Do you know a former PLCite who is now in the service? The Tassels are compiling a list of servicemen and women so the MOORING MAST can be sent to them.

Please put their name and address in the folder marked "Circulation" that is hanging on the wall bulletin board in the Mast office in the SUB.

LSA To Hold Special Service

L.S.A. will commemorate Thanksgiving this Sunday evening with a special service in the Trinity Lutheran Chapel at 7 p.m.

Dr. J. P. Pflueger, professor in philosophy and religion will deliver the message at the service in remembrance of the fathers of the United States.

Sacred music will be provided by a trio composed of Mary Ensborg, Karen Kvern and Jean Frieske.

"The offering will be given to Lutheran Student Action and will help fill the PLC quota, vice president Hal Ruddick stated. He further explained, "all contributions to LSAction go into a fund to help needy Lutheran students, the world over.

Everett Savage will offer the opening prayer and Dave Nesvig will give devotions.

Ski Club Elects At First Meeting; "Topper" Prexy

The crisp cold air, gray skies, and the first meeting of the Ski Club shows that winter is on its way. The Ski Club met Tuesday night with a large turnout of Scandinavian ski enthusiasts.

The purpose of this meeting was to get the club organized and for election of officers. The following were elected to office: "Topper" Neilson, president; Duane Romo, vice president; Connie Jacobson, re-elected secretary; J. P. Carlstrom, ICC, representative; Rosemary Roth, treasurer. The matter of dues and an adviser was left in question for the time being.

After the meeting colored movies were shown on local skiing.

Forsenic Squad Gets First Test At Denver Meet

This year's PLC forensic squad will meet its first test of strength during the Thanksgiving vacation, journeying to Denver, Colorado for the Western Speech Association tournament.

The tournament, scheduled for Nov. 25, 26 and 27, is held in connection with the annual WSA convention, and is a contest for the forensic championship of the 11 Western states.

Composed entirely of senior division speakers, Coach Theodore Karl's PLC team leaves by train for Denver early Sunday morning. Alan Hatlen, John Osburn, John Rydgren, Dick Borrud, Janet Klippen and Edith Engel will be out to maintain PLC's record as the West's forensic power house. At the WSA meet held a year ago at Fresno, California, the Lutes dominated both debate and individual events.

The Denver tournament, which is expected to attract speakers from some 70 Western colleges, features competition in debate, oratory, discussion, extempore and after dinner speaking. Debaters will consider the national debate topic, "Resolved: that the Congress of the United States Should Enact a Fair Employment Practices Law." All of the PLC representatives will enter debate.

The broad subject for extemp is "The U. S. Foreign Policy." Extemp speakers draw specific topics 45 minutes before speaking, each topic dealing in some way with the general subject. Those entering discussion will tackle the problem of best combatting the threat of communism, and after dinner speakers will quip about "Modern Education."

Hatlen, Klippen, Borrud, Engel, and Osburn are slated to enter debate, extemp, discussion and after dinner speaking. John Rydgren is PLC's sole entry in oratory, and will also compete in debate, discussion, and after dinner speaking.

"All You Can Eat" Theme of Linne Banquet Tuesday

Some seventy guests were present Thursday evening at the Linne Society banquet dinner, held in the Friendship Room of Trinity Lutheran church.

The banquet was planned to follow a unique slogan, "All you can eat—up to a certain point." That point, according to club adviser, was when each and every turkey was down to his "last-most" bone.

Featured speaker of the evening was Sam Brown, Director of Public Relations of Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. His vital speech on conservation was featured with a technicolor movie, "The New Paul Bunyan," filmed at a cost of over $50,000 near Everett.

On the lighter side of the program were musical numbers by Jean Frieske, soprano, and Connie Hansen, pianist.

A committee headed by Grace Foege, working in conjunction with the executive council, made possible the success of this annual function.

AWS 4-State Meeting

Kathy Henricks, publicity chairman and Betty Hanson, president, attended the Four-State Associated Women Students convention at Washington State College in Pullman, November 7th and 8th, 1952.

Problems that were discussed came under the general topics of: "Why Have AWS?" These were answered in three groups: 1. exchange ideas; 2. to promote participation in activities; and 3. set up school standards.

Representatives from the AWS's from the campuses in Washington, Oregon, California, and Idaho had been invited to attend.

Camera Club

"Go back, go back to the woods," were the famous words of Camera Club this Sunday afternoon. Armed with cameras and tripods, the group went on a picture-taking hike to various places around Parkland.

The first part of the hike centered around Tule Lake where many pictures were taken of the wildlife. The next portion was at a burned-over forest about five miles from PLC. Some very good silhouettes were taken here.

After a day of fun and exploration the group came back—proud of their accomplishments!

Senior Class Revue

At a recent senior class meeting plans for a senior revue in the spring were discussed at the senior class meeting October 30, and a committee to look into the possibilities were chosen. Bev Green, Joan Gardner, Marilyn Hanick, and Glenn Werner are on the committee.

Eleven Seniors Bid Adieu To Pacific Lutheran Football

With the 41-7 Lute victory over the University of British Columbia, 11 seniors had donned the Gladiator uniforms for the last time. All but one of the eleven had played college ball for four years; three have attended other colleges; and four have won PLC varsity letters for four years. To the student body, the MOORING MAST presents the seniors:

After 2 years at U. W., Ray Barnes transferred to PLC. In 1951 he was given first team honors in the Evergreen Conference as a guard and honors on the west coast small college team. Barney is a 60-minute guard, has speed along with good size, and is hard to move, and is smart at analyzing plays. Puyallup claims this business administration major as a native son.

Hailing from Lincoln High in Seattle, Bob Brog has won a varsity letter twice at PLC. Very versatile, Bob, in his freshman year, was a back and since then has played defensive, and sometimes offensive, end. Also a business administration major, he is a hard fighter and very seldom do they turn his end.

Fullback Al Fink played his first year of college football under the crimson and grey of Washington State College and came to PLC as a sophomore. Until he was hurt, Al was one of the hardest drivers on the squad, which accounts for his nickname—"Mule Train." This BA major is best on quick plays through the line, and until his foot was hurt last year, did all of the punting.

Sixty-minute tackle, Charles Forsland, is an education major from Lincoln in Tacoma. In 1951 this four-year letterman was given all-conference second team honors and was elected co-captain for 1952. A stone-wall on defense, Charlie moves out fast on offense, and he didn't look too bad running that seven yards for a touchdown against UBC—the firsts of his career.

Three-year letterman from Spokane, Dick Griswold, has played offensive and defensive guard. In his freshman year, Dick played on the backfield on the JV squad. Gris, an education major, will not let anyone come through his side of the line. He is one of the better tacklers and plays

Caught In THE WEB

The Web is writing at random this week but if you think this is bad wait till you see the worst.

When Marty Helberg was asked, "Do you believe in clubs for women?" Mung replied, "Yes, if everybody's form of persuasion fails."

Note: With mid-term grades coming out next week this approach never fails when showing your achievements to father. "Here's my report card Dad and one of yours I found in the attic."

Peg the nurse discouraging a vacuum salesman: "You might try the people next door. We use theirs and it's terrible."

We understand that the girls in the dorm have a new name for their residence. They refer to it as the "Walk-Off Astoria."

Memo to those who wish to reduce. Our slogan—"A word to the wise is sufficient."

Shortest story on earth.

Huh?

Uh huh!

Bob McAdams: "I got shot in the leg during the war."

Inga: "Have a scar?"

Mac: "No thanks, I don't smoke."

Jake: "You look like a million dollars."

Sue: "Oh, do I?"

Jake: "Yeah, all green and wrinkled."

Mike Myklebust: "I wish I had a nickel for every boy I've kissed."

Arne Falk: "What would you do? Buy a package of gum."

Top Man on the Totem Pole

Congratulations to Marvelous Marv Harshman (the brains) and his splendid team (the meat). The past eleven weeks, as we look back on them, seem very short but they were packed with many anxious and exciting moments. Probably the biggest thrill, next to winning the conference, was beating CPS. Speaking of the CPS game—Those two magnificent goal line stands by the defensive platoon will long be remembered.

It's nice to have a few games like the 45 to 9 win over Central and the 41 to 7 victory over UBC which are fine for the health of the fans and the coaches. Those 7 to 7 and 20 to 19 affairs were real ulcer producers (milk is good for ulcers but so is grandma's lye soap). (Poem). The biggest jolt was Humbolt—with the fog providing the trickiest defense the Lutes had ~~discovered~~ into. They managed to lead in all departments but scoring. Art Swanson ran second to the referee in yards gained. Don Chesterfield's 62 yard return of a Central punt for a T.D. and Ron Billing's hustling reception of a Chesterfield pass against UBC were probably the outstanding individual efforts of the campaign.

Sites we'll never forget—
Ole Magnuson's streaking 30 yards scoring run against the Wildcast . . . Chuck Forsland's shredding of the UBC line for 6 points . . . Ray (broken field) Barnes' gazelle-like 1 yard gamble to pay dirt . . . Glenn (deception) Werner's dingling-dangling run back of an intercepted pass . . . Glenn handled the ball with the dexterity of a faro dealer at Harold's club.

Jim (Harry) Ball's attempt at the conference passing percentage leadership fell short with his otly attempted pass.

Intra-murals highlights:—
Not to be outdone by the varsity, the Central Parkland grid machine under the brilliant tutelage of coach Bob (round man) Nielsen ground out a title of their own with an 8-1-1 record. Leading the victorious attack for the Central Parklanders were Wally Feax, Ron Storaasli, Don (J. O.) Krcjic, Lee Hellberg, Edward Morken, and Frank Tidwell.

Look for our Intramural II Star selection next week.
Thanks go to Mark Salzman and his capable Student Director Jack M. Johnson (former Lute great) for the smooth running Intramural program.

Attention Freshman girls—See Myrna Berg for pictures showing nefarious offensive tactics employed by upper-classwomen in recent powder puff bowl game.

Attention all men—the Intramural basketball league will start on or about December 1. Next week opportunity will be provided for each district to hold tournaments—check bulletin board for scheduling. Take advantage of this and submit your eight-man roster to Mr. Salzman as soon as possible.

Varsity basketball tournaments have begun with about 40 aspirants at the initial sessions. There is keen competition for starting berths. With the opening game slated for December 5 against the O'Brien's and the Seattle U. Chieftains, Harsh will have quite a time filling the vacancies created by graduation.

Football Seniors

inspired ball. It seems that as they untangle the pile after a play, it's Griswold on the bottom.

An offensive end for three years and quarterback his senior year, Glen Huffman comes from Lincoln High, Tacoma. Named all-conference defensive end in 1951, "Old Huff" is majoring in mathematics and physics. Huff is both a smart caller as quarterback and, as an end, a big target with a good pair of hands. He has improved every game and likes nothing

35 Hoop-Hopfuls Greet Harshman At First Turnout

Now that football has concluded for the year, basketball turnouts have begun with the first practice of the year being held last Monday afternoon, November 17, in the gym when 35 hoop-hopfuls answered the call of Coach Marv Harshman.

Returning from last year's team which took second place in the Evergreen Conference only behind Whitworth, are Glen Huffman, Garret Lund, Ron Billings, and Bob Ross. Glen Huffman is the only one returning from the starting quintet, and he may see only limited action during the first part of the season because of a leg injury from football. Of the rest of the starting five Bert Wells, all conference guard, Ed Brown, and Gerry Hefty were lost by graduation, and Jack Johnson signed a pro-baseball contract. Lloyd Eastman and Dick Larson, two members of the second five are not turning out this year.

Members of the last year's junior varsity team who will help to bolster the varsity include Gerald Schimke, Don Hefty, Fred Muenscher, and Vern Hanson.

Besides those who played last year, there are: Don Koessler, a junior who won a varsity letter his freshman year Ron Storaasli, a freshman, all-city guard for two years from Lincoln, Tacoma; Al Gubrud, freshman, from Eugene, Oregon; Dave Hestenes, sophomore, transfer from U.C.L.A.; Nick Helderman, freshman, from Issaquah, who stands 6'7" in height with one year of high school experience; Arnie Falk, freshman, 6'6" in height who didn't play any high school ball but did play in the Marines. Together with these and the team members from last year, Coach Harshman hopes to mold a winning team.

First game for the Lutes this year is Friday, December 5, when they will travel to Seattle to take on Seattle University and the famed O'Brien twins. The first home game will be December 15, with Central in a non-conference game. The schedule includes 12 home games and 14 away. An entirely new opponent will be the University of Alaska who PLC will play at home on December 27.

It costs the athletic department $600 a year to keep the football squad in tape. ($100 a case—six cases are used a season). This amount is a drop in the bucket compared with the $2,000 to $2,400 allotted for adhesive tape at the University of Washington for the same purpose.

Lutes Take Last Games Win Conference Title

Beat Thunderbirds In "Sr." Nite 41-7

Now champions, the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators defeated an out-classed, but hard fighting team, the University of British Columbia, 41 to 7. This victory gave the Gladiators the undefeated, undisputed championship for 1952.

Halfback Roger Madsen took the opening kickoff on his own 15 and ran it down to the UBC 4-yard line. Al Fink went off his right tackle for the score. Dick Larson made his conversion good and the Lutes forged out to an early lead, 7 to 0.

The next time the Lutes got the ball, they scored on four running plays with Fink again plunging over for the score. Larson's kick was short, making the score 13 to nothing.

After the kickoff UBC failed to make a first down and was forced to punt. Big Arnie Falk blocked the punt and it went into the end zone for a safety making the score 15 to 0.

The Lutes scored again on a pass from quarterback Glen Huffman to end Bob McAdams. The kick was blocked by UBC and PLC had the game well in hand leading 21 to 0 at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter the Lutes were held at bay by an inspired UBC defense.

After a 54-yard march in the third quarter, tackle Chuck Forsland went in at fullback and plunged over from the 7-yard line. Ron Billings then tried for the extra point and missed.

The Huffman to Jim Ball combination clicked again, as it has all season and Ball literally stopped on the 1-yard line so the out-going seniors would have their chance to score. Guard Ray Barnes then went in at fullback, with tackle Ole Magnuson, playing quarterback. He took a hand-off and went over from the one for the score. Fink made his kick good.

The UBC Thunderbirds scored late in the closing period in a sustained drive from their own 34.

To be eligible to apply for the college deferment test, a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction; and (3) must not have previously taken the Selective Service college qualification test.

Win Homecoming Fracas 20-19

Squeaking by the Eastern Washington Savages is about the only way that you can describe the outcome of the Gladiators Homecoming Game. The failure of the Savages to make their extra points resulted in the 20 to 19 victory by PLC.

In the first quarter Glen Huffman was forced to kick for the Gladiators. He received a poor pass from center and the kick was blocked. The Savages recovered on the Gladiator 23-yard line. They lost the ball, but the Lutes fumbled and the Savages again took over, this time on the 21. After two plays Dick Bailey broke away from the 13. The kick failed and the Savages led, 6 to 0.

The Lutes then drove down to the 5-yard line, but lost the ball, on a fumble, which seemed to be plaguing them in the early phase of the game.

In the second quarter Don Chesterfield returned a punt to the Eastern 39-yard line. After two plays Roger Madsen crashed over from the 3-yard line. Dick Larson's kick was good, putting the Lutes in the lead, 7 to 6.

The Lutes again scored in the third quarter on a 66-yard march with Huffman passing to Larson for the TD. Larson again made his kick good and the Gladiators led, 14 to 7.

In the fourth quarter Eastern intercepted a Huffman pass and scored on a 17-yard pass from Pierce to Cox. The extra point was good making it 14 to 13.

PLC then drove from the Eastern 45 to the 2 where halfback Swanson drove over. Larson's placement hit the goal post and bounced outward making the score 20 to 13.

Eastern then returned a punt to the PLC 26 where they scored from the three after two plays. Then came the outstanding play of the game when defensive end Paul Wangmo crashed through to block the placement giving the Gladiators a 20 to 19 victory, chinning at least a tie for the championship.

Central Wins Championship Second Time

Central Parkland did it again. For the second straight time in as many years, Central Parkland has won the intramural football championship, this time by virtue of a 6-0 win over Tacoma, Monday afternoon, November 10. Tacoma had formerly led all the way.

Played on a muddy field, which saw both teams hampered because of it, the championship game saw no scoring at all during the first three quarters. Finally in the fourth quarter Central scored on a pass from Wally Feax to a teammate who fumbled the ball, but Ron Storaasli was close enough to catch the loose ball for a touchdown. Tacoma was down on Central's one yard line four times, but could not seem to push over the needed score.

Some interesting statistics for the entire season are, top point getter of the league was Don Koessler of Tacoma with ten touchdowns to his credit, Ron Storaasli and Phil Wiggen both with six touchdowns, and Wendal Watts who threw fourteen touchdown passes.

Intramural Point System in Effect

Starting with football and concluding with softball, PLC will once again have an intramural point system as it did last year in which the ten highest-point winners in the student body will be awarded intramural medals.

Points for the contest will be awarded in the following sports: touch football, basketball, free throw contest, badminton, volleyball, table tennis, indoor gymnastics, track and field, tennis, and softball.

In each sport, points are given for both team participation and individual participation. They are both based on participation in each contest, winning of contest, and rank in league or contest. Officiating of contests also contributes ten points to any individual wishing to do that. For all the details of how many points are awarded for each sport, check the bulletin board. Besides the individual awards, the district winning the most points over all will receive the traveling trophy.

Cercle Francis Features Slides At First Meeting

La Cercle Francis held its first meeting of the year Tuesday evening, November 18, in CMS-227 with the highlight of the evening being a colorful display of slides of France, Italy, Germany, England, Luxembourg, Bavarian Alps, Austria, and other parts of Europe by Mr. John Riemann.

Mr. Riemann, presently a graduate student at CPS, studying to be a French teacher, spent all of last year in the province of Alsac in France at Strausbourg University. It is from here that he traveled to all parts of Europe during vacations to take the many shots presented.

Before the slides were shown, Mrs. Little, adviser to the French Club played French folk songs to the enjoyment of all assembled.

Assorted candies were served during the slides for refreshments.

better than when three would-be tacklers come at him, to lay them low.

Hillsboro, Oregon's Roger Ma sen has played three years of football at P.L.C., transferred to OSC for his sophomore year, lettering in his junior year. He has played halfback and fullback, and is majoring in biology. Because of the way he runs, the opposition doesn't know where he'll go; if he'll cut, jump, or hurdle the tackler. Roger has earned the title of "Crazy Legs". A very fast back, he set the team in the right frame of mind with his 81 yard kickoff return at the opening of the UBC game. He is the only that plays inspired ball.

The other icelander on the squad, Ole Magnuson is also an education major from Lincoln, Tacoma. He has played four years at PLC—as offensive and defensive tackle. In 1951 he was named to the all-conference first team, and by his team-mates, co-captain for 1952. Magnuson and Forsland could be called the "Tackle twins", as he, too, is a defensive stone-wall and an offensive hard charger. Ole ran thirty yards to a TD on a Central block punt, also the first in his football career.

The smallest man on the squad, 5'6" Art Swanson has completed his fourth year of varsity ball for the Lutes. "Little Art" is an education major, with Puyallup as his home town. A good scabback, "Scooter Swanson" goes through the line, around the ends, gets lost in the line, and if necessary, goes through the legs of the opposing team to gain that all-important yardage. He drives hard when carrying the ball.

When someone dared Paul Wangsmo to turn out for football, he did—in the middle of last year. Now he is one of the better defensive ends. Wangs, who is also an education major, Associated Student Body president, and from Arlington, is rough on the passer, tough on the end sweeps, and in there when punts are to be blocked.

From Queen Anne High in Seattle, Glenn Werner has turned out for four years. In his sophomore year, he was hurt quite badly. He is majoring in business administration and has won letters in his frosh, junior and senior years. During that time, Weinerschnitzle has played defense mainly, and also line backer and center on offense, in the last game. This year he went all the way without an injury and played smart ball.

The Voice Needed Most

The increased attention being given to new translations of the Bible by Protestant and Catholic alike has caused the American Bible Society to sponsor again between Thanksgiving and Christmas a worldwide reading of the greatest passages of the Bible.

It is expected that these 29 selections will be read, one a day, by millions of people in not less than 38 countries. The President of the United States is honorary chairman of a committee of distinguished laymen supporting the movement. In his endorsement of the plan the President has said:

"In these troubled times, the truths which the Bible teaches are of greater and greater importance to mankind. They are the only final answer to the forces of organized hate which now threaten the civilized world.

"I hope that the Worldwide Bible Reading program this year will be widely observed, and that more Americans than ever will take advantage of it. Whatever translations or revisions the Bible may go through, it will always remain the same great Book bearing God's message to man."
