

Banquet of Luther Leagues Is Nov. 4

Of interest to the students of Pacific Lutheran College will be the banquet sponsored by the Tacoma Luther Leagues, set for Friday, November 4, in the First Lutheran Church on 6th and I Street in Tacoma. With an address by Rev. E. M. Hege as the main number, an interesting program has been planned by the committee under Hugh Tallant, former P. L. C. student.

Other numbers on the program will include vocal solos by Anna Mikkelsen and Phil Berg; accordion solos by Leonard Anderson; vibra-harp selections by Bob Searles; and greetings from the presidents of the various Luther Leagues in Tacoma.

The affair, which is informal, will begin at 6:15 p. m. on the date set. Tickets will be fifty cents each. Tickets may be secured from league officers or committee members. Officers of the group are: President, Hugh Young; vice president, John Kirkbo; secretary, Hazel Monsen; treasurer, Lloyd Johnson.

Pfueger Attends Meeting

To attend the convention of the American Lutheran Church at Fond du Lac, Wis., beginning Oct. 11, Prof. Pfueger left Parkland last Friday. He expects to be away about two weeks, during which time other members of the faculty are taking care of his classes. The different classes in religious education are taught by Prof. A. W. Ramstad and Prof. J. U. Xavier. Mrs. Taylor is conducting the class in public speaking, while Prof. Keith Reid is teaching the class in philosophy.

Prof. N. J. Hong, high school principal, has been absent from the classrooms during the last three weeks for the purpose of trying to raise money to cover current operating expenses of the college. Prof. Edwin Tingelstad has been teaching Mr. Hong's classes in English and news writing, while Miss Fowler is instructing the world literature class.

C. Monson Is Soph President

Clarence Monson was elected president of the sophomore class at a meeting held last Thursday by that group with Kathryn Johnson acting as chairman. Norman Jensen was chosen vice president and Florence Post secretary-treasurer. At the next meeting an adviser will be chosen.

The present sophomore class is commonly known as the "cut-casts" since they are neither freshmen nor graduating third-year students.

"Fresh Eggs" Tortured by Suitcases, Clean Faces, Braids, and Unmated Footwear for Pep Initiation

"I'll bet that without any makeup your face looks just as pale as this egg I'm carrying."

"It certainly seems as if this suitcase were filled with lead instead of being empty after I've carried it around all morning, and this idea of wearing one high-heeled and one low-heeled shoe isn't so hot either."

Such were only a few of the remarks which the girls new to the dormitory this year uttered as they attended classes Sept. 29. This, however, was only a small part of the torture put upon "fresh eggs" being initiated into the Pep Club. Through very different braids which appeared at various places on the heads of the initiates were the center of a lot of attraction, but the raw eggs which they were compelled to carry around and have three

Upperclassmen and Faculty, Watch Out!

Tradition has it that each freshman class shows the world that they're on the map and that they're somebody. To accomplish this end, the Class of '33 has turned artist and inscribed their insignia in bright orange on the stone seats near the tennis court. This seat is to be occupied by freshmen only, so, seniors and faculty, beware!

This feat was accomplished October 3, by a committee composed of Jane Williams, Harold Votaw, Gene Reardon, and Russell Frye.

College Library to Be Open Additional Hours

Many Books Added to Shelves in All Departments

A new feature of the library this year is the fact that it is open each evening except Friday and Saturday from 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. The library is also open each Saturday morning from 10 to 12. Previously the library has been closed after 4:30 p. m. on school days.

New books added to the college library this year are: High School Geography, R. H. Whitbeck; High School Geography, C. R. Dryer; B. K. Review Digest for 1931. M. A. Knight; The Cumulative Book Index for 1931-1932, H. W. Wilson; The Readers Guide to Periodical Literature; Encyclopedia of Social Sciences, Vol. 7, Handicraft for Girls, E. T. Hamilton; Colonial Caravans, United States George Washington Bicentennial Committee; Quicker than Eye, John Muhlolland; The Fun of It, Amelia Earhart; The Omnibus of Sport, Grantland Rice.

New fiction books include Swift River, Cornelia Miggs; On the Reindeer Trail, Thomas Williamson; The Lance of Kanaka, H. W. French.

Entertain Lion's Club

Margaret Wesson and Anna Mikkelsen entertained members of the Lion's Club at Old Harbor last Monday evening. Ruth Howard accompanied Anna at the piano. The affair was the banquet was enjoyed before the prospect of the club's fall events and a gram.

professors sign created the sensation. And did the Pep Club give the new girls a hint to get out when they made them carry large empty suitcases with the sign "Fresh Eggs" pasted on the side? The worst dig came, however, when last year's members found that the newcomers really were barbarous, since each one ate a whole dinner that evening with only a knife as implement. More lowdown—the kitchen committee reported that no dinners were returned that evening. Why girls! At the evening meeting each new member was made to put on some special designated by the upperclassmen. President Dickie Leland presided over a short business meeting, after which she and Kathleen Forath served tea and cream and cake.

P. L. C.'s Former Bands Also Had Good Points

Pride, and justly so, in the promising group of students and instruments, which are associating themselves under the name "Pep Band," makes us prone to believe that they are the first and only band the school has had. "Not so, not so," cry the old-timers and they tell us of past days of "bands as was bands." Brass bands they were, and real ones, too. Why, once they bought over $800 worth of instruments, but that was long ago—and they had once lent them to the Army—during the war, it was. No, those were real bands. They used to take them along on picnics—which were frequent in those days—and they gave concerts from the roof of the school on Sunday afternoons, quite often it was—band concerts something like we have in our parks. The community would turn out to hear them. And then on Easter morning they would get up early, and set up on the roof and serenade Parkland. Oh those were grand times! And they had leaders, too. Carlu Sperati, now of Luther College, and George Johnson, now leader of the Normanna Chorus, and Sarlsand, and Drothing, and others. But then this coming band it might grow, and maybe might eclipse even those of the past, who knows?

Anna Mikkelsen Sings In Audition Contest In Seattle Tomorrow

Anna Mikkelsen, soprano soloist in the Pacific Lutheran College choir, winner of the Atwater Kent Radio Audition Contest in Tacoma, will compete in the state contest to be held in radio station KOMO in Seattle, Thursday, October 13, at 10:30 p. m. Walter Sverson will represent Tacoma in the men's division of the contest.

From the twelve cities represented in the state contest, one boy and one girl will be chosen to represent Washington in the regional competition in Los Angeles in November.

Each contestant is required to sing one song, but must send in the names of three in order of preference. Anna has chosen the following three: "Louise" by Gustave Charpentier; "Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton; "Aleluja" by Mozart.

French Club Has Luncheon

To create interest in Le Cercle Francaise, old members of the club honored prospective members with a luncheon, Friday, Oct. 7. During the luncheon a program was given, with Shirley Hecht presiding.

Edgar Larson told of the aims of the club; Wilma O'Brien presented "Song of India" as a violin solo, accompanied by Nordis Arneson, and Anna Mikkelsen sang "Love on The High Road," also accompanied by Nordis Arneson. Mr. Hunter performed some clever tricks, as well as relating some of his experiences in France while in the over-seas service. Margaret Wesson thanked the members of the club in behalf of the guests for the luncheon and program.

Paul Preus to Head High School Graduates

At an election held last Thursday, the high school seniors selected Paul Preus as their president for the ensuing year. Other officers chosen were William Pfueger, vice president; and Dolores Roe, secretary-treasurer. As yet no advisor has been chosen by the group.

Varsity Four Quartet Entertains at P. L. C.

Professor P. J. Bardon Introduces Program

The Varsity Four quartet, formerly the University of Washington quartet and which now entertains over KOMO, gave a selected program of favorite numbers in the P. L. C. gym, Thursday, October 6. The quartet was introduced by Prof. P. J. Bardon, and consists of Frank Hayes, tenor; Peter J. Bardon Jr., tenor; Loren Davidson, baritone; Don Craig, bass; and their pianist, John Craig.

On the program were Negro spirituals, sacred and secular numbers, and comic songs.

Comments on the concert as given by an authority on music follow:

"It was a pleasure to hear Mr. Frank Hayes interpret his solo group with a voice of dramatic character capable of much dynamic contrast.

"The soft, lovely tones that were sung by Mr. Don Craig were enjoyed by all. Mr. John Craig displayed fine wrist work in the playing of Rubenstein's Staccato Etude in C. The tempo and accuracy with which he performed, together with the interpretation, made an immediate appeal to the audience, as exemplified by the applause.

"The fine intonation, breath support, and blend were among many of the merits of the quartet."

Hugh Tallant, former P. L. C. student, has been elected president of Rev. Hegge's Central Lutheran Church Young People's League. He is an active member in the Tacoma Luther League.

Source of Coach Olson's Smiles Explained to School By Mary Annette, Who Is Going to Be Football Fan

Have you noticed that happy smile on Coach Cliff Olson's face for the last few days? Nope, it isn't because the Gladiators got that final kick over the goal in the Navy game, either. Do you want to know a secret? Well, rather 'round and hear it first hand from "our heroine" herself.

INTRODUCING MARY ANNETTE OLSON—

"Hello everybody, I'm Mary Annette, forty-day-old daughter of Coach and Mrs. Cliff Olson. This is a grand old world you have here, and I certainly like Parkland 'cause the college is here. I haven't been to the school yet, but daddy has told me all about it. I hear he's football coach over there, and I'm awfully tickled when he comes home and chucks me under the chin and says, 'Well, kiddo, the boys won today.' I just let out a big yell even if Bob and his pit queens aren't here to lead it. I believe I'll be a real football fan when I grow up. I'll bet I

Freshmen Class Has Yacht Party

Charter "Chickawa" for Friday Night Cruise to Spring Beach on Vashon Island for Bonfire and Eats

The freshman class held its first social function of the year last Friday evening, in the form of a yachting party. The underclassmen, about forty in number, met at Point Defiance and boarded the yacht Chickawa, owned and operated by Captain Riggs, for a three-hour cruise on Commencement bay.

Excitement was furnished at the beginning of the excursion, when a ukele was accidentally dropped overboard. It was very courageously rescued from a watery grave, however, by one of the young men in the party. The ukele is the property of Margaret Wesson.

To top the affair, a "wienie" and marshmallow roast was held at Spring Beach, on Vashon Island. While there, several members of the group thoroughly enjoyed themselves by soaring over the chilly waters of the sound in a huge swing, suspended from the branch of a tall tree on the beach.

"Apparently everyone had a good time," stated Mr. Beck, faculty adviser of the freshmen. "The committees performed their work well, and everything was provided for."

The committee in charge of the refreshments consisted of Alice Roe, Mary Louise Preus, Agnes Langness, Fritjhof Tayet, and John Van Leuven.

Mrs. Kroidler and Professor Beck chaperoned the affair.

At Mrs. A. W. Ramstad's home Wednesday, October 5, members of the Lutheran Daughters of the Reformation elected officers for the year. Chosen to offices are Jennie Iverson, vice president; Lila Rudd, secretary; Esther Jar, treasurer. Kathryn Johnson, the president, was elected last spring to serve for this year.

Kathryn Johnson and Jennie Iverson were elected delegates to attend the L. D. R. convention at Poughbo, Washington. An interesting report of the convention held at Minneapolis last summer was given by Mrs. Ramstad. Kathleen Forath presented a piano solo. Mrs. Ramstad, assisted by Esther Jar, served refreshments.

can run Dutch Meo a close second on calling signals even now. I don't call them for football plays, but rather when I'm hungry, or I'm tired of lying in my crib, and want daddy Cliff to walk the floor with me.

Say, I want to meet Johnny Fadness; he and I ought to have lots in common, for you see I have bright red hair, too. Daddy says it doesn't bother Johnny's disposition or temper in the least, so I guess there's still hope for me. Although I never intend to turn out for football, I want Carl Martin to teach me how to kick like he does in the games. I heard you "BOOM" that Saturday clear out here at Parkland and had to take "time out" from my nap to add my bit to the applause.

I'm counting the days until I can come to P. L. C. to visit. My personality as well as my red hair should brighten things up there a little. I hope you'll recognize me and shake hands, when I do come so that I'll feel right at home."

LEST WE FORGET

This is a gentle reminder to the students and especially the freshmen, in this good old school of ours. Don't forget that you represent Pacific Lutheran College wherever you go, and regardless of the company in which you find yourself. You have chosen this school to be your alma mater, so you as individuals are expected to live up to the high moral standards characteristic of this institution. The loud and showy type of persons have no place here, instead, Pacific Lutheran College should be represented by the sincere and well-behaved students who can take care of themselves under any circumstance. So hereafter, studs, let's show the world that our school really is an institution of high moral standards and that its students can have a good time without going to extremes.

BIGGER AND BETTER PEP BAND

Have you heard of the Pep Band? In view of the fact that it is not just a temporary organization but a starter for a real concert band such as P. L. C. used to have years ago, it deserves your earnest consideration. If you play an instrument or would like to do so, here's your opportunity to get into an outfit which will grow in size and importance in our student body. Mr. Hunter offers lessons to those interested, so remember that you are being given a golden opportunity which you should not pass up. Besides, it's lots of fun, you know.

P. L. C. HAS BLACKBOARDS

It seems that we are not the only ones who have noticed that there are grammar school children somewhere among us. It is strange to see names scrawled in chalk on the front steps and walk of a college, and even more peculiar when one considers that P. L. C. is a normal school as well. Is it possible that practice teachers learn tricks from their students? Don't you think it's rather humiliating for the group as a whole as well as for individuals to be laid open to criticism on such grounds as these?

HAVE YOU MET?

A tall young man, with tan skin, curly brown hair, and hazel eyes? This individual usually wears a brown suede jacket, and is often seen in the company of Oscar Anderson or any member of presentable co-eds.

This boy always seems to be in a great hurry, and small wonder, for he has a great many duties. He is now acting as Advertising Manager of the "Mooring Mast," and is an active member of "Der Deutsche Verien" and the Drama Club.

Last year he helped organize the day boys into a club, and was president of that organization. This year, however, he fills a much more important presidency, which often brings him before the public eye. It would be hard now, NOT to guess who he is.

A freshman girl, about five feet seven inches tall, with blue eyes, a short, light brown permanent, and a smile that reminds us of her well-known father? If further marks of identification are needed, she has a dimple in her left cheek.

This girl has been attending Pacific Lutheran College for several years. Last year she played reserve basket ball, was an active member of many clubs and president of the senior high-school class. She graduated from the high school department with high honors, very high honors in fact.

Recently this girl's time has been completely devoted to the "Mooring Mast" and its welfare.

Answers to "Have You Met?" will be found elsewhere in this paper.

It is only a question of time now until football players will be prohibited from washing their faces in the water bucket before taking a drink from it.

German Club Takes Trip

Chief among the interesting things on the program of the German Club, "Der Deutsche Verein," this year is the imaginary trip through Germany which the club members will take at their meetings. Passports are being provided the members so that they may be assured of entrance to all the discussions of interesting places. This week's program features the program after the captain's dinner just before the landing in Bremen.

On September 28 the German class visited the steamship "Este" at the dock in Tacoma. The men on the boat, most of whom were German, were courteous and very clean, according to statements made by students who visited the ship. One of the interesting highlights of the trip came when one of the ship's men hurriedly "ditched" two large bottles filled with a heavy red liquid substance when he saw the students approaching, according to reports. Now we wonder!

Mission Society Meets

The program of the Mission Society Sept. 28, consisted of devotion led by President Walter Young, and free prayer, a piano number by Ellen Soley, and a vocal solo by Anna Mikkelson. The Mission topic for the meeting was on "Mary Slesser," led by Cora Iien. A committee of three was appointed to take charge of the Pocket Testament League. Also, two members were requested to take charge of the Mission project. On the Pocket Testament League committee are Anna Mikkelson, Walter Young, and Ardis Aarhus.

Dorm Auxiliary Meets

The Dormitory Auxiliary, an organization of ministers' wives, wives of faculty members and women members of the faculty, gave a tea for the benefit of the girls' dormitory Saturday afternoon, October 8, in First Lutheran Church, Tacoma.

The program consisted of two duets by Mrs. P. E. Hauge and Miss Solveig Rynning, a reading by Mrs. J. O. Edwards, and two songs by Miss Agnes Swenson, who has recently returned from the east where she has been studying voice.

The tea was an all-hostess affair, and about eighty attended.

The Pacific Lutheran College Choir will sing at the Tricentennial Anniversary of the Gustavus Adolphus Commemoration, Friday, Nov. 4, at the First Lutheran Church, corner of 6th and I Street.

Alumnus Gives First Impressions of Luther

My first contact with Luther College men came in the two days of registration. The impression they leave with me is that they are very congenial and easy to get acquainted with. They are willing to help a new student to the utmost, getting located in rooms, etc. The new students (especially the upper classmen) are put on the spot, so to speak. Their good points and bad points are gone over, and their reformation starts immediately.

I have found it very easy to get into the swing of activities here at Luther. Men come up to you and offer to help you get started in this organization, another in some other organization, so it is a man's own fault if he finds himself out in the cold.

I have heard a great many men comment on the school spirit at L. C. In the short time I have been here I have noticed that the spirit is unusually high for so early in the school year. I can just imagine what it will be like next Saturday.

From what I have observed this early in the school year, I know I am going to enjoy spending my last year of college life at Luther College.—Evens Carlson from Luther Chips.

Remember the Rules, Freshmen

1. Never let classes interfere with your outside activities.
2. Never smoke in your rooms—Smoke in your neighbors.
3. Spend a lot of time on your books—they make good pillows or seats.
4. Keep your rooms clean. No gardens are permitted in the dormitory.
5. R. T. tire early. Late hours are unhealthful. You have to study! Oh, that is different.—College Chips.

Two at Luther

The college has had word, through a letter written Dr. Tingstad, that two of our former students are attending Luther College, Decorah, Iowa. The two boys, Bertram Olson and Evans Carlson, last year's graduates, are roommates, and are enjoying their work.

To get new girls entering school interested in the work of the Lutheran Daughters of the Reformation, a reception was given by that organization in the reception room during the first week of school, with Kathryn Johnson, president, presiding. Mrs. A. W. Ramstad gave the principal talk of the afternoon, telling of the work the L. D. R. groups are doing to support a mission station at Shismaref, Alaska.

Musical numbers on the program included a piano solo by Norma Preus, a vocal solo by Anna Mikkelson, and a selection by a quartet composed of Jennie Lee, Olga Overlie, Esther Jahr and Frances Andrews. Nordis Arneson, accompanied the vocal selections. Punch and cookies were served to the girls attending, with Dorothy Wtnsor presiding at the punch table.

School Films Stolen

Mr. Paul A. Freus, field agent, was robbed of his moving picture apparatus and films Sept. 20 while he was in Washington, D. C. These and articles of clothing were taken from his locked car when he left it for a short time in the down-town district of the metropolis. Insurance covered the losses, but the movies which included many school affairs and local scenes were invaluable, since they cannot be replaced.

Men's Dorm Union Elects

At the first meeting of the Men's Dormitory Union, an association of men residing in the dorm, held on Sept. 22, officers for the ensuing semester were elected as follows: Norman Westling, president; Sheldon Moe, vice president; "Bill" Whalen, secretary; Walter Ustad, treasurer. Mr. Olson introduced Burton Kreidler, who will act in the capacity of assistant dean this year. After a short talk by Mr. Olson, the meeting adjourned.

Board Member Celebrates Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gulbranson, of Bellingham, Washington, formerly of Stanwood, Washington, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday, October 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houlwick of Stanwood. The Houlwicks were married in Stanwood by Rev. M. A. Christensen, now of Astoria and have been living in Bellingham for 23 years where Mr. Gulbranson is in the merchandising business.

Mr. Gulbranson is a member of the Board of Trustees of the college and has been secretary of this group for the past three years. He is also an alumnus of P. L. C.

HARD TIMES BRING BETTER HEALTH

The other day Dr. J. A. Johnson, who has been giving physical exams at school, made the assertion that the business depression did have its good uses. For instance it is tending to make people healthier.

With so many losing their jobs and with wages being lowered people have been unable to buy the richer and more expensive foods. This change of diet has done a world of good as people now eat the less expensive fruits and vegetables which are more healthful.

Dr. Johnson says that he finds that college students on the whole are more healthy than students of other grades.

State Names

These are the names properly applied to the residents of the states: Abkhazian, Arabian, Arkansas, California, Columbian, Colorado, Georgian, Hawaiian, Florida, Georgian, Estonian, Illinois or Illinoisian, Indian, Iowa, Jersey, Kansas, Kentuckian, Louisiana, Marylander, Michiganian, Mississippi, Missourian, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New Yorker, Oklahoman, Oklahoma, Oregonian, Pennsylvanian, Rhode Islander, Tennesseean, Texan, Vermont, Virginian and Washingtonian, Abkhazian, Indianian, etc. are also written Abkhazian, Indianian, etc. Sometimes Wisconsin is seen, an error. Muscovy, Ostendian. But there isn't much you can do with Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire, Utah and Wyoming.

First President's Plan Carried Out by Others

In his will George Washington left 50 shares of stock in the Potomac (District) company for the endowment of a university, to be established in the District of Columbia, to which the youth of fortune and talents from all parts thereof might be sent for the completion of their education in all the branches of polite literature—in arts and science, in acquiring knowledge in the principles of justice and good government." In furtherance of that hope and project of the first President of the United States, Columbian college, now named the George Washington university, was established. The stock which General Washington allotted toward such an institution became valueless owing to the failure of the canal properties, and it was necessary for "the college," established in the District of Columbia, to obtain funds from other sources.—Washington Star

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Runsold, parents of Tjige were honored in Portland on Sept. 22 with a double birthday party. The affair, which came as a surprise, was held in the parlors of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, of which Rev. Runsold is pastor. Mrs. Runsold's birthday was Sept. 17 and her husband's on Sept. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fowler and daughters Nancy, Jenise, and Sally Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rudolph of Portland were the guests of Jean-Marie Fowler and Miss S. R. Fowler over the week end.

Hazel Monsen entertained the Young People's Society of the First Norwegian Lutheran Church in the church parlors last Friday evening.

Mrs. J. O. Edwards, wife of Professor Edwards, has recently returned from an extended visit with her parents in Henning, Minnesota.

Arnold Grindlund spent the week end of October 1 at his home in Bellingham.

Helen Garbell and Virginia Boen are scheduled to appear in a golf tournament to be held at the Parkland Golf Course in the near future.

Berdine Knutsen and Margaret Jacobson spent last week end at Berdine's home in Portland.

Walter Ustad will sing over station KVI Saturday on the Masonic Quarterly Program.

Mr. Louis Hunter is Professor J. O. Edwards' new assistant in the musical department. He has charge of the band and orchestra activities. Lessons are given to those interested in joining either of these organizations. Some instruments are also available.

BECK TO ADVISE FRESHMEN

That Prof. Alvan J. Beck will be the faculty adviser for this year's freshman class was decided at a class meeting held Tuesday noon.

The class voted to tax each freshman $100 to cover any expenses which may be incurred by class activities. The entertainment to be given soon for the freshman class was discussed, and Hazel Monsen was named chairman of the committee to plan it. Others on the committee are Harold Holmberg and Evelyn Irwin.

Gladiators Will Meet Bellingham

Coach Olson's Men in Good Condition for Meet on Viking Gridiron Saturday, October 15

Coach Cliff Olson and his squad of Gladiators leave Saturday, in quest of a second victory over the highly touted Bellingham Normal eleven. This is one game the Lutherans are looking forward to taking and will enter the contest well prepared for any onslaught by the Vikings.

The Viking mentor witnessed the C. P. S.-P. L. C. encounter and probably has formed the assumption, or come to a definite conclusion as to what's what. This is perfectly legitimate, but the team that played C. P. S. and the team that will play Bellingham are two altogether different working outfits.

Meaning just this, that Coach Cliff Olson needed one game to find out what was missing, and as a result, has revamped his club into a smoother working machine. Whether we win or not, Coach Carver of the Vikings, who thinks he has seen an illusion, when he witnesses Olson's boys in action again.

Predictions are out of order, but our forward wall has come down to earth again and the men are working like veterans. For example: We have four able wingmen in Levinson, "Little Jake," Score and Willard and every one of them have been bearing down in scrimmages lately, showing improvement in every department of the game. Three tackles, (and that's all we need) are Cronquist, Martin and Runsvold.

Since Gene Reardon is still on the shelf from injuries, Bill Whalen will be the veteran in the guard position. Bill is plenty good, but we all admit that it's hard for him to take care of both positions, yet we have two other men in N. Frye and Ellingson, who aren't exactly novices, and may plug up this hole nicely. Faddess, at the pivot position, is 'nough said, it speaks for itself.

Now the biggest problem arises, whether our backfield will show the same scoring punch against the Vikings, that they have shown in scrimmages. As a whole our ball toters are small, but are deceptive ground gainers. Dutch Moe and Chuck McMillan, signal blockers, will cause Carver's eleven plenty of trouble, they're fast, shifty and can toss that old pigskin very accurately. Russ Frye is a defense all by himself, and will get first call at the fullback post.

Hansen, Jack and Votaw are three halfbacks that are being counted on. Our blonde venus, Votaw, has a semi-charley-horse, but expects it to be in better shape before Saturday. The other two halves are in good condition and seem anxious to get into action.

We think it is necessary to look pessimistic over what Saturday's result will be. To date we have two games under our belt, and Bellingham has yet to play their first game. This is a slight advantage in itself—so lets all go to Bellingham Saturday and see what the result will be.

The enrollment since our last issue has been increased by six more students.

Sport Slants

By C. Monson, Pro. Tem.

When is a Swede, not a Swede? We have it in our tall stately, debonaire end, "Swede" Willard, a regular. Clark Gabel in a football suit. I don't mind exaggerating a bit when a griddier like "Swede" dons a Gladiator uniform.

His football history dates back to his high school days at Stadium and what a sweet footballer he turned out to be there. Last year he used his ability with Washington State College and ended up the season by earning a letter.

"Swede" will be a big boost to our forward wall because he just refuses to let anyone come around his end. He greeted a few atterbys by U. S. S. Oklahoma, we all saw that.

Occasionally we read of the meteoric rise of some insignificant mortal. On a smaller scale Hal Votaw deserves a little consideration.

He has shown in the last two contests that he can move those short legs of his to a good advantage and in the right direction; and as a result of his elusiveness, he has risen from the ranks of a bench warmer to a regular.

We have other small backs who possess the same qualities, Dutch, Chuck, Gene, Marv and Ralph. Form your own conclusions by watching sometime. You'll get an eyeful. They're little but have big ideas.

Saturday we again meet the Bellingham Normal eleven and judging from advance reports, I'm quite dubious in regards to their strength this year, but remember they've pointed this game for us.

The reason for this, I guess, is because we left them punch drunk after a 27 to 6 victory last year.

In recent scrimmages, Coach Cliff Olson has been charging that big line all over the field, with heads down and smacking them hard. It seems that this method of drill has formed some psychological effect—the whole squad has shown more drive and punch.

I'm not intimating that we'll beat the Vikings, but I am positive of the fact that even if the Bellingham line is dubbed as the unmovable, they're going to come in contact with the irresistible Saturday.

Ten Reasons For Attending Pacific Lutheran College

- 1.—To train for the future in the land of the future. We believe in the Pacific Coast as the land of the future.
- 2.—To help perpetuate a Christian civilization in America. Without some Christian schools America cannot remain Christian.
- 3.—To accept the friendly guidance of Christian teachers. The faculty is composed of Christian personalities.
- 4.—To form precious, Christian friendships. Youth is the time, Pacific Lutheran College the place.
- 5.—To share the interests of forward-looking, democratic young people. The school spirit embodies the ideals of undefeated youth.
- 6.—To combine health and happiness with serious endeavor. Parkland is an exceptionally healthy place; athletics thrive.
- 7.—To develop a love for the finer things of life. The means used include musical, literary, dramatic, and religious student activities.
- 8.—To render service that will merit public confidence. Our graduates are in demand; our placement service is exceptional.
- 9.—To develop character on a Christian foundation. The College motto is: "Build for Character."
- 10.—To invest my life for Christ. The surrendered life is the only truly successful life.—Pacific Lutheran College Bulletin.

Produce Winners

P. L. C. turns out winners of all kinds among its students and faculty. The latest, Miss Lydia Stixrud, former head of the normal department, recently won a $15 prize in the Times' Hidden Word Ad Contest of August 27. Miss Stixrud's entry consisted of "Queen Wanda" and her royal page woven in all the splendor and majesty, befitting a royal court. The page was posed as reading to the queen a document consisting of the hidden word ads.

Bardon Dines With Governor
Governor Hartley entertained Prof. P. J. Bardon at dinner Wednesday, October 5, at the governor's mansion in Olympia. The "ins and outs" of politics provided discussion for the dinner, and when Mr. Bardon returned he was heard to say, "It is a long time since I've learned so much in so short a time."

The governor and Mr. Bardon are friends of long standing, having been in politics together in Everett many years ago.

Show Interest in Prayer Meetings
Decided interest is shown in the Friday morning prayer meetings, not only spiritually but also in attendance. The rotation method of conducting these meetings is used and the student leading in hymns and prayers may carry out his own individual tendencies. The last two meetings were led by Leonard Wesson, Sept. 30, and on Oct. 7 by Carrie Eviding.

Football Schedule

Here is the remainder of the 1932 football schedule, all complete except October 29, which will be played either against Whitworth College from Spokane or the Port Lewis eleven.
October 15—Bellingham Normal, there.
October 21—Ellensburg Normal, there.
October 28—Oyen.
November 5—Monmouth Normal, there.
November 12—Homecoming game with Columbia University, which will probably be played in the Tacoma Stadium.

Girls' Gym Classes Are Temporarily Abandoned

To give all girls an opportunity to participate in outdoor sports, girls' gym classes have been abandoned until the rainy weather sets in.

Each girl now earns her credit in physical education by doing one half hour or more of physical exercise at least two times a week. Tennis and hiking seem to be the most popular sports, but many girls prefer golf, touch football, horseback riding, or baseball. Then, occasionally, gardening and lawn mowing are also done.

This is the first time this system of earning credits for physical education has been put into practice at Pacific Lutheran College. Gym classes will reopen, however, when the rainy weather makes it impossible to carry on outdoor activities.

Girls' Hiking Club Meets Alice Alvnes Is Scribe

The Hiking Club held its first meeting of the year October 4, with Dickie Leland, elected last spring, as chairman. Alice Alvnes was elected scribe, and a committee, composed of Jennie Iverson, Helen Collins, and Mildred Lee, was appointed by the chairman to arrange for the first hike.

The club is open to all girls at Pacific Lutheran College who are interested in outdoor activities. Hikes are taken at least once a month, if the weather permits, to places of interest near Parkland.

"Through Germany" to Be Club Feature

An imaginary trip through Germany with talks on the places of interest will be a feature of the meetings of Der Deutsche Verein, P. L. C.'s German Club.

Officers of this club, organized last spring, are Lorraine Thoren, president; Norman Westling, vice president; Clarence Roen, secretary.

Anyone now taking German or who has taken German is entitled to membership in the club.

Fireside Hour Held

Of interest to the students is the Fireside Hour held in the reception room of the school. These are held every other Sunday afternoon at 6:30, and all interested are welcome. Some topic of mutual interest is selected. Last Sunday evening Professor Higby led the topic.

P. L. C. Gridders Take Navy Game

Gladiators Win Closely Contested Battle From U. S. S. Oklahoma By 7-6 Score

In a closely contested battle, the Pacific Lutheran College gridders emerged victors with a 7-6 score over the highly-louted U. S. S. Oklahoma eleven in the Lincoln Bowl, Saturday, September 24.

The game started out with a display of brilliant football, but as the game proceeded, each team became a little frayed, both on the offense and defense. Although a few weaknesses were evident in the Lutherans' forward wall, they held the Navy's onslaught in check pretty well throughout the game.

The initial touchdown, came in the opening period, when the Gladiators caught the sailors flatfooted on a sleeper, and raced over twenty yards for a touchdown, Marvin Hansen carrying the ball. The Gladiators threatened to score again, early in the second period, but the Navy's powerful line held the Lutherans for downs.

In the second half the Sailors came back with a rejuvenated team, pounding the Lutheran line for considerable yardage, sweeping around ends and plunging through the line for a number of first downs. Nearing the close of the fourth canto, Schmerhorn, Navy fullback, advanced the ball to the Gladiators' five-yard strip, by a series of line bucks and then smashed through left guard to score. A pass was tried for extra point, but failed.

The remainder of the game was a pig-rag affair with both teams battling for another center. The final gun came after another spurt by the sailors.

Moe and Votaw shone for the Lutherans in the backfield, while Willard, Jacobson and Cronquist displayed creditable work in the line. Hubbard and Schmerhorn were the big guns for the sailors in the backfield, while Carlson was the outstanding line performer.
