

40th Anniversary Of P.L.C. Founding To Be October 14

Dr. Tingelstad and Committee Making Plans for Three Programs: Homecoming on Same Week End

Sunday, October 14, marks the 40th anniversary of the dedication of Pacific Lutheran University, and accordingly, the "birthday" of Pacific Lutheran College.

Plans now being made by the committee for the event include divine services in the morning, a general program in the afternoon and a banquet in the evening.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the College, the Pacific Lutheran College Association in convention assembled at Minneapolis, Minnesota, on June 9, 1934, authorized the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Pacific Lutheran University, as the school was first called. The President of the Board of Trustees, Rev. O. L. Haavik of Seattle, is accordingly serving with the following men on the 40th anniversary committee: Rt. Rev. L. C. Foss of Seattle; Rev. R. Bogstad of Eugene, Oregon; H. E. Anderson of Tacoma; Professor N. J. Hong, and President O. A. Tingelstad of the college.

On the occasion of October 14, 1894, the main building was dedicated, and the day's program was similar to the one now being planned. School opened at the college on the 25th of October, following.

For the morning service on October 14, 1934, Rev. L. C. Foss of Seattle and J. A. Aasgard, President of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, of Minneapolis, have been invited to share the pulpit in the gymnasium, while our college pastor, T. O. Svaer, will be the liturgist that morning.

Students of the college, teachers and professors, and friends interested in P. L. C. are invited by the committee to join in the festivities.

Dr. Tingelstad states that as yet these plans for the affair are indefinite, but that the committee will meet again this week and make the definite arrangements.

Also, in conjunction with this celebration the annual homecoming of Alumni and friends will be held Saturday, October 13, when P. L. C. plays Bellingham Normal at the Lincoln Bowl.

College Faculty Spends Summer Vacation Period In Many Ways, Doing 'Everything and Nothing'

Traveling, teaching, studying, and "doing nothing"—these have been the diversions of the faculty for the past three months. It seems as if traveling was the most popular as our professors and teachers were scattered from California to Chicago.

Mr. Ramstad went back east as far as Chicago. The rest of the summer he spent studying. After teaching summer school for the first six weeks, Mr. Reid vacationed in California, the remainder of the season. Mr. Highby also felt the need of a trip after teaching summer school, so he spent two weeks in Portland and then traveled to Minnesota for a visit of three weeks. Dean Hauge spent his summer in

ATTORNEY M. H. FORDE
M. H. Forde, Board Member, Passes in Rochester, Minn.

Students and faculty members of P.L.C. were deeply saddened to learn of the death at Rochester, Minnesota, on September 17, of Mr. Matthias H. Forde, vice-president of the Board of Trustees of Pacific Lutheran College. Mr. Forde was born on September 21, 1863 in Sandfjord, Norway, immigrating to the United States in 1901. He worked in Alaska and Washington, attending Pacific Lutheran Academy until 1910, and the University of Washington law school, graduating in 1914. Up to the time of his death Mr. Forde had practiced law in Everett, Washington, serving two terms as assistant prosecuting attorney for Snohomish County. He was also vice-president of the Snohomish County Bar Association.

Serving on the Board of Trustees since 1926, Mr. Forde will be greatly missed by those connected with the school as well as his immediate associates.

Doctor Tingelstad, who spoke on behalf of P.L.C., and a number of faculty members, were present at the funeral rites, which were held in Our Savior's Lutheran Church at Everett, Washington, on Saturday, September 22, with the Rev. C. H. Norgaard officiating. Interment took place in the Lutheran cemetery at Stanwood.

At the chapel exercises Monday a memorial service was held at which Dr. Tingelstad and Prof. N. J. Hong paid tribute to their departed coworker.

Douglas, Alaska, a country which he found to be very beautiful. Mr. Xavier spent the first part of the season working around his place. "You should see my aster beds," he states. For the rest of the summer he taught summer school and worked in the library.

Dr. Tingelstad attended the N. L. C. A. convention in Minneapolis in June. In July he also traveled to California on school business. Evidently Mr. Bardon enjoys studying, for, after teaching summer school for six weeks, he attended the University of Washington for six weeks. Mrs. Kredler and Mrs. Taylor were both at school, the latter being in charge of the summer school sessions.

Anniversary Year Opened Sept. 10

President Tingelstad Officiates at Two Chapel Exercises Welcoming New Students

With Dr. Tingelstad presiding, Pacific Lutheran College began its Fortieth Anniversary year with the first of its formal opening sessions on Monday evening, September 10. The second session followed at the regular chapel hour on Tuesday morning.

The Rev. O. L. Haavik of Seattle, president of the Board of Trustees, opened the evening exercises with scripture reading and prayer.

The "Faculty Quartet," consisting of Mrs. Philip E. Hauge, Mrs. J. U. Xavier, Mrs. A. W. Ramstad and Mrs. Clifford O. Olson, sang two selections, accompanied by Prof. Joseph O. Edwards.

President O. A. Tingelstad in welcoming the new students, acquainted them with the spirit and intentions of the college and contrasted the more common "legalistic" discipline with the "evangelical" discipline employed at P. L. C.

After the prelude by Prof. Edwards and an opening hymn, Tuesday's exercises were opened with a further welcome by Dr. Tingelstad. Miss Thelma Daniels, vice-president of the Associated Students, gave a piano solo, playing "By the Waters of Minnesota" and John Van Leuven, Student Body president, welcomed all on behalf of the Associated Student Body.

Three New Members Added To Faculty

Miss Vivian Johnson and Mrs. Adah Dapper are the new Pacific Lutheran College faculty members for the school year 1934-35. Miss Johnson supervises the Normal department while Mrs. Dapper is the head of the Women's Physical Education Department.

Miss Johnson received her M. A. from the University of Washington in 1933. She has taught at the State Normal at Dillon, Montana, and at the Eastern Oregon Normal located at LaGrande, Oregon. At Pacific Lutheran College she has charge of Introductory and Student teaching.

Dr. Dapper, a graduate of the University of Oregon, has taken advanced courses at the University of California at Berkeley, and at the University of California at Los Angeles. Her experience with the physical education department consists of her work at Lebanon high school, Lebanon, Oregon, and at Sweet Home, Oregon.

Mr. Angelo Manuvas, new student instructor, in addition to taking normal work is teaching French and Greek. He has received his higher education at the University of Washington, from where he took his Master's Degree in 1934. Mr. Manuvas has taught in the Tacoma high schools.

Mr. Theodore Nelson, previously field agent for P.L.C., has been named Dean of Men for this term. After having been graduated from the College of Puget Sound in 1929 with an A.B. degree, Mr. Nelson took graduate work at the University of Washington. He has been at Pacific Lutheran College since 1932.

PROF. A. J. BECK

Professor Beck Enrolls At Stanford University

P. L. C. History Instructor Gets Year's Leave of Absence

Prof. Alvar J. Beck, who has taught in the history department at Pacific Lutheran College for the past five years, is now attending Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. Mr. Beck was granted a year's leave of absence by the College Board of Trustees and upon the expiration of this leave he hopes to have completed the work for his doctor's degree.

Mr. Beck was graduated from the liberal arts department of P. L. C. in 1927, and two years later he received his B. A. degree from the College of Puget Sound. His M. A. was conferred upon him by the University of Washington in 1929.

During his absence Miss Georgia Reineau and Mr. P. J. Bardon are teaching his subjects.

Pond .33 Class Gift, Being Built on College Campus

To be completed for the Fortieth Anniversary festivities, October 14, a fish pool and lily pond is being built on the college campus just north of the flag pole. The pool will be 38 feet long and 20 feet wide, and irregular in shape. At the south end there will be a drinking fountain and, at the north end, a rock garden is planned from which a small waterfall will run into the pool.

The pool is the gift of the graduating class of '33.

Under the supervision of Mr. P. C. Jackson, contractor, a number of college boys are working on the pool for which they receive financial aid, toward their college expenses.

P. L. C. Receives Fame as 'Marriage Bureau' When Eleven Former Students Succumb to Cupid's Darts

Well! Well! Well! Seems as if the little fellow's at it again. Dan Cupid's darts certainly seem to have made true their aim this summer. Since school closed last spring, the list of departures embarked on the sea of matrimony has been considerably augmented by quite an addition of former P. L. C. students.

Sept. 1, Clarence Roen, '33, and Miss Shirley Morris, both of Tacoma, were married. While he attended here, "Cliv" was president of the student body.

We also hear that Walter French, '27, and Miss Christine Knutzen, '27, were united in marriage this summer. So were Fred Lee, '21, and Miss Ella Knutzen.

Remember our student body vice-president of last year, Alvene Schierman? Yes, he's another one. Evidently Miss Cora Coppler, '31, and the "vice-prexy" decided that two could

Edwards Gives Final Selections For 1934-5 Choir

Spring Tour to Eastern Washington and Northern Oregon Planned For Chorus Of 50 Voices

The final selection of members for the 1934 choir of Pacific Lutheran College has been announced by Director Joseph Edwards. Rehearsals of the entire choir are held in the afternoons on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. According to Prof. Edwards, many numbers will be retained from last year, including the selection, "The Spirit Also Helpeth Us" by J. S. Bach. In the spring, the choir hopes to make a concert tour throughout Eastern Washington and northern Oregon.

The members chosen this week are: Sopranos, Pauline Watts, Ellen Bergstrom, Margaret Craft, Mildred Monson, Jane Williams, Evelyn Nyström, Rhoda Hokenstad, Peggy Ramstad, Mary Nash, Dille Quale, Ramola Rust, Catherine Kitchison, Amy Gilbert, Thelma Daniels, Novel Nagel, Margaret Rosen, Aida Johnson, Mary Machie, Allos, Norma Preus, Valborg Norby, Edna Tobiasson, Irene Odell, Elizabeth Stuen, Elizabeth Dahl, Helen Lilja, Judith Benson, Ruth Haugland, Helen Holtcamp.

Pep Rally Tomorrow Night

Come one, come all! Big pep rally tomorrow night at eight o'clock at the Union Depot. The football squad is going to McMinnville, Ore., to play Linfield and a big send-off is being planned.

All students living in the dorm and in Parkland will leave on the 7:18 car and return on the 9:18. All students residing in Tacoma should be there by eight.

Vern Knutzen, yell king, in charge of the rally states that speeches by celebrities and a serpentine dance will feature the affair.

live as cheaply as one, so've been the latter part of August, they've been Mr. and Mrs. Alvene Schierman.

A little bird also whispered to us that Warner Quale, '30, now has a Mrs. Warner Quale, (Lillian Gundersen) to help him when his teaching difficulties get too hard. They are living in South Dakota.

Four of last year's students have also taken the plunge, we learn. Sævie Turvalden is Mrs. Harold Slack of Tacoma, now, and Clara Kuhnhaussen answers to the name of Mrs. Emil Schroeder, of Hood River, Oregon. There is no longer a Mary Hodson either; she's Mrs. Raymond Hakman, and Delmar Mortenson, '33 now responds to the name of Gwendolyn Brownfield's husband.

And on it goes. P. L. C. a mere college, nowadays! P. L. C.—a reliable marriage bureau!

A Friend and Co-Worker Passes

Mathias H. Forde, vice president of the board of directors of Pacific Lutheran College recently passed away. An alumnus of the school, he had an intimate knowledge of the problems and the spirit that attend this institution. Perhaps, at board meetings, he directly used this knowledge in the planning of how the students might be helped.

The student body feels that with his passing a true friend has left the ranks of the warriors who championed for this institution

Don't Be Disheartened

New students, don't become discouraged while in the process of adapting yourself to this new environment. The beginning of a school year always seems chaotic. There are many things to be done at the same time. Schedules must be arranged, courses of study mapped out, financial payments settled. When all this is done, things will run smoother. Then, too, that heart-sickness, caused by boarding away from home for the first time, will vanish. New acquaintances will fill the gap made by the loss of friends which you are accustomed to associate with at home.

You will finally arrive at a calm scheduled manner of living. Courage, new students!

On Football Prejudice

There has arisen in the last few years a strong prejudice against college football. The cry of its accusers is that football is becoming too commercialized, that it is a brutish game, that it interferes with a high order of scholarship. Much of this criticism is just. Million dollar gate receipts are not unusual; deaths on the field, although rare, have happened; a class of students whose paramount interest is football, has been produced. But is this the fault of football itself? The game of football is a creation of the American colleges. Its purpose originally was to take the scholar away from the unhealthy glow of the study lamp and make of him a well-rounded personality through physical training. Football has not corrupted itself; it has been cheapened by a spectacle-loving civilization which has dragged into its stadiums not scholars seeking a well-rounded training, but professional athletes.

Football itself is as fine a training now as it was in the past, and should not be eliminated from the colleges. It's the glamour, brutality and professionalism that needs to be ousted.

Pep Club Surprises Dean: Elects Semester Leaders

Honoring the birthday of Mrs. Lora Kreidler, dean of women, the Pep Club gave a surprise party Thursday, September 20, in the College dining hall.

The honored guest was presented a gift and a cake which provided the evening's refreshments. Hostesses were Romola Rust, Bernice Hauge, Aida Johnson, and Roberta Torrison.

At the first Pep Club meeting of the year, the following officers were elected: President, Margaret Craft; vice-president, Mary Nash; secretary-treasurer, Helen Lilja; fire-chief, Eleanor Hauke.

Committees Plan Initiation for Fresh Day Girls Tomorrow

Because Alice "Buster" Roe, president elect of Delta Rho Gamma is attending St. Olaf College, the club held a special meeting Thursday, September 20, for the purpose of electing a new president. Gertrude Stenberg was chosen head of this organization at this time.

Other officers elected Monday, September 24 were: Ellen Bergstrom, vice president; Rachel Flint, recording secretary; Judy Benson, corresponding secretary; and Ione Madson, treasurer.

Plans are now being made for the initiation of the freshman girls, to be held tomorrow. The chairman of the committees are: Volly Norby, initiation; Novel Nagel, refreshments; Thelma Daniels, decorations; Janet Runbeck, clean up; and Virginia Davis, program.

Nordis Arneson, Elma Trulson, Alice Roe, Irene Schaffland, and Floyd Knutzen are now attending St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota.

LIGHTER THAN AIR

By Bob Monson

Gooday! Lots of unemployment problems are being moved from homes to college campuses.

Speaking of unemployment, the average man has 15,000,000,000 brain cells.

If this nation (or P. L. C.) is not full of class-conscious young men, the sophomores have not been doing their duty by the freshmen.

A scientist announces that a goose isn't nearly as silly as it looks, which should be some consolation to chubby guys who wear tight football pants.

Who says college athletes aren't improving? At least half of the 200-pound guards can now read the letter on their sweaters, it is reported.

Today's Poem

Cliff Mesford's living in the past,
And he recalls with aching heart
The good old days, forever gone,
When he had hair enough to part.

Our Idea of Nothing
A bladesize knife without a handle.

Then there was the blonde who fell in love with a fellow who preferred brunettes and dyed for him.

There's one good thing about a school boarding club—if anyone's finger is in the soup, it's your own.

One of the advantages of being a lawboy is that you're not afraid to dip your toast into your coffee, even though you do eat in the dorm.

I LEARNED RECENTLY THAT: MR. RAMSTAD used to smoke Bull Durham... DUTCH MOR and LOUISE JACKSON are really Turks, not Norwegians... HAROLD ILSON only gets three hours sleep a day (he gets the rest at night)... MR. HONG used to ride bicycles for exercise, and can still fork a mean wheel... EVELYN SYVERSON has pretty eyes... GARY PFLEUGER likes IRENE O'DELL pretty much... BERT MYHRE put r ber heels on his shoes so they wouldn't mar the desk... GRADY HUGHEES once tripped over a grasshopper while working on a "combine."

EDUCATIONAL FACT: It's proof that the world is getting better and wiser is found in the statistics that fewer Day room boys at P. L. C. are now trying to light matches with their fingernails than ever before.

An investigator with little else to do finds that the blonde is on her way out, and that scamping noise is the other guests getting up to follow her.

Breathes there a guy with soul so dead—
Who never to himself hath said—
"I guess I won't quit cigars!
After all—I'll just stop inhaling."

Circuit Luther League Meet To Be Oct. 19-21 in Tacoma

The South Puget Sound Young People's Luther League Convention will be held October 19, 20, and 21, at the Central Lutheran Church in Tacoma, of which the Rev. E. M. Hegge is pastor.

Bert Myhre, Milton Nesvig, Roland Swanson, and Rhoda Hokenstad will participate in the discussion of the convention theme, "Is Christ Possible?" William Pfueger is the vice-president of the Circuit.

The Junior League session, on Saturday afternoon, will be in charge of Mr. P. G. Zwigmeyer, of Seattle. Dr. E. M. Hegge has been chosen as Toastmaster for the Convention Banquet in the evening.

The Choral Union, with Kenneth Lyman in charge, will sing on Sunday afternoon, accompanied by the Ballard First Lutheran Church Orchestra, under the direction of Ronald Hooper.

HAVE YOU MET?

One with great leadership ability and also one who is willing to work whenever called upon? She hails from Friday Harbor, better known by some students as "Fish Island." She is a member of the Drama Club, and as she possesses the ability to sing, she is a member of the choir this year. She proved her ability in leadership last year when she was elected sophomore class president and also sophomore class representative to the Board of Control.

In the May day fest held on the college campus last year, this attractive young miss was one of the Queen's attendants. This year she is the custodian of the secretary book of the Associated Student Body. If you haven't met this "personality" girl who has a ready smile for everyone, you'd better get acquainted.

A momentous individual who is usually seen coming to and fro from the office and always looking for some one? Not! Well, he's the young fellow who owns the green roadster and who is always willing to share it when there are errands to be run. Last year he was a member of the Drama Club and also a debate letterman. He is beginning his third year of school under the Normal department here and last year was chosen by the students to be their leader and guide through the coming school year.

He is the owner of a yell leader's sweater which contrasts just elegantly with his black curly hair. He is known by the students as "a friend to us all."

Rites Held in Tacoma August 25 With Dr. Tingelstad Officiating

Catherine Estelle Phelan a former student at Pacific Lutheran College, passed away August 23, 1934, at the Mountain View Sanatorium in Tacoma. Pulmonary Tuberculosis was the cause of her death. She was born August 11, 1911 in Chicago, Illinois.

The funeral services were held in the C. O. Lynn Chapel, August 25, 1934. P. L. C. had charge, and Dr. O. A. Tingelstad officiated, using for his text, Isaiah 43:21-26. Two duet numbers, "Nearer My God To Thee," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," were sung by Mildred and Robert Monson. The acting pallbearers, Walter Young, Clarence Monson, Clifford Mesford and Stanley Dahl, were former classmates of Catherine.

In a letter received by Dr. Tingelstad, Mrs. Eunice Whitman, Catherine's mother, asked that her heartfelt thanks and appreciation be conveyed to the Student Body for the many thoughtful and kind attentions extended to her daughter during her long illness, and for the flowers received.

Squad of 28 Men Turning Out For Varsity Football

Heavy, Hard Charging Line and Fast, Pony Backfield Feature of Olson's 34 Pigskin Machine

The 1934 football season started with the opening of school Monday, Sept. 10, when a squad of twenty men received suits. Others who registered late swelled the squad to twenty-eight, its present number.

According to Coach Olson the main obstacle to overcome will be the inexperienced. He believes he has material for a fine team, the question at present being how they will come through against stiff opposition. He will build his line around Fadness, three year letterman, who attended here two years ago, at center; Svith, last year's letterman, at tackle; Jack, Varsity end for two years; and Hanson, two year letterman at guard who just returned from Whitman. Jack and Nilson of Everett are taking care of the end positions in the backfield. Votaw, O'Conner and Moe are holding starting positions while Reems is in the starting position at fullback, closely pressed by Ludlow, former Puyallup High star. Mitchell, former Everett quarterback, is showing well, while Archbold, Sanderson and Solle are fighting for halfback positions.

Coach Olson is highly pleased with the spirit of this year's squad. He says they show more pep and drive than any squad for a number of years.

Those who received suits are: O'Conner, W. Plueger, Archbold, Bolstad, Reems, Ludlow, Grenler, Nilson, Solle, Ford, Mitchell, Van Leuven, G. Plueger, Schlanbush, Fadness, Votaw, Jack, Stuen, Hvidding, Svith, Haavik, Frye, Moe, Gillilan, Colton, Nesvig, Martin, Svare, Sanderson, Drelbelbis and Hanson.

Sport Slants

By Eldon Anderson

Once again we are back in the season of the King of all sports—football. Due to lack of experienced men, Coach Olson has had considerable difficulty in arranging his line up, but now, after a week and a half of extensive drill in fundamentals and scrimmages, prospects have brightened considerably. The new fellows are in there fighting hard for positions, and it looks like Olson has a team that is going to go places.

Talking about lettermen, we have with us this year a couple of fellows who are up in the running. Johnny "Fud" Fadness, who last year attended W. S. C. could not remain long from good old P. L. C. and is back with us again playing his fifth year of football. Dutch Moe, swifty and versatile quarterback, is not far behind "Fud," this being his fourth year with the Gladiators.

This year Olson's Gladiators come up against a real fighting machine—none other than the U. S. S. Maryland. The line of the ship's team averages only 205 pounds. Not bad! One of their ends was captain of the Annapolis Navy team last year, and six men played on the West Coast Navy team last year. Also, the Maryland's team beat West Seattle Athletic Club 14-6. When Don't look so good but don't let that discourage you. Olson's boys are going to fight till the last whistle is blown. Accidents happen in the best of families, you know.

Just a few words about school spirit students. We are going to have a team this year that is going places, but they need your support to be a winner. Let's attend as many games as possible, thereby letting them know we are behind them one hundred per cent.

This fall, we find several graduated lettermen attend other schools of higher education. Some of these said lettermen are none other than Bill Whalen, attending the University of Washington; Bill Shore, attending W. S. C., and Stan Score and Carrol Jacobson are attending Luther College and are spending their time on their studies.

Speaking of strong teams, we meet again this year, the Linfield eleven, the ones who took us down the well-known creek to the tune of 19-6 last year. Linfield has all of their lettermen back, but that is not going to stop the Gladiators; they are out for revenge and, by the looks of things, are going to get it. However, we cannot count our chickens before they are hatched and we will know whether P. L. C. has gotten its revenge when the smoke is cleared away Friday.

A big surprise and a pleasant surprise came to Coach Olson and the squad with the returning of Marv Hansen. Marv decided to go to Whitman, but the spell of P. L. C. came over him and he is now back with us. This is Marv's third year in football and he has certainly brightened the hope of the Coach. Last year Marv was a dependable punter and guard, and great things are expected from him this year.

FACULTY VACATIONS

For the first of the season, Mr. Hong was laid up with a foot injury, but later he helped with field work. Miss Johnson and Miss Reneau both taught summer school.

After attending the University of Washington for a quarter, Mr. Edwards traveled east to Minnesota where his wife was also visiting. She is now studying at MacPhail School of Fine Arts in Minneapolis. Mr. Stuen taught summer school the first half and says from them on he did nothing. Mr. Plueger worked on his home and occasionally did a little fishing.

As field man, Mr. Nelson worked most of the summer, except for two weeks, when he drove back to central Iowa. Mrs. Bondy divided her vacation between here and Seattle. Writing music kept Mr. Hunter busy. Mr. E. Tingelstad assisted in field work. Traveling East and to California and playing a lot of tennis, filled Mr. Mannous's time.

Glads Open Season At Linfield Friday

Inaugurating the 1934 football season, the Pacific Lutheran College Gladiators meet Linfield College at McMinnville Friday, Nov. 28. Linfield, rated one of the strongest teams in the Northwest Conference last year, will have almost the same lineup, again this year.

Coach Olson believes this will be the toughest game of the season, but says that his squad is determined to give them a real battle. If the Glads can get their fast backs into the open, Olson feels sure that the team will make a fine showing.

P. L. C. Grid Schedule

The football schedule for the 1934 season as announced by Coach Olson is as follows:

- Sept. 28—Linfield at McMinnville
  - Oct. 6—U. S. S. Maryland—here (Homecoming)
  - Oct. 26—Fort Lewis—Fort Lewis
  - Nov. 3—Open
  - Nov. 10—St. Martins—here
- All home games are to be played at Lincoln Bowl, Lincoln High School, Tacoma. The date of the last game is uncertain due to a conflict.

Eldon Anderson is Chosen Dormitory Union President

At the first year meeting of the Dormitory Union last Wednesday evening, Eldon Anderson, Pendleton, was elected president; Roland Swanson, Seattle, vice-president; Harold O'Conner, Auburn, secretary-treasurer.

Joe Michien, Everett, was elected to the office of sergeant-at-arms, in which capacity he is to preserve order at meetings and to inspect rooms in the boys' dorm, at least twice a week between the hours of nine and twelve.

It was decided that the dues are to be twenty-five cents a semester. Mr. Theodore Nelson, the new Dean of Men, conducted the session with a short talk.

High School Organizes

With John Van Leuven acting as temporary chairman, the High School Department held its first meeting yesterday for the purpose of electing officers. Those chosen are: Verner Blitter, president; Norma Preus, vice-president; Fredrick Schlanbush, secretary-treasurer; and Orlando Asper, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Paul Highty was selected for adviser, and the class dues were placed at twenty-five cents a semester.

Large Enrollment Greets Registrar For Fall Term

Beginning the forty-first year of its existence, Pacific Lutheran College now has an enrollment of 210, according to Registrar Philip E. Hauge. To give P.L.C. an anniversary gift in the form of a student body of four hundred students, a committee of faculty members has been hard at work this summer, traveling far and wide, to solicit new students for the College. Included on this committee were C. O. Olson, chairman, member of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America; J. P. Pfeuffer, member and official representative of the American Lutheran Church; Theodore Nelson, member of the Augustana Synod; P. J. Bardon, former member of the Lutheran Free Church; and Paul R. Highby, member of the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church.

By correspondence, appearance at programs, personal contact, and advertisements in papers, this committee and their assistants have advertised the College throughout a large radius of territory. They visited congregations as far north as Canada, south as far as Silverton, east as far as Coeur d'Alene, and southeast as far as Pendleton. At both Bible camps, Des Moines, Washington, and Colton, Oregon, there were school representatives giving out information regarding the college.

Romato's Letter Home Tells Fresh Conception Of Dorm Initiations

Pacific Lutheran College
Parkland, Wash.
Sept. 23, 1934

Dear Folks:

The dreaded time of initiation has come and gone. The dormitory students were brought into the organization of this school on Friday. I'll describe the way those Freshmen looked.

The girls had to wear their hair in "pigtail" tied with string, rouge on one cheek and no other make-up, their dresses on backwards, shoes and stockings of different colors. They thought that wasn't so bad, but when it came to carrying either a suitcase or waste basket and raw egg around with them all day, they almost rebelled. The purpose of the egg was to hold six signatures; three of professors and three of football players. It was rather a hard task to get the signatures from the boys because no speaking was allowed between the boys and girls on peril of punishment.

The boys were tagged out pretty, too. Football helmets were their head gear; shirts and ties on backwards, and a bed pillow for baggage. The pillow slips were to be autographed by people of distinction within the walls of the school.

One of the boys was a great big Swede, I guess. He wore football pants on his occasion. His legs below them looked as if they had been mangled. They were painted with mercurochrome in broad spiral stripes giving his legs the appearance of barber poles.

After dinner, Friday evening, the masquerade costumes were exchanged for those of a more dignified and proper character.

The upper classmen had invited the new dormitory students to the gymnasium where they would entertain. Instead of being entertained, those who had broken initiation rules contributed to the program in whatever manner they were able. The other alternative was the "spats." After this informal program some novel games were played by everyone assembled. The students were divided into couples in a grand march. Refreshments were served by the upper classmen at the end of the evening.

The Freshman had been terribly worried and upset about it, expecting a grueling time. As a matter of fact, many of them had the best time of their lives.

All for now,
Romato.

French Club Elects

Continuing her office as president of the French Club, Joanna Manoussou presided over the meeting last Wednesday noon in which Elizabeth Dahl and Eleanor Hauke were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. To raise the amount of money on hand, a candy sale was held last Friday at noon. Those working on the committee were Elizabeth Dahl and Lila Rudd.
