L. S. U. President Asks For Religious Activity

Now that classes for the school year 1934-1935 have been resumed on your Campus, the officers of the Lutheran Students' Union welcome new students and former students to a new year of consecrated religious activity. Every member of your student body belongs to the Lutheran Students' Union, together with all the students at the other institutions of higher learning maintained by the N. L. P. A. More than three thousand students constitute the membership of this Union.

It is well, at the beginning of the school year, that the members of this organization, be reminded of its functions and purposes, namely:

To foster religious life and activity among the students of our Church schools.

To promote the spirit of fellowship among our students.

To foster interest in Christian Education.

To create more interest in Mission Activity in our Church schools.

It is our wish that the Lutheran Students' Union may be permitted to exert a blessed influence upon the student life on your Campus, as well as upon student life on the campuses of the other Church schools.

L. OLAV TOLO, President.

Joe Mitchell Elected Freshman Class Proxy

Mrs. Messelen to Speak

Mrs. Messelen from Lincoln High in Tacoma will speak at the evening of the French Club Friday. Mrs. Bondy presides an interesting time for all who attend as Mrs. Messelen is noted for her telling of amusing French stories. Following the program refreshments will be served.

Get the Celebration Spirit

This week Pacific Lutheran College will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of its dedication. There is much to look forward to, as a good program has been arranged. Even now it is not too early to get into the spirit of the occasion and to prepare ourselves by reading up on the history of the college. There will be present at the program many old personalities who have been connected with the school in the past, so that it will be of interest to us to know beforehand who they are and what they have done for the school.

Of course the most joyful thing to look forward to is the meeting of old friends. This anniversary year should bring together a host of alumni who have attended this institution over the long period of forty years. With them will come the atmosphere of old times and the recollection of old scenes.

One of the colorful features of this great homecoming festival will be the Bellingham football game played in Tacoma. At this event the alumni will see in action one of the hardest fighting teams this school has had.

This fortieth anniversary celebration promises to be a festive season. Let us, therefore, make everything ready for the former students of P. L. C. and give them a hearty welcome.

Campus Beautified

These last four weeks have seen a change gradually creep over the face of our fair campus. A hole in the ground slowly grew into an oddshaped cavity that lay with a black mouth gaping at the sky. This mouth in turn received a silver lining. Soon rocks appeared on the brink of this silvered cavity and then shrubs poked their branches through the cracks between the rocks.

This bit of evolution showing itself on the front of our campus is a great addition to the beauty of our surroundings. On sunny days it will be possible for us to rest our eyes on a placid pool that reflects to the sunlight the flickering colors of gold fish.

For this spot of beauty we are indebted to the class of '32 and the crew of industrious boys who made this project possible.

On P. L. C. Spirit

What makes this school unique among institutions of higher learning? The first and spontaneous reply to this question is that it has a friendly Christian atmosphere. The members of the faculty are sympathetic to the individual needs of the students and active in fostering character above all else in their development. There is also that undertone of humility permeating the class-room lectures that is rarely found in the universities where man and his selfish ambitions are often exalted.

The motto of the school, as it silently works its meaning into the students' development, is to sacrifice self and to prepare one's self to serve others.

LIGHTER THAN AIR

It's very nice of the World Series to end so quickly, giving the Dorm boys a chance to settle down to the minor business of studying.

It is easy to identify John Driebel as the owner of the little car. He is the one who, after you pull the door shut, always opens it again and slams it harder.

NOVELL NAGEL, JOANNA MANOUSOS, MILDRED MONSON, and IDA THOMPSON are terrible cooks, but they were on the eas committee. ED SWINTH snuffing at the punch before drinking any of it. MR. HIOBBY taking it all in one gulp. SHIRLEY SAVAGE ya wning now and then. PAUL PRUS on the floor half of the time. Not enough boys to go around, so ELDON ANDERSON comes around. The whole dorm invited for lunch.

Lack of tact: Ordering a hot dog at a lunch stand close to the pound.

HAVE YOU MET?

A girl with dependability personified? She's taking her third year Normal course and has showed her ability for leadership as president of the Delta Rho Gamma last year. This blond is oft times seen driving between Brookdale and the College, Brookdale being her home town.

She was chosen by the student body to serve on the Board of Control this year. Being a conscientious worker she holds her position well.

Smiling at all times she gives us the impression she is always bubbling over with pep and enthusiasm.

Not only is she a studious type but is also athletic, last year going out for basketball and tennis.

All that know her claim she is a true friend. Let's the rest of us meet her.

One who goes in for athletics in a big way, and who owns a three-year letterman's sweater? Short and dark complexioned is this person with sparkling eyes. Seldom is she seen without a smile on his face.

This 145 pounds of good fight is never seen playng a game but that he is determined to win. With his whole heart and soul he enters the field and returns with the same.

He was conferred the honor of being elected vice-president of the graduating class.

He is playing his fourth year of football this year, and last year received his third letter for basketball. However, football and basketball are not the only part of athletics this individual is interested in. Last year he was chosen captain of the baseball team for the "Shacksters."

Girls, let's meet this athletic hero now, for who knows but that some day he may become famous.

Miss Solveig Rynning, who graduated from P. L. C. in 1931, is leaving for Kotzebue Sound soon, where she is to be married to Mr. Henry Xavier, who is a deputy sheriff there. The groom is a brother of Prof. J. U. Xavier.

Lutheran Gridders Out To Get Vikings In Saturday Clash

Glads Seeking First Victory of Season: Will Be Decked in New Uniforms

Decked out in new uniforms and determined to help make Pacific Lutheran College's combined homecoming game and 40th anniversary a real event to celebrate, Coach Cliff Olson's football forces are drilling diligently in preparing to meet the strong Bellingham Normal squad Saturday. The game which is scheduled to start at 2:30 will be played in the Lincoln Bowl.

According to word which drifts South from Bellingham, Coach Charlie Lapenbusch will be bringing down one of the strongest teams the teachers have had in recent years. However, the wearers of the yellow and black will be in proper physical and mental shape to meet them.

With their two toughest games already played the Gladiators will be out to start a string of victories beginning with the Bellingham battle, when hundreds of old P. L. C. grads will be looking on.

One cause for this outlook is the return to action of Captain Val Votaw, full-footed star of Coach Olson's backfield, who has been out with a wrenched back for the first two games of the season. Hal will be rarin' to go Saturday and his presence is expected to supply the much needed spark that has been sadly missing in the Gladiator attack in their first games.

Outstanding on the forward wall have been the performances of Russ Frye, star tackle and John "Fud" Fadness, aggressive center, whose play in this, his fourth year for the Lutherans has been a revelation to those playing against him. Frye proved to be a tower of strength at tackle against the U. S. S. Maryland team last Saturday.

Probable starting lineups:

P. L. C.	Bellingham
Jack	REL Davidson (5)
Svinth	RTL Miller (13)
Martin	RGL Tomoe (15)
Fadness	C Waara (15)
Hanson	LOR Ullin (14)
Frye	LTR Prender (21)
Nilsen	LER Odell (8)
Moe	Q Miller (8)
O'Connor	RHL Franklin (9)
Votaw	LHR Bagley (2)
Ludlow	F Tarte (24)

Sport Slants

By Eldon Anderson

The game next Saturday, between the Vikings and the Gladiators, promises to be a real battle. Last year Coach Olson's boys went down to defeat before the Vikings. This year is going to be a different story. The Lutherans are much more powerful and much speedier and the Vikings will have to play some real ball to beat Olson's squad. They are pepped up to the highest degree and nothing will be able to stop them except a steam roller and the Normal boys haven't that.

The spirit of the last two football games was surely the thing. The reason we made such a good showing against Linfield was due, mainly, to the send-off the team got and the school spirit that was present. The pep and attendance at the last game was great, but let's make the Homecoming game the biggest and peppiest ever. With such enthusiasm and spirit the team can't help but win.

As a result of the game with Maryland, several of the squad were slightly injured. Bucky O'Conner came out of the game with a sprained foot, but he will be raring to go when the whistle blows next Saturday. Gene Jack, the "Old Faithful" pass receiver, was also taken from the game with an injured foot. He will be "Johnny-on-the-spot" when the game starts next week. The most serious injury was inflicted upon Stan Ford, reserve end, who replaced Gene. He was in the game two plays, and then one of the Navy's "baby elephants" politely stepped on his hand and broke a finger. Stan will be out for next week's game, but he hopes to be in there two weeks hence. Except for these slight injuries, nothing happened except the usual bumps and bruises. All will be ready to scalp the Bellingham squad next week.

For the Homecoming game, there is to be a real treat in store for the spectators. During the half time, there is going to be a football game played by the fairer sex, the Dorm girls versus the Day girls. Boy, what a game this promises to be. They have been drilled in plays and fundamentals; and it looks like a real battle will take place between the two squads.

It seems that a certain fellow on the football squad has lost all the horseshoes, fourleaf clovers, and rabbit feet in the world. This fellow is captain Hal Votaw. Last year Hal broke his ankle in the St. Martins game and, as a result, was out for the season. This year Hal injured his back in a practice game with C. P. S. However, Hal is a fellow who won't quit, and he will be in the Bellingham game next week.

After the battle is over, after the break of—oh well, skip it. The U. S. S. Maryland beat P. L. C. but what of it. They had a team that was the pick of the Navy and they are to be commended on their remarkable playing and sportsmanship. Although out-weighted by man pounds, the Gladiators gave them their money's worth. They outplayed the Sailors in the first half, but the pounding was to great. The boys are all set for Bellingham next week end and let me tell you that it is going to be a real battle.

This year Olson has developed a line that is practically invincible. What was at the beginning of the season, a green line is now an experienced one. Our line outplayed Linfield's line and last Saturday the boys managed to play on even terms with the Maryland eleven. The backfield men aren't the only players in the game and we musn't forget that. Although there are very few heroes that come from the line, they are the ones who do the most work and get less credit for what they do. Watch that line and you will see some real football.

Lutherans Lose To Linfield, 7-2

Scoring late in the fourth quarter, Linfield College at McMinnville, Oregon eked out a 7-2 win over the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators Friday, September 28.

The Linfield score came as a result of a fumble on the Gladiators' 20-yard line. After a series of passes and line bucks, Bachelor, left half, scored on a line plunge.

The Lutherans however, were the first to draw blood. After playing two scoreless periods, the Gladiators, late in the third quarter, broke through the line to smother a Linfield back across his own goal line and score a safety.

The game was the best and most exciting seen on the Linfield field for several years, according to Coach Leavelle. Both sides played heads up ball, gaining very little yardage. Linfield made five first downs to the Lutherans' one. P. L. C. tried five passes, completed two and none were intercepted. The total penalties were 40 yards for Linfield and 35 yards for P. L. C.

The starting lineups were as follows:

Linfield	P. L. C.
Hayer	LE Jack
Durham	LT Svinth
Lohr	LO Orenler
Anderson	C Fadness
Wourlain	RG Martin
Schooling	RT Frye
Tunnell	RE Nilsen
Spaason	Q Archbold
Fridley	LH O'Conner
Ruser	RH Moe
Booth	F Ludlow

W. A. A. Organizes; Elects New Officers

To elect officers for the year, the newly-organized Womens Athletic Association held its first meeting September 24. The following girls will fill the office: Rhoda Hokenstad, president; Mary Nesh, vice president; Judy Benson, secretary; Joanna Manousof, treasurer; Helen Lilja, sergeant-at-arms; and Rachel Flint, reporter.

A nominating committee composed of two girls from each gym class suggested the candidates. Those on the committee were: Evelyn Irwin, Joanna Manousof, Rhoda Hokenstad, Mary Nash, Judy Benson, and Bergliot Vogau. The executive committee of the club is now working on a constitution, and making plans whereby girls may win letters through participation in sports. The club is open to all P. L. C. girls who are interested in athletics. Mrs. Adah Dapper, physical education instructor, is adviser.

Maryland Gridders Take Glads 20-0 in First Home Game

Advantage of Weight and Experience of Maryland Men Too Much For Scraggy Lutherans

With their advantage of greater weight and experience, the football squad of the U. S. S. Maryland thumped the P. L. C. Gladiators 20 to 0, in their first home football game at Lincoln Bowl last Saturday, October 6. After a scoreless first period which saw play mainly in P. L. C. territory, the Sailors punched over a score from the twenty-yard stripe on a reverse. An intercepted pass, a 20-yard run and a pass which caught the Lutheran defense flat-footed put the ball in position for the scoring play.

After battling in midfield for half the third period, one of the Navy-backs galloped thirty yards to the Lutherans' twenty-five yard line. Having failed to gain through the line, the Sailors tried a pass deep into the end-zone. An alert Moe deflected the ball, an although took it in the end zone.

Immediately following the kickoff the Gladiators made their most serious scoring threat of the afternoon when Sanderson took a screen pass from Moe on his own thirty-yard line and broke away from the Navy defense to run sixty yards before a fleet sailor overlooked him and dropped him on the Maryland eight-yard stripe. Here a costly fumble lost five yards although the Lutherans retained possession of the ball; only to be thrown for another loss. A final desperate pass was completed to the six-yard marker but there the Navy team took the ball on downs.

The next play, a sailor punt traveled 85 yards putting the oval safely out of danger as the third quarter ended. At the beginning of the fourth quarter the Maryland squad started a determined drive only to lose the ball on a fumble on the fifteen-yard stripe. Not to be denied, they started another offensive with a Navy back hitting 'pay-dirt' on a smash from the two-yard line, after the ball had been put in position by a series of passes and power plays.

Delta Rhos Give Initiation Party

In honor of the new members of the Delta Rho Gamma, an informal party was given Friday evening, October 5, in the basement of the chapel. A pot-luck supper under the direction of Novell Nagel, chairman, Ida Thompson Joanna Manousos, and Mildred Monson, preceded the formal ceremony.

During the supper, a short program was introduced by Elizabeth Dahl. It consisted of: piano solo, Elsa Arneson; vocal duet, Mildred Monson and Vivian Campbell, accompanied by Peggy Ramstad; reading by Elizabeth Fris; song by Elsie Barrett; Catherine Kitchison and Elizabeth Fris, accompanied on the saxophone by June Walters and on the piano by Marian Torresdal.

The program was in charge of: Virginia Davis, chairman; Elizabeth Dahl, Jane Williams, ergilott Vogan.

The main feature of the evening was a formal candle-lighting ceremony in which all new members took part and expressed their willingness to join the D. R. O. group. The committee in charge was Thelma Daniels, chairman, Amy Gilbert, Lila Rudd and Virginia Boen.

President Gertrude Stenberg gave a formal welcome to the new members and explained how each letter in the name of the organization represented some definite purpose. They are: D for development of personality; E for earnestness of purpose; L for loyalty and love; T for trustworthiness; A for aspirations; R for reverence to God; H for honesty; O for obedience to the traditions of the school; G for generosity; A for ambition; M for modesty; M for moderation; A for attaining the goal.

Girls assisting Gertrude in the ceremony were: Jane Williams, Eleanor Raudebaugh, Neva Olsen, Joanna Manousos, Bergilott Vogan, Rachel Flint, Evelyn Irwin, Ellen Bergstrom, Virginia Mahucke, Marie Johnson, Elaine Benson, Lila Rudd, Ida Thompson.

Both old and new members joined the boy days students and dorm attendants at a large bonfire for a pep rally, preceding the game with the U. S. B. Maryland. Afterwards, games were enjoyed by all in the gym. At the close of the evening refreshments were served in the basement of the chapel. The clean up committee consisted of: Janet Runbeck, chairman, Evelyn Irwin, Eleanor Raudebaugh, Rachel Flint.

Above is the 1934 P. L. C. Football Squad which at present is pointing for the Homecoming game with Bellingham Saturday. Kampus Komments Greeting! Salutations! And other esoteric phrases! Miss us in the first issue? Well, we missed you, too. (Bragging again!) That's for all returning students—of course, for you freshies etc. don't know what you've missed, but you'll find out soon enough.

This school year's started off with one big bang! The old spirit for which P. L. C. is noted for is quite evident among students. The pep and enthusiasm displayed to date in the organization of all clubs and classes is very gratifying.

Nice bunch of freshies, too! They've shown an interest in all activities and gotten into the spirit of things right off the bat. Keep up the good work, fresh, 'cause after all a good start is one of the most important factors in any race. No, we're not quoting "Ling Po."

Then we have Arnie Anderson after making the rounds at the faculty reception—every time I get a load of the "lay of the land" it looks better. By way of explanation, the "lay of the land" to which Arnie so proudly refers, is the feminine population of our institution.

College men are not sophisticated. They lack experience and tell the co-eds how good they are. This is the opinion of two U. W. co-eds after several years of so-called "campus experience." We hope our co-eds aren't that.

far gone, but we would like their opinions on our men. Watch this column for developments.

Don't know whether the "S. P. C. A." (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Dumb Animals) has been around, or what, but the Dorm boys are going in for pets in a big way. Cats that answer to the names of Inky, Highby, Blacky, etc., and spends the night with the boys. Then there's a canary that is named after the old foursome—Bunny, Rosie, Crafty, and Jackie—and answers to any of 'em. The next goal of the dormers is a parrot. They'll be kept broke-pyin' in the thing "hush" money if they get one, though.

If Henry Van Dyke had taken a walk down our klickingpoof trail on a spring day, he couldn't have described it better than in this following poem of his: These are the things I prize:
And hold of deapest worth:
Light of sapphire skies,
Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forest, comfort of the grass,
Shadow of clouds that swiftly pass,
And after showers
The smell of flowers,
And of the good brown earth—
And best of all along the way,
Friendship and mirth.

Well, folksies, have you had enough—no? Well, we're saving ourselves for the next issue.

Archbold Elected Chief Of Dorm Fire Brigade

Organization of the fire brigade was the purpose of a meeting of the Boy's Dorm Union, Monday, October 8.

Francis Archbold who was elected to fire-chief, submitted drawings and gave a report of fire hazards and the positions that must be covered in the event of a fire. Ernest Haugen was chosen to assist the fire-chief. It is the duty of the Fire Chief to appoint men to stations at the fire hoses and extinguishers. He also inspects dangerous conditions in the dormitory, and sees that they are remedied. There will be surprise drills to see how quickly and efficiently the building can be emptied.

A diagram is to be posted between floors, showing the stations and the men attending them.
