

CHRISTIAN LIFE EMPHASIS WEEK IS INSPIRING

Down Town Meetings and Lectures Drws Good Attendance of students and faculty. Dr. Beaven Here

Students have shown interest in the Christian Life Emphasis Week program which have been given in Tacoma this week. Practically all the second year Normal students, a great number of first year normals, and others attended during the week. The students agreed that the lectures were well worth the time spent in attending them and several were eager to attend more than one. The speakers which they heard were—J. Stitt Wilson, A. W. Beaven, and Sherwood Eddy.

Probably the majority of the students heard Sherwood Eddy's lecture in which he urged all to follow the teachings of Christ throughout life. He especially emphasized the all-inclusive principle of love as the full sharing of life, and advocates the following of these principles in all relationships of life.

1. To live simply and sacrificially, avoiding waste and luxury.
 2. To practice brotherhood toward all. To remember that every human being is a person of infinite worth, deserving the fullest opportunity for self-development.
 3. To make peace where there is strife; to seek to outlast war.

Tom Skehill Well Received Interesting Viewpoint

The second lecture of the Lyceum Course was held Monday evening January 17, at the Jason Lee Auditorium in Tacoma. The speaker of the evening, Tom Skehill, lectured on the subject "Mussolini and the Black Shirts." Mr. Skehill, who was a newspaper man in Italy during the time of Mussolini, spoke on his own direct experiences.

He stated that Mussolini is the most picturesque statesman in the world today and is the greatest since the time of Napoleon. He stated that he admired Mussolini as a great linguist, poet, dramatist, and essayist but disassociated him from his theory of government. Mussolini is the absolute dictator. He abolishes all election, appoints all leaders to parliament, and does not allow the people to vote because they are not intelligent enough in questions of government. He demands them to work, yet the people worship him and say their Ave Marias to him, and consider him almost as a demigod. He mixes his religion with his politics, tickles the people's national ego, and plays up to the national romanticism. Women in Italy are for him because he is clean. Soldiers, sailors, and citizens respect him because of his non-kraft regime. All Italy adore him because he saved the land.

For four years there has been respect for law and property in Italy, and Italy is respected in Europe. But this country has been paying too much for a Mussolini. He has taken away all ideals of democracy and his strong centralized government has succeeded in a one man ruler, namely Dictator Mussolini. Fascism is a government of the state by the state

BOARD OF TRUSTEES RE-ARRANGE OFFICERS

Another important day in the history of P. L. C. began Tuesday morning Jan. 18, when the board of directors convened at the college. The old board concluded its work then the new board organized, appointing Rev. O. B. Haavik of Seattle, president; Rev. G. Hendriksen of Parkland, vice-president; Rev. G. E. Heimdahl of Fr. Wash., secretary; and H. E. Anderson of Tacoma, treasurer.

The other members are Mr. J. O. Gulbrandsen of Bellingham; Rev. R. Bogstad of Eugene, Oregon; Mr. Farde of Everett; Mr. Leknes of Stanwood; and Rev. B. Ross of Tacoma.

The board handled a great deal of business and took care of such matters relative to the coming endowment fund drive as were necessary.

Reports were given at this meeting by the treasurer, H. E. Anderson, and by Rev. Hendriksen, concerning the progress of the endowment drive. Pres. Ordal reported on the progress of the endowment drive and on the work of the college both at home and in the field.

The board of directors consider the drive promising. The preparatory work for the drive is progressing satisfactorily. Pres. Ordal and Rev. Hendriksen, field manager, are bending all their energy to complete every detail which has been left with them.

JOINT PROGRAMS PROVE HILARIOUS

The P. L. C. Men's Affirmative debate team clashed on Friday evening, Jan. 21, with the Tacoma Chapter of American Institute of Banking, in a non-decision debate. The question was as follows: "Resolved that the essential features of the McNary-Hauken Bill should be adopted." The affirmative was upheld by Henry Kiel, Sverre Omdal, and Alvar Beck. The negative speakers were: Erling Johnson, Raymond West and L. K. Woodford.

Following the debate was an interesting program given by the Dramatic Society. Laughter filled the room as the various stunts were given. The following program was given—

The Introducing of Hiram and Sarah—Betty Cowden and Esther Towe.

The prophecy of P. L. C.—Irene Dahl and Margaret Jacobson. The Owl and the Pussy Cat, read by Thelma Benston and acted by Marie Gardlin, Beulah Conley and Mae Fredrickson.

The Pantomime of Lockinvar—Read by Thelma Benston. The program was concluded by a Kitchin Jazz Band, who with the various original instruments made a harmony second to none.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of my family and myself, I wish to express our deep gratitude to the faculty and students of Pacific Lutheran College for the floral offerings and the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement. "He that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live." John 11:25.

VICTORIA RASMUSSEN

WITH OUR PRESIDENT

Since the last issue of the Mooring Mast, Pres. Ordal has made several shorter and longer trips in the interest of the college. While on these trips he visited Arlington, Bryant, and Stanwood, while conducting business for the school, he brought back a check of five hundred dollars for the drive.

Pres. Ordal has also been busy securing publicity in the local papers for the second semester which begins on January the thirty-first.

DEBATERS ARE VICTORIOUS

Lincoln and Stadium Lose To P. L. C. Orators; Three Victories And One Tie

With four debates held last week, the P. L. C. High School Debate season, has opened, and in view of the splendid success so far, promises to be a very favorable season.

The state question is being debated—"Resolved—That the benefits derived from the Washington state primary law justify its retention." This question requires considerable study, and is considered a very interesting subject. Seven minutes were allowed the speakers in the main speeches of the debate, and three minutes for the rebuttal.

The first encounter was with Lincoln High School, when, on Jan. 19, both negative and affirmative teams debated in Tacoma. The P. L. C. affirmative composed of Lyell Kreidler, Edna Brotnov, and Gerhart Lane met the Lincoln negative, Clayton Huey, Helen Bennett, and John Maas. There were only two judges, and since a decision favorable to neither side could be reached, it was given as a tie, 1-1. The Lincoln affirmative was upheld by Effie Mitchell, Tom Push, and Bob Strobel, and the P. L. C. negative by Irene Dahl, Olaf Ordal, and Peter Grambo. The decision was given unanimously to the P. L. C. negative.

On Friday, Jan. 21, a dual debate was held with Stadium High School, the affirmative teams traveling. The P. L. C. affirmative was upheld by Lyell Kreidler, Edna Brotnov, and Gerhart Lane, and the Stadium negative by Merrill Thompson, Lester Stenfeld, and Arthur Lynn. The decision was 2-1, favoring the P. L. C. affirmative. The Stadium affirmative was upheld by Ed Goble, Georgia Johnson, and Sam Crippen, and the P. L. C. negative by Irene Dahl, Olaf Ordal, and Peter Grambo. The decision again went to P. L. C. the negative winning unanimously, 3-0.

The High School teams will meet other schools as soon as convenient dates can be arranged.

INFORMAL DISCUSSION AT MISSION SOCIETY

The Mission Society held its regular meeting on Jan. 19. Arthur Knutzen opened the meeting with scripture reading. Marie Espeeth gave a reading and Arnes Wiersen gave a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Esther Towe. The two topics which were brought up for discussion were: "Student Indifference Towards the Church and How It May be Overcome," and "How May the College Student Help the Church in its Modern Needs?" In discussing the first topic one member stated that if each one of us would take it upon himself to be a non-indifferent member our indifference toward the church would be overcome. One member brought out the point that there was no such thing as student indifference. If it were so then why do so many students attend our own church school? In discussing the second topic it was stated that there are no modern needs; what is termed a modern need is the same as the old needs. And the old needs are Christian education and mission work by the young people. These two topics are very closely related. The indifference is our need and our need is the indifference.

The college student is better equipped for the work of the Lord and to act as a leader in our church. After all that is one of our great needs—to have competent leaders for the work of our Lord.

DONATION SHOWS WINNING SPIRIT

Rev. Geo. Hendriksen, our field secretary, recently received a gift for P. L. C. which the "Mooring Mast" considers deserving of special mention.

The gift came from the bimonthly Sunday School, a Sunday school of eighteen children, under the able leadership of Mrs. Nettie Loen of Cromwell, Washington. Aside from their regular Sunday contributions they have collected an amount of $10 for Pacific Lutheran College. We say that it is a wonderful gift. The most important mission here to perform is the mission among our own children. The best means is at our disposal. This mission link is Christian Education beginning in the child's life and creating a desire to attend our own schools of higher learning. That this is what Mrs. Loen is doing for her Sunday School. These children are taught the importance of, our school and it will not surprise us if any of them will not eventually attend Pacific Lutheran College.

Let us follow the example of this Sunday School for it is the right thing to do for our Savior, His Church, our children, and Pacific Lutheran College.

FLASH: STUDENTS ARE POSING

Beware of the Camera! Look your neatest and smile your prettiest, for who knows but what your picture may wander over the whole U. S. About sixty-five pictures are expected to go out as an advertisement in the endowment fund drive. So that's the reason, the various rooms have been placed by number 1 shape and all organizations have been attended at the rate of 100%. It also accounts for the excess amount of smoke which fills the hall at every flash light picture.

FURTHER DATA ON ENDOWMENT DRIVE WORK

Leading Church Workers From Back East Will Assist In Big Drive

It will be of great interest to all who have attended Columbia College, Pacific Lutheran Academy, or Pacific Lutheran, as well as to all the church people who realize the importance of a church institution, to know that the Endowment Campaign will be carried on to completion this year. Dr. O. H. Pankoke who so successfully conducted the Endowment Campaign for Luther and St. Olaf Colleges has now taken charge of our drive and preparations are under way. This campaign will be carried on in June and July. The leading men of our church are not only endorsing our Endowment Campaign but have also expressed their intentions and willingness to set aside their work and come out to the Coast to help us in actual canvassing. Among these are: Dr. W. L. Boe, president of St. Olaf College; Dr. Oscar Olson of Luther College; Dr. O. E. Brandt of our theological seminary; Rev. N. M. Yrnesaker, secretary of our Young People's Luther League; Rev. H. O. Shurston, treasurer of our church and Rev. Wiersen, of our Board of Education.

Seamen's Mission Work Topic For Discussion

The Mission Society sponsored the program for the Luther League on Sunday January 16. Arnt Oyen led in scripture reading and prayer. Miss Cornelia Goplerud gave a piano solo and Miss Esther Towe gave a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Goplerud.

The society was fortunate in obtaining Rev. E. B. Stietdahl of the Seamen's Missions of Seattle as their speaker. In his message he held that the Church was like a tree with many branches. One of these was the mission. The purpose of all mission work is to save souls for Christ. Last year he held two hundred and forty services under the auspices of the Seamen's Mission, with an attendance of seven thousand.

When the boys come ashore, they are strangers to everybody and consequently they are easily exposed to vice. The Mission tries to save them and guard them against this. "The Seamen's Mission takes care of the seamen's money, keeps a complete record of his family tree, handles the mail of the boys, and assists them in securing jobs. The Mission handles about five thousand letters a year. Last year it secured positions for nine hundred and twenty-two men all with regular wages for the Mission never sends out the boys except under this condition.

The Mission helps parents and relatives to find lost seamen. Last year it found thirty-four lost men, some who had not been heard of for eighteen or twenty-four years. The Mission also visits hospitals and jails. It has helped many a man out of jail, and given him food, lodging, and a job.

Last year it gave a Christmas dinner and presented gifts to four hundred men. It cost the Mission $1400 to operate the Mission in the month of December.

THE PERFECT SEMESTER

A new semester in the school life is the same as a new year in business life—a time of inventory and resolutions.

First the inventory: some seeing a year spent, carelessly, some wastefully, and some successfully, yet all hopefully.

Second the Resolutions: This is the time of noble resolves, when in the wreck of the semester past we see faint hope of yet making good.

We do hereby resolve that all the things we did not then do we shall now do; that those things we did do, we shall do yet better; that instead of being ever irregular we shall now be prompt; that in place of being inert and indifferent we shall now be active and interested; that in place of being tardy we shall be early, and all those remaining factors that go toward making a perfect semester.

The usual, supposed cloud however hovers on the sunny horizon.

EXAMS!

However proficient our educational system we have not yet learned how to teach exams; and no matter how educated we become we never seem to learn their purpose nor their value. As soon as the teacher stops using them as a club over the latent's head and as soon as the students get over the idea that they are one form of capital punishment, then will we have reached the utopian system.

Exams are not a measure of knowledge. One may flunk to the bottom and yet be far from the least intelligent and wise versa. Neither does the teacher prepare exams because of any immediate pleasure that he receives from so doing. They are in origin the innocent means of checking a student his studying and the teacher his teaching; the simplest form of co-operation.

This method will reach its destined place when and only when the teacher becomes so much of a master of his profession that he can hold the interest of his class thru that factor and not thru the fear of what he can do in exams and when the student becomes independent enough to study because he wants to and stops trying to please the teacher.—R. O. M.

MOVE OVER

Because you are the lucky one don't be a hog—MOVE OVER!

Because you have attained the given height don't credit all to yourself; perhaps the years may count, and figure the chap coming up in time may be as high, so MOVE OVER!

Because your eyes are good, don't think that the rest of the world is blind,—just shut yours and give the fellow next door a chance—MOVE OVER!

Because your bed is of softest down and your fellow's one of lead, just figure that you're there by luck—not "head," and MOVE OVER!

There is room and place for everyone in this world. Because we feel that we can do it best does not make it so. Perhaps the fellow next to us gets just a trifle different slant of view and perhaps it's just as good.

We have no monopoly in this world—each man is entitled to his own

If you have a place, stay there and give the rest of the room to another. After you're gone things will yet go on so see yourself as the mite you are and—MOVE OVER!

I like a man that can stand to see

Himself get cheated and his neighbor be

The chap that gets the seat when the man on the bench MOVES OVER.—R. O. M.

CHAPEL TALKS

Text—Hebrews 11

Many people are laboring under the idea that they believe in nothing except what they can see, conceive and understand. This is indeed a marvelous statement. We need only to study any subject, nature, languages, history, or philosophy, and then ask ourselves the question how much of this do I really understand? And an honest answer must needs be so little. There are innumerable things one must take in faith. Why is the grass green and not blue? Why does the sun rise and set and not vice-versa? Why will 2 plus 2 always equal 4?

And so in religion—it is not human nor possible for human beings to understand the Divinity. We read that even the patriarchs who walked so closely with God did not understand, but believed.

God speaks to us of this world and the next, and the more there are things that cannot be understood and we have never understood, yet we trust for we know it is true. There is just as much evidence for us against and if we are willing to believe in all these worldly things (how mere hearsay why isn't it just as reasonable to believe what God says?)

The best experiment is to try His own word to see if it is not true. Take Christ on his word.

Do not be doubtful, wavering, one day on top and the next at the bottom—but hold fast to the faith, not thru yourself but thru Christ. He who asks this faith is faithful. History is a written evidence of faith. It is not considered a mark of wisdom to maintain, "I do not believe what I cannot see." That is the saying of fools. For the wise man knows he must take much in faith.

Prof Ramstad.

Mr. Skeyhill gave the history of Mussolini's life and his regime in Italy in detail. He stated that there was dynamite in the blood of this great dictator and zig-zag lightning in his mind. What he demands of his chamber deputies, that he gets. Like Caesar he adds, "Gentlemen, never lose your confidence in me."

Italy adores him because he has saved the nation. "But," the speaker added, "the price that country pays for Mussolini is too dear. We must believe that people can govern themselves." He does not believe in popular election and republican government. In conclusion Mr. Skeyhill stated, "We must obey the law whether we believe in it or not. A democracy must be looked after or it is of no account. The most important duty for us is to bring up children to respect law."

Mission Society

The following letter has been received from the president of the Lutheran Students Union, and we feel it is a fitting subject for this weeks Mission report, so pass it on in behalf of our Mission Society and all other readers.

$12,833 FOR MISSIONS

Almost thirteen thousand dollars. Did you think the students at our Church Schools could raise that money for Foreign Missions? It has been done. Not all in one year, of course, but since 1919 the students have contributed exactly $12,833 to Foreign Missions through the Lutheran Students' Union.

Now this figure does not by any means represent the total amount contributed to Missions by the students. It only represents the amount contributed through one of the student organizations. Many student bodies have their own mission projects that they are supporting. Besides this the students are always giving a chance to contribute to Missions through the local congregations. But the above figure represents what the students have done as a unit.

The Lutheran Students' Union has adopted as one of its aims, "To create interest in the missionary activities of our Church Schools and to work for Foreign Missions" (Art. 11, Sec. 4, L. S. U. Const.)

The students are asked to contribute one dollar each year towards maintaining the aim of the Union. Four hundred dollars are paid each year into the treasury of the Young People's Luther League, of which the Students' Union is an auxiliary organization. The balance of the money, after paying the incidental expenses of the Union, is turned over to the treasurer of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America to be used in the support of three foreign missionaries. It is true that the money contributed by the students is not sufficient to pay the full salaries of these three missionaries, but they may in a way be considered as the representatives of the students on the foreign fields.

These three missionaries are at the present time: Rev. Knudt Monson, Madagascar; Rev. Edward Sivik, China; and Miss Mary Nelson, China.

Rev. Monson is home on furlough this year and he will make a visit to several of our schools in the Middle West, so that he may bring the students closer into touch with the work that is being done in Madagascar. We trust that his visits may be an inspiration for even greater missionary activity among our students than there has been in the past.

P. L. C. LADS BEAT STADIUM TIGERS

Overtime Period Necessary To Decide Close Contest; Sanderson Stars

Playing through an overtime period of five minutes, the P. L. C. basket-hoopers defeated the Stadium High quintet from Tacoma, by a final score of 30-24. The game was played on the Stadium floor on Thursday afternoon, January 13. At the end of the first half, the score stood 11-8 in favor of our Parklandites. When the whistle blew signaling the end of the game, the score-board ticked off a 22-22 count—making a five-minute overtime period necessary. In the overtime period, Sanderson dropped in three counters and Hopper one—making the total 30. The Stadium boys succeeded in counting only one shot during the overtime period. The "galloping trio"—Sanderson, Fedt, and Hopper played a fine passing game, while Knutzen and Kreidler did good work at the guard positions. Dupree, Kendrick and Anderson showed up well for Stadium. Sanderson, with 20 counts to his credit was high-point man for P. L. C., while Kendrick with 12 was high for Stadium.

The Lineups:
P. L. C. (30) Pos. (24) Stadium Sanderson (20) F. (12) Kendrick Fedt (5) P. (5) Stevens Hopper (4) C. (5) Black Kreidler (1) G. (1) DuPre Knutzen G. (1) Lees Substitutions: Stadium, Anderson (7) for Stevens, Kaputof for Lees; P. L. C.: none. Referee, Drummel.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Rumbust we are now in possession of a very satisfying clipping from the Tacoma Times dated Jun. 22, 1927. We shall quote a portion of the clipping. "Private school graduates rate high at the University of Washington. Graduates of private schools in Tacoma who entered the University of Washington freshmen class for the year, 1925-1926 made higher average scholastic records than those of the public school graduates here, according to the annual report of scholarship averages compiled by Registrar E. B. Stevens of the U. of W. Private schools whose graduates held high scholastic records are listed as follows: Pacific Lutheran College of Parkland; Annie Wright Seminary; Providence Academy of Vancouver; Aquinas Academy of Tacoma and St. Nicholas Academy of Seattle."

This report from the Registrar of the University of Washington speaks well for P. L. C. but not only have our students made a record for themselves at the University and other schools where they have pursued their studies but they are making a record in the places they have assumed in life and they gladly attribute their success to the work they did at P. L. C. Watch for the special bulletin to be issued during the Endowment Campaign.

Geo. Henriksen.

DIANAS WIN FROM SEATTLE N. M. F. A. 'STENOGS' TEAM

In a return game with the Northwestern Mutual Fire Association women's team, the P. L. C. Dianas were again victorious, winning by a 31-9 score. The game was played on the P. L. C. floor last Saturday evening. This is the second defeat suffered by the N. M. F. A. "stenogs" at the hands of the P. L. C. girls. The Langlow-Wierson combination together with good teamwork on the part of the rest of the girls proved a bit too much for the N. M. F. A. team. The score at the end of the first half was 17-4 in favor of P. L. C.

The Line-ups:
P. L. C. (31) P. S. (9) N. M. F. A. Langlow (16) F. (9) Gaff Wierson (3) F. (5) Maxon Knutzen (3) J. C. Moellendorf Gardlin (3) G. Tarr Jorgenson (3) G. Carlson Jacobson (3) G. 4. To overcome evil with good; to test the evils of social order by the principle of love.

5. To seek a new discovery of God which will release within my life new springs of power such as men in the past have experienced when they rediscovered the religion of Jesus.

Pacific Lutheran College was especially favored by having Dr. A. W. Heaven lecture at Chapel exercises on Wednesday, Jan. 19. His sincere principles, simple language and forcefulness gripped the audience.

His speech centered about the "Building of an Efficient Christian Life." He said that the trouble with most Christians is that they get in, but do not get on wholeheartedly into the fight for the kingdom of God.

We should do, not what we think, nor what our fellowmen think, but what God has taught us to do. Christ has instituted the method of service for force, save for, destroy, and love for hate. We should be truer to Christ than to self, and do our work now. Now is the chance. Selfishness is persistent in us all, but if we try to live as Jesus would have us we would greatly overcome that evil.

When you see the thing that is right, go ahead and do it. The religious decision is the elementary discussion for all else, it is the foundation for all our work.

No Christian life becomes worthwhile unless the individual begins at the rock bottom with personal submission and individual contact with Christ. Then stand on what

PACIFICS DEFEAT N. M. F. A. QUINT

Runaway In Second Half Gives P. L. C. Boys Game; Final Score Is 30-13

In a fast and exciting game, the P. L. C. boys defeated the Northwestern Fire Association team from the Commercial B League of Seattle last Saturday evening. The final score read 30-13 in favor of our Pacifics. The first half was practically a neck-and-neck affair, the score reading 13-9 in our favor. In the second half, the "galloping trio" let loose with a passing attack that dropped counters time after time. Fedt for the Pacifics was high-point man with 12 points to his credit, followed closely by Sanderson with 10. Rasmussen, N. M. F. GIRLS TAKE EASY VICTORY FROM TACOMA LASSIES

The P. L. C. Dianas took an easy victory from the girls team of the First Lutheran church in Tacoma on January 15—counting 56 points to the Tacoma team's 12. Although the score seems to deny it, the First Lutheran girls put up a game fight and did their best. They had had only one practice together before they played here that night. The game was slow and uninteresting because there was practically no competition. Polly Langlow was high pointer with 28 counts to the good while Agnes Wierson followed a close second with 27.

The line-ups:
P. L. C. (56) Pos. (12) First Luth. Langlow (28) F. (8) Bloomquist Wierson (27) F. (3) O. Johnson Knutzen J. C. M. Elmer Rasmussen SC G. Johnson Jorgenson G. V. Nelson Jacobson G. E. Lund Substitutions: First Lutheran: R. Lund for Bloomquist for E. Lund. P. L. C.: Knutzen for Jorgenson, Benson for Jacobson, Brotnov for Knutzen, Rasmussen for Hagen. Referee, Deal.

LOSES TO P. L. C. TEAM

On Friday, January 15, the P. L. C. basketball quintet defeated the fast Rhodes team from Seattle by a 30-17 score. The game was played on the College floor. The contest was close and exciting during the first half, the score board reading 13-8 in favor of P. L. C. when the whistle blew. But in the second half, the Lutherans stepped out and counted up twice as many baskets as the Rhodes team did. Sanderson, with 15 points, was high-point man for P. L. C., while Gates for Rhodes team was high with 8 points to his credit.

The line-ups:
P. L. C. (30) Pos. (17) Rhodes Sanderson (15) F. (5) Smith Fedt (7) F. (5) Baker Hopper (4) C. (3) Gates Kreidler (1) G. (1) Larsen Knutzen G. (1) Carlson

About thirty others who have had experience in this kind of work will also be with us at that time. The president of our church, Dr. J. Assarson, does not only endorse and recommend the Endowment but is very anxious to have Pacific Lutheran College succeed as the church institution on the coast. He has formerly visited us in the interest of the school and is planning on visiting the school again in the near future.

Dr. O. A. Tinglestad, registrar of Luther College, will direct the Campaign among the alumni and former students. This part of the work has thus been placed in able and experienced hands.

In order to carry out a successful campaign we must, of course, depend to a great extent on the alumni and all former students. Districts have been made and chairmen appointed for each respective district. These districts are as follows: Ketchikan, Alaska with Rev. J. M. Adskim as chairman and Petersburg, Alaska with Rev. T. S. Synness as chairman. Rev. H. L. Foss has charge of the district from Vancouver, B. C. to Fir, Wash., and Mr. Neil Gregerson from Stanwood to Everett. Rev. H. E. Stubb is chairman of the district from Bothell to Seattle including Bremerton, Poulsbo and Kent; and Rev. L. A. Stavik is chairman of the district including Tacoma, Parkland and the adjoining territory as far as Bay Center, Washington. Prof. Edwin Tinglestad has charge of the Oregon Circuit, and the California Circuit is in charge of Dr. E. M. Stensrud. All the alumni and ex-students will be organized into groups that will be able to accomplish a great deal for the Endowment. Six special bulletins will be issued by Dr. Panokke and these bulletins will be sent directly to every contributing member of our church.

One very important factor in our campaign will be the Young People's Luther League Convention in Seattle this coming June 2-5, which Rev. T. F. Gullison, vice-president of our church, and Dr. Tinglestad will speak on the Endowment Drive.

The Endowment Fund office is busy with the necessary preparation. It is hoped that every present student, every alumnus, every former student and every member of our church, young and old will appreciate this opportunity to obtain an Endowment Drive for Pacific Lutheran College.

Pres. O. J. Ordal and Rev. Geo. Henriksen are working hard to get everything in readiness for the campaign.

The Mooring Mast stands back of the campaign just one hundred per cent and is anxious to lend every assistance possible.

Let's Go! $250,000 is the goal. God wants us to have a religious institution such as Pacific Lutheran College. Our church needs this school above everything else. It stands for progress and success in our church work on the coast.

Friday evening Jan. 14, a joint meeting of the Debate Society and the Literary Dramatic Society was held at 7:00 o'clock in the chapel. The pupils of Mr. J. O. Edwards also contributed to the evening's entertainment with musical numbers. The debate members had charge of the first part of the program and a very interesting debate on "Resolved, that Governor Hartley should be recalled." was held. Margaret Jacobsen, Ingvard Lonneberg and Beulah Conkey upheld the affirmative side and the negative team consisted of Luetta Svinth, Peter Flott and Rudolph Sanderson. The negative side won with a decision of 2-1. After the debate the following program was rendered:

- A Hymn ----- Inga Olson
- Prelude ----- Chopin
- Variations on Sonata ----- Mozart
- Eather Towe
- "Be True" ----- Ida Hinderoid
- "The Fountain" ----- Reynold
- Victoria Rasmussen
- A Prayer ----- Betay Jane Porter
- Solo, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus

Say" --- Dorothy Fowler, Louise Henriksen.

Solos, --- Agnes Wiergon
The recitations given on this program related to Christian Life as Christian Life Emphasis Week was recognized in Tacoma from Jan. 16, to Jan. 22 and the readings were very appropriate.

After the program a short meeting was held by the members of Literary-Dramatic Society and the program arranged for the next meeting.

Solomon had a thousand wives, but then, not one of 'em was a co-ed.

In all seriousness, people, there is something wrong with this institution. It's not exactly wrong, but it's different, somehow. We We couldn't figure it out until we finally discovered that the ravishes of the barber's shears and razor had changed the face of things hereabouts. Yes, we mean Polly's haircut and Hinderly's last shave that was so disastrous to his cherished lip brush. Ah, well, those things will happen we suppose...
