

PACIFIC LUTHERAN COLLEGE BAND

Band Leaves Next Week on Annual Tour

On Thursday, February 1, the PLC band will leave the campus to begin its annual tour. This year the band, under the direction of Mr. Gordon O. Gilbertson, will visit high schools in and about the Puget Sound region. Traveling with the 52-member band will be Mr. Gilbertson, Mr. Milton Nesvig, and a bandmother.

One of the unique features of the PLC band is its clarinet ensemble. It is one of the few of its kind in the country and is under the direction of Dave Knutson. Also featured on the program is Jerry Bayne playing Hyden's Trumpet Concerto, accompanied by the band.

"The purpose of such a tour," Mr. Gilbertson said, "is to acquaint the general public of the Pacific Northwest with the excellence of the PLC music department while at the same time giving to the musicians of the band an opportunity to play for a wide variety of live audiences."

The itinerary of the band is as follows:

Thursday, Feb. 21—High School Auditorium, Marysville, Wash.

Friday, Feb. 22—High School Auditorium, Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Saturday, Feb. 23—High School Auditorium, Prklay Harbor, Wash.

Sunday, Feb. 24—Glendale Lutheran Church (aft.), Seattle, Wash.

High School Auditorium (eve.), at Stanwood, Wash.

Monday, Feb. 25—High School Auditorium, Burlington, Wash.

Tuesday, Feb. 26—High School Auditorium, Bathell, Wash.

Following the tour the band will play a concert here at the college, giving students and faculty members an opportunity to hear them.

Prof. Jon Ericson Awarded Danforth Study Scholarship

Mr. Jon Ericson, Speech Department, has been awarded one of fifty-four Danforth Teacher Study Grants and will spend the 1957-58 school year at Stanford University, where he will work on his doctor's degree.

While attending Stanford, Ericson will be on a leave of absence from PLC. His doctoral work will be in Public Address which he will relate to the humanities in general.

The Dean of every college of 2,000 or fewer, is authorized to nominate one faculty member for the award. Rigid personal and academic requirements must be met before a name is submitted to Danforth. From all applications, the 100 most promising are selected for personal interviews; approximately 50 are chosen for the awards.

Ericson was graduated from PLC in 1952. He earned his MA from Stanford in 1953. During 1953-64 he taught at Texas Lutheran College. This is his third year of teaching at PLC.

The Danforth award consists of a grant equal to one year's salary, plus expenses at the school of the winner's choice, plus a two week trip to Camp Minnowana in northern Michigan, where all scholarship winners meet for a period of study and fellowship.

Four Will Attend Town Meeting In Portland

Four students from PLC will attend one of the most widely acclaimed speech events next Monday and Tuesday. The Portland Town Meeting will meet then to conduct its ninth annual sessions.

At the Town Meeting one of the PLC delegates will be attempting to tie a record set by another PLC student several years ago.

Bette Lou Bronice, Neil Munson and Tom Reeves will be the three representatives from Luteville who will be individually teamed with any two others attending the meeting. These teams of three, each member from a different school, are sent to civic, fraternal and school audiences where they each speak on the topic, "What should the federal government do about desegregation of schools?" Judges in the audience rate the three speakers as "one," "two," and "three," respectively.

A PLC delegate has won the top honor in all but one of the Town Meetings. Mr. Jon Ericson, presently of the PLC faculty, won the top spot for two years while he was a student here. Tom Reeves won last year and is attempting to tie Ericson's record. Miss Bronice is the first woman to represent PLC at the Portland Town Meeting. Don Douglas will also go to Portland and will serve as a team member.

The Town Meeting was conceived and is now directed by Dr. Frank Roberts, head of the Speech Department of Portland State College.

Spurs Celebrate 35th Anniversary

Thirty-fifth anniversary of the National Spur Organization was celebrated yesterday by PLC Spurs. National women's honorary began Feb. 14, 1922, at Montana State College and now includes eleven states and over 30 colleges. Local Spurs were granted their charter in 1950.

Blue and gold ribbons were presented to all inactive and honorary members by active members to celebrate Founder's Day.

Spurs gave Dan Cupid a hand by selling Valentines throughout the day at a penny a word. Groups of the girls sang "Heart of My Heart" and other Valentine-ish songs at dinner.

Alums Gather This Weekend; Banquet Highlights Meet

The alumni reunion program starts tonight when the alumni will take in the Evergreen Conference basketball game between PLC and the University of British Columbia at 8 p.m. in the gym. The class of 1932 will celebrate its 25th anniversary.

The highlight of the reunion will be the banquet Saturday night in the College Union. Entertainment for the banquet will include a group of songs by the "Eighth Notes," a vocal solo by John Cooley and piano numbers by Mardelle Soiland. Special guests at the banquet will be President and Mrs. S. C. Eastvold and Dean and Mrs. Phillip E. Hauge.

Sunday morning the former students will worship with the PLC student congregation.

Frosh Sponsor Movie Sat. Night

Burt Lancaster in technicolor! That's who the freshmen class is inviting the student body to see this Saturday night at 7:30 in CB 200. He's starring in "The Flame and the Arrow" and will share the program with a Walt Disney cartoon, also in technicolor.

Admission is 35¢ singles, an $5.00 couples, which includes refreshments. Ted Meyers is in charge of movies while Carol Panneluchen heads the refreshment committee.

Chili Feed Tonight After UBC Game

Lots of chill and entertainment by the PLCites will be the feature attraction at the Sophomore-class-sponsored chili feed in CB 200 after the UBC game tonight. Tickets will be on sale at the door at 24¢ per person.

St. Olaf College A Capella Choir Will Give Two Concerts Here Monday

Sixty singers from the St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., will be on our campus Monday, February 18. This renowned St. Olaf Choir will present matinee and evening concerts at 2:15 p.m. and 8 p.m., as part of this 1957 tour of the west coast. Directed by Olaf C. Christiansen, they will present a varied program of classic and contemporary sacred music.

The history of this a capella choir is long and colorful. Started in 1903 by Dr. F. Mellus Christiansen, father of the present director, it has been trained to a singing group that has gained national and international fame. Through his influence, a capella singing has grown throughout the nation.

Beginning its nation-wide tours in 1920, the choir has since appeared annually throughout this country and abroad. Its most recent tour to Europe took place this last summer where concerts were presented in Scandinavia and Germany. This spring, they have been invited to be "America's Musical Ambassador" and will fly to Iceland during the coming Easter season. By the end of that tour, three of the singers will have the equivalent of circling the globe 4½ times during the past four years as a result of their choir membership.

The program which they have presented on this tour of 25 concerts includes: "A Star Is Moving Across the Sky," Fryklof; "O Magnum Mysterium," de Victoria; "How Fair the Church of Christ Shall Stand," Schumann's Hymn-book; "Adoramus te, Christe," Corsi; "Wake, Awake," Nicolai; "The Spirit Also Helpeth Us," Bach; "Psalm 134," Lockwood; "Come Let Us Walk in the Light of God," Brunner; "Glory Be to God," Berger; "Motet for Advent, Entrance Scene," Schreck; "Kingdom of God," Christiansen; "This Night a Wondrous Revelation," Korig-Christiansen; "Christmas Symbol," Christiansen; "Come and Adore," Basque Carol.

Tickets for the concerts can be purchased in the Bookstore and the Public Relations Office for 50 cents, students; 75 cents, adults; matinee: $1.00 general; $1.40, reserved; evening concert.

Following the concert, a reception will be held by the Women's Dorm Auxiliary. Invited to meet the visitors are members of the Choir of the West and the Chorus. Special entertainment will include the Ambassadors and the Eighth Notes.

An Ocean Roaring

An Afterthought on Spiritual Emphasis Week
Pastor Lutnes

A lone drop of water, shivering precariously from the end of a long, black tube, instead of an ocean roaring. Too often this is the purported picture of life from a Christian point of view, and we like shivering insects feeling with our soul's antenna the hard black surface of the tube and finding not even the fog of condensation, become disillusioned, disgusted and repelled. Or we look at the lone shimmering drop at the end of the long black tube and after being given countless instructions on how to position ourselves in order to receive such a drop we are afraid we will look silly going through some type of contorted spiritual gymnastics we shy away with a "this is not for me." How pathetic! How hopelessly contorted such a view is.

This week we have had a forthright quiet statement of the Gospel and its implications. Now take your life, and again I say, your LIFE, your LIVING, take life, the deep roaring ocean of it and begin there where Jesus began, and whether God's grace comes as a fog settling quietly on the ocean, feeling the intimate movement of the waves, or is it loose in a torrent of precipitation following the lightning stroke of a sudden revelation, or as the white clouds shadowing the warmth of the sun floating peacefully above you, may you hear the whisper of deep unto deep, and in the tidal response of your own nature may you understand that Christianity is truly life, life that is an ocean roaring.

Auction Action: Delightful Dates!

by Barb Standard
Last Friday night a most phenomenal event took place in the PLC dining hall. I am sure that it will not go down in history with the same fame that was received by Jefferson when he purchased Louisiana for $15,000,000 in 1803; but

Barb Standard - Ardeen Iverson - Roger Iverson - Laurie Beecraft

Nevertheless, Laurie Beecraft's and my grandchildren (presuming there will be grandchildren) are going to be very proud of us some day when they hear about the night of February 8, 1957, when we purchased the Iverson brothers, Ardeen and Roger, for $16.50. This is indeed phenomenal! Actually, we didn't buy them to keep for good but we did get one big evening and one big date for our money.
7:15 p.m.—The telephone rang. I dropped a quart jar of hand cream and scrubbed my finger off; Laurie tipped over her nail polish bottle, and between the two of us, we broke a chair attempting to beat each other to the phone. It was a wrong number.
7:20 p.m.—The tension was too much for Laurie and she smeared lipstick from the middle of her chin to the bridge of her nose. She looked like a Ulotrichi bushwoman on the warpath and I laughed in spite of myself.

7:40 p.m.—After twenty-five minutes of shattered nerves, wrung hands, and combed hair, Deen and

Rog arrived, at the expected zero hour.

7:42-7:45 p.m.—Laurie and I argued about who had to walk down the stairs first.

7:47 p.m.—We drew straws. I walked down the stairs first, with Laurie close behind, breathing heavily down my neck.

7:49 p.m.—Rog and Deen appeared, looking every bit as nervous as we were—after all, the date was worth a fortune before we ever

Carnival Time Coming Nearer

by Herb Dempsey

As PLC grows in years and stature, she is developing traditions; the Kicking Post, Christmas Carol, and Homecoming, to mention a few. All these and much more of the life and times of PLC has been and will be recorded in our school Yearbook; in the Saga of PLC. In the Saga office in the CUB, the recorded history of PLC can be traced to 1932 by the yearbooks on the shelf. Many of these books have been helped toward publication by one of the most festive traditions in the lore of the Lutes. Many of these books have been helped by the Saga Carnival.

Richard Schwandt, business manager of the Saga, says that there are basically three ways the publication is paid for: subscriptions, ads, and the carnival. Expenses for the publication this year will be about $2,000 more than the income from the subscription sales. This is met in part by ads and partly by the income from the Saga Carnival to be held March 15 and 16.

Prior to the actual festivities, each organization on the campus will build a booth in the gym on the night of the 14th. Then at 8 p.m. on the 15th, the coronation of the king and queen will take place in the CMS auditorium. Following the coronation, there will be the festivities of the carnival in the gym. The king will be a senior boy sponsored by a campus organization and elected by the Student Body. The queen must be a freshman, and is elected by the same process as is the king. On the 16th there will be an 8 o'clock show on the CMS stage, followed by the festivities in the gym.

Scoop: PLC was scheduled to have appearing in our gym, a National Guard drill unit led by Charles Wilson, but unfortunately last week someone got out of line . . . Four hundred years ago the Indians were running this country. There were no taxes, no national debt, and the women did all the work. It beats me how the white man thought he could improve on a system like that!

I predict—Javier Perera, who came out of a Colombia, S. A., jungle last year to claim that he was 167 years old, will return again this year with proof. He'll bring his grandfather, who'll swear to it.

FIGHTING

My first opponent only came up to my chin, but he came up once too often. When I climbed into the ring, men howled; women screamed! I forgot my trunks . . . that was the night I fought Max Baer! . . . I came out of my corner and landed two lefts and a sharp right. Then my opponent came out of his corner . . . He threw six punches at me and I tried to weave—but the referee wouldn't wet me out of the ring.

The other day our vice president in charge of good news announced that someone, somewhere, enjoys Coke 58 million times a day. You can look at this 2 ways:

We lean to the latter interpretation.

Lutes Lick Loop for Championship

Western Defeated; Glads Greet UBC

Tonight at eight o'clock the champion Lutherans make their final home floor performance, meeting the lowly UBC Thunderbirds, whom they have beaten three times in the present season. The scores were 53-45, 60-37, and 83-44 in the last game.

The Thunderbirds had a 3-7 won-loss record before they played Central last night.

The 'Birds chief problem is lack of scoring punch; not one of their starting five averages over 10 points per game. The Lutes have two such men, Chuck Curtis, who is second in the league with 19.2 points per game, and Roger Iverson with a 15.9 average (figures for 19 games). Marv Adams leads the conference, averaging 25 points a game.

Barry Drummond Toughest
Barry Drummond, 6-3, is expected to give the Lutherans the most trouble, as he has scored well against PLC in other games.

Lutes Win Crown
PLC wears the Evergreen Conference crown for the third year in a row, following last night's dumping of Western, 7-057.

Although the Lutes had the win fairly well sewed up in the latter part of the second half, Western was able to hold the Glads down somewhat—the Lutes getting 41.9% from the field.

Gonzaga Holds 11-8 Record; Gordon, Turner Lead Team

Your Morning Mast sports department, (thanks to the Gonzaga Athletic News Bureau), going on the presumption that the Lutes play the Zags on March 4-6, has dug up some information on the squad from Spokane.

The Gonzaga University Bulldogs went into Tuesday night's game against Whitworth College of Spokane with an 11-8 won-lost record, their next opponent being Seattle University.

Turner Highest Scorer
Leading scorer for the Bulldogs is Bob Turner, 6-4 forward from Orofino, Idaho. Turner has 330 points for 19 games, a 17.4 average. He is followed by Chuck Redmon, 5-9 guard, with 193 points and a 10.2 average.

Gordon Leads in Rebounds
Mike Gordon, the Zag's 6-5 center from New York, is the leading rebounder. Although he did not play in four games because of a back injury, Gordon still leads all players with 179 rebounds and has an 11.9 average. Dennis Vermillion is second with 166 rebounds and an 8.7 average for 19 games.

Norb Trauba, 6-5 forward from Spokane, who has been high scorer on the frosh team with about 14 points per game, joined the varsity squad last Tuesday night.

Hoopmen, Bakers Play Here March 1

Pacific Lutheran College battles the Buchan Bakers Friday, March 1, at 8 p.m. in the Lute gym in the third and final basketball contest between the two squads this season.

Students will be admitted on their activity cards, and all other seats will be on sale for $1.00.

Both the AAU champs and the Lutherans look forward to the competition of this game as first class preparation for the up and coming play-offs, which for the Gladiators determines whether or not they will travel to Kansas City.

In the previous two games between the Lutes and Buchan, the Bakers took the first one 87-75, and then the Lutherans bounced the Bakers, 80-63.

JV's Runner-up to Crown; Play Final Game Tonight

The PLC Junior Varsity will draw to a close their 1956-57 cage season tonight as they play host to an unannounced team in the preliminary to the Gladiator-University of British Columbia game. Game time is 6 o'clock.

Studs Win Crown

In the first half of league play, the Cheney Studs took first place; however, PLC's JV squad captured the top spot in the second half. On Tuesday, in a playoff game to decide the City League championship, the JV's suffered a 75-66 setback at the hands of the Tacoma Studs. Halftime score was 43-36. Johnny O'Brien again led the Stud attack with 35 points.

Poor Shooting Percentage

For the JV's, Geldaker hit 17 and Sahli contributed 13. Coach Salzman said that this game was one of the JV's poorest showings of the season. They hit on less than 30 percent of their shots.

Salzman's tentative starting lineup calls for Roiko and Sahli at forwards, Geldaker at center, with Jerstad and Iverson at the guard spots.

Lutes Take Win

Last night the Junior Lutes rolled past the Brewers 75-54 in the preliminary game, with Chuck Geldaker topping the scoring for PLC with 20 points. The Brewers, who were in fifth place before yesterday's tilt, trailed 25-37 at half-time.

Other high pointers for the home team were Ardeen Iverson, who tallied 14, and Rich Hamlin, who bucketed 13.

League Final Played Wed.

Marv Harshman will take his Gladiators to Ellensburg on next Wednesday night, February 20, to play their last regular scheduled game, against the Wildcats of Central Washington.

The 'Cats have fallen victim to the Lutes four times this season. Wednesday night the Lutes will be meeting the Wildcats on their own floor for the first time this year, giving the hosts somewhat of an edge. This week Central was holding down third place in the conference, having lost recently to CPS, 67-66.

The Wildcats are directed by Leo Nicholson, a veteran mentor who has coached 25 Central Washington basketball teams. Heading the starting five for Central is Bill Coorides, 6-5. The other starters are likely to be Wally Brudvik, 5-8; St. Hanson, 6-1; Bill Klehn, 6-3, and Joe Kumbinski, 6-5.

Of the last three games, Marv Harshman expected the Wildcats to give the Lutes the best contest, particularly since they are playing on their own floor.

LUTES WIN BY 20
GLADS HAVE THE STUFF

Dave Crowner, Sports Editor

I WAS TALKING to Paul Templin, PLC trainer, a few days ago about Lute prospects in the remaining games and he commented, "We should be able to win all the games, (which, he said, includes Gonzaga), but some nights you just can't do it. Any team can lose on a bad night."

The general opinion seems to be that the Lutes will go quite a ways—barring a bad night.

IT'S A FACT that the Gladiators have had a 76.3 point average in 19 collegiate games, holding the opponents to a 56.7 average. The Lutes have hit for a 42.6% average from the field. Leading scorers are Chuck Curtis with 371 points for a 19.2 average, and Rog Iverson, who has bucketed 300 for an average of 15.8. And we know, also courtesy of the team statistician, Louie Spry, that the Parkland men have taken 60.1% of the rebounds.

ALTHOUGH THE ROBINS may not be out yet, on those sunny days you can find baseball prospects out tossing the ball, and Ted Steh, ace track miler, has been out practicing since Christmas.

Speech Dept. To Host HS Tournament

The 22nd and 23rd of February will see the fourth annual invasion of the PLC campus by the debaters from high schools in Washington and Oregon. Invitations have been sent to 125 schools in the two states.

The tournament, endorsed by the Washington State Debate Coaches Association, has grown from its inception to the point where it is now necessary to impose a limit of 10 speakers from each school.

Betty Bronico will act as coordinator, with Tom Reeves, Neil Munson and Don Douglas forming the Steering Committee. Under this group there will be six committees headed by Al Sylling, Linda Hurd, Bette Macdonald, Herb Dempsey, Jim Traynor, and Jerry Olson.

9:15 p.m.—Roger did a masterful job of parking after eight attempts.

10:45 p.m.—The show dragged a bit so Deen contributed a funny. I never did understand it so maybe I'd better not quote it . . . you never know.

11:30 p.m.—Rog, Laurie, Ardeen, and I hiked back up to the car. Ardeen removed a little pink slip from the front window and said a few fierce words.

11:30-11:45 p.m.—Rog worked to untangle Laurie . . . she got stuck trying to squeeze in between the fire hydrant and the door.

12:15 a.m.—We arrived back to the dorm and parted with the customary handshake.

12:16 a.m.—The counselor on duty gave us the good word, "16 minutes late!"

Laurie and I are now campused for the next two months. Oh well, though $16.50 is quite a price for a date, this one was a winner. You

A sincere and hearty THANK YOU, to students and faculty of PLC for your fine cooperation and good turn out at the auction last Friday night.

You contributed over $221 to the Campus Chest Fund, all of which will go to worthy charities in the Tacoma area.

The committee would like to offer special thanks to Barb Johnson and Marilyn Force for their secretarial assistance and constant encouragement; to Walt Barnhart and Art Nerheim for their work with the tape recorder; to Dick Longgren for his wonderful posters; to all of the entertainment for their terrific acts; to Don Corbell for his fine job as an MC and especially to you, the students—THANK YOU one and all.

Be looking forward to the other Campus Chest programs this year and to the auction again next year—it's going to be BIGGER and BETTER!

THANK YOU,

Dean Libner, Keith Hoeft, Karl Forsell.

Western Defeated

After eight minutes were gone in the game, Western went out in front 14-12, but Nick Kelderman tied the score with a hook shot, and the Luthierans slowly pulled away to a 32-22 score at half time. Throughout the second half PLC held about a ten point lead, Western never being able to tighten the gap.

The Glade picked off 66.2% of the rebounds. High scorers for the Lutes were: Curtis, 19; Iverson, 16; Sahli, 12.
