip Vincent, plus Pierce County councilmen Brown and Madsen, to explain area planning, with focus on Garfield Street. Join concerned neighbors and business owners. For more info, call 537-7924.

Killen to speak on religious contour of Pacific Northwest

At 6 pm on Nov. 5 at the Student Union Building on the University of Puget Sound campus, Patricia O'Connell Killen, author and associate professor of religion at PLU, examines the religious contours of the Pacific Northwest, the religious demographics of Pierce County and the context of these statistics at the monthly dinner meeting of the City Club of Tacoma. Killen's research shows the Pacific Northwest is the least churched area of the US, but is the most religiously diverse region in the country because of the many alternative styles of worship available. Tickets are $15.50 pre-paid and 16.50 at the door. Reservations are required. Call City Club of Tacoma, 253-272-9561.
