

SUCCESSFUL DEBATE SEASON IS NOW ENDED

Squads Win Eight Out of Fourteen Debates; Questions for Debate Very Interesting

With the conclusion of the college debates and the debate season in general with the girls' debate at Bellingham Normal Tuesday afternoon, P. L. C. may well take a vacation from "Nicaragua" and "Foreign Investments."

The questions have been on the policy of protecting foreign investments by armed force only after a formal declaration of war, and the problem of American intervention in Nicaragua. The questions are very similar, but do not detract from the interesting facts that have been presented in the debates. Both questions appear to be perfectly fair to both sides as there is a wealth of good material to be found on all phases of the question.

Many interesting pieces of data have been gathered and used by the debaters, and much valuable information regarding conditions throughout the world where the American flag now flies, has been imparted to the audiences.

Competition in the debates, has been keen, but the Pacific squads were able to take more than their share of victories. Out of 14 debates that were decided debates, the P. L. C. squads took eight victories. Considering the fact that the schools debated are, as a whole, more active interested in debate than were those debated last year, the school should be proud of the good showing made.

The issues that were originally outlined for the debates with the Badger Club of the U. of W. have been changed radically in the last few fracas. This was due to the addition of new material which was gathered from all over the United States and from magazines and papers of other countries. On the whole, however, the intensity of the questions has been the same.

Much credit is due Mr. Hauge, the coach, for his unflinching fund of experience and facts which were gratefully used by the debaters.

A complete roster of the debates follows: Badger Club, Aff. team, Mary Fowler, Esther Toiv, Erling Sannerud—negative team, Marie Kneib, Gladys Johnson, Erling Jacobsen, (won both debates); Central Junior College at Centralia, Aff. team, Mary Fowler, Esther Toiv, John Wiese (won); Spokane College, Aff. team, Erling Jacobsen, Sverre Omdal—Neg. team, Walter Christensen, Erling Sannerud (both debates at Spokane, lost); Seattle Pacific College—boys' debates (at Seattle) Bill Fowler, Walter Christensen, Neg. team (lost); at Parkland Aff. team, Laurence Hauge, Erling Jacobsen (won); Weber College of Utah, at Parkland—Laurence Hauge, Erling Jacobsen, Aff. team (lost); St. Martin's College, at Parkland, Neg. team, Erling Sannerud, Walter Christensen—Aff. team, (traveled); Sverre Omdal, John Wiese, (both debates were won); Seattle Pacific—girls' debates, at Seattle, Neg. team Verna Gano, Louise Henriksen (won); at Parkland, Rena Strandberg, Blanche Rall, Aff. team, (lost); Bellingham

Pacific Lutheran College Acapella Choir Will Leave Sunday on First Tour of Northwest Cities

On Sunday, April 8th, the P. L. C. Choir will begin its concert tour. The choir will travel by bus and will be entertained by the various congregations.

The itinerary is as follows:
 April 8th—Mt. Vernon, Washington.
 Concert: Mt. Vernon High School, 8:00 p. m., sponsored by Fir and Mt. Vernon Lutheran Churches—Rev. Heimdahl, and Rev. Rasmussen, pastors.
 April 9th—Bellingham, Washington.
 Concert: Rsv. J. T. Norby's Church—8:00 p. m., sponsored by O. J. Ordal and Rev. J. T. Norby, Lutheran Churches.
 April 10th—Vancouver, B. C.
 Concert: Orange Hall, 8:00 p. m., sponsored by the Ladies Aid Society of Rev. Skilbred's Church.
 April 11th—Stanwood, Washington.
 Concert: Ided Theatre, 8:00 p. m., sponsored by Lutheran Church—Rev. Lane, pastor.
 April 12th—Everett, Washington.
 Concert: Central Lutheran Church—8:00 p. m., sponsored by the church choir, Rev. Haavik, pastor.
 April 14th—Seattle, Washington.
 Concert: Sponsored by Lutheran Church—Rev. Nesvig, pastor.

The choir members are looking forward to this trip with a great deal of enthusiasm. Much of the credit for making this trip possible is due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Edwards, manager of the choir. A great deal of the real work in connection with this enterprise has fallen upon her, all of which she has done willingly and enthusiastically. The success of the choir so far has shown that Prof. Edwards has great ability as a director and with his help Pacific Lutheran College, in the years to come, should gain recognition in the musical field.

The choir will be assisted by Nils Rein, violinist and Helen Congdon, accompanist.

The choir program is as follows:
 I. Choir
 A Crown of Grace—Brahms
 II. Violin
 Concerto in E Minor—Mendelssohn
 Andante
 Allegro Molto Vivace
 III. Choir
 Agnus Dei—B. Kallnikoff
 In Thee, O Lord, I Put My Trust—V. S. Kallnikoff
 IV. Violin
 Military Serenade—Leonarde
 Am Meer—Schubert-Wilhelm
 Russian Airs—Wieniawski
 Kentucky Memories—Rehn
 V. Choir
 Come, Thou Saviour, of Our Race—Christiansen
 O Bread of Life From Heaven—Christiansen
 All My Heart—Internat'l

VI. Choir
 Glorious Christ—Edwards
 O Wondrous Type—Christiansen
 Beautiful Saviour—Christiansen

Perhaps the most successful and enjoyable concert given this year by the choir was that given on April 1 at Meany Hall, University of Washington. The occasion was the All University Chancel Service sponsored by the Christian Campus Council.

The program was as follows:
 "A Crown of Grace"—Brahms
 "Agnus Dei"—Kallnikoff
 "O Praise Ye God"—Tschaiakowsky
 Scripture—Muriel Crothers
 Prayer—Roy Morse
 Offertory—Pacific Lutheran College Choir.
 "Beautiful Savior"—Christiansen
 "O Bread of Life From Heaven"—Christiansen.
 "Glorious Christ"—Edwards
 Address—L. Wendell Fifield
 "What Call the University Student Believe Today?"
 Benediction.

The Choir was highly praised and complimented on its part of the program. After the concert the choir enjoyed the hospitality of the Inland Society at the new English Lutheran Church, 50th and 15th St., Rev. Bremer, pastor. A delicious lunch was served and the choir was royally entertained.

CARNIVAL IS BIG SUCCESS M. M. BENEFITS

Variety and Cleverness of Program Pleases Large Crowd

The Mooring Mast lives on! The Mooring Mast Carnival at the P. L. C. gym on Saturday, March 24, was a great success and judging from reports "a good time was had by all."

One of the peepiest carnival programs ever given at P. L. C. started the evening with broad smiles and bursts of laughter. Dorothy Zimmerman and her five orchestra ladies, the octette, with their campfire songs, and the Sweetheart Idea—a review of pretty girls from the school day sweetheart to the bride of his dreams (the lucky man was, by the way, Mortimer LeGore) were some of the high-lights that produced the smiles. Norris Langlow and Myron Kreidler, starred as dancing partners while Mortimer LeGore, lady snake charmer, entranced the audience with a graceful and daring dance. But with the presentation of the show troupe, as represented by the faculty, the pleasant smiles quickly developed into laughter. Mr. Hauge as the head of the troupe with his unique routines featuring Mr. Xavier as the strong man, Mr. Stuen as dramatic reader, Mrs. Edwards and Mr. Freed as child wonders, Mrs. Kreidler as opera singer, Mr. Ramstad as the monolog artist, Mr. Edwards as the mechanical man, and Mr. Hauge as impersonator took the audience by storm and made one of the biggest hits of the evening. The Kitchenettes with their array of musical instruments, dippers, dishes, ironing boards, etc. and lastly the presentation of Gerhard Soll as "Olausden Sterke" of Sweden who could lift without flinching an 11-oz weight that was marked 500 pounds, topped off this most remarkable program with a bang.

Thence to the booths! What an opportunity! Six shots a minute for ten cents. For once Christie used his head and Al Hauke convinced the crowd to make the best of their opportunity. Cider, soda pop, hot dogs, candy, ice-cream, tea and lunch in an attractive tea-garden, fortune-telling by Verle Thompson, fish-pond, and a real slide show mist showers of streamer confetti characterized the remainder of the evening.

Girls' Reception Room Is Ready

Work on Reception Room Is Completed; Girls Appreciate Gift of Mr. Norsving

A complete renovation of the girls' reception room has taken place during the last two weeks. This improvement was made possible by a generous gift by Mr. Knute B. Norsving of Fullerton, California.

The articles of furniture in the room are as follows: two tapestry covered chairs, a rocking chair, a library table, a davenport and an overstuffed chair. The wood in these articles of furniture is brown mahogany. Among the furnishings are shades and drapes for the windows. The general color scheme of the room is a warm "old rose."

The floors and walls have been improved upon also. The floor was sanded and re-varnished and the walls were re-papered. This work was done at the expense of the school. The walls are papered with paper of the indistinct bird of paradise pattern. The floor boasts of two new rugs and a coat of varnish. The room was enlarged by cutting an archway between it and a small ante-room adjoining Mrs. Kreidler's office.

WINNING TEAM IN BASEBALL IS HOPE OF COACH

Prospects Good For Winning Team; Boys Try Out for Places On Team.

Baseball candidates have been able to turn out for practice on the field only twice in the last week due to wet grounds. The dampness of the atmosphere has kept the boys in the gym for their practice while the improvement of the field will be impossible until the ground dries.

Twenty men have been enthusiastic over baseball so far and judging from present dope, the prospects for a good team are bright. Coach Ramstad, however, requests that more boys turn out for exercise made possible by playing baseball. If P. L. C. is to have a good team there must be competition for positions. At present there are plenty of openings for the fellows who want to try hard for a place on the team.

Every one must take exercise in some way during the school year for it is required by law and nature that students be wide awake and physically fit. Since tennis and baseball are two sports now coming into season at school, the students should go out for these teams rather than depend on the usual dumbbell-swinging in the gym. Everybody who is physically fit should show up for baseball to give the school as good a showing in baseball as we have made in other sports.

At present Coach Ramstad is putting his trust in Soll and Harry Sannerud behind the batter. These boys do the receiving from Bill

MISSION SOCIETY GIVES PROGRAM

Speech is Given by Rev. Thoren of the Lutheran Mission; Mrs. Edwards Sings

The program of the Mission Society meeting which was held on March 28 consisted of the following: Hymn; Scripture reading, Peter Grambo; vocal solo, Mrs. Edwards accompanied by Prof. Edwards. Talk Rev. Thoren, of the Lutheran Compass Mission, Tacoma.

"The Mission Societies should center their work in winning Americans for Christ. Each man has some kind of a God that he worships. In our own home city there are many heathen temples, many churches who deny that Christ is the Son of God. There are more disbelievers in America than in the Orient and we as a Mission Society have more work right here at home than abroad.

Our Missionary Societies should carry out mission work in the colleges. We do have some such societies organized by students but they do not have a definite program. American colleges are turning out educated animals instead of human beings. We are striving too much for the almighty dollar and are getting so educated that we think we are God. As the individual is, so is the Nation.

The Church school is in a better position to take a lead than are the state institutions. When the opportunity comes to us as individuals to be missionaries let us take advantage of the opportunity."

Louise Henriksen completed her two-year college course at P. L. C. Friday, March 31.

DEDICATION SERVICES ARE HELD

The First Norwegian Lutheran Church of Tacoma, Rev. O. J. Edwards in charge, enjoyed two festive services Sunday, March 25th, when the new pipe organ was dedicated and taken into use for the first time.

Prof. Phil. Hauge of Pacific Lutheran College was the speaker of the evening. The church choir of 30 voices rendered several numbers. The organ was tried out to the great satisfaction in solo work and with hymn singing and accompaniment. Prof. Joseph Edwards, dean of music at P. L. C. is organist and choir director. Over 400 people attended.

NEW UNIVERSITY DEDICATED LATELY

The dedication of a new Lutheran university took place Sunday, March 25, when appropriate exercises marked the founding of the Los Angeles University at Los Angeles, California.

The new institution will be the first of its kind on the Pacific Coast, and its purpose is, principally to ac-

THE EASTERTIDE

What does this season in the church year mean to you? Does it mean a new spring outfit—do you attend church on Easter Sunday to utilize the opportunity of displaying said outfit? In other words, do you favor the popular conception of the Eastertide or do you, deep down in your heart, realize the full significance of this most blessed occasion in church worship?

To all Christians Easter means but one thing—the final promise, the final sacrifice, the final insurance for an everlasting life made by Jesus Christ. It behooves all Christians then, as Easter Sunday follows Easter Sunday each year to realize more and more fully how great, how terrible and yet how beautiful was the sacrifice made by the Son of God. —N. S. L.

HOW ABOUT IT, FELLOWS?

Physical Education Director Ramstad has reason to complain of the little amount of exercise taken by some of the boys. Some fellows have done nothing in athletics or in exercise in the gym. If one doesn't like football, baseball, tennis, or the other sports, Mr. Ramstad has some very amusing exercises. If this doesn't suit, Miss Stixrud teaches the girls some very nice games every Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 p. m. If these won't do, drastic steps will be taken to find some suitable exercise.

The fellows should do some sort of exercise either in athletics or in the gym without being driven to it. There are plenty forms of exercises for everybody and one does not have to do a thing he does not like.

Let's all help Mr. Ramstad in seeing that everyone takes exercise by taking the required hours every week! —W. C.

The Spirit of P. L. C.

There's something in the air
You can feel it everywhere,
Makes you want to do and dare!
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

If you're at the College games
Win or lose, it's just the same.
It's the root of all our fame,
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

Every teacher knows the creed
In a student's every deed,
If he's learned it, you will read,
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

Bone the lesson hard and well;
Let its meaning with you dwell.
And let all your efforts spell
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

If the College has your heart,
Then you learn it from the start,
And you ne'er forget a part,
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

Let your every action show it,
So a cit can always know it,
On your sons you will bestow it,
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

Tho' to paths of life you turn,
Still its letters deep will burn
In your heart when you once learn
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

It's your heritage my friend,
When your work out here is done,
May God grant that you'll have won
Pacific Lutheran Spirit!

Chapel Talks

By Dr. Hoff

Altho we differ in many ways we have something in common. We have life in common. You live and I live. We agree we have something in common, physically and mentally, and we all agree that we all have our souls and spirits. We must sometimes be alone with the Saviour. What is sweeter and nicer than to be alone with the Saviour after a day of toil?

In order to have this privilege we labor and work.

In order to have a home we labor and work. After all that is not the most precious thing. The finest and most precious is that when we lift up our eyes at the close of day and see no man save Jesus.

Sometimes we have great problems and we have trouble but after that is cleared away we find "no man save Jesus Christ alone."

DINNER PARTY IS GIVEN SAT. MAR. 31

The girls of the dormitory and several additional guests enjoyed a delightful dinner party at the home of Dorothy Lehmann Saturday evening, March 31 at 7:00 o'clock.

The rooms were cleverly decorated to carry out St. Patrick's Day idea. Favors of green and white shamrocks, caps and ribbons were given to the guests during the evening. Numbers were drawn for partners for the evening and then the guests were led to the dining room where a delicious dinner was served. Flashlight pictures were taken during the evening by Mr. Lehmann, after which an enjoyable time was spent by the girls, part of whom were "boys" for the occasion.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Finny of Parkland received congratulations lately on the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. The kitchen force held an informal surprise dinner for Mrs. Finny and presented the couple with an elaborate casserole.

PACIFIC CLAIM AS B. B. CHAMPS IS UNDISPUTED

Letter From Centralia Clears Doubt Concerning Northwest J. C. Title

That the Pacific Lutheran College Gladiators are now undisputed basketball champions of the Northwest Junior College Conference was the announcement of Coach A. W. Ramstad as he handed us a letter which he received from Coach D. J. Reed of Centralia Junior College recently.

The letter, in part, follows: "In regard to the basketball schedule it is perfectly all right with us for your school to claim the championship even though we defeated you in the one game we played. I made several efforts to schedule a game or games with the CPS Reserves but was unable to schedule a game or even get an answer to my inquiry. We beat Mt. Vernon here and they cancelled our game at Mt. Vernon due to conflict with High School games. Since you played more games with conference opponents than we did, we realize that you probably have a claim to the championship even though our percentage is 100."

Once more I feel like emphasizing the necessity of getting representatives of the conference schools together and forming the schedules for the sports before the season starts. In basketball we were unable to schedule two opponents. I suggest that we invite Moran Junior College into the conference. They had a very credible basketball team this year; whether they would entertain the proposition or not I do not know. Unless the schedules are made before the season starts the conference will never amount to very much for there will always be disputes if each team does not have a uniform schedule. It might be possible that St. Martin's would enter if they were approached on the subject. It seems to me that only logical way to build up the conference is to get more schools into the fold so that the jumps will not be so long for the competing teams and the interest may be raised to a higher level."

Until this letter was received by Mr. Ramstad, the Champions of the Northwest Junior College were uncertain as to who was eligible contender for the honor.

Technique Class Finishes Project

Publication of First Grade Book Is Completed; Dedicated to Class Instructor

To complete the quarter's work the Technique Class has been working on a project. This project is the writing of a first grade book for reading which correlates the work in reading done last semester and this.

The book was illustrated and bound by the students in the class. It is written in language that a first grade child could understand and emphasizes a certain group of words, good words as were considered necessary to the vocabulary of a first grade child.

The book is about 8 inches by 6 inches, typewritten and illustrated in color. The illustrations are mainly half-page ones, but there are some that are larger.

The book was dedicated to Miss L. E. Stixrud, Normal department instructor under whose direction the

VETERANS WIN OPENING TILT

American Lake Pastimers Have Easy Day Defeating Pacific Nine

With very little practice to rely upon, the Gladiators journeyed to American Lake to cross bats with the Veteran's Pastime Club. The final outcome was 15 to 3 in favor of the Vets but our lads tried hard throughout the game to hold the opposition down. The two teams cannot easily be compared since the Vets squad is composed of former big leaguers and produce city league players. It is very evident to the P. L. C. pastimers that they were up against a nine that knew how to play baseball.

Neither team has had practice enough to produce a smoothly working machine the weather conditions have been very unfavorable. However, errors on both sides were not as numerous as was expected. After a poor opening, the winners chalking up six runs, the Gladiators settled down and worked hard to keep their opponents from advancing the score. Hard as they tried, the task was quite hopeless for the Vets were just "out of our class."

However, a defeat at the hands of the Vets does not daunt the Pacific lads because, even with a distressing lack of practice they held the Vets to a good margin considering the comparative ability of the two squads. The outlook is good for our team this year as plenty of material is on hand and if Or Sol will condescend to come out and give the rain off the baseball diamond so the fellows will have a chance to get in some real practice, a winning combination should be produced.

For P. L. C.: Rudy Sanderson 2b, Christenson 3b, Jacobson p, I. Fedt c and ss; Howick p, T. Fedt 1b, M. Grambo cf, French rf and 1b, Thosten 2f and c, and Carlson lf.

For the Vets: Teunissen ss, Renfrow 2b, Libske 3b, Foss cf, Hild rf, Anderson lf, Wallace 1b, Hagan c, Johnson p, and Ennis p.

Runs by innings: 1 0 1 1 0 0—3 P. L. C. 2 3 3 3 1 1—15 Umpire—Joe Glass

INTERCLASS MEETS ARE DISCUSSED; PROSPECTS GOOD

Some good teams could be formed in the various classes in baseball this year. As very little interest has been taken in track too, some of the fellows feel that an interclass meet would show the material that we have in school.

A meet or a baseball series could easily be arranged, the same as in basketball, and everyone would have a nice time. Keen competition in athletics could be created between classes with a few track meets and baseball games.

At present, track practice is at a book was "published." However, Miss Stixrud took no actual responsibility in the production of the primer.

Technique Class To Present Show

Golden-Locks and the Three Bears To Be Presented By Technique Class

That the puppet show is going to be a reality is readily understood when one looks at the tables in the girls' day student room.

This room has been the scene of untold activity and agony for the past two weeks. Activity as far as the actual work is concerned, and agony for fear that the dolls won't hold together. The last fact has been helped some by the knowledge that there will be strings attached to various parts of the bodies and that the dolls are being put together in a manner warranting confidence.

The show to be presented is the dramatization of the "Three Bears." It will be given by the members of the Methods and Technique of Teaching class sometime this week. The definite date depends entirely upon the amount of practice necessary for those of the manipulation committee. Until the dolls are finished, this group can do nothing toward their part in the final product.

The characters in the play are: the big bear, the middle-sized bear and the baby bears and Goldilocks. The heads of the dolls are made of a fine grade of plaster, moulded and painted to represent the various characters. The bodies of the bears are of wood, padded with cotton, and covered with brown cloth. Brown cloth ears add a most lifelike appearance to these creatures. Goldilocks is to have the same general structure of the bears, except that a bright-colored gingham dress will replace the brown cloth. She will have a sunbonnet over her golden curls.

This puppet show is the project work by the students. Every one in the class has had some part in the work.

Disadvantage due to a poor field to train. A sport track can be made at the same time that the baseball diamond is repaired if the students will take enough interest in the sport.

We have plenty material in each class, or in two united classes, to form a team which will do wonders with a little practice. The college freshman walked away with honors in basketball but it is up to the other classes to keep them from winning the baseball or track tournament.

Think it over during vacation and talk it up at school. We ought to have some interclass workouts to give the rest of the students something to be jealous about.

Athletics have been confined to a few so far; let's have every one out for some form of athletics, representing the school in one sport or another.

SEASON ENDS FOR SQUAD IN SEATTLE

The Midgits basketball team after a two-week break in travel to Seattle only to meet with a defeat at the hands of the Phinney Ridge Church. This evening the games between these two teams as each has won a game, the small students having been victorious in a previous game played at P. L. C.

The game ends the season for basketball. All the suits are now being laundered after a joyous and happy schedule.

Wait 'til the next issue of the paper and see what the boys did in the line of picture taking. And how!

Fowler and Marv Howick, right handers, and Erling Jacobson, port side. These three men will probably compose the pitching staff this year with each having his chance on the mound. All three are good baseball men and will play some place on the team whether they pitch or not. Ted Fedt and Erling Sannerud are fighting it out for first base. Both have baseball experience and are showing well in the practice so far.

At second base, Rudy Sanderson holds a high hand. Rudy played this position well last year and is trying to maintain the same standard this season.

Captain "Tink" Fedt holds down the short stop position without a doubt. The little flash is a marvel in the short patch work and will be a big factor in the team's success.

this year. Both Fedt and Sanderson hit over the 500 mark last year and are out to beat their record this year.

Marv Howick and Christenson are out for the third catch position. Both men have had experience at other schools but this is their first try for a position with the Gladiators. Mort LeGore, "Red" Carlson, Bud Myhre, and Fadness also have been working in the infield but more players are necessary to give the competition necessary to make a machine working combination.

Since all but one of last year's outfielders are gone, places in the fly chasing division should have been kept. Aray Thostenon who is also working in the outfield, Jacobson, star from Arlington High School last year, is also looking good in the outer patch. Lyle Sanderson, Milt Grambo, and Christenson have also been used in the outfield with the relief hurlers taking a rest in the outfield when they do not pitch. Wait French from last year's team has been turning out but he is leaving school early and will be unable to play in any scheduled games.

This is the outfit from which Coach Ramstad hopes to build a championship winning team. Let's get behind and support them and hope the weather changes for the good of the team.

A MODERN HOMER

When Homer smote his blooming lyre,
He smote his way to fame.
But many million simple souls
Have never heard his name.

When Babe Ruth smites his blooming ball

His Homer makes the Grecian one

Will someone please ask Mr. Freed if he borrowed Lillian's curls for Saturday night. He was just too sweet for words.

Miss Strud says it is so quiet sometimes in study hall that you can hear a pin drop. Wonder if she meant a rolling pin?

Question—Did you recognize the faculty Saturday night?
Added as an After Thought—Or any of the scenes portrayed by Professor Hauge?

What sound comes forth when you tina fleh?

The next thing the Professors will try to tell us is that Uncle Sam keeps his pants on with the corn belt.

Guess this one—What kind of an animal has fur, says meow, purrs and has kittens?
I'll bet you can't guess.
