Campus Voice announces new editor

Katie (Nelson) Mosen has returned to PLU as the new Campus Voice editor. A '96 graduate with a biology major, chemistry emphasis, and publishing and printing arts minor, she was involved with writing at the Mast, as well as working as a resident assistant and with justice groups on campus. Mosen plans to attend graduate school in plant ecology in the future, and to someday combine her science and writing selves. She begins her editorial work with this issue and uses this opportunity to remind contributors that Campus Voice items are due at 5 pm on Mondays for the following week's publication.

Sweatshops in Nicaragua and the US consumer

Ana Maria, a garment worker in a US-owned factory in Nicaragua, is coming to PLU to tell the story of her labor and give suggestions to US consumers interested in promoting fair working conditions worldwide. The presentation is the first of "Christians, Rebels and Sweatshops," a three-part lecture series focusing on Mexico and Central America. The date has changed from the flyer. The lecture will begin at 3 pm on Oct. 4 in the Regency Room. A $2 donation will be collected at the door.

Hacker speaks at Women's Club Brunch

The PLU Women's Club's first meeting features prof. Colleen Hacker (PE), speaking on women and sports medicine and her recent experience as psychologist of the gold-medal US Olympic women's

Workers dive into pool repairs

Rehabilitation of the pool is going swimmingly and it should be open by Oct. 21, according to Dave Wehmhoefer, capital projects manager. Workers began an aesthetic upgrade of the building -- painting and so forth -- in August, but found much more serious damage to the main structural supports of the building due to leakage and condensation. Those repairs, as well as painting of the exterior, should be done by the end of October. During Christmas break, the interior walls and the pool will be repainted and restrained. If there are contingency funds left over, Wehmhoefer says, the locker rooms may be upgraded.

PLU sponsors Nova

If you happen to be channel surfing on Thursday nights, be sure to tune in to Nova on KBTC at 8 pm. PLU will be sponsoring the educational program from October through December. Remember to stay until after the credits for PLU's sponsorship message. KBTC is channel 28 on TVs without cable, channel 3 on TCI cable and channel 28 on Viacom. The program repeats at 8 pm on Sundays.

soccer team. All women on campus are invited to the meeting, which begins at 10 am on Oct. 5. For more info., call Nancy Nelson, 7172, call Lee Zulauf, 537-5894 for reservations. (Note: the date is a correction of last week's misprint).

Rotary scholarship available

Interested in international relations? A Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarship information meeting will be held at 3:45 to 4:45 pm on Oct. 3 in UC 206 to describe the scholarship, an opportunity for US citizens to experience undergraduate or graduate overseas study in 1998-99 and become a goodwill ambassador for international understanding and friendly relations.

Study abroad opportunities

Join the Institute of European Studies and the Institute of Asian Studies for appetizers and study abroad stories at an open house from 4-6 pm on Oct. 8 in the Regency Room. IES and IAS offer study abroad programs in countries including Argentina, Russia, Italy, China, and Australia. For additional information about IES and IAS, call (800) 995-2300, write to them at recruit@isesias.org, or visit their homepage, www.iesias.org.

[\[ Table of Contents \]](#)

The Administrative/Staff Council would like to introduce its 1996-97 members. The council meets every second and fourth Monday of the month from 12-2 pm to discuss administration and staff issues. The group's members are: Chair: Marie Wutzke, Provost Vice Chair: Michele Folsom, Finance and Operations Recorder: Ginger Peck, Provost Treasurer: Nancy Burkholder, Finance and Operations Representative to the Budget Advisory Committee: Dean Johnson, Development Linda Christensen, Finance and Operations Brian Hall, President's Office/Church Relations Pam Martin, President's Office Susan Mkrtecian, Student Life Phyllis Meyerhoff, Student Life Eric Peckham, Finance and Operations Kerry Swanson, Development

Miscellaneous

Nancy Martinson and Alina Urbanec will continue to represent the council on the university's Long Range Planning Committee. Plans are in the works for the second annual Veteran's Day commemoration at PLU to take place on Nov. 11.

Meeting notes

Susan Mann (Human Resources) was the guest at the Sept. 23 council meeting. Issues surrounding the new benefits package as well as the reaction from PLU employees were discussed. Mann said more extensive information meetings on the benefits are planned for mid-November, during the open-enrollment period.

Thank you

The council recognizes the extraordinary efforts in the revision of the benefits package. Many changes were made as a result of concerns brought up through the council, such as increasing tuition remission and addressing the inequalities for staff in long-term disability benefits.
