

knightletter

VOL 5 NO 10 Pacific Lutheran University December 14, 1967

More "Window Art" on Page Three

Merry Christmas

ROUNDTABLE

Welcome to two new secretaries: Elke Gentsch in the registrar's office and Yvonne Piper, faculty secretary in Xavier Hall . . . Louise Fountain is now working in the business office . . . Anne E. Knudsen (English) returned home from the hospital Wednesday . . . it is not known as of this writing when she will return to work . . . Morris Torvik, '64, well known Seattle Lutheran layman, was struck and killed by a car Sunday in Seattle . . . he was buried Thursday . . . his wife and two children attended PLU . . . Jon Olson, director of alumni relations, will speak at a gathering of Whatcom County Alumni Friday night in Bellingham . . . Lt. (j.g.) Jan Gilbertson, USNR, son of the Gordon Gilbertsons (music) left Wednesday for a tour of duty in Viet Nam aboard a river patrol craft . . . Lt. Jerrold Olson, USN, PLU grad and son of Rev. and Mrs. Roy Olson, visited the campus this week enroute to Corvallis, Ore., where he will be stationed with the USNROTC unit at Oregon State University . . . David Christian (radio-television) has been elected to the Seattle chapter of Broadcast Engineers' Inc., a national professional organization . . . R. Byard Fritts (music) will be guest organist for the Christmas Concert at the Main Chapel on Fort Lewis Monday evening . . . Arnold Hagen (education) will leave for a Phi Delta Kappa national meeting in Nashville, Tenn., on Dec. 27 and return to Tacoma on the 29th.

MUSIC The Choir of the West will give its annual downtown Christmas
ON AIR Concert in the lobby of the Bank of California from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., Monday. Following the program the choir members will be guests of the bank at a luncheon in the Tacoma Club in the Washington Building.

The Choir's concert will be broadcast over KTNT (1410 kc) at 1:35 p.m., Monday, and the Madrigals will be heard Sunday, Dec. 24, at 3 p.m., on KTAC (850 kc).

BIRTHDAYS (cont'd.)

Richard Jobst                      January 1 and Walter Bruget                "        "

Mary Tatro                          January 2 and Ona Mae Smith                "        "

John Larsgaard                    January 3

CHRISTMAS PLU's Curtain Call Club will stage its annual presentation of Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol" Monday in Eastvold Auditorium.

Tickets for the 8:15 p.m., play may be purchased at the door, or reserved by calling PLU's ticket office.

As is the custom, most of the actors are seasoned veterans of the play. Once a student is cast for a role, he retains it throughout his college career.

David Richardt will enact the part of Scrooge for the third time. Other veterans are Richard Crouse, Dennis Flath, Bruce Govig, Dennis Goin, Sharon Gephardt, Julie Halvorsen, Helen Hardtke, Anne Nehser, and Sandra Sandford.

Dr. Abe Basset, assistant professor of speech, will act as narrator, and his son Douglas will again play the part of Tiny Tim.

BIRTHDAYS

Eric Nordholm	December 14
Arthur Martinson	December 15
Ruth Thorson	December 16
Jean Scafe	December 17
Vivian Arpke	December 19
and Joseph Seleya	"        "
Paul Ulbricht	December 20
and Harold Bexton	"        "
Stuart Bancroft	December 21
Dorothy Bailey	December 22
and Carol Hurd	"        "
Margaret Cupp	December 23
and George Elwell	"        "
Karin Durham	December 25
and Elizabeth Lee	"        "
Carolyn Stuen	December 28
Harold Leraas	December 30
Judi Zahnow	December 31

art work as found on the windows of PLU's womens residence halls

Nursing Student Receives Honor

Joanne Marie Schnaidt, a senior at Pacific Lutheran University, has been selected "Student Nurse of the Year" by the State of Washington Associated Nursing Students (SWAN).

She was chosen on the basis of academic achievement, clinical proficiency, and involvement in her pre-professional organizations.

Miss Schnaidt is second vice president of SWANS. She will now travel for the organization to speak throughout the state.

PLU's nursing school is displaying a traveling trophy, and Miss Schnaidt has a small scholarship as a result of the selection.

Ellen Schnaible Plans Recital

Ellen Schnaible, a junior music major, will present her debut recital this week at Friday Noon Music. The program starts at 12:30 p.m., Friday, in Eastvold Auditorium.

She will perform songs by Vivaldi, Scarlatti, and Schubert; a song cycle of Emily Dickinson poems by Ernst Bacon; and a chanson from Gounod's opera "Romeo et Juliette".

Miss Schnaible is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, and sings with the Choir of the West, Madrigals, and several campus groups.

Last summer she sang with a popular group which appeared at the Dallas, Texas, Luther League Convention.

Her accompanist Friday will be Darlene Olson, a sophomore music-education major.

Business Fraternity Initiates Members

Pacific Lutheran University's chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, national business fraternity, initiated 13 members at its semi-annual banquet last Saturday.

George Russell, president and general manager of the Tacoma Publishing Co, spoke.

New members are Michel Amdal, Roger Benson, Lee Crump, Douglas DeLong, David Erbes, Richard Gesinger, Kenneth Johnsen, George Long, Gary Longmuir, Alan Merritt, Richard Ross, James Skog and Wayne Suter.

School Seeks Tutors

Pacific Lutheran University's office of student affairs is seeking tutors to help struggling students.

Persons with strong backgrounds in particular subjects are asked to contact Bill Lennon, director of men's residence halls, to arrange for appointments and discuss fees.

Contact Lennon at Tingelstad Hall, or leave your number at the student affairs' office.

Weary Knights Face Western

The Pacific Lutheran University Knights end their 1967 basketball campaign Friday against the Western Washington Vikings at Bellingham.

It will be the team's sixth game in a grueling pre-conference warm-up period. It hasn't been an exceptional three weeks for the Lutes. They lost three of their five games, and Friday's opponents will provide another tough contest.

Last week-end the Lutes beat Portland State in the second game of the Daffodil Classic. The Portland school did not live up to its press clippings and finished the tournament in fourth place.

The Lutes lost the championship game to the Loggers of University of Puget Sound, the only team to suffer a defeat at the hands of the Parkland club prior to the tournament.

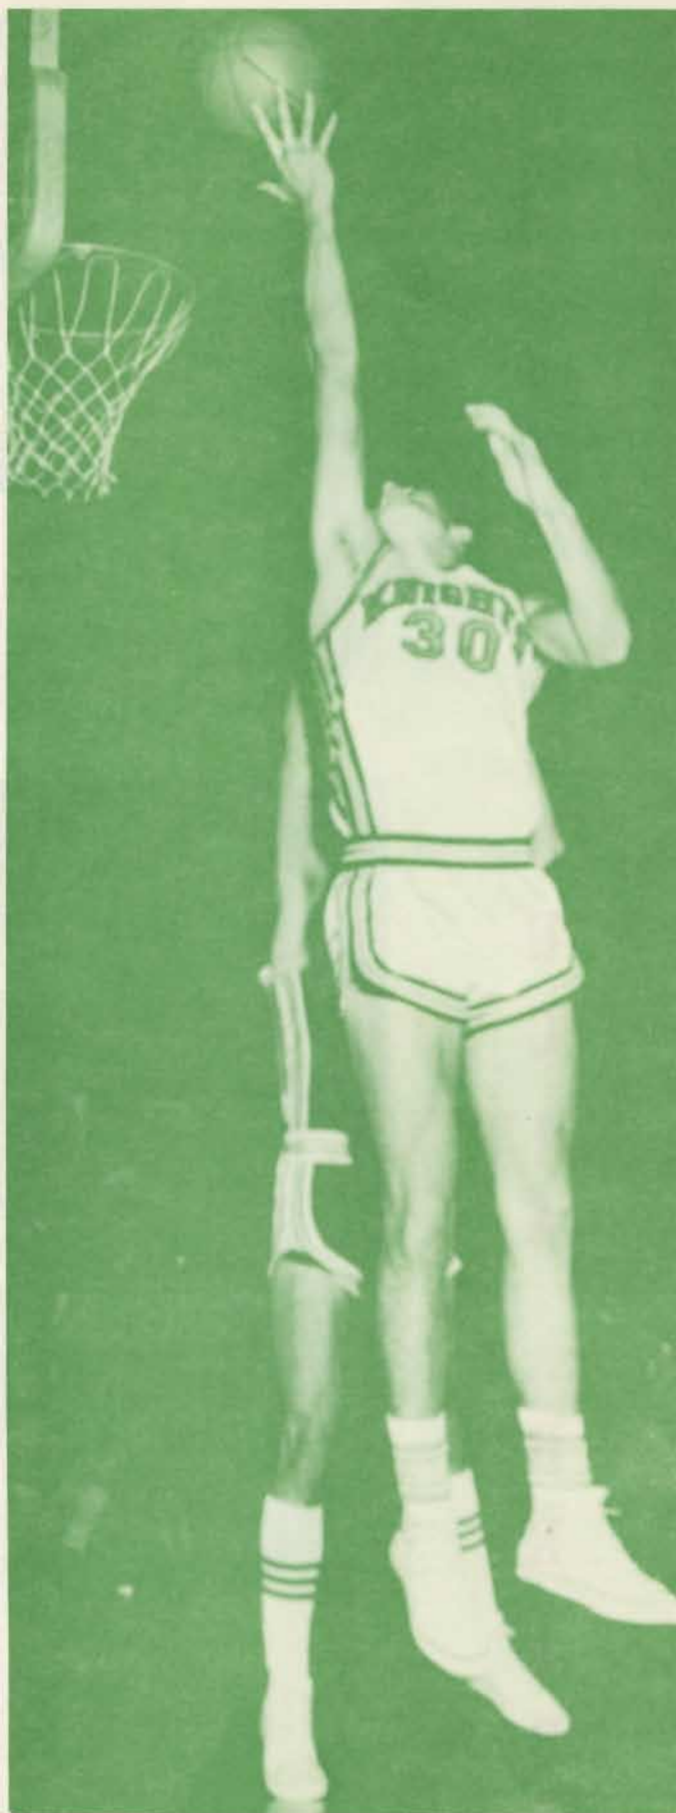

And to the winners went the spoils. UPS had the most valuable player and three members on the all-tournament team. Had PLU won the tournament, it is safe to bet that the Lutes would have placed Leroy Sinnes on the all-star team along with Al Kollar.

Following Friday's encounter the Lutes retire from basketball play until opening at home on Jan. 5 against an improved Pacific University squad.

Kollar Again Makes All-Tournament Team

Al Kollar, PLU's sensational sophomore center, was the only repeater on the Daffodil Classic's all-star team.

He set two new records in the tournament and tied another. He now shares the single game record (38 points); is in sole possession of total points for tournament (56) and most field goals (23). Sinnes set a free throw percentage record and Dennis Buchholz tied for most free throw attempts.

Kollar connects for two points with his under-the-basket hook shot against Portland State College.

L
U
C
I
A

B
R
I
D
E

Judith Zatterberg

