

EAST AND WEST NATIONAL Y.P.L. JUNE 22 TO 25

Anticipation High; Success a Certainty, First Appearance of Such a Meeting in West, "Christ First"

The students and faculty of Pacific Lutheran College are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to the annual convention of the Young People's League which will be held at Seattle from June 25 to 30. For the first time in the history of the Young People's League the convention will be on the Coast. It is the fourth convention of its kind and the people of the Coast are proud that the Puget Sound has been chosen for its meeting place. The convention sessions will be held in the First Presbyterian church; the Sunday sessions however will be held in the University Stadium. It will be the first time that so large a number of the leading men and women of our church will appear together on a program so far West. Some of the best speakers will aid in the discussion of the theme, "Christ First." Hon. R. A. Nestos, former governor of North Dakota, member of our General Board of Education will be the main speaker on Sunday afternoon. Many leading men of the church who are vitally interested in the convention, such as College presidents, professors, pastors, foreign missionaries, and church workers will appear on the program.

The music will be an essential part of the program. The two leading musical organizations of our church will be present to give (Continued on Page 4)

D.O.R. HOLDS LAST SOCIAL MEETING

The D. O. R. Girls were entertained on May 3 by Mrs. Ph. Hauge at her home. It was the last meeting and a social gathering.

The following program was given by the girls: Vocal solo, "My Task" by Arleida Allen; Reading, "Versatility of Christ," Esther Sydow; Vocal Solo, "Friend of Mine," by Hannah Anderson; Reading, "Attending the Lyceum" (opera) by Margaret Jacobson. The president presented to Mrs. Ramstad, the advisor, a silver cake plate, for the invaluable aid which she has given the girls in their work during the year. Mrs. Ramstad thanked the girls for their kindness and made a review of the year's work and suggested plans for the future.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Hauge served a delicious luncheon.

ONE-ACT PLAYS FEATURE WEEK

The Oral Expression Class of Pacific Lutheran College presented a group of five one-act plays in the college gymnasium Saturday, April 30, under the supervision of Prof. Ph. E. Hauge. The cast for each play was well chosen and proved its ability by presenting the plays admirably. Each play was of a different type and was very well received by the audience.

"Fennel," a drama in which a hunch-backed violin maker realizes his great ambition only to have the sweet mixed with bitterness, deserves special mention. The cast included Arnt Oyen, Mae Fredrickson, Ingal Fedt and Alice Caspersen. Ingal Fedt playing the part of the hunch-backed violin maker showed remarkable ability.

"O Joy San" with its picturesque Japanese setting was also very well received. The cast of this play includes Mrs. Buttorf, Ruth Matson, Mrs. Barkemeyer, Marie Espeseth, Victoria Rasmussen and Palma Johnson. Victoria Rasmussen showed remarkable ability as "O Joy San."

"Popping the Question" proved to be an interesting unraveling of a plot in which mistaken ideas created a comical angle. The cast appearing in this play were: Jerdis Nordang, Stella Samuelson, Sophie Peterson, Olga Benson, Neida Six and Mrs. Buttorf.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN CLASS PLAY PRACTICES

The Seniors are now busy in preparation for the performance of "Bab" a comedy in four acts to be given on Friday, May 13.

The plot of "Bab" involves the story of an impulsive girl of seventeen who having just come home from finishing school determines to shock her family by creating an imaginary lover. The complications that this plan brings forth is enough to send the gloomiest of spectators into paroxysms of laughter. The name of the lover is chosen from a malted-milk tablet and his photograph is purchased at a stationery shop. Greater complications arise when her fictitious lover appears as a living reality to claim his own. The public has been invited to come and see the unraveling of this plot.

The enthusiasm of the cast seems to indicate that the play will be one of the outstanding plays given by the graduating classes of P. L. C.

DEBATE SQUAD '27 RECEIVE LETTERS

Eighteen Debators Receive Letters at Chapel:

The Debate letters were given to members of the debate squad at chapel exercises, Tuesday, May 3. Mr. Hauge, coach, presented the letters to the debaters and among other things remarked that this debating season had been unusually successful, and hoped that in the years to come the students might show as much interest in debating as they had this year.

Arthur Knutzen, Henry Kiel, and Arnt Oyen have been members of the debating squad for three years. Aliver Beck, Irene Dahl, and Alice Davie have debated for the past two years.

Those receiving letters were: High School teams: Irene Dahl, Olaf Ordal, Peter Grambo, Edna Brotnov, Lyle Kreidler, Gerhard Lane. College Girls team: Christ-Una Knutzen, Alice Davie, Ruth Matson, Victoria Rasmussen, Marie Espeseth and Louise Henriksen. College Mens Teams: Arnt Oyen, Arnt Knutzen, Henry Kiel, Arling Sanerud, and Aliver Beck.

The main feature of the evening will be a biographic lecture on Handel, the "Father of Oratorio," by Rev. O. J. Edwards.

Prof. Joseph Edwards will give a few selections from Handel and Bach on the pipe organ.

Mr. Richard Overholt, of Tacoma, will render several vocal selections from Handel. The Trinity Lutheran Choir, assisted by P. L. C. Ornette, will sing "Messiah" numbers.

NEW CATALOGUE CHANGES OFFERS

Will Be Out During Week of May; In Hands of Printer Now; Many Changes Listed

Several changes will be noticeable in the new catalogue which will be edited in the first part of May. The outstanding change occurs in the reorganization of the Junior College into three very distinct curriculums.

Instead of the General Course heretofore offered the curriculum is divided into a Liberal Arts Course, a Course in Business Administration, and a Secretarial Course. These curriculums are based on similar courses at higher institutions of learning.

The course in Business Administration is designed to train students in business methods and principles, enabling them to meet the growing demands of the business world more clearly and definitely. The Secretarial Course will enable students to leave Pacific Lutheran College fully prepared to obtain positions as secretaries, or similar employment and give satisfactory service.

The Normal Department Curriculum remains the same with the exception of a change of the required course of Psychology of School subjects to a course in Methods and Observation. Several additions have been made.

Prof. Ph. E. Hauge, Registrar, said, "the reorganization of the General Junior College Course into three distinct curriculums was brought about by a growing demand. By meeting this demand we hope to add many new students next year."

DR. TINGELSTAD COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER JUNE 8

Baccalaureate Service to Be Conducted by Rev. H. G. Stubb, President Emeritus of Church

Dr. O. A. Tingelstad, registrar of Luther College, is to be the speaker at the commencement Exercises to be held in the gymnasium Wednesday evening, June 8th. Dr. Tingelstad is an alumnus of the Pacific Lutheran Academy. He is now chairman of the alumni drive on the present Endowment Campaign for P. L. C.

Dr. H. G. Stubb, president emeritus of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America has been invited to give the baccalaureate sermon. The baccalaureate service will be held Sunday evening, June 5th, in the Trinity Church.

The annual Class Day program will be presented by the graduating class Tuesday evening, June 7, in the gymnasium. The program for Class Day will be published in a later issue.

ORDAL REPORTS ON TRIP SOUTH

At a conference in Seattle between various pastors and the Board of Trustees for P. L. C. it was unanimously decided to send President Ordal and Rev. L. C. Foss, former president of Pacific District, to Oregon and California to perform certain details in the work for the Endowment Fund Campaign.

The first stop of these two men was at Eugene, Oregon, where the two pastors held a short conference with Rev. Bogstad. In California the first stop was San Francisco. Here they held a conference with Dr. E. M. Steinarud, Endowment Chairman for the state of California. According to a decision reached, a meeting of all the Bay City pastors (as well as neighboring pastors) was called where much was accomplished in formulating plans.

Rev. Ordal said, "The California pastors have always shown themselves to be men of vision and efficiency and both Rev. Foss and I left with the conviction that California will be heard from when the Endowment Fund Drive is completed."

At Los Angeles Rev. Foss was the home guest of Rev. and Mrs. Eger, and Rev. Ordal the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Hoff. A meeting was held at Our Saviors Church, Los Angeles, where pastors Hoff, Eger, Maekstad, Foss and Ordal succeeded in perfecting plans for the South California situation. The pastors are 100 per cent ready to do their share and such places as could not be reached personally on this trip will be cared for by neighboring pastors.

One pleasant memory from their visit at Los Angeles was the time spent at the California Lutheran Hospital. Superintendent Gust Olson and Miss Swalestuen took the visiting pastors through the building. There is no doubt but that the California Lutheran Hospital is one of the best equipped of hospitals anywhere.

On Monday and Thursday Rev. Foss and Rev. Ordal had the pleasure of attending services in Rev. Fuhrns new church in San Diego, after Easter.

One Party Plus One Party Equals Two Parties!

By a Girl

At last! The boys realized the seriousness of their debt and gave that long hoped for party on Saturday, April 9. It was a good one too. Yes, we were not joking. Not a bit of it. Talk about your costume parades. Why; there was everything from the Queen of Sheba to the village milkmaid. The judges of the costumes were so undecided that the grand march became almost as strenuous as Hannibal's passage through the Alps. Wonder where Jerdis and Mabel Nordang excoriated those ancient relics. And weren't Margaret Jacobson and Hilman Magell the sweetest couple? One of the main features of the program was the Indian War Dance led by Chief Rain-in-the-Face Lonneberg. But everything was so nothing in comparison to the eats.

Banana cream pie, drowned in whipped cream with orange punch. What do you think of that now? Evidently the eats had good effect upon the spirits of the crowd as merriment prevailed for the remainder of the evening. It is guaranteed that Rip Van Winkle himself would have turned in his sheep had he only been there. The girls were quite assured, when the party was over, that there is some truth in the maxim—"slow but sure."

By a Boy

It seems as though the girls Pop Club "got mad or sumpn'" and so they retaliated on the Dorm men and invited them to a party in the recreation room. This all happened Saturday evening, April 23. All the boys insisted that, if all and sundry re-taliations were so becomingly and liberally carried out, they would be quite willing to be the retaliates any old time.

One thing that charmed us (the men) especially was the acting out by a few of the girls, a portion of their dorm life (during study hours). It was a sort of an in-sight, slide-light up outlet of information that quite pleased the whole audience. We wonder tho—did they show all of their life, or lives, or did they just pick out special parts for our benefit?

And didn't we like the refreshments tho. I'll squander every golden dime I own. And then came the fun. Games and lots more fun. Only too soon did Old Father Time tip his glass upside down and many and varied good nights were hurriedly (?) (partaken of.)

EDITOR'S NOTE

Contrary to the general question: "What's wrong with this picture?" we of the College Freshmen English class ask you, "What's wrong with this paper?" The edition of this issue by the "Mighty Half-dozen" marks the completion of their second project in the pursuit of more and better English. No doubt the members of the regular staff are at this moment "laughing up their sleeves," but still they are the only ones who can properly appreciate our anguish and despair as the paper goes to press.

I AM THIRD

A young man on his arrival at a certain college of the middle west placed above his desk these words, "I am third." His schoolmates on coming into his room, questioned him as to its meaning. He answered them by saying "God is first, others second, and I am third."

The fact that God is first is always emphasized but how often do we realize that the "other fellow" comes next. How many students at P. L. C. are applying this to their daily life? Is it YOUR motto? If not, why do make it yours now? There is no doubt but that it is a principle that is accorded in every life: in every phase of life.

We often do things from a selfish standpoint, but few from the viewpoint of placing "others" in a position superior to us. Our actions very often cry out "I am first, I am first." Let us change this to "I am third, others before me." You will find that in the game of life, "Others second" will lead the way. Do not forget in your daily task the phrase "I am third." And never forget also the other two mottoes "God first, others second." There is an ever-increasing cry of service—do not be the one to fail. Do your duty by living up to "God first, others second and I am third." — L. M. H.

On the first page of the Mooring Mast there is an article about the Young People's Luther League Convention in Seattle and since the East is so enthusiastic about it, it behooves the Lutherans of the West to be more so. Let us as hosts prove our enthusiasm by boosting the convention in every possible way. Let us extend the glad hand to our co-leaguers of the East and show them that the hospitality of the West is not merely a bygone tradition but that it is a reality that will show itself in words and deeds. — L. M. H.

THE JUNIOR COLLEGE

During the last two decades there has appeared upon the educational scene a new unit that is asking for recognition—the Junior College. It offers two years of work that is acceptable to colleges and universities, and in so doing it acts as a connecting link between the secondary and college education. The University of Oregon has lately reorganized its curriculum on this basis. The Junior College in itself can complete the education of a student in a well rounded general way so that certain kinds of trades and occupations can be given a student that has completed this work.

The Junior College idea places the last two years of college work on so high a level that the university will function only as a university should function. It frees them from the obligation of carrying on extension work on the freshman and sophomore level. The Junior College will also serve the interest of a more capable student because of the individual attention that is given. He has a better chance to make something of himself and does not have so many handicaps to overcome as does the good student in a larger school. — I. M. F.

CHAPEL TALKS

St. John—Chapt. 4.

The word "worship" is found several hundred times in the Bible as it has a great many meanings. It is one of the few great things in human life and yet is one of the most abused in human life.

What is the mission of "worship"? It is to try to make us look up from our daily grind and work. It is to create courage when we are weak. It is to build an altar in our homes and in our lives.

Imagine what would happen on this earth if the idea of worship was wiped out. Take worship away from Art and Music and what would we have left? It is a thing that we ought to cling to.

Some say there is no one worthy of worship but they do not know Christ. As Christ says it does not matter where we worship. It only matters how and when we worship. True worship should awaken in us the spirit of God.—Prof. J. U. Xavier.

John 4:23.

"And the woman then left her water pot."

Although this is a seemingly insignificant phrase, it is one of utmost importance. The Holy Spirit would have it so else why was it written? The casual reader of the Bible thinks that it is cluttered up with useless words, however, the Bible was inspired by the Holy Spirit and every word has its place and meaning.

Christ came into this woman's life by revealing to her the life she had led—a life that was growing harder to bear—a burden becoming too heavy to bear. But when the woman returned to her, her water pot, it was with a sense of joy and pleasure in doing her daily task because Jesus Christ had come into her life and made her burden lighter.

And so it is with you students. In whatever vocation you choose it is very important that you permit Christ, the Holy Spirit, to enter your lives. If you do not you will lose that sense of pleasure in a task done willingly and well.

Rev. Simundson.

REV. HENRIKSON REPORTS DRIVE

List of Men Coming From the East to Help in Drive Published

Preparations for the Endowment Campaign are nearing completion and the prospects for a successful drive are brighter than ever. Let us never forget the fact that those who have gone out from a Christian School such as Pacific Lutheran College are not going to fall in showing their appreciation for the blessing received.

The fact that many years have gone by since they left the class rooms only tends to make them appreciate so much more the value of a Christian Education. They look back upon the years gone by and they can now see what life would have been if they had not been able to daily enjoy the sustaining power of an education based on the principle that God Himself has given us in His Bible, and we may rest assured that they are going to make use of this opportunity to show their appreciation. They know what a large Endowment will mean for their school.

No, we do not know how large the Endowment will be, but when have the Alumni and former students failed to go over the top, beyond all expectations, when the opportunity presented itself?

Our ideal seems going to cover a period of five years. We can do great things in five years. Let us begin to think about it now. Let us plan to give as much as we think we possibly can, and depending on God's blessing as we always should do—give a little more. Dr. J. A. Aagaard, president of our church has brooded the services of 31 pastors, professors, and others including Dr. H. G. Stub who has volunteered his services for canvassing the field. They all want to help in making a greater P. L. C. for the future for they understand the need of such an institution on the Pacific Coast. We thank them for the sacrifice they are making for us in leaving their fields of labor and giving us so much of their valuable time and experience. We are going to show them what we appreciate this and they will find us ready to join them when they come. We are counting on the Alumni and former students to set the pace and make this—we are not going to be disappointed.

We are giving the names of those who are coming out this summer to help us put over the campaign. Dr. H. G. Stub, Litt. D., President Emeritus of our church; Rev. O. J. H. Preus, Pres. of Eastern districts; Doc. L. W. Boe, Pres. of St. Olaf College; Dr. Oscar Olson, Pres. of Luther College; Rev. J. N. Brown, Pres. of Concordia College; Rev. J. O. Tweten, Pres. Luther Academy; Dr. O. E. Brandt, Luther Theological Seminary; Dr. O. A. Tingstad, Registrar of Luther College; Rev. S. J. N. Yvisaker, Member of Board of our church; Rev. H. G. Magleson, member of church extension board and also of the Home Mission Board; Rev. N. M. Yvisaker, Executive Secretary of Y. P. L. C.; Rev. G. S. Froland, Rev. C. S. B. Hoel, ex-secretary of Home Mission Board; Dr. A. J. Boe, Rev. J. H. Myrland, Rev. A. M. Krabbe, Rev. H. A. R. Helzen, Prof. H. Nordlie, Concordia College; Rev. C. S. Thomson, Rev. Ivar Sonderberg, Rev. Z. Jondal, former president of Augustana College, Rev. O. Shefvland, Rev. B. E. Bergeson, Rev. S. A. Berge, sec. of Iowa district, Rev. L. E. Kleppe, Rev. Clarence Haugen, Rev. S. C. Eastvold, Rev. A. J. Vahjer, Rev. S. D. Disrud, Rev. E. C. Haavik, Rev. C. M. Hallanger, Rev. O. C. Fjellstad, Rev. Olaf Lysnes; Rev. John Arneson.

All these men are willing to do so much for P. L. C. How much more should we not be willing to do, and God will bless our efforts. P. L. C. shall have an Endowment Fund, that shall be a real blessing in all the days to come.—Rev. Geo. Henriksen.

COACH RAMSTAD AWARDS LETTERS

Ten Girls and Eight Boys Given Laurels in Recognition of Year's Work

Last Thursday amid a lot of enthusiasm Coach Ramstad presented athletic letters to the girls' and boys' basketball teams.

In review of the years work, Mr. Ramstad stated that basketball during this last season had been one of the most successful in years. He made special note of the fact that the girls team had won 10 games and lost but three, a record that is one of the best, if not the best in the state.

The girls receiving letters were: Margaret Jacobson, Gladys Jorgenson and Thelma Benston, guards; Christina Knutzen, jump center; Marie Gardin, Victoria Haasmussen and Leola Hagen, side centers; Edna Brotzov, J. center and forward; Agnes Wierson and Captain Palma Langlow, forwards.

On behalf of the Girls Basketball team, Polly Langlow presented Mr. Ramstad with a small basketball trophy as a token of his splendid work throughout the year as their coach.

The boys' given letters were: Arthur Knutzen, Lyell Kreidler, Gerhard Lane, Ingval Fedt, Walter French, Wilbert Nyman, William Hopper, and Captain Rudolph Sanderson.

Five players will be lost next year through graduation—Agnes Wierson, Christina Knutzen, Leola Hagen, Polly Langlow and Arthur Knutzen, having played their last game for P. L. C.

As a climax to the program was the presentation of a surprise letter to Beulah Conley, official yell leader of '26 and '27 in appreciation of the splendid support she had given the teams by leading enthusiastic yells.

Pacific Lutheran College has special reason for pride in its team material in that an Ohio girl having claim to high point champion in basket shooting in the U. S. falls 68 points below record made by Polly Langlow, P. L. C. forward.

The presentation of letters is memorial each year in any school and in fitting closing Beulah led in uproaring yells for teams and coach. Norris Langlow led in a return yell for Beulah and this brought to a close another mile stone day in P. L. C. athletic history.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT SCHEDULED

A tennis tournament has been scheduled with Centralia Junior College for May 14, at Centralia. The teams which as yet have not been picked, will be composed of two boys and two girls. The tournament will consist of eight matches: two boys' singles, two girls' singles, one boys' doubles, one girls' doubles and two mixed doubles.

Plans are also being made to schedule tournaments with Kapowni High School and College of Puget Sound.

Tennis Tournament Well Under Way

The boys doubles in the tennis tournament has been played, off Rudy Sanderson and Bill Nyman winning from Stanley Dahl and Olat Ordal in the finals by a score of 8-6, 7-5 and 6-4.

The girls' doubles have reached the semi-finals, Polly Langlow and Agnes Wierson to play Marguerite Folco and Allice Davie for the championship.

The remainder of the tournaments are not as far advanced but all of them should be completed by Saturday, May 7.

P. L. C. BOYS WIN OPENING GAME

Al Beck Pitches Good Ball For Lutherans, Final Score 7-4

The Pacific Lutheran College won its first game of the season Tuesday April 12, from Fife High School by a score of 7-4.

Al Beck doing the chucking for the Lutherans kept the home team to four scattered hits. Three runs resulting from one hit and two errors placed the Fife team in the lead the first inning. They were however given only one run in the remaining four innings, the game being called at the end of the fifth inning.

The lineup was: Art Knutzen, 3rd base; Henry Kiel, Rt. Field; Rudy Sanderson, 2nd base; Ingval Fedt, short stop; Arnie Thostenson, left field; Milton Grambo, center field; Al Beck, pitcher; Arling Semnerud, catcher; Clarence Lund, 1st base; Norris Langlow ran for Grambo in the fifth inning as Milton twisted his knee while sliding into third base.

P. L. C. LÖSES SLUGFEST TO PARKLAND TEAM

P. L. C. lost to Parkland Men's team Saturday, April 23, by a score of 9-6.

In the fifth inning the college boys were leading by a score of 4-1 when errors resulted in four runs that put the mens team in the lead. With the bases full in the seventh inning, Joe Glusso made a three base hit putting the game on ice for the visitors. A rally in the ninth by the college fell short, only two runs scoring.

Mr. Jensen of Hopper-Kelly Co. presented Pacific Lutheran College with a catalogue containing a list of the works of all composers reproduced on the Ampico Player. The various selections are listed with comments and each accompanied with a short biography of the composer. This catalogue will make a valuable addition to the library and will be very helpful and useful to the students interested in music.

OFFICIALS ADOPT ATHLETIC RULES

Northwest Inter-Collegiate Laws Accepted by Coaches at Meet

The Junior College Conference officials held their last meeting at the College of Puget Sound, Saturday, April 30.

The rules that govern the Northwest inter-collegiate schools were adopted as far as they could be made applicable.

Centralia Junior College, Mt. Vernon Junior College and Pacific Lutheran College have already entered this league. Seattle Pacific College is yet undecided as they have not received definite permission to play intercollegiate games. The College of Puget Sound will enter the conference unofficially with their reserve teams but cannot afford to support two conferences.

SAINTS VICTORS OVER COLLEGES

The St. Leo's team defeated P. L. C. Thursday, April 21, at Parkland, by a score of 7-3. Errors played a most prominent part in the game, the P. L. C. boys making no less than ten errors, accounting for all of the visitors runs.

Al Beck pitched good ball for the Lutherans but as his support failed him at critical moments he was credited with a loss. Fedt at the short stop position and Sanderson at second base, played a brilliant brand of ball.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Henriksen and daughter Louise, and Polly Langlow were in Astoria, Oregon over the week end. Rev. Henriksen installed Rev. M. A. Christianson as minister in the First Lutheran Church of Astoria. Rev. Christianson was formerly of Portland, Ore.

A social "A Trip Around the World" will be sponsored by the Ladies Guild of Trinity Lutheran Church. May 29; to be held in the church parlors.

Lighter Than Air

'Tis rumored, dear children, that "Smilin' Big Beck" absolutely ruined his automobile when he crashed (with much violence) into an extra-hard-boiled egg during the recent annual Easterday egg-rolling contests! Each are the joys of motor-ing!

Have a care, me lads, for if you laugh at the faculty members when they are playing off a tennis tournament you are bound to receive an "E" on your report cards! It's a plain case of adhering to that time-honored saying: "Courtesy prevents accidents!"

"Accidents" and "Incidents" hap-pen but "courtesy" is a virtue.

Life's Bitterest Moments!

When you miss an easy one that decides the tennis tournaments.

When you get that long-awaited letter from home and it is minus the fat check that usually accom-panies it.

When you sleep outside those warm spring evenings and it starts to rain at about one o'clock in the morning.

When some wisecracker starts a "run" in the "bran" new" stockings that you purchased the day before.

When you failed to get home for the Easter holidays before your report cards.

Arling: O Joy!
O Joy: O, pshaw!

A new baseball star is appear-ing on the horizon in the person of Garvick Owen. He plays in the field and, listen! He sometimes catches a ball!

What in the world is a poor columbianist going to do when no-body cracks a joke and every one behaves as he should? It's a terrible state of affairs!

Do you mean to tell me that someone told you that someone had told them that it was rumored that the Prince of Wales has again taken a "spill" on his favorite hoss? Yes! I don't!

The Joy of Being Editor (The Editor made us put this in). Getting out this paper is no picnic. It we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we clip things from other maga-zines.

We are too lazy to write them our-selves.

If we don't, we are too stuck on our own stuff.

If we attack close to the job all day, We ought to be out hunting up news.

If we do get out and try to hustle We ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions, We don't appreciate true genius, And if we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

If we make a change in the other fellows write up.

We are too critical.

If we don't we are asleep.

An Caesar gathered round about him all his offspring and says, "Me-lads, there's a guy around town they call Brutus—yep, that's his moniker. Well, this half-baked yegg thinks he's the biggest gooseberry in the sauce an' right now he's fingerin' out a way to bump me off quiet like. Wot say we mosey up to this dissipated clown and step on his nose?" An' thus it were ar-ranged. I'd tell you the rest of the story but that's all the farther we are in our Latin book.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Prof. Joseph O. Edwards will ap-pear in a pianoforte recital assisted by Mr. Richard Overholt, tenor, on Saturday evening, 8:00 p. m. May 25 in the college gymnasium. This is to be a complimentary recital, everyone is invited.

Mr. E. B. Hauke took over the office of the city treasurer of the City of Astoria, Oregon on January 1, 1923, immediately following the disastrous fire of December 9, 1922. At the same time the city began ad-ministering its affairs under the City Manager form of government. This is not a political office, the city council having the power to appoint and to remove for sufficient reason. The estimated amount of money passing through the hands of Mr. Hauke since he took over the office is approx-imately $6,000,000. This con-sists of cash, bonds, warrants, etc.

If I have been successful in my occupation," says Mr. Hauke. "I credit this entirely to the splendid training received in the commercial department of the Pacific Lutheran College from which I graduated in 1911. Both high school and college subjects are offered in the Department of Business Ad-ministration at Pacific Lutheran College and our endeavor is to make the courses as practical and as near like actual business as possible. Our aim for the future is to train students in both secretarial and accounting courses so that they can go out and fill positions creditably in account-ing and secretarial work in the business world."

stop going North was Sacra-ments. Here the two pastors at-tended morning Easter service in the church of which Rev. Gangesel is pas-tor. In the afternoon, they drove to Marysville attended services, and the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, parents of Clarence Erick-son, who is a student at P. L. C. Rev. Gangesel has everything arrang-ed for the campaign in fine shape, which means a good deal in its suc-cess as the Rev. Gangesel is president of the Y. P. L. of California. On the trips he is taking at the present time to the various Luther Leagues of California, Rev. Gangesel will make special mention of our school and the endowment drive.

Quoting from Rev. Ordal, "Rev. Foss and I felt much encouraged in that the prospects for the coming drive under the hand of God, look very bright. We are asking for the continued prayers of pastors and congregations for God's rich blessing upon our school and the endowment fund drive. God grant success and blessings!"

A unique part of the convention is the prizes that are being offered to the various leagues. The first is a return ticket to Minnesota to the League sending a delegate the greatest distance, a second ticket to the League bringing the largest convention offering. The third prize is a library of books approx-imately the same as offered last year to the league sending the largest delegation.
