President's Message

The 1991-92 school year was a milestone in the history of Pacific Lutheran University. It was so, primarily, because it marked the conclusion of the Rieke years at PLU. These were seventeen remarkable years in which Bill and Joanne led this great university with unequalled dedication and broad vision. The growth and development of PLU and the achievements of the PLU family during this time are an amazing story and a source of joy for all of us who love this university.

It is appropriate that President Rieke's final year would also mark the conclusion of the Centennial Fund—Shaping Tomorrow. Begun in 1985, with a daunting goal of $30 million, the campaign drew to a close on December 31, 1991 with commitments totalling $41.8 million. This Report to Investors details the story of the Centennial Fund and also chronicles many highlights of the past year. The accomplishments of faculty, students and staff paint a remarkable portrait of a vital and diverse university community. This report is dedicated to all of you who helped write this latest, happy chapter in PLU's development.

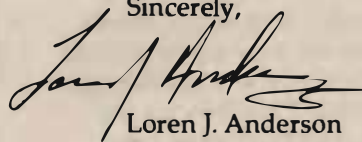

The achievements of the Rieke years and the Centennial Fund have strengthened the foundations from which PLU now moves into its second century of service. My wife, MaryAnn, and I are honored to join with you in building an even stronger university. The recent past provides momentum for the days ahead. That is why PLU's future may be addressed in hope and confidence.

The first foundation for PLU's future is encapsulated in the university's centennial theme Educating for Service. Drawn directly from PLU's Lutheran theological tradition, Educating for Service calls us to an educational mission that is distinctive and increasingly relevant. Our goal must remain that of educating men and women who are competent, caring and prepared to live lives that are both productive and meaningful.

The second foundation is found in the sheer quality of the institution and its people. PLU's academic program offers breadth and depth of opportunity that are seldom found in a small university. PLU's faculty and staff are top quality, dedicated to serving students, and loyal to the future of this special place. I have been most impressed by my opportunities to meet with PLU students—they come to us with high motivation, significant ability, and strong values.

The third foundation is you—each of you who cares about this place and, by your support, gives witness and evidence of your commitment to PLU's future. As a private university, that future depends on you. We need your support—and so we ask boldly, and thank you sincerely! We who work here pledge to be good stewards of your gifts. We seek your continued advice and counsel, your prayers and your investment in Pacific Lutheran University.

Sincerely,

Loren J. Anderson
President

Vice President's Message

As your new Vice President for Development and University Relations, I applaud the generous financial and personal support you've shown for PLU over the past year, and throughout the decade-long Centennial Fund —Shaping Tomorrow Campaign. We are deeply grateful for your increased support in Fiscal Year 1991-92, during which your contributions reached a record high of $6,030,967 — a 13% increase over last year's giving. Encouraged and strengthened by your support, our faculty and staff generated an additional $792,394 in the form of grants and contracts from public and private sources for enhanced equipment, research, scholarship and community service projects.

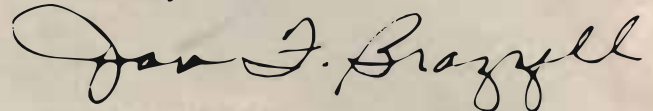

Fiscal year 1991-92 was indeed a banner year. Thanks to more than 2,100 alumni, friends, businesses and churches who made unrestricted contributions to PLU's Annual Fund, Q Club support topped the $1 million mark in annual contributions for the first time in its history. These gifts provide vital support for scholarships, faculty salaries, library resources, and other activities that enhance the quality of education at PLU. I am equally delighted that alumni support set new highs. Alumni giving to both annual and capital projects exceeded $1 million for the first time and Alumni Annual Fund gifts increased a remarkable 23%.

Last year also brought closure to a highly successful Centennial Fund campaign, which raised more than $41.8 million, in cash and pledges and an additional $6.5 million in irrevocable deferred gifts. As one who can take no credit for the campaign's success, let me say that $30,000,000 was an ambitious five-year goal by all standards. That the goal was substantially exceeded is testimony to the dedication of your leadership and the quality of PLU's programs and product.

Many of you played pivotal roles in the Centennial Fund campaign's success. I extend our deepest gratitude to the major donors and campaign leaders listed on pages 16-19 of this report. More than 200 dedicated campaign volunteers nationwide helped assure the campaign's success, and the results of their efforts will be felt for years to come. Our hats are off to them for making the campaign's theme, "Shaping Tomorrow" a reality.

As PLU begins its second century of service, we will depend on your continued financial support, volunteer leadership, and counsel. A major goal of our efforts will be to significantly strengthen PLU's endowment so that the quality education our students expect and deserve may be sustained throughout future years of environmental fluctuations and challenges. Your past support has enhanced and protected PLU's academic quality and tradition of service. With your help, I know we can secure an even stronger future for PLU.

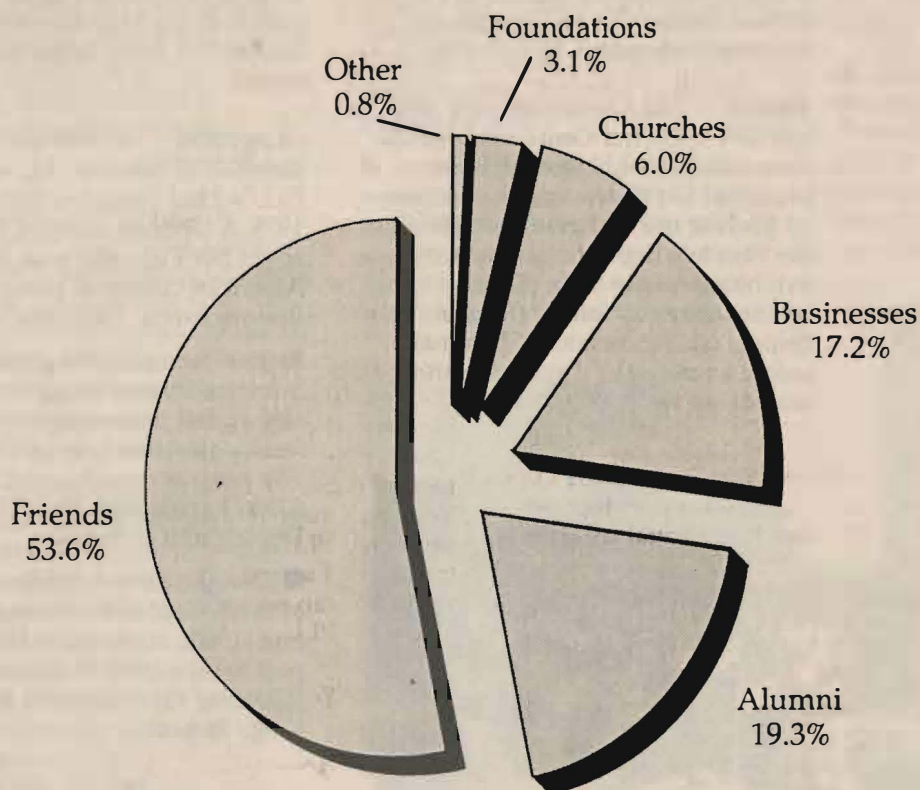

Yours truly,

Jan F. Brazzell, Ph.D.
Vice President for Development and University Relations

University Highlights 1991-92

The beginning of the year marked the climax of PLU's memorable centennial observance, and the close of the year signaled the end of Dr. William Rieke's 17-year tenure as university president. In between . . .

June The Centennial year was officially over, but Centennial events were not. The PLU football team brought PLU international attention by playing the first ever football in the People's Republic of China. Exhibition games were played against Evangel College (Mo.) in Beijing, Guangzhou and Shanghai before a national TV audience and crowds up to 50,000. Photo A

■ The Choir of the West and University Orchestra Strings also toured East Asia, and the University Chorale and Wind Ensemble toured Scandinavia. Some choir members participated in an unplanned concert on the Great Wall of China. The groups in Scandinavia performed at the Bergen International Music Festival. Photo B

THE CENTENNIAL FUND

SHAPING TOMORROW Final Campaign Report

The PLU Centennial Fund — Shaping Tomorrow represented the second phase of a decade-long effort to prepare the university for the challenges it will face in the years ahead. Its campaign goal, set in 1985, was $30 million.

The final gift report of the campaign, which concluded on December 31, 1991, showed cash and pledges totaling over $41.8 million. An additional $6.5 million in irrevocable deferred gifts, most of which are designated for the endowment, was also secured during the campaign.

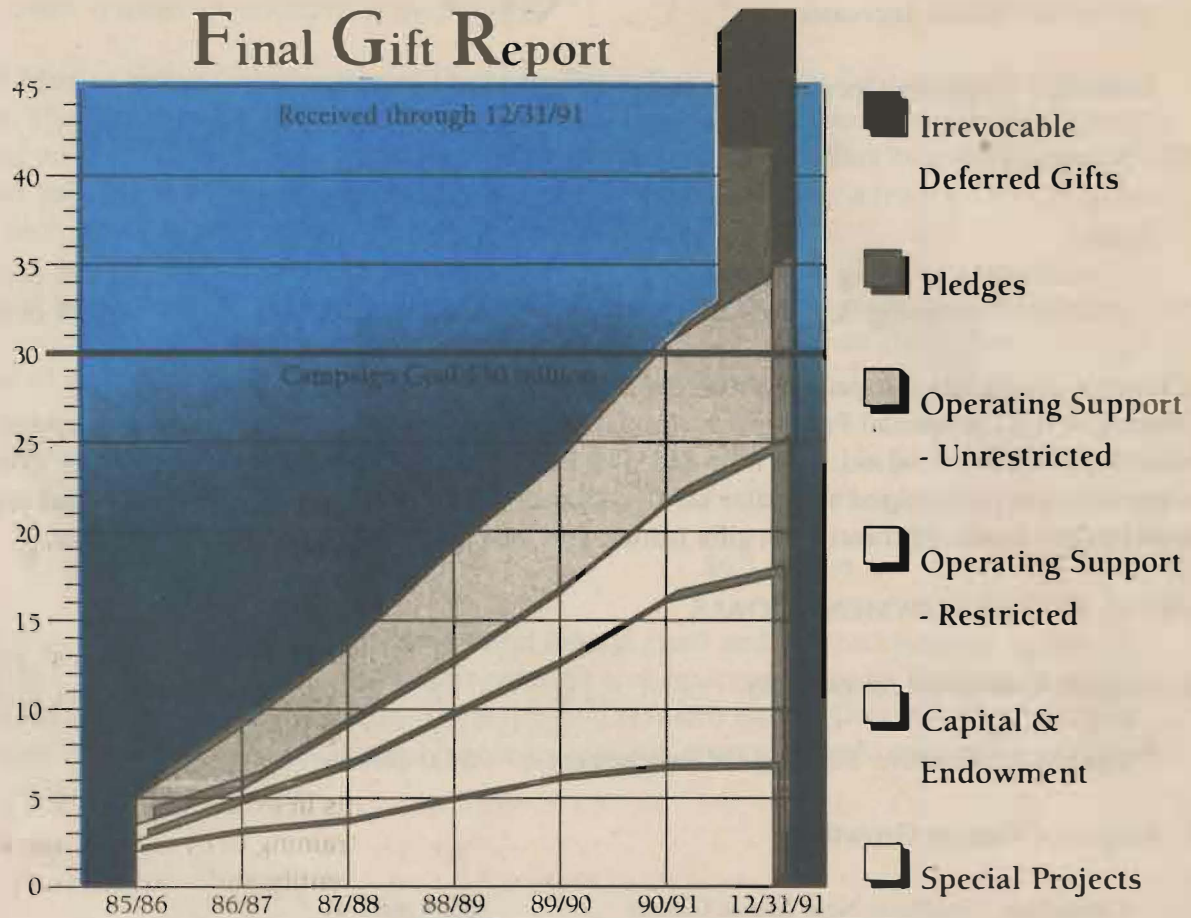

Highlights of the Centennial Fund effort included the first three gifts in excess of $1 million from individual donors in the university's history, the recruitment and training of over 200 major gift volunteers, and a Resource Enhancement Program which helped identify and evaluate nearly 6,000 potential major gifts prospects.

While the accompanying chart gives the final gift results for the campaign, it only represents one measurement — dollars received or pledged. A more complete evaluation comes from a comparison between the goals set at the beginning of the campaign with accomplishments today.

The case statement for the Centennial Fund summarized the results we hoped to achieve as follows:

"The funds we seek will strengthen the quality of PLU's academic programs, increase scholarships and financial aid, provide a new facility for the fine arts, complete funding of major capital improvements, significantly strengthen the endowment, and help ensure the fiscal stability of the University with funds for current operations."

The Centennial Fund - Shaping Tomorrow

Cumulative Totals	Goal in millions	1985/86	1986/87	1987/88	1988/89	1989/90	1990/91	Through 12/31/91

Pledges								$7,370,845
Grand Total	$30.0	$4,808,590	$8,674,893	$13,462,034	$19,169,516	$24,471,612	$30,545,969	$41,805,909
								Irrevocable Deferred Gifts $6,552,511

Total $48,358,420

Five specific goals were outlined to help achieve these results with an accompanying campaign objective and dollar amount. The following summary reviews each goal and the results achieved:

ANNUAL FUND GOAL

I. Minimize Tuition Increases

Campaign Objective: Operating Support

Unrestricted	$7.5 million
Restricted	$3.0 million

Results:

Unrestricted Operating Support	$10.1 million	135% of goal
Restricted Operating Support	$ 6.6 million	220% of goal

Gift income during the campaign for current operations far exceeded the goals set at the beginning of the Centennial Fund effort. Annual support for the PLU Q Club, which supports scholarships and financial aid, rose from $635,000 in 1985 to over $1 million in 1991. Other gifts for operating support helped subsidize faculty salaries, provided books for the library, and met annual budget needs. Without such gifts tuition and fees would have risen at a faster rate.

CAPITAL AND ENDOWMENT GOALS

II. Provide Continued Accessibility

Campaign Objective: Building the Endowment	$5.0 million

III. Support Program Growth

Campaign Objective: New Music Center	$5.5 million
--------------------------------------	---------------

IV. Fund Capital Improvements

Campaign Objective: Bond repayment/ Capital Improvements	$6.5 million
---	---------------

Subtotal	$17.0 million

Results:

Capital and Endowment:	$18.7 million cash & pledges	110% of goal
	($11,331,000 cash and $7,370,000 in pledges)

Endowment — The University's endowment has grown from just under $5 million to over $8 million in cash during the campaign with an additional $1 million in pledges. Most significantly, however, $6.5 million in irrevocable deferred gifts, over 80% of which are designated for endowment has also been committed during the campaign. Cash, pledges and irrevocable deferred gifts earmarked for endowment during the campaign now total $9.3 million against a goal of $5 million. These gifts, which are almost exclusively endowed scholarships, will provide improved student accessibility in perpetuity.

New Music Center: Construction of The Mary Baker Russell Music Center is slated to begin soon. The name itself speaks volumes. It is the first new building named in honor of a major donor on the PLU campus. Three gifts of more than one million dollars from Mary Baker Russell, Elbert Baker II and George Lagerquist helped make this new facility a reality. Over $7 million has been raised to date in cash, pledges and other committed funds.

Capital Improvements: All bond obligations during the current campaign period have been met and several major renovations have been completed including Ingram Hall, Ramstad Hall, Harstad Hall and the third floor addition to Mortvedt Library.

V. Strengthen Academic Programs

Campaign Objective: Special projects $2.5 million

Results: $6.3 million 252% of goal

This area involves corporate, foundation and federal grant and contract support of specific academic programs, faculty and student research and equipment needs. These gifts significantly enhance a wide variety of academic programs and research efforts. Designated scholarship support for specific students funded by congregational, corporate and community gifts is also included in this area.

The Annual Fund

Gifts to the University's Annual Fund supply vital support to every area of the institution. These contributions provide the "margin of excellence" that sets Pacific Lutheran University apart. Taken together with other income sources, Annual Fund gifts subsidize the cost of education by approximately $600 a year for each student who attends the University.

The positive impact of Annual Fund support is felt by students in three key areas:

Scholarships

Gifts to the Annual Fund provide scholarships to help attract and retain top notch students. Seven out of ten PLU students both need and receive financial assistance.

Outstanding Faculty

A strong Annual Fund helps assure that faculty salaries remain competitive. PLU has been fortunate to attract and retain highly qualified faculty who are dedicated to teaching.

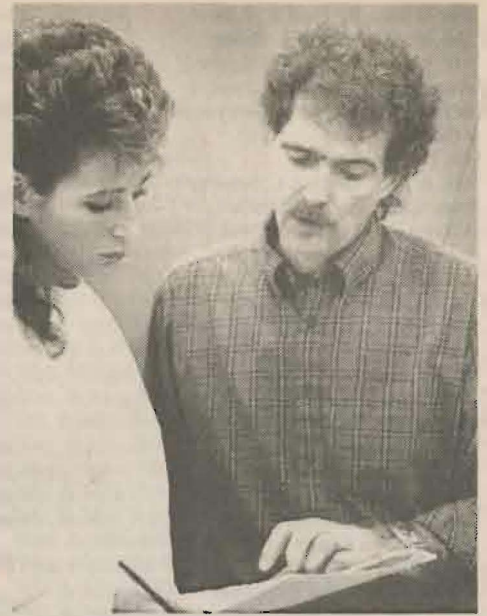

Library Resources

Significant resources are required each year to keep the Mortvedt Library collection abreast of growing curriculum and research demands. Annual Fund gifts play a key role here as well.

As a consequence of Annual Fund support, the University is able to strengthen academic programs, enhance scholarships and financial aid, and operate with a balanced budget.

While many of the gifts to the Annual Fund are small, the growing participation of alumni and friends makes a positive impression on other potential supporters of the University.

But small gifts alone cannot do the job. The University has encouraged a tradition of substantial giving through a special donor organization known as the PLU Q Club.

The PLU Q Club

The PLU Q Club was started in 1972 to thank friends and alumni of Pacific Lutheran University who gave significant gifts to the University's Annual Fund. Donors qualify for membership when their unrestricted and/or scholarship gifts reach $240 or more per year.

These gifts help secure PLU's commitment to quality education. The "Q" stands for quality. There are five primary giving levels:

Member	$240/year	$20/month
Associate Fellow	$480/year	$40/month
Fellow	$1,000/year	$84/month
Senior Fellow	$2,400/year	$200/month
President's Circle	$5,000/year

NOTE: Alumni within 4 years of graduation may join the Q Club as Junior Members for $120/year or $10/month.

The Q Club began with 100 members who contributed $51,000 in 1972. Today, there are over 2,100 members who gave over $1 million to the University during the past fiscal year.

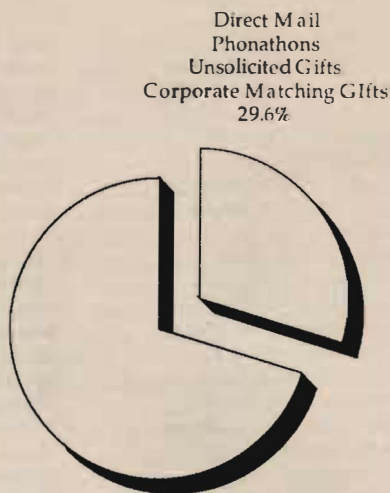

The following pages list the names of alumni, friends, businesses, foundations and churches who have supported the Annual Fund at Pacific Lutheran University during the past fiscal year, June 1, 1991 through May 31, 1992.

"The personal interaction between students and faculty at PLU is amazing. The professors take time to talk to students about classes, personal problems, or whatever. You can't get that kind of care and attention at many schools."

"The atmosphere and community of PLU is amicable. As a prospective student, I remember feeling a sense of genuine warmth and security when I set foot on PLU's campus. The faculty, staff and students went out of their way to make me feel welcome. They really cared about me as an individual."

“Quality education in a Christian context? YES!! PLU gives the student body an overwhelming opportunity to live their faith through a variety of Christian activity groups. There is nearly one activity for each night of the week. With all these choices, my problem was limiting my participation to just one or two activities a week; I needed some time to study! My advice? Go to as many different activities as you can, then pick the ones that best suit your individual needs.”

"After transferring to PLU because it offered more variety in majors and programs, I found that not only was there diversity in academics, but socially. I have made good friends at PLU. The Christian programs on campus have also helped me to deepen my Christian commitment. I think PLU allows you to create any type of atmosphere you wish, and that was a big factor in my choice to come here."

Churches

As a University of the Church, Pacific Lutheran University is owned by the 630 churches of Region I of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (congregations in Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington). Many of those congregations, out of particular commitment to their mission in higher education, choose to support the University program directly each year.

These gifts come to the University in a variety of ways. Unrestricted gifts and scholarship support for the University's Annual Fund are recognized through congregational membership in the various levels of the PLU Q Club. This money helps undergird the annual mission of the University by subsidizing each student's education and assisting in general operation.

Many congregations elect to give for the benefit of particular students. Gifts to the Pacific Lutheran University Matching Scholarships program (PLUMS) generate matching contributions for young people from contributing congregations. Funds for the support of Lutheran students from the developing African country of Namibia are directed towards the Namibian Student Scholarship Fund.

"One of the truly tremendous things that I discovered upon becoming a 'Lute' is that at least one person from every path seems to have found their way to PLU! That kind of diversity allows a student to attain a quality education while making lifelong friends."

Annual support from the business community and from foundations comes to the University in a variety of ways. Unrestricted gifts and scholarship support for the University's Annual Fund are recognized through membership in the various levels of the PLU Q Club. This money undergirds current operations and helps subsidize the cost of education for each student.

Gifts, restricted for specific purposes, are also received from many corporate and foundation sources. These gifts are often targeted to enhance particular areas of the University which are closely related to the priorities of the donor.

Corporate and foundation support plays a vital role in meeting the capital and endowment objectives of the University as well. These gifts help fund capital construction projects, provide for the purchase of significant capital equipment needs, and add to the University's endowment. The construction of the new Mary Baker Russell Music Center, which began this last summer, was the primary capital fund objective during the past fiscal year.

The following pages also contain donor lists for matching gift contributions and gifts received through the Independent Colleges of Washington.

Alumni Annual Fund

Honor Roll of Donors by Class

Annual Fund gifts from Pacific Lutheran University alumni improve accessibility and enhance the quality of the educational programs which the University offers. These contributions provide vital scholarship support for current students, strengthen our ability to attract and retain good teachers, and help with everything from library books to athletics.

During this past year Alumni Annual Fund gifts increased nearly 23% to a new record of $656,996. Total Alumni giving to both annual and capital funds topped the $1 million mark for the first time in the university's history.

As you can see from the chart below, the Alumni Annual Fund gift total represents the fifth consecutive yearly increase with the last four years setting record highs. The number of alumni donors during 91/92 also topped the previous record from two years ago.

This special Honor Roll of Donors recognizes the many loyal alumni who have made this another record-breaking year for the Alumni Annual Fund.

One of the long-term goals of the PLU Alumni Association is to steadily increase the number of alumni who give to the Annual Fund. During the past year, while the number of alumni donors set a new record, the percentage of participation did not reach the all-time highs set in 1989-90.

The percentage of alumni who regularly give to the University is important because it is considered by major donors and foundations to be the key "barometer" of support from those who know us best.

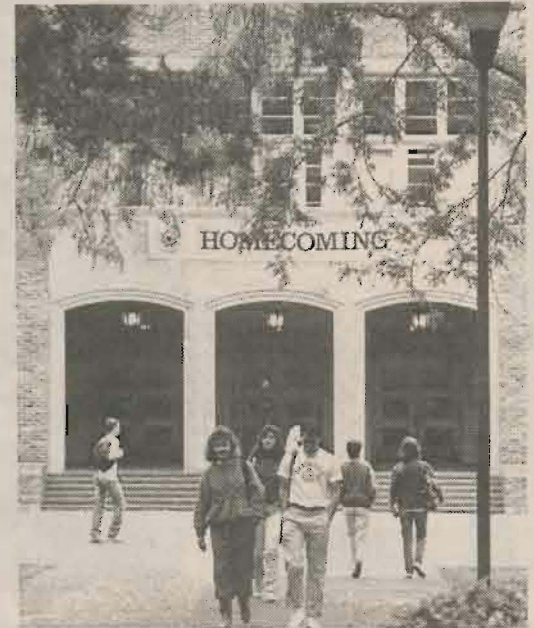

While the number of alumni contributors is an important factor in influencing others, clearly it is the dollar total which helps today's students. Over the years, PLU alumni who make contributions at or above the Q Club level of $240 a year have accounted for around 70% of all alumni giving. These gifts help keep PLU financially accessible for thousands of deserving young people.

The following lists recognize Alumni Annual Fund Donors by class for gifts received between June 1, 1991 and May 31, 1992. Where two alumni are married, the asterisk (*) indicates that their gift has been split equally and credited to their respective classes. A "Q" in front of a name indicates that the individual is a current member of the PLU Q Club.

"The faculty really go out of their way to be helpful and accommodating. I've had professors who have personally called every single student in the class to tell them class was cancelled. You won't find that type of personalized attention at too many other schools."

The Heritage Society

Members of the Heritage Society are those individuals who have included Pacific Lutheran University in some type of deferred gift, bequest, charitable trust, revocable trust, charitable gift annuity, life insurance, pooled income fund agreement, or a gift of a residence or farm with a retained life estate.

Membership is not based on the amount of the deferred gift. The sole criterion is the remembrance of Pacific Lutheran University in one's estate planning. The purposes of the Heritage Society are:

- To show gratitude and recognition to those who have expressed concern for PLU by providing for a deferred gift.
- To assist members of the Society in their on-going estate planning.
- To encourage others to become members of the Society.

The following roster lists Heritage Society Members of record as of July 1992.

"When I first walked on campus, I felt totally surrounded by friendliness. People you don't know ask you how you're doing. Professors check with students to make sure we're doing okay. They set aside office time for us; some even invite their classes to their homes. I don't think you will find an excellent education in such a caring, friendly atmosphere at many other schools."

Capital and Endowment Gifts

Gifts to PLU's capital and endowment programs strengthen areas of special need above and beyond the dollars available for general operations.

Capital gifts help fund new construction, major campus renovation projects and special capital equipment needs. Endowment gifts help underwrite scholarship support, faculty salaries, student and faculty research projects and visiting lectureships.

The following individuals made capital and endowment gifts of more than $100 to the recently completed Centennial Fund — Shaping Tomorrow campaign during the 91/92 fiscal year. (The list does not include the names of major donors who are listed on pages 16-19 of this report.)
