

Knightletter

VOL. 2 NO. 26 Pacific Lutheran University April 30, 1965

"CAROUSEL" TO OPEN THREE-PERFORMANCE RUN MAY 13 IN EASTVOLD CHAPEL

Rodgers' and Hammerstein's "Carousel" will be presented on the Eastvold Chapel auditorium stage May 13-15, beginning at 8:30 p.m. each evening.

First produced 20 years ago, it is one of the outstanding Broadway musicals of all times. The story is based on Ferenc Molnar's "Lilliom," which was first presented in the early 1920's. "Lilliom" was a hit from the start and is still presented all over the world.

A cast of 60 PLU students will take part in the production which is being presented jointly by the PLU departments of music and speech. Theodore O. H. Karl is the producer while Dr. Abe. J. Bassett is director and Maurice Skones is musical director.

Eric Nordholm is the technical director with Mrs. LaMoyné as choreographer.

Mary Ann Satrum and Steve Cornils, stars in recent productions of the "Mikado" and "Pirates of Penzance" at PLU, have the leading roles of Julie Jordan and Billy Bigelow.

Other principal characters will be played by Wilma Baer, Marion Toepka, Raeder Anderson and Lynn Ertsgaard.

Also appearing in the cast are Dennis Flath, Rick Crouse, Esther Estrem, Cathy Coffin, Brent Olsen, Paul Olson, Jim Feek, Bob Roberts, Arden Flom and Ken Sanvik.

Reservations can be made by telephoning the Information Desk at PLU.

MAY FESTIVAL PROGRAM OPENS BIG WEEKEND OF ACTIVITIES

The 32nd annual May Festival program opens a big weekend of activities on the PLU campus tonight with a performance at 8:00 p.m. in Memorial Gymnasium. A second showing is scheduled for the same time Saturday.

The festivities open each evening with the coronation of May Queen Jean Andrews, followed by the annual international folk dancing festival featuring dancing from 14 nations.

The dedication of the new Olympic-type swimming pool and the Fred Mills Plaza is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. with Pierce County Co. missionary Harry Sprinker performing the dedication rites. There will be an open house following the program with a water ballet by Mount Tahoma High School Students.

Parent's Day also is scheduled for Saturday with Dr. Richard Langton delivering the principal address at a noon luncheon in Chris Knutzen Fellowship Hall. The PLU Dad's Association will meet at 2:00 p.m.

The dedicatory service for the new Tower chapel organ will be held Sunday with identical programs scheduled at 2, 3, 4, and 5 p.m. The program includes a recital by David Dahl of the Class of 1960. The programs are complimentary to the public, but reservations must be made in advance at the Information Desk.

* * *

* * *

THE ROUNDTABLE

WALTER SCHNACKENBERG, PETER RISTUBEN, PHIL NORDQUIST and ELVIN AKR (history) attended the convention of the Northwest Council of Regional Research last weekend at Jacksonville, Ore. Ristuben was re-elected as chairman of the council while Akre was appointed as editor of the group's newsletter....MARGE MATHERS and ALICE NAPJUS (education) attended the Washington Organization for Reading Development Conference at Mercer Island High School last Saturday....MR. and MRS. CLAYTON PETERSON (development) served as official hosts to students from seven state colleges and universities who participated in a panel that interviewed business leaders of the state at the annual meeting of the Association of Washington Industries in Seattle last Friday. Paul Tidyman and Charles Brunner represented PLU. David Haley had been originally scheduled to participate but his injury in a recent auto accident prevented his appearance....ELINE MORKEN, JO FLETCHER AND ELSA LEHMAN (nursing) will attend the biennial convention of the National League for Nursing in San Francisco, May 2-7...Mrs. Morken and Miss Fletcher will be the official delegates to the meeting of the Department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs which will also meet during the convention.

* * *

UNIVERSITY IN PROFILE

Miklos Rosza, composer of the "Vanities of Life" and Maurice Skones, chairman of the department of music, will be the guests on this week's University in Profile program at 3 p.m. Saturday on KTNT-TV, Channel 11.

They will discuss with Judd Doughty, producer of the program, the American composer and what is happening to the contemporary music.

* * *

THE COPY HOOK

Delta Hall will sponsor a golf tournament next week at the College Golf Course with proceeds going to the World University Service. Entry fee is 75 cents for 18 holes with tickets on sale in the Bookstore. Both men and women are eligible to enter with a number of prizes being awarded.

* * *

Faculty and Administrative Staff: Don't forget to sign up for a baseball ticket. There are a few tickets left for the home games of the Tacoma Giants. You may sign up for them at the Information Desk in the administration building.

* * *

The plastic-bound catalogs for faculty and administrative staff have arrived and may be picked up in the public relations office.

* * *

PRE-REGISTRATION SCHEDULED FOR TACOMA, PORTLAND, SALEM

The Registrar's and Admissions' offices will conduct pre-registration in Tacoma, Portland and Salem this weekend. A total of 85 high school seniors are expected to register during the Tacoma registration on campus Friday evening and Saturday; 55 in Portland Friday and Saturday and 25 in Salem Saturday.

Similar sessions to be held in Spokane and Seattle are planned for May 14-15.

A majority of the faculty members will assist with these registration programs.

* * *

PLU BASEBALLERS ENTERTAIN WESTERN,
TRACK SQUAD TRAVELS TO S.P.C.

PLU opens its Evergreen Conference baseball schedule Saturday when the Knights entertain Western Washington in a pair of seven-inning games, beginning at 1 p.m.

The Vikings are 10-1 for the season and 4-0 in EvCo Western Division action, needing but a single victory over PLU Saturday to clinch its fourth straight division title.

Western Washington is the defending EvCo champion, defeating Whitworth in playoff action last year.

PLU will carry a 1-5 record into Saturday's league opener. Coach Roy Carlson has named Al Hedman and Mike Arkell as his starters.

Hedman owns the Knights lone victory while Arkell sports the best earned run average at 0.59.

Ken Klubberud leads the PLU batters with an even .400 average while Steve Dalgelish is close behind with a .375 mark. Dalgelish also has a pair of doubles and three rbi's to lead in both departments.

Al Freutel leads in the steal department with four in six games.

Following Saturday's games, PLU will play six games in six days with twin bills scheduled against University of British Columbia Monday, University of Puget Sound Wednesday and a return pair in Bellingham next Saturday with the Vikings.

The PLU track squad will seek its fourth victory of the season Saturday when it travels to Seattle to meet Seattle Pacific College in a dual meet at Queen Anne Bowl.

The Knights topped Puget Sound and St. Martin's 103-43-29 Wednesday for their third victory of the season against a pair of second place finishes in triangular meets.

Two PLU performers will carry unbeaten records into Saturday's competition. Wendell Brown, who owns the PLU record at 48.6 seconds in the 440-yard run, will be seeking his sixth straight victory in that event.

Lief Johnsson, who is suffering from an ankle injury, will attempt to gain his fifth straight win in the triple jump. He also holds the PLU record with a leap of 7' 2½".

Less Rucker, PLU's point leader with 93 3/4 points in five meets, has suffered only one defeat in the broad jump and the 100-yard dash.

The Falcons have defeated PLU the last two years in dual competition.

* * *

(continued on next column)

