Campus Day -- "No Baker Wills Class Day" To Be $100,000 Wednesday, Apr. 24 To College

Campus Day will be held this Wednesday, April 27, according to President Erv Severson. Beginning at 8:30 a.m. the entire student body and faculty will be divided into groups to clean up the campus under the supervision of the Blue Key.

After the morning of work, at which attendance will be taken in the separate groups, the noon meal will be served picnic style on campus.

Spanaway Park will be the scene of the afternoon picnic and games. The evening meal will be served picnic style there.

Students are asked to check the bulletin board in Old Main to find out their group assignments. In case of rain, the event will be postponed until Thursday.

One hundred thousand dollars has been given to PLC by the late John S. Baker, Tacoma financier and philanthropist. The sum was given without specification as to its use. Mr. Baker had long been a benefactor for this college and for CPS, to which he left a like sum.

Mr. Baker was honorary chairman of the PLC Memorial Gym appeal to the Tacoma citizens in 1947. He was given a citation of honor at the 1951 commencement for his outstanding community leadership. He was interested in athletics and the needs of young men; he often attended the PLC baseball games until ill health made this impossible.

Dr. Eastvold said that Baker had made gifts of approximately $100,000 to the college building fund during the last 12 years. In addition, he had established a student loan fund which bears his name and had made numerous gifts to the faculty and staff.

"At this moment," said Dr. Eastvold, "I feel I should recommend to the Board of Trustees that this money be invested in a new dormitory on the campus or some such memorial to him. The executive committee of the board will meet shortly to act on this recommendation."

Band to Give Concert Sun.

The annual Spring Band Concert of the College Band will be presented this Sunday, April 24, at 4:00 in the CMS. This date has been chosen so that the Luther Leaguers attending the Tacoma Circuit Convention at Trinity Church may come.

The band, under the direction of Professor Gordon O. Gilbertson, will present a widely varied program, consisting of music from the classic repertoire to the latest of ultra-modern band music, including music of Beethoven, Rossini, Sousa, Stalgers, Persichetti and many others. The band will feature several instrumental soloists.

The program Sunday will be in three parts. The first will contain standard band works: Opening devotional—Reading of the Hundredth Psalm—Band Chaplain; Fareast of the Fair, John Phillip Sousa; Italian in Algiers, G. Rossini; From the Shores of the Mighty Pacific, Herbert L. Clarke, trumpet solo by Jerry Bayne with band accompaniment; Ballet Music from William Tell, G. Rossini; Colonel Bogey, Kenneth Alford.

The second part gives some pieces by contemporary composers—Forecast of a Modern Overture, Frank Kiser; Pageant, V. Persichetti; Rondo from Concerto for Clarinet in B flat, Opus 107, Mozart; Clarinet Solo by David Knutson with Karen Misenbier accompanist.

The third part will end the program with some novelty numbers—Wingding, Lou Singer; Marianna, Lou Singer; Facilita, Hartman; baritone solo by Lind Karlisen, Onella Lee accompanist. Our United States March, by Frank Ventre, will conclude the program.

PLC Float Wins Divisional First

PLC again captured first place in the Education Division for their float in the annual Daffodil Parade which was held last Saturday, April 16th.

This year, for the first time, the float was done completely by students; in the field of designing, constructing and financing.

Last year the PLC float received second place in its division, but the two years before that, 1952 and 1953, it took first place. Congratulations were in order for all the students who participated in the work of getting the float under way, for without the cooperation of the student body the undertaking would not have been the success it was.

DRG House Party To Be Held May 13, 14, 15

The DRG annual house party will be held this year the weekend of May 13, 14 and 15. President Joy Gilmer said further arrangements are being made, and for all Day girls to contact her if they are interested in attending.

David Wold

Seattleite Is Elected To ASPLC Presidency

David Wold, junior pre-seminary student from Seattle, Washington, was elected by the students to preside over governmental affairs for the coming school term. His platform, which stressed more student participation and responsibility, expressed his plans for his coming term of office. This is the second of presidential campaigns he has been successful in this year, the first being the recent CSA election.

From Lake Stevens, Washington, Vice-president Philip Nordquist was best recognized on campus in the athletic capacity, for he is a three-year varsity player in football as well as basketball, serving on the latter as captain for the past season. Other activities include Blue Key, Toastmasters and Leterman's Club and Chorus.

Secretary Donna Swanson, also a junior, is from Silverton, Oregon, and is a former officer of Spurs. Another activity of the South Hall resident is LDR, in which "Swanee" is an active member and current candidate for office.

Second Seattleite Merle Hanson is the sole sophomore on the slate. As a pre-dentistry major, Merle has also been interested in class government, being his class president this year and vice-president while a freshman. His other activities include basketball and student council.

Elwood Rieke, Larry Heim, and Walton Berton are also in leadership positions for the coming year, as Saga editor, business manager, and Mooring Mast editor, respectively.

Spring Outing Starts

Rainbow Lodge at Brinnon, Washington, on Hood Canal will be the site for the annual Spring outing for all PLC students, sponsored by Linne Society. It will begin tonight and last through Sunday noon.

About 30 students will attend. Hiking, boating and clam digging are on the agenda for the event.

Miss Schneider, Dr. Leraas and his daughters and Mr. Ostenson and his family will also attend.

Roe Confirms 12 On Palm Sunday

Reverend Kelmer N. Roe conducted his last College Confirmation class service on Palm Sunday evening, April 3, when he baptized three college students and confirmed twelve at the Trinity Lutheran Chapel.

The class of twelve was organized on October 5, 1954, and had twenty-two sessions of intensive study under Reverend Roe.

The candidates for baptism were: Kent Freeman, Louis Geisert and Gary Morris. The candidates for confirmation were: William Anderson, Faye Armstrong, Marjorie Bevan, Kent Freeman, Louis Geisert, Frank Karwoski, Carol Jacobson, Stanley Jacobson, Gary Morris, Lyndal Lovett, Lillian Petilla, and Paul Sjunnesen.

Pastor Erling C. Thompson conducted the Liturgical Service. Special music was offered in the form of a vocal solo by Shirley Busching. Dr. S. C. Eastvold delivered the sermon and Phillip Wiggin spoke a little on C.S.A. before presenting the confirmands with C.S.A. pins. William Anderson was chosen by the class to give the class response. The confirmation class chose the following to serve as ushers for the evening: Anton Johnson, Bud Lester, Carroll Olson, and Gordon Christensen.

May Festival Planned For Wed., May 4

Wednesday, May 4, at 8 o'clock in the PLC gym will be the annual May Festival. Entertainment will be provided by the folk dancing team of PLC and also by a men's quartet of the college.

The queen of the festival will be Marion Gabrielson. The two senior attendants will be Alta Prestbye and Delores Hagevik. Junior attendants will be Phyllis Brandt and Ruth Heino. The two sophomore attendants will be Monique Wetton and Elisabeth Omli, and freshman attendants are Lorille Hefty and Dana Houndt.

The train bearer is Marylyn Tsapralis, flower girls are Cheryl Salzman and Cathlene Norby and crown bearer is Richard Hømaes.

Luther League Day on Sunday

PLC will play host to the All-Synod Luther League Day to be held here next Sunday, April 24. CSA, the sponsoring group, have invited Leagues from the entire Pacific Northwest and between three and four hundred are expected.

The program will begin at 3:00 with student guides showing the Leaguers the campus. Dave Churness, chairman of the guides, asks that all students meet at the back door of Old Main at 2:45 p.m., so the tours may begin at 3:00.

The visitors will then attend the PLC Band Concert and following this will be a picnic supper on the campus lawn.

The evening will close with a meeting in the CMS with Dr. Eastvold and Rev. Lutnes as the speakers. Other student numbers will be featured.

PLC students will entertain the Leaguers with an informal variety program.

Other chairmen for the League Day are Ross Goetz, general chairman; Kathy and Evelyn Biery, publicity; and Gloria Kvinge, chapel program.

"PLC students are welcome to attend all events of the day and we would like to see them there," says Ross Goetz.

C.S.A. To Sponsor Basket Social Sunday

"C.S.A. will sponsor a basket social Sunday night, May 15th," announces Evelyn Biery, co-chairman with Dick Nieman.

Richard's Studio of Tacoma will take pictures and efforts are being made to feature the story and pictures in Life magazine.

The scene of the basket social will be the upper SUB. When further definite plans are made, they will be announced.

Editorial . . .

In late June 1954 the business manager of Great Western Yearbooks, the corporation contracted by the 1954 SAGA to produce the yearbook, was in telephone conversation with the SAGA business manager, at which time he offered a substantial percentage of interest on any money advanced on the corporation's "Pay As You Go Plan." After consulting several people the SAGA business manager, together with the college administration advanced the corporation $5,250.10. This move was based primarily on the information received by the College President in conversation with the President of the Glendale Branch of the Bank of America, who stated very profoundly the excellent financial situation of the Yearbook Corporation.

A month later we received word from the S. K. Smith Co., which firm was engaged to make covers for the 1954 SAGA, that the Great Western Yearbook Co. was in a very bad financial state and suggested we investigate thoroughly.

The next morning in consultation with the College Administration it was suggested that we should combine the 1954 and 1955 SAGAs in the event that Great Western went bankrupt. The conversation ended with the President saying, "Well, you lost your money, what are you going to do now?"

For the next several weeks I hoped against hope that Great Western could reorganize and get out on our book. But eventually the word came that they were officially bankrupt.

School had now begun so Walt Schwindt and I went in to see the President about financial help; we were given a friendly but firm "no."

The SAGA now paid the expenses for our advisor to go to California and pick up what had been done on the book.

Walt and I then began an intensive search to find a printing company that would give us a good bid on both books (1954 and 1955). I what I believe to be an answer to prayer, Bernard Bridges, a fine Christian layman, offered to put out both books for $7,500. This is about half retail price.

The College President now contacted the S. K. Smith Co. and for us obtained the covers at a reduced price because the cover company stood to lose all the cost of producing them if we failed to purchase the covers.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow, on December 15, 1954, the 1954 SAGA was delivered.

Judging from the above, can you honestly say that the College Administration in the capacity of our "problem solver," actually solved the SAGA situation? I submit to you that next to God, Bernard Bridges was our "problem solver" since he produced the book at a price even below cost. He actually set most of the type on Saturdays because at the agreed price he could not afford to pay union wages.

It hurt me deeply to hear the College Administration time and time again take credit for getting out the 1954 SAGA without even the mention of the name of Bernard Bridges.

With all due respect to the College Administration I could no longer withhold this information from the students and faculty.

May God grant that we, the College family, as Christian men and women may go forward "living for Jesus a life that is true, striving to please Him in all that we do."

Respectfully,
 ERV SEVERTSON,
 1953-54 SAGA Business Manager,
 1954-55 ASPLC President.
 WALT SCHWINDT,
 1954-55 Saga Business Manager.

Our Congratulations . . .

Congrats to the five lucky girls who received their engagement rings over the Easter vacation. The happy couples are Lillian Pietala and Tom Morris, Sherol Lawson and Bill Anderson, LaVonne Stenjem and Sven Winther, Lois Ansteth and Martin Simmons, Naomi Rasmussen and Don Rast.

We also extend our congratulations to Gail Taylor and Don Morris, who exchanged wedding vows on April 6.

C.S.A. Speaks

What do the gifts of Christmas time mean to you? Perhaps after gift exchanging, you file them away in moth ball drawers, or you have great joy receiving just what you wanted.

The gift of Easter time also takes on similar values. Some will not re-

Letters to the Editor . . .

Now that the annual election of ASPLC officers is past, you should ask yourself a few questions. 1) Did you vote? If you didn't you might as well stop reading. Chances are you can't read very well anyhow. 2) Did you vote wisely? This is a question which will be best answered by the work of the new officers. But, if you did vote, there must have been some reason for your choice.

Was it because your roommate supported that particular candidate, or because he, or she has a nice smile, or was it that the candidate dressed well? I sincerely hope it was none of these. If you didn't vote according to your own opinion of who would do the best job, then the election would have been better off without your vote.

Too often the group of students who are interested in student government and affairs become overruled by a larger number of our membership who don't care who wins, just so it was the one they supported. These are the people who stand in groups at the polls and decide where to put the little "x" on the ballot by asking whom everyone else is voting for.

To solve this problem, perhaps PLC should have voter's registration. Only those who are really interested would get off their soft chairs to come to the polls twice. At the registration they would receive a card entitling them to vote plus a pamphlet of the platform and qualifications of nominees. There is a possibility that some of the voters would read the pamphlet and then be able to make an intelligent choice.

But, however it may be, the majority rules. So, we abide by that decision and remember that our membership in the ASPLC includes an obligation to support our student body officers.

So, congratulations and good luck to the new officers.

ceive it for they are holding on to such fine imitations. Or they will twist and turn this triumph of Christ to suit their tastes and end up with sand instead of salt. A few with foresight recognize the greatness of this gift, but put it in moth balls, reserved not for the life it would now enable one to live but for a victory on the deathbed.

On these every day Easter days, following Easter, Christ wants us to experience that lasting joy of receiving Him as He offered himself to us. He wants us to know that even as He died and arose, He is still with us. That this triumph of Easter will enable us with King David to exclaim: "How precious also are Thy thoughts unto me, O God! . . . When I awake, I am still with Thee." If we die, we will be with Jesus. If we live, Jesus will be with us.

For us now anticipating the future, where we are going, what we will be doing, who we will be, Easter offers a precious comfort. In our health and sickness, success and failure, joy and sorrow, evening and morning, and life and death, we can experience the thrill and joy of this constant and unbroken companionship.

Christ, the gift of Easter, brings us the joy of knowing we are still with Him, whether we rise in the morning or not.

GORDON CHRISTENSE

A Supercilious Sneer

Nordquist - Carlstrom

Well, kiddies, away we go into the tumultuous sea of profound thought, being loosely interpreted "Supercilious Sneer." Boy! If you don't think it's hard to write a weekly column and attempt to be somewhat original each time, you have been misled. But, as we modestly must admit, we have been profound. Possibly the pearls and acorns distributed have no striking originality, but in these days of inflation, instability and fear a pearl is a pearl and not to be sneezed at.

Our columns this last semester have had a rather obvious central theme. Beliefs, firmly believed in, have been promulgated through the vehicle of student expression. These issues discussed have not been taken from a vacuum but rather from the crucible of thought. Many things go into the molding of thought and convictions (this word is not used loosely) and although no accurate count of sources could be made there are certain basic factors that certainly are of paramount importance. As college students, the principal areas molding thought and attitude, are most accurately limited to the college environment, taking the pre-college environment factors into consideration. We can say that profs, lectures, reading, thinking, bull sessions, prevailing thoughts and attitudes are all part of the complex. These things result in new insights, more thinking, and if the disturbances are large enough, a real search after truth. This is quite obviously important.

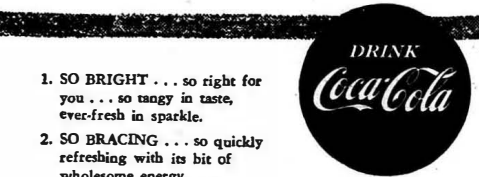

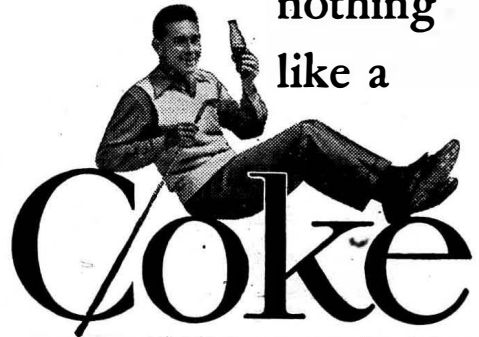

In the case of the S. Sneerers, reading has played a very important part in the learning process. One of the high points was the discovery of Jefferson. Not as a dim historical figure, but rather as a thinking man, as a searcher after truth. We would like to quote Jefferson a bit because we feel he is worth listening to since he said something.

Regarding liberty, he wrote, "I would rather be exposed to the inconveniences attending too much liberty, than those attending too small a degree of it." Again regarding liberty, he wrote, "Opinion, and the just maintenance of it, should never be a crime in my view: nor bring injury on the individual." He wrote, "Timid men . . . prefer the calm of despotism to the boisterous sea of liberty." He wrote to T. Pinckney that, "Political dissension is . . . a less evil than the lethargy of despotism."

Undoubtedly we have all read these, but possibly we should all search back and think on these and other things. It is our personal opinion that truth doesn't come neatly packaged (in the form of a diploma) after four years of sitting around with one upflitted ear to receive knowledge via the water-can-pour-in-the-good-type-learning-process. It's a bit more difficult.

PLC Track Trounce CPS

Coach Mark Salzman's trackmen opened their 1955 season last Saturday afternoon with a decisive 74% to 55% victory over our cross town rivals, College of Puget Sound, here at PLC.

Leading the victorious Lutes were Don Zarndt, freshman from Kennewick; Galen Nusbaum, junior from Puyallup, and Iver Eliason, senior from Kennewick. Zarndt won both the 880 and mile in addition to running on the relay quartet. Nusbaum won the 220, tied for first in the pole vault and high jump, was third in the 100-yard dash and won the 100-yard winning mile relay team. Eliason won the 120-yard high hurdles and won the discus with a throw of 114 feet, 2 inches.

Others showing up well for PLC were Tom Gilmer, who won the broad jump and also tied for first in the high jump with Dale Storaasli and John Coffee, both of PLC.

CPS Coach Rich Dodds was the big point-getter in the meet, which was run on a wet, sloppy track. Dodds finished with 18 1/2 points. He was first in the javelin throw, tied for first in javelin throw, tied for first in the high jump, was second in the 100-yard dash and the broad jump and placed third in the shot.

Don Gaarder, who runs the dashes and catches on the baseball team, is out for a month and possibly the rest of the year with a toe injury.

The Luthers meet the Central Washington Wildcats at Ellensburg on this Saturday afternoon.

The Summary

120-yard high hurdles: 1—Eliason (PLC), 2—Coffee (PLC), 3—John Sob (CPS). Time—:17.1.

PLC Opens League Play At Bellingham

Pacific Lutheran opens its Evergreen Conference baseball season against Western Washington at Bellingham this Friday. PLC has won the conference championship two years in a row, but will be hard pressed to repeat. Puget Sound and Western will be strong again this season and PLC must beat them to gain the playoff berth.

The Lutes' record is now 2-6, as they have lost four straight. Last Saturday they dropped a pair to Central at Ellensburg and lost two more Monday to Seattle Pacific. The Saturday losses proved to be more costly as veteran catcher Don Gaarder received a toe injury in a collision and will be out for a month. This leaves the Lutes without their leading hitter for the conference chase. Larry (Rocky) Lane and Lynn (Stonewall) Calkins will probably share the catching chores.

Probable starters for the opening games will be Lefty Brandt (0-3) and Vern Hanson (1-1). Other pitchers with the squad will be Jerry Larson (0-0), Bud Lester (0-2), and Buzzy Brandt (1-0).

Other probable members of the traveling squad are: Catchers—Calkins and Lane; infielders—Reep, Ross, Olson, May, Moore, Hobbs, Mikulecky, Munson; outfielders—Sambila, McAllister, Thompson, Jerstad, Hennin.

The batting averages follow:

Player	AB	H	Ave.
Jerstad	4	2	.500
Gaarder	14	6	.429
Reep	10	4	.400
Hennen	8	3	.375
Munson	6	2	.333
H. Brandt	3	1	.333
Shoberg	3	1	.333
Larson	4	1	.250
May	22	5	.227
Moore	14	3	.214
McAllister	19	4	.211
Lane	10	2	.200
Lester	5	1	.200
Thompson	22	4	.182
D. Brandt	12	2	.167
Sambila	13	2	.154
Olson	8	1	.125
Mikulecky	9	1	.111

Players with no hits (at bats in parentheses): Dunbar (1), Elliott (1), Poore (1), Johnson (2), Calkins (2), Hanson (6), Ross (6), Hobbs (7).

Radio Engineers Have Activities

One group which has brought recognition to Pacific Lutheran College through their endless efforts and accomplishments is the radio engineering group, under the direction of Stanley Elbersen, speech instructor.

Members of the group, which was organized in 1951, are head engineer, Bill Finkle; assistant, Rod Basehore, Nell Munson, Eric Jordahl, Dave Wold, Jon Soine, Don Robe, and Ron Primmer.

Recording for the speech classes and handling the microphone equipment for chapel are just some of their daily activities. The group also records programs for outside use, such as "Joey," a series of dramatic programs, and Dr. Eastvold's program. They have also recorded the Choir of the West for broadcast over the Voice of America, and the annual Christmas programs.

All of this is made possible by the fine equipment of the radio studio, such as the Gates radio equipment with triple-speed turntables. Teleco lines to KTAC and formerly to KMO enable live broadcasts to be made.

"The quality of the equipment which we have is equal to that of any radio station in the Pacific Northwest," commented Mr. Elbersen. "We are also considering an affiliation with a national radio fraternity."

Basketball Team Is Honored

The basketball team was honored this past week by a dinner given through the courtesy of the Student Body. The festive occasion was held at the La Pergola.

To start the honors given that evening, Mary Harshman was presented with a gift from the team. Jack Hoover took the spotlight for a moment when he was given the Inspirational Award. Then Captain Phil Nordquist presented the Conference Trophy to Mary Harshman. Harshman gave "gold token (miniature) basketballs" to the team members.

Gerry Sellmke was the chairman for the event.

The guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Harshman, Mr. and Mrs. Salzman, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Gubrud, Nick Kelderman, Phil Nordquist, Denny Ross, Denny Rodin, Vern Hanson, Jack Sinderson, Bob Marvonek, Terry Micklebust, Iver Eliason, Chuck Galdaker, Jerry Schimke, Lute Jerstad, Larry Eggan, and Erv Severtson.

Look for the Spalding "Tennis Twins" Wherever Top Tennis Is Played

There are good reasons why Spalding's tennis twins are used in more major tennis tournaments than all other tennis balls combined.

Top players want a tennis ball that can take rough treatment . . . and give uniform performance set after set. They pick the Spalding and the Spalding-made Wright & Ditson over all others for uniform wear and better bounce qualities.

Put the best ball in play for your best game. The pick of top tennis men . . . Spalding's famous tennis twins. Your dealer has them now.

Reformation Seminar Conducted on Campus

Dr. Harold J. Grimm, chairman of the history department at Indiana University conducted a one-day reformation seminar here on the college campus today.

Sponsored by the PLC Department of History, this seminar was open to all clergymen. A small registration fee, including luncheon, was charged.

The program opened at 10 a.m. with a lecture by Dr. Grimm on the topic, "The Reformers As Preachers." Following the discussion period, his second topic was, "Did the Reformers Favor the Bowgeaisie?"

The afternoon session started at 1:30 o'clock and the lecture topic was, "German Protestantism Between East and West."

Dr. Grimm is a graduate of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, and Capital Seminary. He has his doctor of philosophy degree from Ohio State University, where he taught from 1937 to 1954. He has studied at the Universities of Hamburg and Leipzig and last summer taught at the University of Freiburg.

He is the author of two books, "Martin Luther As A Preacher" and "The Reformation Era." He is co-author with P. T. Tschan and J. D. Squires of the two-volume work, "Western Civilization."

Dr. Grimm is a past president of the American Society of Reformation Research and is recognized as one of the outstanding scholars in the world today.

Drama-Music Festival Tickets Are Going Fast

Music-Drama Festival shapes up as a huge success.

To date all the student tickets for the forthcoming Music-Drama Festival on May 4 have been sold, and other seat sales are going better than last year at this time. The program for the week-end certainly will prove well worth the support it is being given.

Thursday night the three-day Festival will open with Jennie Tourel, lyric soprano, Miss Tourel, a Metropolitan Opera singer, will present a selection of songs.

Friday, an informal afternoon, which will include Basil Rathbone and perhaps Miss Tourel, is entitled "An Artist's Conversational Piece." It will contain a reading by Mr. Rathbone and some informal excerpts on his experiences in the movies.

"The Winslow Boy," whose cast has been published in a previous issue, will star Basil Rathbone as Sir Robert Morton. This will be the main attraction Friday night and the major spring production of the drama department.

The following day, Saturday, music will predominate the scene. In the afternoon the Seattle Symphony Orchestra of 75 members, under the baton of Milton Katims, presents a symphonic concert. That evening the orchestra is to be joined by the Festival chorus. At this time, "Gloria," by Vivaldi, done entirely in Latin, combines orchestra, organ and chorus with three soloists. The second work to be performed is "Litany," written by R. Byard Fritts of the PLC music department. This composition, begun last summer, was finished last month with help given in copying by Pat Gehring and Nancy Turman. Mr. Frederick Newnham, baritone, sings the solo.

What Is Our Calling?

Sinners all, we were condemned to a life of misery. But out of love God sent His Son to die upon the tree. What did we do? How earned we this? Have we fulfilled the law? Far from it; 'Twas of LOVE His back was beaten raw.

What did he want? Why did he thus? Why did he sacrifice His Holy Body on the tree? To give us ageless life.

Oh, Son of God, look down we pray Upon our sin sick souls. Receive our lives, cleansed by thee,

Within thy Kingdom walls. Let us receive thy calling. Make us to do thy will. Help us to help the helpless. Away from the gates of hell.

Send us thy Holy Spirit. Let him be our guide, That we may shine with the light of love. Christ, the crucified.

Student Library Committee Announces Results of Poll

The Student Library Committee has announced the results of a recent poll of the student body. This poll was taken to ascertain whether PLC students were satisfied with present library service and to obtain greater cooperation in achieving the main objective of the College Library, better service to the student.

A majority of students showed a willingness to trust themselves in checking out materials without staff supervision. However, an interesting comparison may be made between the negative figures in the poll and the positive figures in the questionnaire, the committee received suggestions on the use of the library, especially in regard to hours, the problem of study distractions and availability of needed materials.
