PLU ROTC earns award of excellence

The Commanding General's Special Safety Award was presented to PLU's ROTC for exemplary safety performance from June 1, 1995, through May 31, 1996. The award was presented by Gen. William Hartzog, Commander, US Army Training and Doctrine Command. The PLU cadets completed all field training exercises during the year without any accidents, an achievement that reflects credit on the ROTC cadets and leadership.

Ed Larson receives achievement award

Ed Larson (Development) will receive the Northwest Development Officers Association Professional Achievement Award on May 20, 1997, at the NDOA annual meeting in Seattle. NDOA is comprised of more than 800 fund raising executives, directors, staff and volunteers in the Puget Sound region. Winners of this prestigious award are chosen by a committee of previous recipients, which truly ranks Larson among the best of the best.

A grand debut: organ and symphony

Celebrate the debut concert of the Gottfried and Mary Fuchs Organ at the Symphony Orchestra concert at 8 pm on May 13 and 14 in Lagerquist Concert Hall. Organist David Dahl (Music) performs Haydn's Organ Concert No. 1 in C Major as part of the fourth program of the orchestra's Masterpiece Series. The program also features Ives' "Decoration Day" and Dvorak's symphony "From the New World." Jerry Kracht conducts.

Free ice cream and opera at children's concert

What's up, Doc? Bugs Bunny and Elmer Fudd team up with the University Wind Ensemble, conductor Raydell Bradley, guest soloist Barry Johnson and other friends to present a fun-filled introduction to opera in this year's children's concert. "A Night at the Opera" features music by Rossini, Berlioz, Gershwin and Andrew Lloyd Webber. An ice cream social with treats from Dreyer's rounds out the afternoon. The concert begins at 3 pm on May 18, and the whole event is free.

Make memories last a lifetime

Are you interested in organizing your photos in a creative and lasting way? The campus community is welcome to an informational workshop on creating safe and meaningful scrapbook photo albums on acid-free and photo-safe paper. The half-hour presentation begins at 12 pm on May 22 in UC 214. Call 7694 for more information.

Larson has mastered the Web

Joel Larson, PLU's webmaster and junior music arts major, was named the Northwest Regional Representative for the International United Webmaster's Association. His territory covers Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Alaska. The organization provides a forum for webmasters to trade commentary and ideas.

Governor Locke, dignitaries host dinner/multicultural performance at PLU on May 16

Washington State Gov. Gary Locke will give the keynote address at a fundraising dinner and multicultural performance on May 16 at PLU.

"Into the Light, a Night of Harmony and Renewal," will benefit the Chinese Reconciliation Project Foundation of Tacoma. The foundation seeks to reconcile the tragic event in 1885 that resulted in the expulsion of Tacoma's Chinese community.

The event begins at 5:30 pm in the CK with a dinner program featuring Gov. Locke's views on the Chinese presence in Washington, and his own personal history. Congressman Norm Dicks, Mayor Brian Ebersole, Pierce County Executive Doug Sutherland and PLU President Loren Anderson will also attend.

The dinner will be catered and music will be performed by the Warren Chang Music Ensemble. Donations for dinner are $100. Call 752-8638 for reservations.

Following dinner is an evening of multicultural performances. The program is a tapestry of nine ethnic traditions and includes classical and folk dance from the Philippines, China, Korea, Japan and Norway, a Scottish pipe and drum band, Native American and Mexican music, and African American gospel singers. The concert begins at 8 pm in Eastvold. Donations are $10 adults, $5 students/seniors. Call 7457 for tickets.

Renaissance a capella

Ars Nova, a six-member vocal ensemble of PLU students, will perform Renaissance contemporary classical works including pieces by Tallis, Gorecki and others. The concert begins at 8 pm on May 18 in Lagerquist Concert Hall.

Waste not want not

Please remember to fill out your recycling surveys and return them to Environmental Services by May 16. The information from the surveys will be used to help build a more effective waste-management system on campus. Your ideas are valued!

Recycled cotton Earth Week shirts

Earth Week '97 T-shirts are still available through Environmental Services. The design illustrates the theme, "Act Now or Forever Hold Your Piece." The price is reduced to $6. Quantities are limited. Call 7385.

On the ball with summer soccer day camp

Young folks ages 6 to 17 will get a kick out of Colleen Hacker's (PE) Lute Soccer Camp from 9 am to 2 pm, June 23 to 27. For more information, call Pierce County Parks and Recreation, 593-4176.
