Worth Noting

 [Table of Contents ]

President Anderson knighted by Norway

PLU President Loren Anderson earned the honor of Knight of the First Order of the Royal Norwegian Order of Merit. The honor was established by His Majesty King Olav V of Norway in 1985. The order is conferred upon foreign nationals as a reward for outstanding service in the interests of Norway. Former PLU President William Rieke was knighted in 1989 by the Royal Norwegian Consulate.

Campus Voice schedule change

Campus Voice is normally published every Monday (excluding J-Term and summer break), but due to staffing changes it will be published bi-monthly in September. The regular schedule should resume in October. Congratulations to former Campus Voice editor Tamara Grunhurd, who has taken a job as a PLU admissions counselor.

University hosts first volunteer training session

More than 250 volunteers will be on campus Sept. 13, 14 and 15 for the first ever All Star Volunteer Weekend. Volunteers ranging from alumni board members and admissions ambassadors to class reps and parents council members will learn more about volunteering at PLU. The weekend is hosted by the offices of Admissions, and Alumni and Parent Relations, and includes a variety of activities including a special dinner and State of the University address given by President Loren Anderson.

Employee meetings set regarding benefits changes

PLU invites faculty, administrators and staff to learn more about the employee benefit changes planned for January 1997, and to share your comments about the proposed plan design. Each one-hour session will be facilitated by Susan Mann (Human Resources) and Steve Albers (benefits consultant), and will be limited to 30

PLU hosts a pod of politicians

The Parkland Community Association and Spanaway Community Action Network are co-sponsoring a Candidates Forum at 6:30 pm on Sept. 9 in Eastvold. Candidates for state superintendent of public instruction will speak from 6:30 pm-7:30 pm; candidates for Pierce County executive, Pierce County District people. Call Human Resources, 7185, to sign up for one of the meetings. Sept. 10, 7:30 am, Regency Room Sept. 12, 5:30 pm, Regency Room Sept. 13, noon, Regency Room Sept. 19, noon, Regency Room Sept. 19, 3 pm UC Room 210

Faculty/staff directories expected mid-to-late September

Delivery of the new faculty/staff directory is expected mid-to-late September. The directory is compiled by Computing and Telecommunication Services.

IELI changes its name to ACE, hosts barbecue over summer

The Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) has changed its name to the American Cultural Exchange Language Institute (ACELI). The institute is still located at 120th and Park, and welcomes a new director, Michael Clifthorne. Former director Bonnie Cothren returned to the ACE Language Institute in Australia.

ACELI threw a BBQ on Aug. 8 to thank Shelley Griffiths, resident director of Hong Hall, and the resident assistants for their support for the institute this summer.

Baby supplies sought for moms in need

Baby supplies -- cribs, car seats, clothes, diapers, toys, etc. -- are needed for donation to moms in need. Call Lael Petersen, Wellness Clinic, 8714.

Free estate planning seminar

Come to a free Tax and Estate Planning Basics seminar at 8 pm on Sept. 12 at the Seattle Golf Club, 210 NW 145th St. Sponsored by PLU, the seminar features basic estate planning documents, probate, living trusts and strategies for reducing taxes. Call Jim Van Beek, 7426, by Sept. 9.

3 and the 9th Congressional District will speak from 7:30-8:30 pm. State senators and state representatives from the 29th and 2nd Legislative Districts will speak from 8:30- 10 pm. Candidates in each group will speak for three minutes, followed by a 25-minute question and answer session.

Call Marlene Hayden, 531-1611, for a list of participating candidates.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

Residential Life and Environmental Services offices have teamed up to produce a guidebook on proper recycling habits around the university and your home. The average person produces four pounds of trash per day. If that amount was cut in half from PLU's residence halls alone, we'd save more than 600,000 pounds of trash per academic year from ending up in our already overcrowded landfills. For a copy of the guidebook or more information about recycling at PLU, call 7385.
