The total, an all-time high, is an increase of seven percent over last fall's enrollment.

A b eakdown of figures show 515 freshmen, 408 sophomore, 376 juniors, 353 seniors, 216 graduates, 15 special and 109 extension.

OVER 800 LUTHER L AGUERS EXPECTED ON CAMPUS FOR SPORTS DAY SATURDAY

The first Luther League Sports Day Saturday is expected to draw over 850 Luther Leaguers and advisors from some 53 churches in Washington and Oregon to the PLU campus.

The Luther Leaguers will arrive about 10 a.m. and be given a tour of the campus. Members of the Spurs, Intercollegiate Knights and Alpha Phi Omega will act as hosts.

The Leaguers will eat their lunch in Columbia Center with the Nordics providing the entertainment.

Following the lunch, the Leaguers will attend the PLU-Whitworth football game at Lincoln Bowl.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Oct. 14 -- Janet Ulleland Oct. 17 -- Dale Nielson Oct. 19 -- Miriam Bechman HIGH SCHOOL-COLLEGE CONFERENCE ON PLU CAMPUS NEXT THURSDAY

The annual high school-college conference will be held here next Thursday from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Approximately 23 colleges and universities from Washing on and Oregon will have representatives present to confer with 1,250 high school seniors from area high schools.

In order to accommedate our visitors, several adjustments relative to class schedules, etc. have to be made. Chapel that day will be held in the Trinity Lutheran Church instead of Eastvold Chapel.

Also, the faculty lounge will be closed to give the visiting admission cou sellors a place to relax during their free time.

Other changes in schedule will be announced by the administration early next week.

The administration asks the cooperation of the faculty and staff in this endeavor. Our admission counsellors have been treated reyally while attending these conferences at other institutions. We hope they will be able to say the same about PLU.
