Homecoming Weekend Activities Numerous

Final plans are underway for the 1955 PLC Homecoming, to be October 14, 15 and 16. Festivities are being planned for the student body and alumni to the theme, "Nursery Rhymes and Storybook Times," beginning with the coronation, pep rally, and coffee hour for Alums on Friday evening.

Saturday morning is opened when the freshman girls meet the upper-class girls on the gridiron on lower campus. Coaching the freshmen are Tommy Gilmer and John Fromm; and helping the upperclass women are Benny Rodin and Bob Marvonek.

Immediately following the game is our Homecoming parade. The floats will line up by the gym at 10 a.m. The parade will begin at 10:30, go down Garfield street, continue down Pacific Avenue, circle through the main business district of Tacoma and terminate at Lincoln Bowl where the winning floats will remain and be shown at the half during the football game.

Saturday afternoon the PLC Gladiators will play the Central Washington Wildcats in Lincoln Bowl. The Band and drill team will provide half-time entertainment.

Saturday evening following the Alumni supper in the CUB, Alpha Psi Omega will present two one-act plays in the CMS at 8:00. The plays are "The Rope," by Eugene O'Neill, and "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow."

Sunday morning, the Alumni and guests will join the student congregation in worship with the pastor Rev. R. W. Lutnes leading the worship. Sunday afternoon there will be open house in all of the dormitories.

How to Pick Horses

Edgar Larson, junior class president, is a pretty good judge of horse flesh. Be careful, girls! At a recent contest held at a local store, Ed guessed the weight of a 1203 1/2 lb. horse, missing by only a half pound. As a prize, Ed received $20 worth of groceries.

Finalists For Homecoming Queen Chosen

Joanne Poencet, Anne Stewart and Sigrid Tollefson are the final candidates for Homecoming Queen. It is hoped that all the students will exercise their right to vote for the girl they wish to rule over Homecoming.

Joanne comes from Seattle and is majoring in education. She is active in student affairs, serving as secretary, pro-tem, of the Student Body this semester, as well as being on the Homecoming committee and the Saga staff.

Anne Stewart, a product of Salt Lake City, Utah, is also a senior, majoring in sociology. Anne is usually accompanied by her fiancé, Warren Meyers, and has a ready smile for everyone.

Sigrid Tollefson is a senior nursing student. After enjoying her freshman year here, she has spent the last two years at Emanuel Hospital in Portland. Sig hails from Fairfield, Montana.

Hopeful Queens Hail From Near and Far

Every year, organizations and interested people on campus submit to the Homecoming committee a petition listing a candidate for Homecoming Queen. This year six names were turned in and are listed as follows:

Helen Jordanger, a fair-complected maiden, was submitted by the Spurs as their candidate. She stands five feet, seven inches tall, has pretty green eyes and light-brown hair (please note, Phil). Helen hails from the town of Eugene, Oregon and is majoring in education at P.L.C.

Joanne Poencet, freckle-faced cutie is sponsored by a group of unknown admirers (editor, note). Joanne stands a cute five feet-six inches, has blue eyes and soft light-brown hair. She claims Seattle as her home town and is majoring in education.

Thelma Nygaard, formerly the secretary of the A.S.P.L.C., is the candidate of the Ski Club. This miss has dark brown eyes and hair of the same color. East Stanwood claims her and education is her goal.

From Seattle comes a blue-eyed miss in the person of Sandra (Sandy) Standal. After two years at Emanuel Hospital in Portland, Sandy came back to P.L.C. to get her B.S. degree in nursing. Almost forgot, she has dark-brown hair.

From the Mormon capital of the world comes an attractive gal with a southern drawl, namely Anne Stewart. She stands a pert five feet-five inches and says that her eyes are hazel in color. Anne has light-brown hair and with a solemn look on her face says that sociology is her major.

Sigrid Tollefson, a student in nursing is our last candidate. Sig lists her home town as Fairfield, Montana and in the same breath tells that she is five feet-four inches and has light brown hair. Careful observation proved here eyes to be grey. Blue Key offers Sig as their candidate.

Voting began this Thursday after chapel and final voting will be held on the following Tuesday after chapel. The two princesses and queen will be announced and introduced in chapel on Friday, Oct. 14.

"Schnack" on T.V.

Dr. W. C. Schnackenberg, associate professor of history, will begin a series of KOMO-TV (Channel 4) television programs Monday, Oct. 10.

His series, as yet untitled, will involve an examination of our basic cultural premises, a history of ideas, and an analysis of the men who have represented those premises and ideas.

Each Monday from Oct. 10 to and including Oct. 31, the half-hour programs will be televised at 9:30 a.m. From Nov. 7 and on they will take place each Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Burgess Plans Program on Campus

Japan, Okinawa, Formosa, Hong Kong, The Philippine Islands, New Guinea, Malaya, Sumatra, India, Pakistan, Syria and Lebanon.

He studied missionary methods and practices in these countries and assisted the missionaries in planning future strategy and expansion.

During these travels he took many reels of colored film, showing the flowers, animals, ancient civilizations, religious ceremonies and mission work. He will show these recent films when he visits PLC.

The first appearance of Dr. Burgess will be Sunday morning when he will preach at the 11 a.m. worship of the student congregation.

Burgess' Themes

"God Has a Plan" will be Dr. Burgess' theme at the 11 a.m. worship service of the student congregation.

His chapel themes will be "The Changing World," Monday; "Changing Methods," Tuesday; and "The Changeless Mission," Wednesday.

Monday evening he will show a colored motion picture, "Spotlight on Japan and China;" and Tuesday night he will show "Spotlight on New Guinea and India."

"The World Wide Mission" will be Dr. Burgess subject at the Monday afternoon discussion gathering; and "The Rise of Nationalism and Indigenous Religions" will be his Tuesday topic.

Dr. Andrew S. Burgess is planning a diversified program for the four days he will be on campus to conduct the annual mission emphasis week this Sunday through next Wednesday.

The Luther Seminary (St. Paul, Minn.) professor of missions will speak at the morning chapel services, conduct round-table discussions in the afternoon and show colored motion pictures in the evening.

Dr. Burgess has just returned from a four months' trip around the world in which he visited the major mission fields, especially those of the Lutheran Church. He was in

Dahl To Lay Cornerstone

Officiating at the laying of the cornerstone for the College Union Building, Thursday, October 8, will be Dr. Orville Dahl, director of higher education for E.L.C.

Dr. Dahl is a graduate of St. Olaf, and received his Ph. D. in "Fund Raising" from the University of Vermont. He taught at St. Olaf and the University of California before acquiring his present post in 1951.

His wife, the former Jean McGregor, was a member of PLC's speech faculty from 1948 to 1953.

The laying of the cornerstone will take place following the Thursday chapel service. The Board of Trustees, and chairman Dr. H. L. Foss will be present. The PLC band will add color to the ceremony.

- - Editorial - -

The purpose of the Mooring Mast is the same as that of any other school paper—to report the news and reflect the opinions of the student body. "Reflect the opinions of the student body" . . . does that mean anything to you, or is it just another nice-sounding phrase that you consider to be a part of college life?

Maybe the word "opinion" should be singularized—"opinion." There seems to be little, if any, difference of opinion on our campus. Don't tell me that all of you have been "brain-washed" or thoroughly indoctrinated into what we sometimes misname "The American Way of Life." Certainly we are all created equal, but that doesn't mean that we are plaster images of one another. Somewhere there is a spark of intelligence which should maintain our God-granted individuality.

We have concluded in ethics class that "it is part of our divine nature to think." How can we neglect it? Exercise your intellect, not by jumping to conclusions, but by actually forming your own convictions and then standing by them.

Some students are able to make their own decisions and use their minds to create new thoughts. The Mooring Mast is dedicated to the expression, if not the support, of these thoughts. Opinions will be printed in this paper. If there is no response, it is no stretch of the imagination to conclude that everyone agrees with everything that is printed. Do you?

In answer to the CPS proposal, I pose one question—"Why waste the time?" What good will it do for the "desire to continue inter-collegiate athletics" with CPS if the loser of the game walks to the winner's campus?

Consider the situation here. Our student council operates on an extremely limited budget. I can just picture our deficient treasury after feeding 1200 road-weary Loggers. Financially speaking, we could just as well discontinue our student government for the remainder of the year.

Consider another aspect . . . what would one thousand en-massed pedestrians do to the traffic situation on South Tacoma Way? Can't you see the resulting confusion?

Many of those who are in favor of this idea are the ones who will find some convenient excuse for not being present when walking time is here. CPS has many town students who will undoubtedly not think too highly of walking through the city streets for many weary hours. They'd rather drive.

As for WSC and U. of I., who have been carrying on this tradition, why copy them? We should be able to think of something much more valuable to both our schools. The aforementioned schools have a much different situation. They do their walking in a more or less rural area, not on a main highway. The distance is less and the results are not what I would call promising.

I can see no future in this proposal, other than many blistered feet. It would accomplish nothing and would not lessen the antagonistic spirit. What we need is a program of cooperative efforts, not a series of childish penalties supposedly to replace childish pranks.

Let us hope for a more mature and profitable undertaking than that which has been proposed.

Pres. Wold Speaks On Our Gov't

Now that the initial frustration and inevitable hue and cry of the first weeks are past, we can presumably settle ourselves into the tedium of daily life. Perhaps this then is an appropriate occasion to make a bold inspection of that area of our activity which we refer to as "student government."

The very nature of the title we have conferred upon this area suggests we are all involved to a greater or lesser degree. Whether we lead or follow (which is often the more difficult job), we cannot escape the fact that we do belong to a group for which we are largely responsible. This is an essential that is quite generally overlooked and if we are confronted with it at all it is altogether too often viewed with an air of indifference. This one item can certainly be marked down as a major contributing factor to the impotency or ultimate collapse of student government. It should be obvious that if those who are most closely concerned with the direction of student activity, namely, the students themselves, cannot generate enough enthusiasm to eliminate an attitude of indifference, no amount of leadership on the executive level will produce a healthy, informed and potentially alert group.

This immediately raises these questions: What are we as a student body or council attempting to do? What attitudes are we maintaining?

CPS Challenge Hashed Over

Attention all students! CPS has presented us with a real challenge! They have proposed the idea that the losers of the November football game between the two schools have their student body walk to the winning team's campus. Upon arrival at the campus the losers will be entertained by the winning team with a buffet dinner and assembly. The entire challenge appeared in last week's "Mooring Mast" as it was written in the CPS "Trail."

How does this idea appeal to you eager PLCites? Are you willing to accept this challenge and make it an everlasting tradition?

Here are a few comments from the girls living in Old Main.

"I think it's a good idea. It gives the school more incentive to win and to win a game over our most ardent rival will be the greatest."

—Doreen Zauske

"I'm all for it. It will promote friendlier relations between the two schools and strengthen our school spirit."—Mardell Soiland.

"Great idea! Let's do it!"

—Roslé Ness

"I think this walk would be a great idea! It's all in fun and it'd really show we've got some spirit. We could use a little more exercise after all that good food we've been eating. Besides I doubt if we'll be the ones walking!"—Patti Finn.

"I think the student body of the losing team should walk to the winning team's campus because we will win, naturally. Gee, what did I say? Oh, my aching feet!"—Donna Olson.

"I'm all for it!"—Evelyn Quaaa.

Music, Mathematics Departments Add Maier and Christensen to Staffs

Dr. Maier

New to the mathematics department of PLC this year is Mr. Eugene Maier, a native of the northwest, born in Tillamook, Oregon, twenty-six years ago.

He received his B.A. degree from the University of Oregon in 1950, earning a master's degree in 1951 from the same institution. After a year of graduate work at Princeton University, he returned to the University of Oregon where he received his Ph.D. in 1954. This past year he worked as a statistician for a lumber company in Eugene, Oregon. Outside of teaching a class or two on an assistantship basis while attending the university, his work here is his first teaching experience.

Mr. Maier's reactions to PLC are very favorable. Both he and his wife were much impressed with the warm welcome given them by faculty and students. Mr. Maier states that he enjoys being a member of a Christian institution after having "knocked around" in state schools for so long.

Besides his work at the college, Mr. Maier is editor of Part II of the Northwest Supplement of the Lutheran Witness, a publication of the Missouri Synod. Although he is official editor, he works jointly with his wife, LaVaun, who is a journalism graduate of the University of Oregon.

Mr. Maier's family includes David, 2 years, and Martin, 3 months.

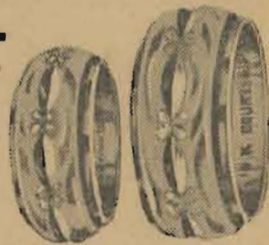

Miss Christensen

Miss Christensen, also a native northwesterner, names Hoquiam, Washington, as her home town. After high school, she attended Central Washington College of Education, transferring to the University of Washington where in 1953 she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. While attending the University, she studied piano under Bertie Poncy Jacobsen. After doing graduate work at the University, Miss Christensen taught piano and organ at Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma this past school year. This summer she received her master's degree at the University. As well as teaching piano, theory, and beginning organ here at PLC, she is also adviser for Mu Phi Epsilon. She was active in that organization at the University and was also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

As an outside interest Miss Christensen enjoys hiking, and indoors likes to work with chamber music. In her spare time at home she is trying to keep up on her own practice and squeeze in an occasional lesson with Miss Jacobson at the University in preparation for a recital here this winter.

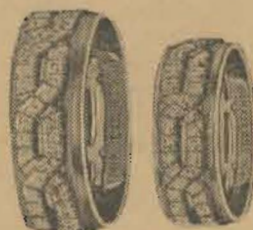

Miss Christensen is much impressed with the Christian atmosphere of our campus and is also inspired by the high caliber of her students. She states that she "is very happy to be working here."

Handsome Crowned

Saturday, Oct 1, was the day of the "Handsomeness" test. During the "Puff" football game, the handsome young men were crowned "Handsome Harry" and "Handsome Queen". The two winners were crowned at the

A.P.O. sponsored "Handsomeness" contest on campus except for the "Handsome Harry" contestant. By the way, the winner, president of the rather cocky and handsome Greek Club's, was away with the crown the last Vote thrice! That will suffice! Out of the "Handsomeness" contest will emerge better men, happier students, and a more progressive college.

TV "Emcee" Joins Student Body

If you are a Life of Riley or a City Detective fan, you have probably heard Deyrol Anderson announcing over KIEM TV. With 700 hours already to his credit on television, Anderson is majoring in speech and public address for commercial TV.

This PLC sophomore who hails from Eatonville, Washington, is a transfer from Humboldt College, where he was elected the most promising freshman in the radio field. Other honors earned in the past year are first places in Radio Speaking at the State Forensics Tournament held at Chico, California, and in Oratory at the Seattle Pacific Tournament.

You will be seeing Deyrol in the forthcoming all-school play, "The Crucible," which will be presented in November.
