

3-ACT COMEDY TO BE GIVEN SAT., MARCH 17

"Three Live Ghosts" Is Name of Play to Be Presented by Society.

"Three Live Ghosts," a comedy in three acts by Frederick Isham, will be presented in the P. L. C. Auditorium, Saturday, March 17, at 8:00 P. M. The special arrangement with Samuel French (L. D. N. Y.) This play was first produced in N. Y. City in 1918 under the name "The Daisy Pushers" which was changed later to "Three Live Ghosts." At the time of its production by the Greenwich Village players, it was considered by critics to be the most successful comedy of the season.

Following is the cast of characters given in the order of their first appearance:

- Mrs. Gubbins (known as Old Sweetheart) ----- Stella Samuelson
- Peggy Woodeta ----- Margaret Jacobson
- Bolton (of the American Detective Agency) ----- Elmer Hauke
- Jimmie Gubbins ----- Lyle Kreidler
- William Foster (alias Wm. Jones) ----- Rudolph Sanderson
- Spoofy ----- Norris Langlow
- Rose Gordon ----- Mary Fowler
- Briggs (of Scotland Yards) ----- Mortimer Le Gore
- Benson ----- Erling Jacobson
- Lady Leicester ----- Alyce Casperano

The plot is laid in the slum district of London in the home of "Old Sweetheart." It is filled with laughter and fun intermingled with moments of intense drama and pathos.

You will enjoy Spoofy with his "taking" ways and "Old Sweetheart" who is open to "hinducements." Your heart will warm to the erstwhile Jimmie and yearn for the unhappy lovers, Bill and Rose. While Peg, who puts her foot into it... and Briggs, Bolton and Benson, the detectives keep you in suspense until Lady Leicester appears on the scene saving the day for everyone.

It will be well worth your time and money. Remember the date, March 17.

DOCTOR GIVES TALK

Mr. M. B. Rutherford gave a very interesting talk in Chapel Monday, Feb. 20. He spoke on "The Little White Imp"—the cigarette. "Dr. Rutherford" was accompanied by Mr. Henderson who presided at the talk with two vocal solos.

BIRTHDAY OF WASHINGTON RECALLS VIRTUES OF 'FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY'

George Washington! How the mention of that name fills the American heart with pride and patriotism. Is it because he was the man who in his childhood said, "Father, I did it," or because he was the fearless general who led a band of half starved soldiers across the frozen Delaware? These qualities, truth and courage, are the makings of the man. It is true, but there is something greater than these that make him the idol of the American people—that makes his spirit live on through storm and strife. It is his steadfastness in

REGULAR D. O. R. MEETING IS HELD

Short Program Given by Members of Society at the Home of Rev. Svare Feb. 15

The Daughters of the Reformation met on Feb. 15, at the home of Rev. Svare. The following short program was given:

- Piano Solo.—Esther Towe.
- Reading "Education and the Kingdom of Christ."—Victoria Rasmussen.
- Violin Solo.—Eliot Michelson, Esther Towe accompanying.
- L. A. Vigness, Executive Secretary of the Lutheran Board of Education, says in his pamphlet "Education and the Kingdom of Christ."

"Our Church maintains many Christian schools. The purpose is to give our thousands of young people opportunity to obtain a thorough education under such influences that they may keep their faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior, and that in their Christian loyalty they may later be in life and conversation witnesses for Christ. The times are such that more urgently than ever the cause of the Kingdom of Christ needs an army of well-trained men and women to stand forth as true Christian soldiers in the welfare against the cultured unbeliefer that so boldly attacks our faith on every side. Our schools are the sources from which we get our ministers, missionaries and educated laymen.

To work for Christian education is also to work for the Kingdom of Christ. Also in this let us adopt our own words of the Lord: "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day; the night cometh when no man can work."

At this meeting Ruth Erickson was chosen to represent the society at the So. Puget Sound Circuit W. M. F. meeting which will be held at Mountain View on the 29th of February.

Debaters Meet Bankers

The P. L. C. men's affirmative team met the debaters from the American Banker's Institute of Tacoma. In a non-decision debate held at the College Tuesday evening, February 14. The debate between the two institutions has become an annual affair, and although it cannot be considered a strictly formal forensic clash, it nevertheless is of great interest to all the students.

Living a clean, virtuous life, his faith in living Christianity instead of preaching Christianity.

France may boast of her Napoleon and Rome of her Caesar, but only the U. S. of America can boast of a Washington, who, though hailed as a conqueror and tempted with laurels of wealth and admiration, could retire into private life from his exalted position still just as true to his principles of moderate Christian living—remaining to the end pure and unspotted from the world.

HOPE FOR BIG HOMECOMING; PLANS COMPLETE

Interesting Program Is Planned; Reports Are Encouraging

Final plans are now being completed for what is hoped to be the biggest and best Alumni Reunion ever held in the history of our school. This annual "homecoming" will be in the form of a banquet to be held in the Viking Room of the Tacoma Hotel, the evening of March 3rd. Invitations have been sent to all former students and replies are now being received by the committee in charge.

During the banquet, after the general reception, five-minute speeches will be given and also some musical numbers. The P. L. C. male octette directed by Prof. J. O. Edwards has been asked to assist in the entertainment.

The first Alumni reunion of Pacific Lutheran Academy took place in 1910. In 1920, the Academy and Columbia College of Everett consolidated under the name of Pacific Lutheran College, so the reunion now embraces students of three schools.

The last few reunions have been considered successful in that an increase in attendance and interest has been shown. This helps bring about a purpose of the reunion to keep the old students in touch with each other and their school, and to foster and promote school spirit among present students. The 1927 banquet was deemed enjoyable and successful by all who attended but the aim of the Alumni Association this year is to make this reunion of 1928 even more successful. Let us, former students and present students, give our loyal support to the association. And let us prove our loyalty by doing all in our power to make this year's homecoming the best ever. Remember March third!

A program has been arranged but is as yet only tentative. Those taking part in the musical division of the program are as follows: Selections by P. L. C. male octette, piano duet, Signe Hjermetad and Palma Heimdahl; solos by Lillian Lee of Chinook, Mrs. John Tenwick of Aberdeen and Jacob Stakkestad (Continued on Page 2)

REPORT LOSSES

Incomplete data on the basketball trip discloses the following: Ellensburg 34, Pacific Lutheran 12; Cheney 34, Pacific 18; Spokane College, 25, Pacific Lutheran, 20. The team will not play Whitworth College. Play the Spokane University, on Saturday. Everyone is in good condition.

CALENDAR

- Feb. 24.—College Men's affirmative and negative teams debate Spokane College at Spokane.
- P. L. C. affirmative team debates negative team of Centralia Junior College at Centralia.
- Mar. 10.—P. L. C. Choir is planning a concert to be given at DuPont.
- Mar. 17.—Dramatic Society presents "Three Live Ghosts" at 8:00 P. M. in GYM. Admission 50c and 25c.

PASTOR RETIRES FROM MINISTRY

Rev. B. A. Harstad of Parkland Retires After Fifty-Four Years of Service

Rev. B. A. Harstad of Parkland, has retired as a minister in the Norwegian Synod of the American Evangelical Lutheran Church. He has been a faithful servant of the Church for fifty-four years serving as an executive, organizer, editor, teacher, and minister.

Rev. Harstad was born in Kristiansund, Norway, on Dec. 17, 1848. He came to America and entered Luther College from which he was graduated in 1871, and was ordained to the ministry in 1874. The same year he accepted a call to Mayville, N. D., serving there until 1891, when he moved to Parkland, having been there ever since.

During a large part of his life he has been intimately connected with church schools. Rev. Harstad being the founder of Franklin School in 1878, Bruffel Academy in 1880, and Pacific Academy in 1894. Besides being a teacher in these three schools, he has taught at Grays Boarding School and Luther Seminary.

He was editor of the Pacific Herald for eight years.

As an executive, Rev. Harstad served as president of the Minnesota District from 1884-92, and of the Pacific District from 1892-98. When, in 1918, the Norwegian Synod of the American Evangelical Lutheran Church organized, he became the first president and was re-elected three successive years.

Rev. M. F. Mommison, Bellevue, Minn., will soon take charge of the work at Parkland.

HONOR ROLL SHOWS DECIDED INCREASE OVER MIDSEMESTER

The honor roll for the past semester, just completed, shows an increase of 21 pupils over the midsemester report. Some have made the distinguished honor roll which means that they have received grades above B.

The distinguished honor roll: Walter Christenson, Irene Dahl, Marie Espeseth, Ida Hinderlie, Arthur Olson, Margaret Jacobson, Palma Johnson, Gladys Winsay, Erling Sannerud, Ladelie Winsay, Louise Henriksen, Gertrude Sydow, Fred Schusel, Evelyn Struve, Sylvia Larson, Blanche Hall, Anne Leland, Jerdia Nordang, Chris Nelson.

DELEGATE IS SELECTED FOR EASTERN TRIP

Arling Sannerud Is Chosen by Students to Attend Meeting at Decorah, Iowa.

At the regular student body meeting Feb. 9, 1928, the faculty presented six nominees to be voted upon by the students as their choice for a delegate to be sent to the Lutheran Students Union Convention held in Decorah, Iowa, March 2, 3, 4. These students were: Walter Christenson, Marie Espeseth, Laurence Hauga, Victoria Rasmussen, Arling Sannerud and Esther Towe. The students claimed the right to consider the candidates before voting and so the election was postponed until the next day. The next day, however, Walter Christenson and Laurence Hauga handed in their resignations, on account of too much work and outside activities. The names of Marie Espeseth and Victoria Rasmussen were withdrawn because it was necessary that they take the examination in State Manual held at the same time as the convention date.

The faculty then presented new names to the students which were: Ingvald Fedt, Erling Jacobson, Louise Henriksen, Gladys Jorgenson, Arling Sannerud and Esther Towe. Arling Sannerud was chosen by a large vote as the delegate from Pacific Lutheran College to the Convention at Luther College.

The Lutheran Students Union is an organization of all students of Lutheran Colleges and convenes annually. Last year it was held at St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, and Arthur Knutson was sent as our second delegate. Miss Martha Hjermetad was the first delegate Pacific Lutheran College sent in 1925-1926. About four thousand students are included in the membership of this Union, which is particularly interested in supporting the foreign missionary work of the Church. It contributes approximately three thousand dollars annually for this purpose.

Pacific Lutheran College feels that in selecting Arling Sannerud, it has truly chosen well for he is a true representative of the student body of a Christian College. He is a member of the College sophomore class and is prominent in many activities. He was re-elected president of the Student Council for the coming semester, after serving as president last semester and as a member of last year's council. He is a member of the college men's (Continued on Page 4)

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA LUTHERANS WILL BREAK GROUND FOR $5,000,000 UNIVERSITY

The Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Lutheran University has issued the following signed statement: "Early in 1928, ground will be broken in Los Angeles for the first Lutheran university to be established in America. Los Angeles University, named for the city selected to be its home, will make Los Angeles the educational capital for the 3,000,000 Lutherans and their affiliates in North America. A 100-acre site at Palmdale del

Rey in the hills southwest of Culver City was made as a gift by some men of southern California. The value of the gift is estimated at $500,000.

The report states that while operating under Lutheran control, Los Angeles University will welcome to its various colleges and departments students of every race and belief.

"The swallow knows when winter time is nigh 'tis time to fly—
 The swallow knows where summers never die and that is why.
 He wends his wings and turns toward the southland—"

'Tis not only the swallow but also many scattered alumni who are out in life's winter and who are hearing the call of the Southland.

Alumni—"tis time to fly—and undying summers await you at your loved Alma Mater in form of eternal welcome. The call for homeward winging is being given and your Southland P. L. C. is expecting you home on March third.

Repay her past services and loving memories, by showing that you recognize the time to fly—and let her rewarm the heart for another winter to come.

Be loyal to your Southland and "let us follow the swallow—

THREE QUESTIONS

A hint of Spring weather has given rise to a series of questions raised by tennis enthusiasts here. Some of the questions follow:

1. Are the tennis courts now being used ever going to be cemented?

2. Are the tennis courts now being used adequate for the number of tennis enthusiasts?

3. Will the proposed new tennis courts ever be completed? Three perfectly legitimate questions that need answers. Will they be answered? They haven't been for the past two years. It certainly is most evident that there is real need for action in this quarter of the campus. The tennis courts now in use would be improved 100% if they were cemented. These two courts are pitifully inadequate for the number of students who rely on tennis for exercise.

Will the proposed new tennis courts ever be completed? Yes. Sometime . . . somehow—but when? A great deal of misunderstanding and hard feeling could be avoided if these courts could be completed. Certainly the students would be willing to help.

Will these questions be answered?—N. S. L.

A number of other graduates and former students will also be called upon to give three minute word greetings. As many of these will be called upon as time will allow.

The dinner and program will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will end at 10 o'clock. From 10 o'clock on a general reception will be held.

Dear Friends:
 I never realized what P. L. C.

had done for me, nor what it meant to me until I had left it physically. I will never leave it spiritually. It will always be among the cherished memories of my heart. It is a living force and instills those with whom it comes in contact with a spirit uniquely its own. It is for this spirit that I cherish P. L. C. as hallowed ground. I rejoice that I can call it my school. It will always be my real Alma Mater—no other can ever take its place.

As another year rolls by and another reunion takes place, I realize that I cannot be there in body, but my spirit can go wherever it listeth and it has decided to be at the P. L. C. reunion.

Heartiest greetings and the best of luck for the most wonderful reunion possible.

The following article was found in a recent issue of the Puget Sound Trail:

IN THE OLD DAYS

At the time that the Logger reserves have just dropped a hard fought basketball series to the Pacific Lutheran College we are interested to read that in 1924 the Puget Sound varsity was hard put to beat the Parkland players.

We liked it very much but would suggest to the Sports Editor of the Trail that he go back two years more and record the actual defeat of the Logger varsity by a P. L. C. team. Thanks, anyway.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

This week there occurred in Parkland an event which does not take place very often either here or elsewhere. It was the celebrating of the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Larson, on Feb. 20.

Sunday, Feb. 19, members of Trinity church surprised Mr. and Mrs. Larson by gathering in the church parlors, and entertaining in their honor. Here a program was given, including talks by Rev. Svare and Prof. Xavier, and a vocal solo by Miss Solveig Rynning, accompanied by Mrs. Ph. E. Hauge. The congregation presented to the Larsons a gold-inlaid coffee set.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Larson were at home to friends and during the afternoon received many callers. Among these were old acquaintances.

In the evening the children and grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. Larson gathered at the home. Numerous gifts and flowers were received from many friends and relatives.

Mr. Larson was for many years a member of the Board of Trustees of Pacific Lutheran College, and has been a loyal supporter of the school, giving both his time and money. Two of his children, Mrs. Valborg Bailey, and Mr. Ludwig Larson are present members of the faculty and two grand-children, Pauline and Sylvia Larson, are students. Both Mr. and Mrs. Larson, for many years residents of Parkland, have always taken active interest in church work.

GIRLS DEFEAT SEATTLE TEAM BY SAFE SCORE

Interesting Game in Which "Gladiolas" Held Lead Is Played Feb. 11 on Home Floor

The P. L. C. Gladiolas took another victory when they met and defeated the Seattle North Western Mutual Fire Insurance Girls' team, on the floor of the P. L. C. gymnasium, Saturday evening, Feb. 11.

The game, played as a prelude to the University of Washington Freshmen versus Gladiolas combat, was one in which real fighting spirit was displayed by both teams. The Seattle forwards were held down by the P. L. C. guards to the extent that their first basket was scored only after Ann Leland "took a spill" which prevented her from guarding.

Margaret Fodness entered the lineup as forward for P. L. C. but Pauline Larson took her place in the beginning of the second quarter. Stella Samuelson took Margaret Jacobson's place as guard during the last half.

The deafening support from the sidelines added to the spirit of the game and left everyone in an enthusiastic mood for the Gladiolas' game.

ENGLISH AS SHE'S SPOKE
Do we laugh in our sleeve
'Cause the funny bone's there?
When we talk through our hat,
Does the heat sear our hair?
Did a man ever do it
When we say, "Chase yourself"
And if he attempted,
Where begin on himself?
When you're tickled to death,
Do you ever stay dead?
How can man crack a joke
On the tongue in his head?
And when your voice drops,
Are your words always broken?
Or is it just English
As she's always been spoken?
Does a fellow leave town
'Cause he's others to make?
When he loses his head
Is it the irony of fate?
Is a woman a peach
'Cause the blush is skin deep?
Why call man a jobster
When he sticks like a leech?
When you say man is nutty,
Can you tell by his bark?
When he's out with the owls,
Don't we call him a lark?
When an Irishman's dead,
Why make him awake?
To make hay in the sun,
Does that mean you're a rake?
Is a man full of prunes
When he's handed a lemon?
You say, "Prettier as —," well
You mean angels of heaven,
Our language is full
Of paradox wealth
When man drinks like a fish
He makes a hog of himself.

MIDGETS WIN OVER SEATTLE QUINT

Coach Bill Fowler's Pacific Lutheran College midgets took a hard-fought contest from the Phinney Ridge five of Seattle Wednesday evening at Parkland. The final score was 31-25.

The situation looked black for the Lutheran babes the first quarter. However, they soon fell into their stride and began rolling up the corners. Captain John Gardin, Arny Thomsen and Stan Dahl played a good brand of offensive ball while Elmer Knutzen and Alfred Lund showed power on the defense.

The Seattle team was larger than the Lutheran midgets but were off on their shots. Lou Passes featured the Lutheran style of play.

L. S. U. PRESIDENT SENDS MESSAGES

MEMBERS OF THE LUTHERAN STUDENTS' UNION:

To the 4000 Lutheran young men and women who are attending our Church schools, I am certain that the following letter will bear a message of special interest, since it concerns you directly. Now that we are in the midst of our drive to raise our quota for the coming year, I will say that we as an organization are, through the Norwegian Lutheran Church, supporting in part, three missionaries on the Foreign Field. Two of these are laboring in China, and one in Madagascar. It is our plan to extend our program to include one on the Zulu field also. The message from our Madagascan representative reads as follows:

"Fort Dauphin, Madagascar, June 30, 1927.

The Students' Union of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America:

"The 1927 Conference of our mission here in Fort Dauphin, Madagascar, wishes to send you greetings. We want to thank you heartily for the substantial aid you are giving us in our work—supporting a missionary, and especially for your prayers. We are in great need of missionaries, but we also realize deeply that unless the Lord blesses our efforts, they are in vain.

"We would like to ask you students to remember especially our native young people who are in schools—the girls' school at Manafaty, the boys' school and normal at Manantlaty, the Evangelist school at Fort Dauphin, and the Theological Seminary at Ivory. Will you pray that the Lord Jesus might enlighten and guide the hearts of these future leaders of the Malagasy Church.

"Again we wish to thank you for what you are doing, and we ask the Lord to continue to prosper and bless your efforts.

Sincerely,
Signed (Constance Slolee)
I am certain that we all feel the appreciation expressed, but especially should we note the challenge which it places before us, in this plea for material and spiritual support. Can we honestly hold back?

President.

KIRKLAND WINS OVER GLADIOLAS

Exciting and Close Game Is Played in Spacious Gym in Kirkland, Feb. 17

The Pacific Lutheran girls basketball team lost to the Kirkland High School girls Friday, Feb. 17, by a score of 31-25. The game was played in the Kirkland Gymnasium and did not begin until nine o'clock, due to the delay of part of the P. L. C. team.

The game from the very beginning was fast. Especially so was the first half, the score being 6-5 at the end of the quarter and 11-11 at the close of the half. In the third quarter the Kirkland lassies gained the lead by a few baskets but this did not prevent the "Gladiolas" from playing to their utmost. The playing of the guards was a feature of the game for they did not once lose their pep and determination to win. The whole team played with determination throughout the whole game and exhibited true sportsmanship. The players and drivers were given a "feed" by the Kirkland girls in the home economics department.

The lineup was:
P. L. C.
Langlow
Larson
Benson
Rasmussen
Jacobson
Leland

Kirkland
Williams
Shafter
Le Barr
Reibe
SalcKers

Substitutions were: Kirkland—Irene; P. L. C.—Chloe.

Referee—Will H. Gullford.

Win From Centralia

The Gladiolas again won a decided victory when on Tuesday evening they met the Centralia Junior college lassies and ran up a 52-22 score. It was evident that the game would end in P. L. C.'s favor all during the contest. The clever "Polly" and "Pauline" combination made a spot almost every time the ball was at their end of the floor.

Although the Centralia lassies fought furiously, the score board ticked off a 21 to 4 count against them at the half. During the second half Centralia rallied and raised their standing from 4 to 22. The Gladiolas were not to be outplayed, however, and careful guarding and accurate shots were able to roll up the hill to a 55 count. An outstanding feature of the contest was the sportsmanship (or sportswomanship?) displayed by the Centralians.

LOSE TO STADIUM

The High School debaters of Pacific Lutheran College suffered a defeat in their forensic clash with Stadium High School Monday evening when the Tacomans took away the honors by a 3-0 decision in their favor. The Pacific team upheld the affirmative of the question: Resolved, that the President of the United States shall be elected for a single term of six years, while the Stadiumites upheld the negative.

The Stadium debaters were: William Le Veque, Leo Owens and Harold Garretson. Harry Sannerud, Peter Grambo and Olaf Ordal defended the affirmative for P. L. C. Stan Dahl, who was unable to attend because of an injury to his leg, was replaced by Olaf Ordal. Mr. Ordal displayed real ability in taking a different stand on the question at practically the last moment. The judges were: Reverend Svare, Mr. Norton and Mrs. Svov.

Mr. Edwards: (As Hohan drives his steaming chariot up to the gate): "Is it steamheated?"

THIS IS LEAP YEAR
If she listens when you talk, also likes the way you walk.
Thinks your clothes are awfully snappy and you're great,
Please don't think that you're a hit, she can't mean it, not a hit!
Grab your hat and make your exit through the gate.

If she says she likes your clothes, compliments you on your nose,
Says your eyes and hair are lovely as can be,
Pray, don't listen to that line, it is anything but fine.
Take it as a kindly sign, to quickly flee.

If she smiles when you are late, you're a fool to grab the bait,
Just think fast and beat it while you may,
Tell her you've another date and must run 'fore it's too late.
This is Leap Year and it's also '28.

A MILE SHOPPER'S PLANT
If I happen to fancy a certain cigar,
A collar, a shoe or a hat,
Some personal thing which I deem above par,
There is nothing unusual in that,
But when I go after the second supply,
And wonderment warps the clerk's brow,
It riles me to hear, as I offer to buy:
There's really no call for it now.

When Heaven's gate swings on its hinges for me,
And in through the portals I go,
Right there at the door disappointed I'll be;
I feel in advance 'twill be so,
I'll ask for my halo, my harp and my wings,
And ask with a courteous bow,
But Peter will answer: "Those out-of-date things?"
There's really no call for them now.

—L. H. J.
Soll: "Say do you know that there is a fast train in Illinois on which the fare is refunded if the train is late?"
Bill F.: "You don't say; I'll bet all the Scotchmen are handcuffed to the seats to keep them from reaching for the bell rope."

Question: What causes Hives?
Answer: BEES.
"I'll stick to that boy through thick or thin," said the thumb tuck as the unsuspecting student sat down.

Arling has a bad cold due to the fact that he slept out in the front yard last night and someone left the front gate open.

Now I ask you, was that nice?
Eriling, at the dinner table: What are these, onions?

Walter French was seen pursuing a crab down the hall last evening, from all appearances he has been reading that book, "After its Kind." That's only a joke, Walter!

Guy: We would like to see you down for the last time: The chap who thinks Cotton Gin is a beverage, The fool who thinks bookworms would make nice fishing bait, The man who asks if Parkland is in Tacoma.

Alyce: "Something is preying on Johnny's mind."
Gladys: "Don't worry it will die of starvation."

Prof. "What is the most destructive force of modern times?"
Bright: The laundry.
—The Lion

Preacher to Christy who was fishing: "Little Boy, don't you know that this is the day of rest?"
Christy: But, Mister, I ain't fished.

Old Man: What's the matter little one, are you lost?
Marvin: Yes I am, I might have known better than to come along with Polly; she's always losing something.

Who says we need a universal language, doesn't money talk all over the world?

A BALLAD ON CHEWING GUM
How doth the little college girl improve each shining hour?
By chewing wads of peppermint gum,
With all her jawful power.

How cunningly she wads it up,
How quickly turns it o'er,
Slips it from port to starboard,
And back again once more.

Who taught the little girl
The way to work her chin,
And twist her cunning little mug
Such weird grimaces in?
Alas, she learned the art at school,
While in the high school grade:
Although it was against the rule,
Yet she was not afraid.

So let us all, with heart and will,
Keep gum on hand to chew,
For Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do.
—Puget Sound Trail.

This is the season for fly-catchers. Not the ordinary sort but those necessary to the well-being of the base ball teams. It is only a common occurrence to see the boys and girls enjoying a game of baseball now, especially when the weather is warm and spring fever seems to possess certain individuals. Even some of the most popular COUPLES will neglect the hourly walk to the Kicking Post to play ball, and that's quite a sacrifice. Oft times Professor Edwards may be seen with the rest of the youngsters and even Prof. Stuen may be seen tearing across the field after some stray Fowl or Fly.

The theme for discussion this year are the significant words: "Witnesses for Christ" based on the words of Christ: "Ye shall be witnesses unto me." (Acts 1:8). The theme will be discussed under the following divisions and subdivisions:
1. Witness—bearing a characteristic of true discipleship.
a. Follows with the second birth.
b. Demanded a fruit of faith.
2. The Christian student as a witness of Christ.
