

"Bishop's Mantle" Cast Makes A Hit With Capacity Crowd

By D. B.

Last night as the familiar maroon curtain of our PLC stage opened, the first presentation of Marian L. Johnson's "The Bishop's Mantle" was presented to a capacity audience and was a great success.

The play, which is a three-act comedy drama depicting the trials and problems of a new rector in an old congregation steeped in tradition, will be presented this afternoon at three for special matinee prices, and again tomorrow evening at 8:15 p.m.

From the time the audience first beheld the attractive set with its grained walls and stain-glass windows, until the climax in the third act, the

20 Freshmen Girls Become Spurs at Tea

Twenty freshmen girls were pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon when they were tapped for Spurs, national honorary for sophomore women, at the annual AWS Award Tea.

Chosen for the service group on the basis of their cooperation in activities as a freshman, were: Judith Larson, Henniina Meyer, Joanne Schwartz-walter, Darlene DeJardine, Carolyn Hauge, Shirley Francis, Peggy Hollbrook, Janet Carson, Ilene Drivsturn, Priscilla Asper, Charlotte LaQua, and Inga Astrup.

Others include Rosaline Reitz, Marjorie Thompson, Joann Huchtoen, Kathryn Lee, Joyce Genz, Judith Bergman, Anja Jaaska and Joanne Schief.

The new Spurs will take care of station booths, act as guides on the campus, do ushering and other miscellaneous jobs on the campus next year. Miss Grace Blomquist is adviser of the group.

Business Club Boasts Busiest Group at PLC

Alpha Sigma Lambda members topped off a successful year at a farewell banquet for seniors and Dr. and Mrs. Patrick last Friday evening.

Nominated to carry on the Business club's full schedule of activities for next year are Rosella Albrecht and John Lining for president; Leroy Johnson, Bob Johnson, Clair Niese, Jim Charlstrom and Jack Enochs for vice-president; Dot Barrett and Shirley Thompson for secretary, and George LePard and Dick Laws for treasurer.

Among the achievements of the Business club for 1950-51 were the successful campaign for Saga queen, Judy Larson; sponsoring the winning booth at the Saga Carnival; and gathering and selling scrap metal to increase the club's treasury by $48.

Broback, Ulleland, Fink, Cummings To Lead Next Year's Student Body

Results of the ASB election for next year's officers were announced last week. The following students were named by their classmates to lead 1951-52 activities: President, Art Broback; vice-president, Duane Ulleland; secretary, Marion Cummings; treasurer, Al Fink.

Yell leaders are Dave Roe, Jack Enochs, Barbara Espedahl and Marilyn Myklebust.

JoAnn Nodtvedt, Shirley Sagehorn and Paul Wangs mo have been elected to the posts of Saga editor, Saga associate editor, and business manager, respectively.

Eastvold to Honor Seniors Wednesday

Seniors and fifth year students will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Eastvold and the faculty Wednesday evening at the annual President's Reception which will be held in the SUB.

Invitations for the semi-formal affair are being sent to graduating students and their wives and husbands.

The president and faculty will form a reception line from 8 to 9 p.m. and refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

Blue Key Accepts Nine Men Into Organization

Blue Key, the honorary service club for junior and senior men, accepted new members May 15, according to Dean L. O. Eklund, adviser.

Nine sophomore and junior men were considered by the group to have the four basic qualifications—character, leadership, service, and scholarship—for membership.

Accepted by Blue Key were Don Breimo, Art Broback, Al Fink, Jim Kanth, John Lining, Don Berse, Bill Rieck, John Rose and Paul Wangs mo.

The new officers for the coming year will be Don Ellertson, president; Don Reiman, vice-president; Otto Reitz, secretary-treasurer, and George Nowadnick, Intro-Club Council representative.

Gov't Delays Construction Of New Chapel

Due to government restrictions, it is doubtful whether the new Chapel-Music-Speech building will be completely finished by fall, according to Steiro and Henson, contractors. However, parts of the building will be ready for use.

The construction has been plagued by material shortages and government restrictions since its beginning. In an interview recently, Mr. Steiro said that the gypsum roof blocks now being installed are six weeks late due to the government's requisitioning the first two shipments.

A crew of 30 men is at work laying brick and putting the roof on the auditorium.

Senior Day Activities Scheduled for Friday

Traditional ceremonies and other activities are in store for seniors next Friday, May 25, when the graduating class holds its annual Senior Day.

Among the events planned are a special chapel program from 10 to 11 a.m., the annual shrub planting, and a picnic. The recently-found shovel will be used to plant the shrub and the seniors will try to find an ingenious hiding place for it.

Faculty to Have Coffee Hour in Stuen's Yard

Monday afternoon in the garden of O. J. Stuen, members of the faculty, their wives and husbands will gather for a coffee hour.

Supporting Karl in characterizations which will be long remembered are: LaWanna Wellandt, who plays the part of his fiancée, whom he just about loses along with his job; Jerry Roth, who plays the part of Dick, Hilary's young brother; Dick's girl, the lovable Maudie Dunn, portrayed by Doris (Continued on page 4)

Two Music Students To Audition for Navy

Jack Bowron and Noel Abrahamson, seniors, have been notified that they may audition for the Navy School of Music, June 5 in San Diego, Calif.

Students admitted to this school receive a minimum of six months and a maximum of two years of training in music before being placed in an organized navy band either on a permanent base or on a ship.

Thelma Staswick to Head AWS; Coeds Win Honors At Annual Awards Tea

Scholarships were awarded, the AWS cabinet was announced and Spurs and Tassels were tapped at the annual AWS Award Tea yesterday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the SUB.

Dorothy Sweet, past AWS social chairman, acted as mistress of ceremonies at the busy affair. Greetings were extended to the women by Miss Beulah Hedahl, Mrs. Holstad and Mrs. Kreidler.

Joan Soper presented several vocal solos and background music on the organ was provided by Wally Nelson. Pouring were Miss Grace Blomquist and Miss Jean McGregor.

Four girls were awarded special scholarships. Recipient of the Women of Rotary $75 scholarship was Helen Huswick. Kathryn Reule was given the $75 Ladies of Kiwanis award. Both girls are members of the junior class.

Each year AWS presents a scholarship to one PLC woman for her scholarship record, participation in college activities and good. This year, due to the huge success of the faculty show (from which the funds came), two $70 scholarships were given. Mary Holmquist and Irene Hanson received them.

A highlight of the Award Tea was the announcement of the AWS cabinet for next year. By vote of the women at PLC the following girls were elected to head the group: Thelma Staswick, president; Louise Stephenson, vice-president; Anja Jaska, secretary; Joann Huchtoen, treasurer.

Publicity chairman will be Grace Foye, Mary Lynn Myklebust is the new social chairman, and Audrey Knutson is Intro-Club Council representative.

Names of the girls tapped by Spurs and Tassels appear in separate stories.

Deadline Is Extended For Coming Draft Exam

The deadline for receipt of Selective Service College Qualification Test applications has been extended to May 25 by Selective Service, Educational Testing Service announced today.

All applications must be in the hands of Education Testing Service by May 25, 1951. This applies to the July 12 date for those students whose religious beliefs prevent their taking the test on a Saturday, as well as to the June 16 and June 30 testings.

Applications are no longer being processed for the May 26 administration and no further tickets can be issued for May 26.

Students who wish to take the test must secure, complete, and mail applications at once.

Orchestra to Give Concert on Sunday

Students, faculty and friends are invited to the annual spring orchestra concert which will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the SUB.

Two student conductors will assist Harley Christopherson in directing the group. They are Helen Hedin and Ken Benschopf.

Walt Braafandt will play a special cello solo and Juwita Griesmer will offer a violin solo.

Included on the orchestra's program will be the "Café of Bagdad," "Blue Danube," "Cesar," and Beethoven's "First Symphony."

Tassels Tap Eight Coeds at Award Tea

Eight junior women won membership into Tassels, honorary for senior girls, at the annual AWS Award Tea yesterday.

To be eligible for membership the student must have a B average or above and be a leader in school activities.

The new Tassels are: Rosella Albrecht, Mildred Foye, Helen Huswick, Carolyn Johnson, Margaret Lucas, June Nyström, Kathy Reule, and Bev Sjoeben.

LSA Elects John Rose As 51-52 Leader

The LSA completed a busy year's schedule last Sunday evening when they held their election and installation of officers and honored seniors at their final meeting of the year.

John Rose was elected president for the coming year. Other officers include Phil Varvick, vice-president; Grace Foye, secretary; Richard Stahlmiller, treasurer; Dave Knutson, ICC representative; Herb Niese, spiritual growth leader; and Bob Ingman, social chairman.

Miss Grace Blomquist, LSA adviser, made a farewell address to the seniors in which Henry Erickson, outgoing president, gave the response.

The local LSA also considered two projects of a national LSA nature, the coming Ashram and the annual LSAction offering. The Ashram, annual meeting of students from all colleges and universities, will be held from August 25 to September 1 at Interlocken, Michigan. Students wishing to attend should contact Helena Littau before June 15.

An appeal was made by Bill Hampton for students to give more money to the LSAction offering. Only one-third of the national quota of $30,000 has been raised. PLC, like other colleges, has not met its quota.

Money Is Lure Of Men's Goatees

Monetary prizes are sparking several PLC men into growing goatees.

The odd looking growths will be nursed along until May 26, the day before Commencement, at which time they will be judged for thickness, bushiness, most colorful, and punch jazz by Miss Etie Bege.

A $5 prize in each category will be awarded by a Walla Walla businessman.

Return to Family Worship Critically Needed

By LUTHER W. YOUNGDAHL
 Governor of Minnesota

Count me as a firm believer in the family altar. I am thoroughly convinced that a widespread return to the practice of regular worship in the home would work miracles in meeting the many critical problems of modern life.

Let the family altar become the center around which life revolves and we will regain the spiritual resources so badly needed.

In this day the drift from religion and the breakdown of the home and family are becoming more and more critical. Now, one marriage out of three ends up in the divorce court. Experts predict it will soon be one marriage in every two that meets that tragic fate.

Juvenile delinquency and crime are reaching appalling figures because of this moral deterioration. One finds its effect further by noting the great number of people who are very insecure, selfish, and unhappy. It is evident we are paying a terrible price for the lack of true religious faith.

Yet Christianity stands ready with the answer to man's problems and doubts just as it has for two thousand years. How tragic, then, that we should find an apathetic attitude toward the Church in the hearts of so many of our people.

Fifty per cent of the people in the country are unchurched. Millions of children are being reared in an environment which deprives them of Christian training and religious growth.

Too many people today profess Christian faith but pay it only lip service and no more. They give half-loyalty. Only complete loyalty to Christ will do. It is time that all avowed Christians set an example by practicing a dynamic religious faith in their homes and all phases of daily life.

It is not enough to merely attend church—when there is nothing else to do. The Christian faith demands that we serve God in every possible way.

We are going to replenish our moral reserves only by strengthening the religious life of the family. The spiritual help which comes through deep devotion is to be found in the return of the family altar as a vital part of home life.

Too many of our homes in America have become nothing more than dormitories for sleep, with members of the family going their separate ways in search of entertainment and excitement.

I heartily commend the Lutheran Church for her emphasis upon the importance of the family altar. May all Christian people unite in encouraging religious worship in the home.

—(Luther College Chips)

Chapel Quotes

Professor Overby:

More people have been sung into the Christian Church than have been preached into it. Music is the way to heaven, if it is made to the glory of God. If you don't sing the part which you are able there will be something lacking in the world's harmony.

We should all be instruments tuned to the will of God. Become a lover of that which is beautiful and true.

- Idle Talk -

By J. B. and J. G.

Seems everyone is going around the campus with that tired look. Maybe it's the warm weather or could it be the thought of finals only a few weeks off. We could blame it on the activities of the week.

A capacity crowd attended the Band concert Monday night in the SUB. Much credit goes to the band for an excellent year of performance.

The Viking club cruise was a huge success, according to Paul Wangseto, president of the club. A few in attendance were Letha Berge, Hillary Jacobson, Rex Pine, Bob Nelson, Ilene Drivstuen, Kathy Eide, Marilyn Mural and Barbara Esquedahl.

Our congratulations go to the new student body officers for next year. We feel the student body made a good selection. We would also like to commend the outgoing officers for a swell year of service.

Quite a few students were at the doubleheader ball game in which, incidentally, we won, at CPS this week. Howie Shull, Larry Hauge, Don Heity and Hal Schrupp were a few of the student admirers of the team in attendance. We'd like to see more of you out there backing up our team. They have set a fine record this year already.

Congratulations to Buddy Runyan and Ethel Allen, who announced their engagement Monday night. Both of them are from Vancouver, Wash., and from what we hear it was a high school romance.

Seems there aren't going to be enough Buicks to go around tonight at the auction—from what I hear, Edith Engel, Jerry Sheffels, Dick Laws and Jerry Varner all claim they are going to win that car.

With only one more performance of the "Bishop's Mantle," a full house is anticipated for tomorrow night. So let's see you all there.

Prospective Nurses To Have Interviews

Students interested in entering the nursing program should plan to come to the Registrar's office next Monday or Tuesday for an interview with Miss Elise Knobel, director of nurses at Emanuel Hospital.

PLC's new nursing curriculum will start with the fall semester.

Students Make Summer Plans As Vacation Time Draws Closer

By Joyce Genz

With only two weeks of school left, the popular question around the PLC campus is what are you doing this summer? It seems the most popular place to go is Alaska. Anyway that's what Leland Blom, Paul Wangseto, Don Reiman, Paul Braasland, Dave Kendall and Frank Tidwell have in mind. Kathy Eide also is planning a trip there with her aunt.

Netra Anderson is planning to work in the Bremerton Navy Yard while Al Fink says he is going to be a "junior partner" at Odessa. Loufine seems to be the summer plans of Bob Murvonen. Games Lund claims he is going to sit out the corner of Hollywood and Vine and watch the girls go by.

Wedding bells are ringing for Shirley Pietz, Aeda Flaten and Amy Knutson. The girls are all planning summer weddings. Shirley Molter has a secretarial job in Tacoma and Janet Carson plans to work in a swimming pool in Los Angeles.

PLC itself will claim a number of the students for the summer session of school. Among these are Don Breimo, Hoot Gibson, LeRoy Spitzer, and Dave Knutson. Wish we all had that ambition for more education!

The Erickson twins, Nelda and Melba, are going to Minnesota for the summer while Mariane Pfeiffer is looking forward to a trip to Canada.

Mona Sundvik is working as a parish worker in her home church this summer. A number of students are planning to work with the Anshavadors to help promote PLC and encourage new students for next fall. A few of these are Bill Hampton, John Osboroe, Bob Nelson, Marilyn French and Alan Haslop.

Inside White Dorm; "Life Below the Hill"

By D. T. and D. J.

Have you ever wondered how the people on the lower campus live now, I might add, survive when the spring floods rage down the mighty Clower Creek? Here's the inside dope of how we, the enlighten'd, selected group, work and live together.

Unless it is actually torn, one cannot feel the vibrating sensation of opening their hot air registers and hearing a record, being played with all the velocity that modern science can produce, of Oklahoma, Beakins, or Beethoven's "Jub" Symphony coming from the room of our "Dorm Mother's Photograph," E. M. Larson.

To live next door to Steve Kennedy, as do Duane Tollefson and Dick Johnson, is a special privilege, for they can hear Steve, at least once a week, come into his room, slam the door, and solemnly blast, "I'm off woman for life!" This wouldn't be so bad, but on the other side are the Dougs Heathens singing, but not in harmony, "I Wish I Was in Walla Walla."

And so with a bull-session about the girls up in the dorm going on about the hall, we shall close this week's column and join the boys to add interest and appreciation to the remarks about the fair maidens that inhabit the campus.

Lute Bat Swingers Capture City Title

Win Three Out of Four From CPS

The Gladiator diamond stalwarts earned the position of top occupant on the city college baseball ladder by out-slugging the CPS Loggers, 7-3, in the first game of a doubleheader at American lake Thursday afternoon. CPS took the second contest, 5-1, on a brilliant 1-hit performance by the GPS pitcher, Semmeren. However, the Lutes won three games in the four game series for the Tacoma championship.

This marked the second city championship this year for PLC in their rivalry with CPS. The Glads took basketball honors also, by trouncing them four straight times.

Deciding Game in Series

In the first contest yesterday, the PLC woodmen whacked two opposing hurlers for seven runs, more than enough to win.

Southpaw Lowell Knutson went the seven inning distance and was credited with the win. His backstopper was Jack Johnson.

Glen Huffman seems to take a liking to CPS pitching. The Lute right-outfielder collected two triples and single in four trips in the first game, and hit safely four out of eight times in the two games on Monday.

The Loggers might well have won the city crown if they had pitching like in the second game yesterday.

Logger Hurls One-Hitter

CPS chucker Semmeren allowed only one hit, an infield single, off the bat of Ron Billings in the sixth inning.

Wally Feax, Lute hurler gave up only four hits, but CPS managed five runs to preserve themselves from a shutout in the series.

The winning battery for CPS was Semmeren and Branchley and the losing combination, Feax and Huffman for PLC.

Lute Sweep Twin Bill

PLC won both games of the twin bill, 10-9 and 4-3, in one extra inning, on their home field Monday.

Lowell Knutson was the winning pitcher in a wild first game which totaled 15 errors for the two teams and 19 runs.

Ron Billings broke up the second affair in the eighth frame with a single. Although Gerry Hefty worked the first seven cantos, Wally Feax, who relieved him in the eighth, was the winner.

Gladiator Thinclads to Compete In All-Conference Track Meet

Pacific Lutheran's thinclads will compete tomorrow against the top runners and field event men of the Evergreen Conference at Cheney in the annual carnival.

Heavy favorites to take top team honors are Eastern and Central. The Savages capped first place in the St. Martin's Relays two weeks ago.

Five men will carry the black and gold for PLC. They are Jim Lund, who will enter the one and two-mile races; Huey Malnes, broad jump and low hurdles; Paul Garrison, high jump; Oliver Magnuson, discus and shotput; and Bob Brass, shotput.

Head track mentor, Mary Harshman, doesn't expect his boys to break any records, but thinks they should make an average showing.

Jim Lund, ace Lute distance man, and Oily Magnuson, discus thrower, appear to be the gladiator's only chances for firsts.

LOGGERS WIN OVER WESTERN AND PLC THINCLADS

CPS finally finished ahead of PLC in a track meet, after falling to the Gladiators twice in previous meets this season. The Loggers totaled 61 points, Western 54½ and PLC 46½ in the triangular affair last Saturday on the Lute track.

Jim Lund, top PLC distance man, earned 10 points, winning firsts in the mile and two-mile runs.

CD Atomic Course

Sponsored by the radiological section of Tacoma Civilian Defense, a series of four lectures on atomic defense procedure will start Tuesday evening in the PLC Science building, continuing at 8 p.m. each Tuesday for the course.

The project is for all of Pierce county and it is hoped that each CD organization will be represented by at least two members.

Pullman Netters Defeat Lutherans

Washington State handed the Gladiator tennis squad an 8-1 setback Wednesday on the PLC courts.

LeRoy Spitzer saved the day for the Lutes, downing Powell, the Cougar first man, 7-5, 6-2.

The results: Singles—Spitzer d. Poverik, 7-5, 6-2; Brewer d. Larson, 6-0, 7-5; Towner d. Niese, 6-0, 6-0; Gilliland d. Jaeger, 6-1, 6-1; Munroe d. Ingman, 6-4, 6-2; Cummings d. Nevig, 6-1, 6-0.

Doubles—Powell-Brewer d. Spitzer-Larson, 6-2, 6-1; Towner-Gilliland d. Niese-Jaeger, 6-2, 6-4; Munroe-Cummings d. Ingman-Nevig, 6-0, 6-2.

Round-up Days

You will hear a lot about Parkland Roundup from now on till it is over and then perhaps even longer, because in the minds of those concerned and promoting this program there is the keenest of interest and the thought that this is it as far as putting the name Parkland on the map. Interest is mounting to a record high in any community project.

Trophy Play Begins Monday

Elimination match play in the all-school golf tournament will begin next Monday, according to Mr. Newham, sponsor of the event.

All score cards of those planning to enter must be turned in to Mr. Newham not later than tomorrow night.

Together with Mr. Karl Newham will determine the handicaps and make the drawing for matches.

Pairings Will Be Announced Monday

A schedule will be posted on Monday of the pairings and the matches may then be played at the players' convenience. The tournament will be on a single elimination basis.

Anyone who would still like to enter the tourney, turn in three score cards from the PLC course to Mr. Newham by Saturday evening.

The winner of the event will be presented a small individual cup, and his name and the year will be inscribed on a large perpetual trophy.

PLC Grads to Take Over Many Washington School Positions

As the school doors swing open next September, many schools will have behind those familiar "teachers' desks" recent graduates from PLC in the field of Education, according to Miss Anna Marn Nielsen, director of teacher placement.

Although 28 students who will receive their degree in Education next week are planning to enter the service or to go on to other schooling, a total of 29 students have been placed in schools throughout the state of Washington.

Alum To Investigate Youth Movement And Tell Results At Ashram

Marilyn Pfeuffer, '50 PLC graduate who has been doing advanced work at Syracuse University, was chosen as one of 30 American students to receive a work-study scholarship in Europe next summer. The group will leave June 1.

The scholarships are granted by the Lutheran World Student Service organization and the students will investigate youth movements in Holland, France, Germany, Norway, Denmark and Sweden. Ten students will travel to the north and ten will journey to the south. They will work with native students in each country and the whole group will return after eight weeks to Hanover, Germany, for a special conference together.

The American students will return together to the national Ashram and report their experiences at this national Lutheran student's convention to be held in Interlochen, Michigan.

Mrs. Jess Thompson Honored at Shower

Employees in the library were entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Gertrude Tingstad and Miss Emily Stotheth in their apartments. The affair was also a shower for Mrs. Jess Thompson, former employe in the library.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the group, which included Mrs. O. J. Stuenkel, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. D. Williams, and Miss Eleanor Holmstrom, besides PLC students employed in the library.

Dr. Jordahl to Speak On Atomic Explosions

Dr. Olaf Jordahl, professor of physics, will be one of the main speakers at a series of civil defense lectures which will start next Tuesday.

The lectures are part of a training program for radiological defense workers and will include such subjects as Atomic Bomb Explosions and Immediate Results (which Dr. Jordahl will give), Residual Radiation (Delayed Effects), and Radiation Detecting Equipment.

Dr. S. S. Sanderson, head of the radiological section of the Tacoma Civil Defense Board, is in charge of the lectures.

Micro Lab Offers Students Chance For Blood Typing

When the word got around recently that microbiology students are making tests of one another's blood to see if they are RH negative, many of PLC's engaged people flocked to science hall to get typed.

Recent medical discoveries in human blood analysis have popularized the RH factor. If a mother is RH negative and her child is RH negative, there may be physical abnormalities in the child. So far, out of all those tested at PLC, only four, two of them girls, are RH negative. Arrangements are being made with a Tacoma laboratory for these people.

Microbiology students, under the direction of Mrs. Cherice Cress, instructor in biology, also are studying the effects on minute organisms on animal and plant life. Currently they are making assay tests of penicillin. The bacteria cultures being used in the experiment are those which are the common source for boils on the skin.

Actual laboratory conditions and equipment are used in the science hall for the pre-nursing, pre-dental, pre-medical technology and education students who take the microbiology course.

Mrs. Cress points out that the course is a good one for housewives and future homemakers. "They learn about food spoilage, how to take care of food and how to recognize the symptoms of disease," she said.

Nine-tenths of our difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is.

"Bishop's Mantle" Is First Night Success

George and Maudie's father, J. Dunn, the lusty, hilarious character, played by Bob Nielsen.

The old season of St. Math played by Howard Worley, and Maudie's secretary, Miss Mow, characterized by Jean Harnett, are individuals that keep things in motion at St. Matthew's and help Maudie with his problems.

Roberta Schoester, Frances B. and Sally Whitley play the three women, Mrs. Reed, Hattie Beckham and Samantha Adams, respectively and the different personages prove to be delightful.

Mr. Alvord, senior warden of St. Matthews, who causes trouble for Maudie and nearly has him ousted, played by Dick Swart, and the priest, Mary McGeehan is played by Don Sweet.

The play is under the direction of Miss Jean McGeehan, assisted by Elberton Madsen. Madsen is head manager and advertising manager.

Students and faculty are urged to take advantage of Friday afternoon performance and are urged to attend "The Bishop's Mantle" for an evening of entertainment and delight.

Rhodes Scholarship competition will be held December 1951. The value of a Rhodes Scholarship is 500 per year and the appointment is for two years. To be eligible a candidate must be an unmarried citizen of the United States, between ages of 19 and 25 on October 1, 1951, have completed at least his sophomore year by time of application, and receive official endorsement of his college university. For more information, contact State committees through State Supt. before Nov. 3, 1951.
