Eisenhower Sweeps Poll

A random sample of voting preferences of students has shown that on this campus, in the presidential race, Eisenhower is an overwhelming favorite over any Democratic candidate. The poll was taken by Miss Nelson's Social Psychology class.

To the question, "If the election for President was held today for which would you vote?", 77% picked Eisenhower, 3.3% Stevenson, 7.4% chose Kefauver, 1.8% Harriman, and 3.7% did not know. For party sympathies, 59% aligned with the Republicans, 18.5% with the Democrats and 31.5% were undecided.

Leap Year Casualties Reach New High

1956 is surely a marrying year for this campus. With 38 weddings planned for the months of May through December, PLC students are showing a new spirit of unity.

Delores Carstensen, nee Beck, will graduate this weekend with not only a B.A. in education but also a fully accredited Mrs. degree. Her wedding took place in Almira, Wn., on May 1. She will join her husband, Richard, this summer in Germany where he is stationed.

Joanne Poencet will receive her diploma this Sunday as Mrs. Walton Berton, after a wedding in Seattle the evening of May 26. Our ex-editor and bride will reside in Parkland while Wally finishes his senior year here.

Senior Ray Reep surprised his friends by coming back to school this week with a wedding ring on the appropriate finger. Florence Magnuseen, class of '55, became his bride on Sunday, May 20, in Seattle.

Bev Pine will become Mrs. Bob McRae the evening of her graduation day, May 27. She weds her home-town sweetheart from Missoula, Montana, in Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Tacoma.

June brides this year will be: Nursing student Eleanor Martin, who will marry Sherrill J. Henderson of Seattle on June 2, Susanne Skubina will become the wife of Carl Lennard Nelson in Walla Walla on June 2, Ruth Sather and Jim Phillips plan a wedding in LaCrosse, Washington, for June 16. Following suit will be sophomores Ordetta Bechtel and Paul Hovland in Palo Alto, June 17. Both are returning to PLC in the fall to continue studies here.

First Lutheran Church in Tacoma will be the scene of the wedding ceremony of Margaret Cante and Robert Sopkovich on the 23rd, June 24, in American Falls, Idaho, sophomore Karen Misenheimer will wed Stanley Monson, now teaching at Franklin Pierce High in Tacoma. Freshman Mary Ellen King is returning to her home town in Anchorage, Alaska, where she will become Mrs. Gene Soules on June 30.

Bastille Day this year will be celebrated in an extraordinary manner by graduating seniors Ginny Grahn and Janet Geldaker. Both are planning weddings July 14. Ginny will wed Iver Haugen, Luther Seminary student and PLC graduate of '55, in Seattle. Ray Reipson, also class of '55, will marry Janet Geldaker in Portland.

The only other July wedding is planned by Senior Mimi Roule, who will wed Dave Schweinler in Hillsboro, Oregon, on the 20th of July.

August is the popular month for honeymooners, it seems, with ten, possibly eleven, couples making preparations for weddings. August 3rd in Seattle, junior Lis Omi will become the wife of ASPLC ex-prexy Dave Wold. Lis will finish her studies at Hamlin U. in St. Paul while Dave is at Luther Seminary.

The third weekend in this month will be a busy one for many people. Beverly Sveningson will wed Deyrol Anderson in Burlingame, California, on August 18. The same day in Seattle, Mary Alice Drexel will become Mrs. Dick Brown; while in Randall, Washington, Sue Slagle will become the wife of Ray Horton, her hometown sweetheart. Also, in Anacortes, Dick Barnwell will wed Janice Smeby, former PLC-ite. The following day three weddings will take place in the widely scattered states of Oregon, Nebraska and Utah. In Madras, Oregon, on August 19, fresh Priscilla Nance will marry James Parker. Our '55 Homecoming Queen, Annie Stewart, will become the bride of Warren Meyers, graduating senior, in Salt Lake City. President Eastvold's secretary for this past year, Trudy Obermeyer, will wed pre-seem senior Del Hutton in Carleton, Nebraska.

On Sunday, August 25, Mariys Salterbeck will become the bride of Ron Pfimmer in her hometown of Mt. Vernon. In Longview, Washington, freshman Cheri Mason will wed Mike Willis.

Ruth Myrswang and Bruce Dahl, both graduating this week, are planning a late summer wedding in Silvana, Washington. They will reside in St. Paul, Minnesota, where Bruce will enter Luther Seminary.

Fall weddings are in the plans for eight PLC couples. Freshmen Joyce Reese and Jack Claver will be married the first day of September, in Pasadena, California. Senior counselor and 1956 May Queen, Maude Straub, has waited many years for her wedding with Norm Schnadler, class of '55, who is now at Wartburg Seminary. This event will take place in Vancouver, B. C., on September 2. Also on that Sunday, junior pre-seem student Paul Lucky and Anne Hall, sophomores, will be married in their home town of Stanwood, Washington. Paul will continue his studies at PLC. On September 8 in the Richland Lutheran Church, sophomore Bob Ward will marry Coral Pritchard who attended school here last year. New planning to finish their senior year at this college as "Mr. and Mrs.," Agnes Hallanger and Michael Griffen will be married in Parkland on Sunday, September 9. In Port Angeles, senior Jean Cogburn will wed

Something To Say

by Merle Hanson

I would imagine that it is apparent to all that the general attitude of the students at this institution is one of gross indifference. However, it has been witnessed by some that a heretofore spasmodic interest is aroused on occasion only to fade away for lack of a continuous "arousing spark." Although impossible to cartail or control, possibly with guidance, some lasting good might stem from it.

It is seen this spark rekindled many times a and many structures on our campus. True, fire means destruction, but often antiquated buildings need to be rased in order to build more useful ones. However, when this is done, it is a controlled fire with a definite end in mind. It is fortunate indeed that some of the ill-fated flames died, since destruction was their only purpose; but some others were of value but died from lack of support.

If this interest and enthusiasm which is latent in the student body can be channeled correctly, much necessary and inevitable progress can be accomplished. I and my colleagues hope to help supply the direction and guidance, at least in part, next year. The strength must come from you, the students.

It will be interesting to see if either is manifested.

Seniors Give Grand Piano for West Hall

Representing the class of '56, Warren Meyers presented a grand piano for West Hall to President S. C. Eastvold, representing the college, at the annual Senior Day convocation this morning.

Following the program in chapel, Jerald Slatum, class president, assisted by Mildred Van Buren, treasurer, was slated to plant the traditional rhododendron.

This afternoon the seniors will have a picnic at Wapato Park.

I must confess I am guilty, at least in part, for this current rage on campus.

The story begins just before Labor Day when I was packing to come to college. I found the things in my closet and put them in the bottom of an already heaping grip amid jeers and laughs from Mom and Dad.

"But," I said, "maybe everyone wears them and I don't want to be without."

Wednesday, September 14, was the day I decided to find out. I went off campus I couldn't look out the windows and see what everyone else was wearing so I put them on and drove to Freshman Days. What a surprise to see the stares and laughs—yes, actually laughs when I was the only person on campus who wore Bermuda shorts!

"Well," I thought, "if that is the reception you (I was talking to the pants and socks) are going to get, back to the drawer you go."

A lot has changed since that day and today I can wear my Bermuda shorts any place on campus and be right conservative.

Of course getting the pants accepted was another thing. One night after Jerry Bayne came home from a shopping spree he showed the wing his new Bermudas. Everyone was amazed—except me, I was happy. At last someone else dared to be radical—dared to be different. That night we celebrated by wearing our shorts to the coffee shop. (I have learned that such things make better impressions in pairs). This time the jeers were not as loud and only a few girls that laugh at everything anyway let a smile cross their face. Great was the surprise when fellow students started wearing the "crazy pants" with knee socks during the day and even to classes.

What does a conservative college faculty think of such a move? It appears that one thing stands out in all faculty minds.

"This is the most sensational thing that has happened in twenty years," states Mr. Weiss of the music department.

Further questioning revealed that Mr. Weiss asked Dr. Eastvold when he would don a pair. Dr. Eastvold, it is said, smiled shyly and turned back to an academic conversation he was involved in.

Dean Ecklund thinks that the Swedish blood in the students won't permit the shorts to be more than just a passing fad. When asked if he would be seen in Bermudas the good Dean replied:

"With my figure? Why I'd look like a barrel on toothpicks!"

We made no further comment.

Pastor Roe shares the opinion that the shorts are just a fad. He recalls how the first pair he saw walk into his class made him laugh. He thinks they are great fun, but will not work into every fellow's wardrobe, least of all as evening attire. He cannot imagine a fellow in a Bermuda tux meeting a girl in an evening gown to go to a concert.

Mrs. Johnson of the English department thinks the shorts are fine (Continued on page four)

"I feel like a Coke.
Do you?"

Of course. Most everyone does—often. Because a few moments over-ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so. It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome—and naturally friendly to your figure. Feel like having a Coke?

Climaxing the spring sports calendar is the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' (NAIA) spring sports championships held in Renton this afternoon and all day tomorrow. Play will include a 36-hole golf tournament, tennis singles and doubles tourney, and the track and field events.

The meet is sponsored by the Renton Lions Club under the direction of Wilbur Luft, Renton High School. The track events will be held Saturday night in the Renton High School stadium starting at 7:30. The golf tourney will be held Friday and Saturday on the Maplewood Golf Course near Renton, while tennis matches will be played at the Seattle Tennis Club.

Ten small colleges from the State of Washington will send representatives to the meet, all schools in the Evergreen Conference except the University of British Columbia, plus Gonzaga University, Seattle Pacific College, Whitman College, and St. Martin's. Nearly 200 athletes are expected to participate in the three sporting events.

The winners at the Renton affair will qualify for the nationals June 8 and 9 in San Diego.

The field events will start at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow with the high jump and the javelin. PLC will have participants in both of these events as well as the discus, broad jump, and pole vault which are scheduled to start at 8:20 p.m. The only other event in which PLC will have an entry will be the 880-yard run which will start at 8:50.

Awards to the winners in all three sports will be made at the conclusion of the track meet.

Eastern Wins League Track Title, PLC Fifth

Eastern Washington Savages literally out-ran their opposition last Saturday in the Evergreen Conference track and field championships at Bellingham as they scored 87 points, with 19 coming in the distance runs. Pacific Lutheran College came in fifth, scoring 25 3/4 points.

Western Washington snared second place, garnering 76 1/2 points. Whitworth finished third with 67 1/2, followed by Central Washington with 35 1/2, PLC was fifth and the University of British Columbia was last with three points.

John Fromm and Dale Storaasli were the big guns for the Lutes as they each took a first in their events. Fromm hurled the javelin 210 feet, 9 inches, for the best effort of his career. Storaasli cleared the bar at 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches to take the high jump.

One new record was set at the meet as Eastern's Bob Farmer topped 13 feet, 2 1/2 inches to win the pole vault and erased the old mark of 12 feet, 9 inches set in 1952.

The summary:
Shot-put—Lashua, Whit.; Huston, EWC; Ward, Whit.; Nehr, WWC; Singley, Whit. 48 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

Ten Athletes In NAIA Meet

Looking forward to a weekend of stiff competition, 10 PLC athletes are preparing for the District One NAIA spring sports championships in golf, tennis, and track to be held in Renton today and tomorrow.

Bob Sparling will represent PLC in the 36-hole golf tournament to be held at the Maplewood Golf and Country Club. Bill Johnson and Jim Van Beek are slated to play in the tennis tourney, and the track team will send seven men, headed by John Fromm, winner of the conference javelin title this year.

Also making the trip with Fromm are Dale Storaasli, high jump; Tom Gilmer, high jump; Dale Schimke, broad jump and high jump; Galen Nusbaum, pole vault; Don Zarnot, 880; and Carl Searcy, discus.

Track coach Mark Salzman stated he felt that Fromm would have the best chance to bring home a first for the Lutes as his throw of 210 feet, 9 inches last week has bettered the previous District One record by over eight feet.

Fromm also isn't far from the national small college record of 213 feet. The winners at Renton will be sent to San Diego to compete in the national championships June 8-9.

Grant Awarded To Former PLC Student

Dick Nicholson, graduate of 1955, has been awarded a research grant at the University of Washington Medical School by the American Cancer Society. The grant is for summer study for three years with the micro-microscope. Nicholson is attending the Medical School at the present time.

Fiddle FADdle

 for sports wear and doesn't doubt but what many fellows will wear them for just that. She isn't too impressed with having them worn to her classes, but says she will not make a move to stop them, as long as they do not interfere with class work.

Speaking of fads in general Mrs. Johnson recalls the girls during the war wearing dirty saddle shoes. One girl in particular impressed her when she dunked a pair of new saddles into the mud before wearing them on campus.

She believes the shorts will not become as widely accepted as have bow ties, short narrow ties, and cuff links in the past few years.

Coch Coach Hareham regards the Bermuda fad as much more seasonal than the dirty corded fad that was prevalent when he was going to school in the early 40s. At that time he recalls how the boys would not think of washing a pair of cords until they would stand alone in a corner.

Professor Karl says he has worn

Bermudas for golfing for many years and thinks the fad on campus is here to stay as long as the warm weather continues. He does not plan to wear his shorts to classes; in spite of the fact that Mr. Eberson sported a pair at play practice last week.

Actually I could count only twenty some pair walking the campus, but if the warm weather continues who knows what may happen.

Is this a style revolution at PLC, or is it just another fad? Certainly it is a big change, and I might add, a change that makes for more casual, comfortable living. If you are not a wearer you don't know what you are missing.

Now it is time to pack the grip again, but you know what—I'm not going to put my Bermudas on the bottom of the suitcase; I'm going to wear them!

IT'S LIKE
 HAVING OUR CAKE
 AND EATING IT TOO!

Most people buy life insurance to protect their loved ones but end up by using it themselves.

Yes . . . it's like having your cake and eating it, too. There's no trick about it; just good business.

After protecting your family during the years when they need protection most, many insurance plans can still be used to provide money for old age.

Many policies return more . . . much more . . . at age 65 that has been put into them in the form of premiums. And when this money is returned, the policy has already protected the family for many years. Truly, this is twice putting the same dollar to work for you.

Tell me how I can make my dollar serve me twice!
