Election '96: a comedian's view

If you are tired of a climate that encourages bullying, smear campaigns and censorship, and if you're a member of the underclass, the overclass, the middle class or have no class, come hear stand-up comedian Vicky Vierling comment on politics at 7 pm on Oct. 22 in the SCC. Admission is free.

First Aid class offers more than Band-Aids

A free CPR/First Aid class will be offered on Nov. 5 and 7 from 12:30-4:30 pm in the UC. The course is open to all PLU employees. The two-day course meets state requirements and includes a two-year certification card. Pediatric CPR is also available for an additional $5 fee. Class size is limited. Call Nancy Scott, 7233, to register.

Ballot issues discussed

Join a representative from the League of Women Voters and campus representatives for "Issues '96," at a talk on election issues at 7:30 pm on Oct. 21 in the Regency Room. The talk is sponsored by RLO and the Women's Center. Call Shana, 8418, or Jen, 8759.

Stereotypes examined

Connie So, guest curator for the Wing Luke Asian Museum exhibit "Out of Focus: Media Stereotypes of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders," will discuss the historical roots of inaccurate images of API people in American mass culture from 1:45 to 3:30 pm on Oct. 23 in the Regency Room. In media ranging from children's books to blockbuster films, API people have been reduced to caricatures like the "mysterious, clever sage" and "exotic female." A question and answer session follows. Call Beth Kraig, 7296. Free.

'The Foreigner'

University Theater presents a second weekend of "The Foreigner," a play by Larry Shue starring a shy, insecure individual who pretends not to understand or speak English, with hilarious and perceptive results, and directed by William Becvar. Performances are Oct. 25 & 26 at 8 pm and 2 pm on Oct. 27 in Eastvold. Tickets are $4 with PLU ID.
