

Passion Play Film To Be Presented in Gym Tonight at 7:30

Mission Society Sponsors With Margaret Craft and Eldon Anderson Arranging; Admission Ten and Fifteen

Sponsored by the Mission Society, the world famous reeburg "Passion Play" will be shown on the screen in the college gymnasium this evening at seven-thirty. The admission prices are ten cents for children and fifteen cents for students and adults.

Coming directly from Freiburg, Germany, this play is enacted by the original passion players. For centuries the life of Jesus Christ has been portrayed in various European countries and languages, but now through modern photography, it may be brought to everyone.

In its present form the play presents 250,000 players. One year was required for its production at the cost of one million dollars.

Arrangements for the most flawless of the production are being made by Margaret Craft and Eldon Anderson, Mission Society heads, together with Mr. Hector Cloverly, owner and operator of the machine. Those in charge are working for a large turnout as the society hopes to obtain enough from their share of the proceeds to aid its Madagascar project.

Normal Students Attend Educational Institute

Tacoma was host, Thursday, Oct. 25 and 26, to the annual Washington Educational Association Institute, which comprised teachers from Mason, Thurston, and Pierce counties.

Third-year normal students attended the sectional afternoon meetings which were held at the Jason Lee Intermediate School. In the morning, the delegates went to Stadium High School for the general meetings. Professors A. W. Ramstad, P. J. Bardon, and P. E. Hauge spoke at the meetings. Friday noon found P. L. C. graduate teachers and friends gathered in the First Lutheran Church for a luncheon. In charge of arrangements was Dean P. E. Hauge. The program consisted of introduction of guests, followed by "Thine Alone," sung by Evelyn Syver-son; Prof. P. R. Highby led in group singing. Closing the luncheon, the assembly elected Miss Ruth Fadness as chairman of next year's luncheon.

German Club Donates Linden Tree to Shrubs

With Norma Pree, president, acting as Mistress of Ceremonies, the German Club planted a linden tree near the fish pool yesterday noon.

William Prueger gave the dedication address and Gertrude Brunner told why the club chose the linden tree in preference to any other kind.

Odell Leads Fireside

Led by Irene Odell, the bi-monthly Fireside hour was held in the girls' reception room Sunday evening at 6:30. Approximately forty students turned out for the discussion of the topic, "Madrigal Friends."

William Prueger will be the leader at the next Fireside to be held Nov. 25.

P.L.C. Choir Will Sing At Central Church Sunday

The Central Lutheran College "Choir of the West" will sing Sunday evening at 7:00 at the services of the Central Lutheran Church in Tacoma of which Dr. E. M. Hegge is pastor. Although it is quite early in the season for the choir to appear in public, Prof. J. O. Edwards, director, expects to have five numbers ready for rendition.

This service will be the final appearance of Dr. Orlando Ingvoldstad, president of the Onlesso Lutheran Bible School, who is conducting evangelistic services there this week.

Visitors From East Inspect Institution

Dr. P. O. Holland Impressed With P. L. C.; Tells About St. Olaf College

"One thing that impresses me about Pacific Lutheran College is the friendly spirit that prevails, as though it is one large family," asserted Dr. P. O. Holland, business manager of St. Olaf College, during his visit here October 30 to November 5.

Dr. Holland came here to et a survey of every department of the school, in order to make a report to the Board of Trustees of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of which he is chairman.

Mr. Jos. G. Norby, vice-president of the Board of Education of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, and president of airview Hospital, accompanied Dr. Holland on his trip.

There are 630 students enrolled at St. Olaf College this term. About ninety per cent of these are Lutherans. In regard to nationality, the majority are Norwegians; German and Swedish descent is also prominent.

The attendance at St. Olaf is very diversified. There are students from nearly every state in the union, particularly Illinois and Minnesota. Such places as China, Madagascar, and Leipzig are also represented in the student body.

Many activities are included in their school life. The Drama club presents one Shakespearean play during the year. Dramatic productions are given in their amphitheatre which Dr. Holland described to have a very picturesque setting.

Regarding their placement agency, St. Olaf College placed twice as many teachers this year as last year. Of particular interest to those who attended the Inside Hour which discussed "Why a Christian Education," Dr. Holland remarked that he believes that graduates of Christian schools had a better chance of placement than alumni of state institutions.

The courses of study at St. Olaf College are not professional, as it is a liberal arts school. One may be graduated with a Bachelor of Music degree or Bachelor of Arts.

Tingelstad in East

To represent the college at the meeting of the Board of Education of the Norwegian Lutheran Church held November 8, Dr. O. A. Tingelstad left for Minneapolis Monday, Nov. 5. After attending a convention of the American Lutheran Conference in Des Moines, Iowa the latter part of this week, he will return about the twentieth.

Taylor Elected County School Superintendent

At the general election held November 6, Mrs. Louise S. Taylor, assistant registrar and instructor at Pacific Lutheran College, was elected to the office of Superintendent of Schools of Pierce County. She ran on the Democratic ticket and was opposed by Edgar A. Norton, Republican incumbent.

Mrs. Taylor will take office Sept. 4, 1935.

Frosh Class Will Have 'Hard Time' Party Friday

Odell, Watts, Ford Plan General Entertainment Arrangements

As its first affair of the school year, the Freshman Class will have a "hard time" party in the Gym Friday night at 8:15. Following the program in the Gym, refreshments will be served in the College dining hall.

Irene Odell, who is in charge, promises a new deal in the line of entertainment, and urges all class members to attend. Pauline Watts and Stan Ford are assisting Miss Odell in the arrangements.

At the last meeting of the Class, October 31, it was decided that the dues should be fifty cents for the year. For the post of advisor, A. W. Ramstad was chosen.

With Chet Solie, vice president, in charge, the class presented a program in chapel Thursday, November 1. Mildred Monson sang a solo, accompanied by Elsa Arneson; Irene Odell gave two piano numbers; Mary Machle gave a talk on Chinese marriage customs; and Emmet Thompson rendered two tenor solos, accompanied by Irene Odell. The committee which arranged the program was composed of Judy Benson, Ruth Haugland, Helen Holtecamp, and Vern Knutzen.

L.D.R. To Meet At Svare's Next Tuesday

Mrs. Svare and Mrs. Prueger will entertain the L. D. R. at its regular business meeting in the home of Mrs. Svare on Tuesday, November 20.

The following program has been planned:

Vocal solo, Romola Rust; piano solo, Edna Tolbason; reading of two letters from the Shinnareff Mission, Alaska by Gertrude Stanberg and Peggy Ramstad.

Orchestra Plays at Convention

Under the direction of Professor J. O. Edwards, the school orchestra made its first public appearance October 31, before the Washington State Garden Club Convention at the Y.W.C.A. in Tacoma.

Y. M. C. A. Band Will Play Here November 27

Under the direction of Lewis G. Hunter, assistant music supervisor at P. L. C., the Y.M.C.A. Band will play in the College Gymnasium, Tuesday evening, November 27.

The boys, which play in this thirty-five piece band, are Tacoma youths of eighteen years and under.

W. A. A. Introduces New Letter System

Awards To Be Based on Points With Five Hundred Necessary To Get a Stripe

At the Women's Athletic Association executive board meeting held Monday, October 12, a definite point system was drawn up, with the approval of Mrs. Adah Dapper, club adviser.

Girls who make the first team in the following sports will be given one-hundred points: baseball, basketball, volleyball, tennis, and track. Members of the first teams in golf and hiking will get fifty points. Making the second team in basketball, baseball, and volleyball will warrant fifty points.

An honor team will be chosen in baseball, basketball, volleyball, and track. Girls making this advancement will be given twenty-five points more. The class champion tennis player will be granted twenty-five points, and the school champion will get twenty-five extra. Members of the executive board will get fifty points, sport managers, which are chosen by the executive board, and girls who excel in posture and clogging will be given twenty-five points.

When a girl has earned five-hundred points in one year, she will be eligible to wear a one-striped sweater; she will also be given a letter. Points do not carry over from year to year. Making the team in the second consecutive year in the same sport gives fifty extra points and seventy-five are given for the third year work.

This system is to be experimented with this year, and if it proves satisfactory it will be continued next year.

Delta Rho Organization Plans Red Cross Room

Delta Rho Gamma members will hold their next regular business meeting tomorrow.

The girls will further their plans for a Red Cross room. Ellen Bergstrom, chairman, Evelyn Elund, and Louise Hendrickson, comprise the committee which will supervise this project.

There is a possibility that the Thanksgiving drive, which formerly has been a Delta Rho Gamma achievement, will be an all-school affair. This matter will be definitely decided at a joint meeting of the executive committees of the Pep Club and the D. R. G.

J. C. Association Meets

The Washington Junior College Association will meet in Seattle at the Olympic Hotel, Saturday, November 17 at 10 o'clock.

Pacific Lutheran College belongs to this organization and Dr. O. A. Tingelstad, president of the school, is vice president. A number of the P. L. C. teachers plan to attend this meeting.

Next Drama Night Is Scheduled For Friday, Nov. 23rd

"Ghost of a Freshman," "More Than a Million," "The Touchdown" Plays To Be Presented

Continuing their series of monthly programs, the Drama Club will present three one-act plays in the college gymnasium, Friday evening, Nov. 23, at eight o'clock.

Under the direction of Lila Rudd, "Ghost of a Freshman" will be given by Mary Nash, Evelyn Irwin, Hazel Hagerup, Virginia Mahncke, and Erld Hutson.

Eleanor Raudebaugh will direct "More than a Million" whose cast includes Berglot Vogan, Clarice Myrah, Eldon Anderson, Pauline Watts, Stanley Ford, and John Van Leuen.

"The Touchdown" has been chosen by Arnold Anderson. Parts will be played by Alda Johnson, Thelma Daniels, Ted Herred, Hal Votaw, Gene Jack, John Fadness, Ferdinand Bondy, and Russell Frye.

As a result of the judging on the plays presented November 2, "Elmer" directed by L. L. Old Anderson, won first place; "Be a Little Cuckoo," under the direction of Eleanor Raudebaugh, second; and "The Pampered Darling," directed by Lila Rudd, third place.

Internation numbers, announced by Bertram Myhre, club president, included: "On the Road to Mandalay," sung by Ronald Martin, accompanied by Prof. Keith Reid; and "Old Black Joe" rendered by the men's quartet, consisting of Osten Eliason, Arnold Anderson, Robert Monson, and Emmet Thompson.

P. L. C.'s Three Unknowns Discovered by Reporter

Come into the kitchen! Let us have a little get-acquainted party—a sort of old time "coffee feast." There are still some members of our "big happy family" at P. L. C. who have not yet become acquainted. We wonder if everyone has met Tina and Helga and Mrs. Fenney?

The "Big Chief" of the kitchen domain is Mrs. Thompson, or Tina, as she is more intimately known. Mrs. Thompson, who has worked here for four years, has three children, two of whom are now attending P. L. C. and will be graduated next spring. Mrs. Thompson was born in Minnesota and came West in 1899. She was a student at P. L. C. in 1909-11, and has lived in Parkland for 27 years.

Assisting Mrs. Thompson are Mrs. Fenney and Miss Helga Olson. The former, who has lived in Parkland for ten years, is a native of Wisconsin. She also has a daughter graduating from this institution next spring. Miss Olson "hails" from Puyallup, and has worked here for five years.

Now that the preliminaries are over and we've been properly introduced, let's really try to know these three friends.

Quartette Entertains

The boys' quartette, composed of Arnold Anderson, Robert Monson, Emmett Thompson, and Oten Eliason, sang at the Parent Teachers association meeting at the Federal Way School, Friday, October 9.

"I Saw It In The Mooring Mast"

Students, you have been loyal to every school undertaking. You have given and supported with the real Gladiator spirit time and time again.

Now there arises another opportunity for you to help boost Pacific Lutheran College. It is simply this; every time you patronize a firm who has advertised in our paper, tell the manager that you saw his ad in the Mooring Mast. It will help him check on the results of that particular advertisement, and he will advertise again.

Remember that without the financial aid furnished by these staunch friends of the paper and of the school, the Mooring Mast could not exist. Show them you appreciate their advertising, and tell them "I saw it in the Mooring Mast."

Hold Thou Thy Tongue

In our contact with people we find ourselves saying things that are sarcastic. Afterwards, on noticing that it has hurt the person with whom we have talked, we feel the pangs of regret. Our conscience being stricken, we attempt to analyze why we were sarcastic. In doing this we find, perhaps, that we are not always sympathetic with other people, and that we have been suddenly awakened to the harm we have done.

In analyzing sarcasm, generally, we perhaps find that it is due also to a lack of a good sense of humor, with which to smoothen our relationships with other people. Perhaps it is caused by nervousness associated with the worries of student life. We may find other reasons more complex. Undoubtedly much of our sarcasm is due simply to thoughtlessness. We do not think of how the other person will feel towards what we say.

Blend Character With Scholarship

In passing through the reflections of Education Week, the faculty of Pacific Lutheran College recognizes anew the necessity of Christian character in education. No matter how well the student masters his lessons it is of little worth unless his character can apply this learning to a good purpose. Of what blessing to our society is the skilled criminal, or the crooked politician? Of what worth is the selfish acquisition of knowledge that is not used to help someone. How much more valuable to society is the Christian character who sees other besides himself and who uses his training to help others. It is for this reason that Pacific Lutheran College considers character of more importance than scholarship. This does not mean that scholarship is pushed aside at this institution; Scholarship is deemed very important. It is the efficient tool which the Christian character employs to promote good in this world.

The renewed aim of Pacific Lutheran College, then, is to blend character with scholarship, to make rich the personalities of its students who will have resourcefulness in solving their individual problems and who will be able to contribute something to the communities in which they will live.

LIGHTER THAN AIR

By Bob Womson

Goodies! Yellow slickers are still popular on the college campus. So is the little yellow blonde who gets you to take her homely friend to the football game.

Gene: "What kind of oil do you use in your car?"
Hal: "Oh, I usually begin by telling them I'm lonely."

And there was the Parkland guy who went out to make a night of it, but didn't know what to do when the library closed:

The stork is the most valuable bird. It inhabits all sorts of districts: Through it doesn't yield phumes Or sing any tunes, It helps out with vital statistics.

Toe-nail descriptions: Cliz Haugen, a Congress cigar butt—Eleanor Hauke, a piece of fudge wrapped in cellophane—Johnny Van Leuven, the dictionary in the library—Karen Hvidding, a Norse saga—Vern Knutson, the boy movie star grown up—Shirley Savage, the calm before the storm—Mary Grass, the storm itself—Herb Hopp, a bite after being scratched—Percy Bond, the third dimension—Elizabeth Dahl, the farmer's daughter with her first city job.

Ernie's girl is a dumb freshman. She tried to sign up for a golf course.

A whole corps has been mobilized to remove Ernie's girl by force, from out of the voting booth, in which she has been marooned since general election day.

Peggy: "And after we are married?"
Boy friend: "What do you mean, married?"
Peggy: "Oh, Jack! How dare you hold my hand if you are not serious."

Some of those dorm guys who have a habit of turning up late for first period classes have an alarm clock in their rooms—but the trouble is it goes off while they are sleeping.

Did you ever go to class Without your lessons. Scared stiff. With your heart in your mouth, And you hoped and feared, And waited through the dragging minutes. And then the teacher called on you? So did I.

Overheard in the Hall
"Did you ever take chloroform?"
"No, who teaches it?"

IT'S BEEN HEARD BEFORE:
Hauge: "Let me give you an example." Ramstad, "When I was in S. Olaf—" Reid, "Life is just a veil of tears." Hong, "I sometimes wonder whether I'm giving you enough work." Edwards, "That reminds me of the Irishman and the German—" Bardson, "W-w-ell, let's see now—enough about that." Mrs. Kreidler, "If I were you I'd—" Nelson, "Hello, fellows! Heh! Heh!" Xavier, "There is a book missing in the lib—" Olson, "Of all the cockeyed dumb plays—" Highby, "Heh! Heh! Heh! Hot Hot hat What!"

HAVE YOU MET?

The young lady hailing from Snohomish? It's her second year in the Liberal Arts course here. She is an outstanding student and takes a large part in school activities.

She excels in athletics, having been a girl's tennis champion last year. When the W. A. A. convened this year, this person was chosen as its leader. Basketball and baseball are also favorite exercises of hers. She has height and speed for both games. Swimming is no exception to her athletic ability. Last year she was chosen as the president of the swimming club.

Being mutually inclined also, she is a member of the P. L. C. choir, this being her second year. She also plays the piano.

She takes an active part in Christianity, work around the school and is the president of the L. D. R. this year. When you meet her, you'll know her as Rosie. Let's meet!

The "P. K." from Seattle? He's a blonde and wears glasses. He is also a student of the Liberal Arts course.

We saw him last year as the president of the Mission Society and also as an active member of the Drama club. He was a letterman from the debate squad last year, where his "gift of gab" came in handy. Even higher honors were bestowed him this year when his fellow students elected him president of the graduating class of '34.

Although most of his week-end are preferably spent in Seattle, we see him enjoying his week days in the dorm.

As he is graduating soon, let us know him before he leaves us.

Among Alumni

Harold Berenstein, '33, who also attended summer school in '34, is now teaching in Everett, Washington.

Alma Grande, '31, is teaching in Douglas, Washington.

Mildred Bervin also of '31 is teaching at Crocher, Washington.

Kathleen Porath, '33, is in training at the Portland General Hospital.

Daniel Plotre, '34, has returned from Fairbanks, Alaska where he has been all summer.

Nellie Lee who graduated in 1902 has been elected President of the North Puget Sound Circuit Women's Missionary Federation.

Eve Nelson, '31, is teaching at Collins, Washington.

PREXY'S CORNER

THE YOUNG BIRCH

By Jorgen Moe
(Translated by N. J. Hong)
A birch tree stands by the inlet. The mirror-like waters near.
How large it has grown and graceful. The years I have journeyed here!
Its crown the white stem now raises Aloft from the beach line low.
But think not 'twould boast of its grace. Its beauty it does not know.

In sight of God and its neighbors It burgeons from day to day. Its branches, which upward are reaching— Invite every songster to stay.
But wond'ring the birch beholds it— Two modest its rank to know. It meekly droops the branches Down toward the wave below.

Just this to be birch a beauty Beyond compare has given. And gathered under its cover The winged hosts of heaven:
Just this—that it is not 'tinking Of lifting its leaf-crown up. But gently the branches sink— Makes shadily snug its top.

What causes it all? It daily Beholds itself in the deep abyss. Alongside of tufts and brambles. And—charmingly see amine!
For 'em as it sunways raises Its stem with the leafy crown. It thinks, as it downward gazes. It ever grows lower down!

O modest birch tree, beautiful. On thee will I often gaze! God grant, I may some day master The sum of thy daily grace. To grow in mine own eyes downward. Lower from day to day. And trust that to raise me crown-ward The Lord will find a way!

At the request of Dr. Tingstad, who is in the East, Mr. Hong has consented to fill Prexy's Corner this week.

Lutherans to Close Grid Season Friday With U. B. C. Here

Victory Wild Glads Out to Finish Up With Five Straight Wins: First-Local Appearance of Canadian Squad

Determined to bring an amazingly successful gridiron season to a smashing climax, Pacific Lutheran's Golden Garbed Gladiators will trot out into action for the last time this season Friday when they entertain foreign strikers from Canada in the personnel of the University of British Columbia (football team). The fray will take place in the Lincoln Bowl at three o'clock in the afternoon.

At present their season record of wins and losses stands at four wins and two losses and the Lutherans have no intention of losing this game. However Coach Cliff Olson and his cohorts are by no means taking the visitors lightly despite their 44-0 reverse suffered at the hands of Belingham Normal earlier in the season. American football is a new sport at U.B.C. this fall and they are expected to have a much improved outfit at this time.

The Glads evidently found the meekness immediately after their defeat by the U.S.S. Maryland, and in rolling up sixty-two points to their opponents nine points in four games have displayed a low fast charging line and a quartet of fleet turf gallopers who incidentally combine this speed with heady football in the matter of pass offense and defense. There is expected to be much interest in this game which will give Tacoma fans and disinterested critics their first glimpse of the team in action in Tacoma in nearly a month.

In accordance with his usual policy Cliff Olson is not predicting victory for his team but he invites all Gladiator fans to come out and see the results for themselves.

The Lutheran Mentor will probably start much the same lineup which came out of the St. Martin's game unscathed as far as injuries are concerned. Sheldon "Dutch" Moe, brainy little quarter, who has won the plaudits of critics by his fine handling of the team in the last few games will be at the reins again next Saturday. "Dutch," incidentally is leading his teammates in their touchdown parade with four jaunts to pay dirt in his credit.

Harry Southworth, '33, is teaching at the Collins School near Olympia.

Whew! Do those Gladiators leave a trail of destruction and ruin—seems like they can't be stopped. It reminds us of the Gladiators of old—fight to the finish, and that is what our splendid team has done, fought to the finish. What has it brought us? Four straight victories and every one of them honorable ones. Nice going gang, more power to you.

S. S.

Wouldn't it be nice to get a crack at those C. P. S. Loggers? The whole town and all the students are clamoring for a post-season game with Sandberg's men. On the basis of comparative scores we have an edge on them and with the morale of the Loggers where it is now our boys would stand a good chance of taking them. Whether it materializes or not remains to be seen, but it's a good idea, anyway.

S. S.

Say, have any of you folks seen "Dutch" Moe run? Well, if you haven't, you should have seen him down at Albany. When he intercepted the first Albany pass, he easily could have put Metcalfe or Tolan, Olympic sprinters, to shame. A few minutes later Votaw duplicated "Dutch's" feat. We mustn't forget O'Conner. He was no slouch in showing heels to his opponents, either. And Ludlow, why that boy can run. Ask "Fud."

S. S.

Let's all be at the game Friday. Since it is to be the last game of the season, we want as large a crowd as possible. Support the team at home like you have done at games away from home. They have been swell, but let's have a complete turn out for the final game of the season.

S. S.

It looks like P. L. C. got her revenge over her rivals, the St. Martin's Rangers. Those boys trimmed us quite handsomely last year, but this year oh my! We trounced them soundly by one touchdown more than they beat us last year. The game was not the rough and tumble game of last year, but quite the opposite. A nice clean game, our boys coming out of the game with only the usual bumps and bruises.

S. S.

When we meet the University of British Columbia next Friday, we are meeting a team who, although new at football, can play the game and play it well. So far we have four straight victories, let's see if we can add another scalp for our trophy case. Remember what Gonsaga did to W. S. C. and Nevada did to St. Mary's? Over-confidence, boys, its over-confidence that does it. We don't want such a calamity to befall our boys.

S. S.

Marv Hanson's kicking has pulled us out of many holes and made it possible for many of our touchdowns.

S. S.

Two cars of rooters attended the game at Albany. Some school spirit, eh what.

S. S.

At St. Martin's, last Saturday, our student body was well represented. Individual cars and a thirty-passenger bus brought a routing section which any team should be proud of.

S. S.

Have you noticed our line this year? They have been outstanding in every encounter but surely not outplayed.

S. S.

Boy, did Bucky kick the old pill last Saturday. Every kick-off went clear down to the opponents goal line and lead the way to two of our touchdowns against the Rangers.

Crushing Attack Scores Twice in First Five Minutes of Play

Winning their fourth consecutive game of the season, the P. L. C. Gladiators walloped St. Martin's at Lacey, last Saturday to the tune of 25-6. After but two minutes of play, Dutch Moe, brilliant Lutheran quarter, went over from the one-yard stripe after a bad Ranger punt had given the Glads possession of the ball on the St. Martin seven-yard line. O'Conner's placekick went wide.

Taking advantage of a blocked Ranger punt on the first play after the kickoff the Lutherans scored for the second time in five minutes, when Captain Hal Votaw slid around end from the eight-yard marker. This time O'Conner's kick was good to give P. L. C. a thirteen point lead. The first quarter ended without further scoring although the Lutherans penetrated to their opponents five-yard stripe.

With their offense momentarily successful, the Rangers squeezed over a score on a line-buck by Moe from the one-yard line, after a thirty-yard run had put the pligkin in scoring position. A plunge for conversion failed, and the half ended with the teams battling in midfield.

Immediately after the kickoff opening the second half, the Gladiators marched fifty yards on running plays to score with "Dutch" Jackin going over this time from the two-yard marker. O'Conner's try for the extra point failed.

The Glads scored again in the third quarter on a thirty-five yard pass from O'Conner to Jack after a drive from the Lutheran twenty had placed the ball in scoring territory. The try for point again failed and this ended the scoring with the score P. L. C. 25 and St. Martin, 6.

Moe's generalship shone for the Lutherans with the whole team sparkling, while Fletcher's runs featured for the Rangers.

The Lineups were:

Moe, Votaw, Solle Tally on Long Runs in One-Sided Affair

The P.L.C. gridlers, led by Captain Hal Votaw, won a decisive 26 to 0 victory over Albany College, member of the Northwest Conference, at Albany, Saturday, Oct. 27.

After a scoreless first period, the Lutherans scored early in the second canto when "Dutch" Moe intercepted an Albany pass and dashed 65 yards to score. O'Conner converted to give the Glads a seven point lead. Just before half-time, the Lutherans scored again on a screen pass. Moe to Votaw, who ran 65 yards to score. The attempt at conversion failed.

The Gladiators broke loose again in the last quarter, after having been held scoreless during the third, when Moe scored from the one-yard line, after a 55 yard drive. Solle, reserve Lutheran half-back, intercepted an Albany pass and trotted to pay dirt in the last 30 seconds of play. The conversion failed, as the game ended with P.L.C. leading 26 to 0.

P. L. C. earned ten first downs to Albany's six. P.L.C. was penalized 30 yards and Albany 35 yards. Albany tried fifteen passes, completed two and five were intercepted. P.L.C. tried nine passes, completed five, and none were intercepted.

High School Notes

Our basket ball team has begun practicing, and the early reports point to an excellent squad. Let's all get behind them, and show the world that we really have a high school here.

Do you know?

Being well over six feet tall, he has it all over us. His blue eyes and wavy hair has caused many a girl's heart to flutter. He is an excellent scholar and at the same time maintains an interest in athletics. As a reward for his merits, he has the distinction of being the first High School Student Body president.

Wedding bells shall ring this summer for Virginia Lou Harris and Clarence Wimbald of Woodland. Congratulations, Virginia, and may your years of wedded life be many and filled with joy. We know Clarence is making a wise choice.

Somebody told us that:

Paul Xavier made a fine "Pampered Darling."

The Home Relations class has turned into a carpenter shop, sending out foot-stools and shoe racks.

Cynthia Larson likes to talk with Willie Stoltz.

Harry McCormick can eat more cake than anyone else in school.

Verner Bitter was described in "Do you know?"

The Halloween party held by the High School Girls, Oct. 26, was described as a success, by those who attended. It was given at the home of the hostess, Fredericka Schlanbusch. Games were the feature of the evening.

Romato Is Intrigued By Professor's Art Hobbies

Pacific Lutheran College
Parkland, Washington
November 7, 1934

Dear Sir:
I've been noticing lately that almost everyone has a hobby. It seems to be the style now. I've thought and thought about what I could have for my hobby but seem unable to find one that interests me. Some people I know keep stamp collections, save autographs of famous people, mount bugs, and gather plant specimens.

Mr. Pflueger, our professor of religion, has art for his hobby. He's good at it, too. Of course, I am not an art critic or anything like that, but I have seen some of his work which I think is very good. My opinion does not amount to much, but people who have studied art and appreciate fine work say he has marvelous technique. He feels keenly the structural line and value of his compositions.

While I was chatting with Professor Pflueger the other day, he spoke of some of the things he has done and is doing in his spare moments. Formerly he used to do archery work, a type he particularly enjoys, because it was fine and graceful, rendering opportunities for making delicate and decorative woodwork.

When Professor Pflueger was in Germany, he did a lovely wood-carving of "The Crucifixion." The lines of the body are shaped carefully and skillfully so that one can easily see and feel the potency of the piece. He says that he receives most satisfaction from this kind of art because he is able to put more self-expression into what he does than into anything else.

At the present time he is employing his leisure in sculpturing. He first makes clay models which he afterwards casts in bronze.

All the tools he uses in his work he has made in his own workshop, using a lathe, made by himself, a planer, a jig-saw, and some other machinery necessary for the production of these implements.

When Professor Pflueger wants a breath of fresh air, he works in his garden. Last year he constructed the fish pool in front of his home and landscaped the grounds around it. Here he has planted a variety of shrubs and flowers.

The professor takes his gun and goes duck hunting when he craves excitement.

He has worthwhile hobbies which are pleasurable, constructive, and recreational.

I wish I could find something half as fine to do with my extra time. Have you any suggestions to offer?

Love,
Romato.

High School Hoop Squad Organizes Under Ramstad

Schedule of New Activity to Include Tacoma Schools

Under the tutelage of Coach A. W. Ramstad the newly organized high school basketball squad is already under way; holding practices three times a week. With an abundance of material and an early start, Coach Ramstad predicts a bright future for his hoopers.

A definite schedule will be arranged which will include games with the Tacoma high schools, Lincoln, Stadium and Belarmite, intermediate schools and other schools in the vicinity.

Those turning out are: Paul Larson, Bob Svare, Orville Schlanbusch, Lloyd Thompson, Orwoll Dahl, Gary Pflueger, Orlando Asper, Harry Gribbom, Ernest Haugen, Paul Xavier, and Howard Hudson. Harry McCormick will be manager with Ralph Hutchison as his assistant.

W.A.A. Begins Activities By All-Girls Gym Frolic

For its first social event of the year, the Women's Athletic Association sponsored an all-girls gym Frolic Oct. 31 in the college gymnasium.

The Frolic opened with a grand march led by Helen Lilja and Mary Nash. Relay, folk-dances, and games also furnished entertainment for the girls who attended. The afternoon closed with the serving of refreshments. Women beauty members and faculty wives were guests at the affair, which was under the direction of the W. A. A. executive board, and Mrs. Adah Dapper, club adviser.

Gay Life of 'Shacksters' In Parkland Disappears

For the past several years there have been a number of boys commonly known as the "Shacksters" batching together in various houses in Parkland. This year, however, the practice of batching has been abandoned, and all of the boys are back in the dormitory.

The fellows, with no cooking worries, or other domestic problems, are trying to adapt themselves to "three squares" and regular sleeping hours. Hope you feel at home here with us, boys!

Boys Give Skit

Portraying Prof. Yasure Iskaltelluy and the Key man, Ollis Hagen and Robert Stare provided a program feature at the Roy high school Junior Prom, given Friday evening, November 9 at Roy high school.

Charles Leask, who went here last year, is attending the Washington High School in Portland.

"Whose I am is Whom I serve. I am His, because He has created me, and placed me in this world... When I need something to give me strength, I go to my Bible and face my God. I belong to God because he has, and continually does preserve me. If He were not for my preservation, I could not continue to live. I belong to God because of the great act of Salvation. Let us take God with us in our lives and serve Him."
—N. M. Yivisaker.

Some instruction in art of study is necessary if you are going to get the most out of it. Concentrate. Make sure you have the proper conditions—both physical and mental for concentration on your study.

You are not a real student until you have learned to question. Beware of eye-strain; there is no danger of mind strain. Mastering a subject you don't like is perhaps the most worthwhile activity among those you carry on in studying.
—Mr. Howard Fisher.

Don't be a dog in the manger. Don't deprive your neighbor of something you cannot use yourself.

Christian morality not only lives, but lives and gives life. As Christ gave His life for us so should we give our lives for our brethren.
—Pflueger.

The working habit is by far the most important thing, as far as going out into life and doing something is concerned. We are needed today. We need leadership today of the type that the Pacific Lutheran College should furnish—a leadership that is consecrated and sincere.

You are here accepting the responsibility of leadership. You must serve in order to prepare for leadership. Start training for leadership by consecrated service.
—Dr. P. O. Holland.

The spirit of Pacific Lutheran College is a friendly, helpful and christian one.

The greatest glory that can come to any college is to have graduates who go into the world with a friendly, helpful, Christian spirit toward their fellowmen. The whole world is made better because of such people.
Ramstad.

French Club Meets

In the absence of the president, Elizabeth Dahl, vice president, conducted the French club meeting held Monday. The Mrs. Daniels read and translated articles from "Le Petite Journal." It was decided to give a candy sale every other Friday.

A committee composed of Fredericka Schlanbusch, chairman, Marian Torressal, and Irene Odell will choose the kind of the tree that the French club will add to the shrubs out by the fish pool, and arrange the planting ceremony.
