Raun To Study On Guggenheim Grant For Year

Dr. Aho Raun, assistant professor of French and Spanish, has been awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship for the coming year. Only 100 educators in the country have been granted this honor.

Dr. Raun has received a $3,000 stipend to do research on morphology and syntax of the Finno-Ugric (Baltic states) languages. He will start his research in September, but hasn't decided which university in the United States would be the best place for this work.

Dr. Raun came to PLC in 1949 as an assistant professor of French and Spanish. An accomplished linguist, Dr. Raun has taught at universities in Finland, Estonia and Germany.

They gave impressive impromptu speeches on the front steps of Old Main every day at noon this week as part of their initiation.

Outdoor Events On DRG List For Next Month

Two outings are the major activities being planned by the Delta Rho Gamma for the month of May.

Friday evening, May 4, is the date set for the first event—a tolo cruise aboard the Sea Scout ship "Curtis." Twenty-five couples will attend the excursion on the Sound. The ship will stop at Quartermaster Harbor for a wiener roast and picnic supper, after which the return journey to Tacoma will be made.

Co-chairmen Phyllis Mairrain and Darlene DeJandern have committees assisting them under Jackie Hammond and Ruth Kilcup, food; and Shirley Francis, entertainment.

The second outing for the day girls' organization will be the house party to be held at Lake Wilderness May 11, 12 and 13. Approximately thirty DRG'ers will enjoy three days at the popular lake resort, which provides opportunities for swimming, boating, tennis, badminton, golf and baseball.

Anne Bray and Shirley Wall are co-chairmen for the house party. Margaret Keys and Wilma Becken will direct the food committee; transportation is being arranged by Betty Crutz. Chaperones are Miss Elsie Berge and Mrs. Harriet Hansen.

Marine Physicals Set For Campus May 3, 4

Students interested in the Marine Platoon Officer Training program should plan to take their physicals Thursday and Friday, May 3 and 4, in the Health Center. Representatives of the Marine Corps will be on the campus to consider applications at that time.

Marjorie Anderson Will Rule May Day Festival

The pomp and pageantry of May Day will be presided over by Queen Marjorie Anderson and her court Friday, May 4, at the annual PLC May Festival which will be held at 3 p.m. in the Memorial gymnasium. Marjorie was chosen by student vote for the honor. Her two attendants are Amy Knutson and LaWanna Wellsandt.

Before the procession of Queen Marjorie I and her court, a fifteen-minute band concert will be held. Ribbon leaders will head the procession, followed by attendants chosen from each class.

Flower girls, Ingrid Rae and Tral Ann Mahrtzen, and crown-bearer, Jonathan Neavig, will precede the queen; and Cathy Harshman will be train-bearer for her majesty.

Lowell Knutson will read the traditional May Day devotional and Prof. Oscar Overby of Minnneapolis will crown Queen Marjorie.

One part of the May Day festivities will consist of a musical program. Two Lithuanian folk-games will be demonstrated, accompanied by the accordion music of Jurgis Bendikas. Six other folk games—Scandinavian, Spanish and Western—will be performed by Inara Detmanis and Gene Shaw, Doris and Lloyd Harvey, Gloria and Carl Larson, Lois Swanson and Bob Brass, Carolyn Johnson and Bob Knutson, and Hazel Johnson and Phil Thorleifson.

Alpha Phi Omega To Cruise Tonight

A moonlight cruise on the Puget Sound is in store for Alpha Phi Omega members and a handful of other lucky students tonight, according to Phil Vorvick, newly-elected Alpha Phi Omega president.

The group will board the Gallant Lady at 7 p.m. at the Tacoma Boat Mart. Tickets have been offered to members first, but if there are any tickets left a few other students will be allowed to purchase them today.

Refreshments, including hot dogs, coca cola and all the trimmings, will be served. Cost for the outing is $2 per couple.

2 Scholarships Yearly to High School Pupils

The Tacoma Central Labor Council (A.F.L.) and PLC will award two Tacoma high school seniors $1,000 scholarships at their commencement exercises in June, according to President S. C. Eastvold and Vernie Reed, chairman of the labor group.

Two similar scholarships will be given each June through 1954. In June, 1952, 1953 and 1954 students from all high schools in the county will be eligible for the scholarships.

Dr. Eastvold and Reed explained that each winner would receive $250 upon enrollment at PLC in the fall. Providing he maintains his college work in a satisfactory manner, each winner will continue to receive $250 a year through the four-year course. Half of the funds will be supplied by the council and half by the college.

Scholarship winners will be selected on the basis of need and scholarship, with no restrictions on the college course they select. There will be no need for applicants to have any connection with labor, but labor will attempt to supply summer work for the students, Reed explained.

"The motive of labor in this program," Reed said, "is that of making funds available to the youth of Pierce county to train them for future leadership."

The text that made Martin Luther the hero of the Reformation was Rom. 1:17: "The righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written: the just shall live by faith."

Danger: The Tuesday Habit

Tuesday, the weekly student body day in chapel, class meetings were held and I was impressed by the number of students at each of the separate important business meetings. Tallying up the number of students in each group, I would estimate there were 24 seniors, 24 juniors, 36 sophomores, and approximately 100 freshmen. (Congratulations, frosh).

Also at a certain tea which was carefully planned for senior girls and their mothers this week, out of all the girls in the senior class, there were ten at the tea which was given in their honor by the Dorm Auxiliary No. 1.

Most organizations on the campus hesitate to sponsor any social functions because in the past many of them have gone in the red because of poor attendance.

The Saga can't come out when scheduled because of the negligence of clubs to hand in write-ups.

Something is wrong, students, and it is up to you and me to right this error.

I believe a better student body day program should be planned as that one day, chapel attendance slacks off and the "Tuesday Habit" of having coffee during chapel can easily become a "Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday Habit."

With the cooperation of the Student Body we must make Tuesdays more attractive and worthwhile. Might I suggest class days in chapel, or club days and thus make Tuesday a highlight instead of a black-spot in the week.

In the same respect let's remove this "Tuesday Habit" which carries many connotations from all our work, and feel our responsibility to our school and to ourselves.

CHAPEL QUOTES

Dr. Strunk:
 Sin is the world's worst black-mailer, because it seals the lips of those who should fight against it.

One can have all the money in the world and still have nothing.

There is one thing that Paul has shown us more than any other in his epistles: That is the power of Him who walked the lonely road to Calvary and died in order that we might have eternal life.

Pastor Segerhammer:
 When troubles, problems, fears and even death meet you face to face, is your faith sufficient to carry you through to victory? Base your faith on the absolute truth of God whom we know through Jesus Christ His son rather than on the relative and material things of this world such as wealth or self.

Follow the guidance of God where it is known and where it is unknown determine it by prayer. His Word and circumstances. The Lord's Prayer will meet all the needs of our time if we have the faith to make it practical.

"For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory forever," mentioned in the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, shows clearly that these three points which men fight over so much are not even ours, but belong to God.

Lean on the Cross, have faith in its strength and your Christianity will be very practical.

Dr. Kuemmer:
 Never let any trouble or argument in the home pass from one day to the next without being settled. Always remove every sign of disagreement by praying and talking so that love can be expressed with a good night kiss.

- Idle Talk -

By J. B. and J. G.

Some prospective ditch diggers and street cleaners displayed their talents and abilities on the annual Campus Day last Wednesday. One usually thinks he goes to college to get a job better than street cleaning but no one seemed to mind the absence of classes to don work clothes and give the campus its spring cleaning.

The "behind the new Chapel" group thought the event a case of pay or get paid. Either pay a fine for defacing the campus grounds or else get paid for their labor. Among those starting a petition to get paid for their work were Don Reese, Hal Rudick, John Rydgren and Stan Reed.

When Jim Knuth was asked why he was collecting makes he answered, "It's the only way I can get Bill Riecke out of bed today!"

Don Heinz, Bob Brann, Al Fink and Beverly Eger were among the many who were cleaning the pool. They state that the pretty sky blue pink in the clean water is purely coincidental.

Lunch was served at the dining hall and eaten on the lawn by the tired and hungry workers after which they were entertained by the Pi Kap pledges. Charlotte LaQua explained "Why I am a Social Butterfly."

Many reasons why Mr. Karl compares to Clark Gable were given in Janet Carson's speech. Joanne Schief stood on the soap box and begged for more strict rules in the Girls' Dormitory.

After these initiation stunts, buses and cars left for Lake Spanaway for an afternoon of fun.

Boating and canoeing attracted many picnickers. The water seemed to attract Herb Sirkko and Marilyn Morud. Cool, cool water!

The casualties of Campus Day were reported as: one black eye by Bill Hampton; one injured foot by "Toby" Tobiasson; and several sun burns by Dorothy Olson, Anne Wick and Esther Ballant.

Engaged: Helen Jensen, junior in education, cleverly announced her engagement to Larry Haug, fifth year education student, at a gay-late birthday party in the dorm last night. Her room-mate, Edna McCall, calmly passed out Hershey candy kisses with the betrothed couple's names inscribed. No date has been set for the wedding.

Girls Foot Bills at Annual Tolo Tomorrow; Turkey, Show Planned

"Have you asked him yet?" "Is he going?" are only a few of the popular questions around the girls dorm with their tolo coming up tomorrow night at 6 p.m. at the New Yorker A large representation of the D.P.K. girls is expected to attend.

A few of the couples that are planning to attend are: Bent Drievatuen and Bob Ross, Colleen Ulre and Al Verilunde, Kathy Elde and Garnet Lund, Marilyn Lunde and Bob Martenson, and Anja Juaska and Dick Griswold. Others attending are Betty Logan and Rich Stuhmiller, Esther Below and Bob MacAdams, Irene Hanson and Jerry Kluth, Marion Christenson and J. P. Carstrom, Charly Brandt and Otto Reitz.

Turkey is on the menu at the "Spring Fever" tolo with other tempting dishes. So let's see you all tomorrow night at the DPK tolo!

Eight Organizations Still Owe Saga Money

The credit rating and reputation of the entire student body depends a great deal on the credit rating and reputation of the Saga. Saga bills cannot be paid unless organizations still owing money come through with the needed funds.

This was the statement of Karl Bachner, Saga business manager, as he urged negligent clubs to pay their bills.

Eight organizations still owe money. They are DPK, $15; Blue Dorm, $1; Organ Guild, $18; Press Club, $18; Sophomore class, $10; Ski club, $15; Science club, $8; Wagon club, $15.

Student Organ Guild To Present Recital

Members of the Student Chapter of the American Guild of Organists will present a spring recital at 2:30 p.m. in the Student Union building. The organists are pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Mahlin.

The program will include "Prelude from Sonata in C Minor," by G. Alkan, and "Fanfare," by Liszt, played by Marie Novak, "Memories," by Dickenson, played by Joanne Schief, and "Chantoir," by Duffin, played by Robert Myers. David Knutson will play "Come, Soothing Death," by Bach, and "Prelude," by Debussy. Joyce Gene will play "Reverie," by Chopin, and Beverly Sjolsten will play "Matinal," by McKay, "Hercules," by McKay, and "Fugue," by Mendelssohn.

"Prayer," by Orlanoff, and "Prelude and Fugue in B Flat," by Bach, will be played by Wallace Nelson. "Fire and Ice Sketches," including a electrical fire, Grandmother's kitchen, and granddaddy's wooden leg, will be played by Mary Arnold, and "Hymn of Glory," will be played by Carol Bletto.

Both the Hammond and Baldwin organs will be used in the recital.

Pre-Registration Set For Summer Session

In order to comply with orders from some drift boards, pre-registration for the summer session will be held Monday, May 7, in the registrar's office, according to Dr. Philip E. Haug, dean.

Pre-registration will start again on May 21 for students now enrolled in school. The regular registration period for summer session is scheduled for the week of June 4. Semester session begins June 11.

Sub Runner Wins Meet For Cinderman

"Last call for the mile relay," shouted the starter. Track Coach Marv Handman looked around and discovered himself to be in a pickle. He had only three men to run in the event. PLC needed only one point to clinch first place in the four-way meet between PLC, CPS, St. Martin's and Seattle Pacific. Since only three of the four schools were entering the mile relay, the last entries could crawl around the track on their hands and knees, providing they passed the baton correctly and didn't disqualify themselves.

Handman wasn't out to take first in the event, he just wanted that one important point. He looked everywhere but in the girls dorm on the PLC campus and finally found a student who was enrolled at PLC and clearly eligible to run. A makeshift dressing room was set up in the middle of the field, flanked by a circle of Gladiator fans. Then the missing link appeared, dressed in black shorts, gold shirt, track shoes and blinding argyle socks.

The third PLC runner came pounding and handed the baton to this burly 200-lb. football player. His styles glistened in the afternoon sun as he made the lap in respectable time. A mighty cheer went up as he sprinted across the finish line, the co-captain of last season's gridiron eleven, Rick Daniels.

Rev. Grewenow Talks At Mission Society

Pastor George J. Grewenow was asked to be the speaker at Mission Society Wednesday in the Old Chapel at 7 p.m.

Rev. Grewenow was a chaplain in World War II, having served in the Pacific where he had done previous missionary work. He is the successor to Dr. E. C. Koer, the head of PLC sociology department, who came to PLC from Queen Ann Lutheran Church, Seattle.

The meeting will open with hymn singing, devotions and prayer, led by one of the students. Pastor Grewenow will deliver his message, and a short business meeting will be held.

Mission Society meetings last for just one hour.

MARV TOMMERVIK, co-director of athletics and head mentor of football and baseball, will end his sojourn at PLC in August. He will enter the fuel oil business here in Parkland.

Track Squad Takes Honors In 4 Way Meet

The Pacific Lutheran Gladiators won the four-way track meet last Saturday from the CPS Loggers, St. Martin's and Seattle Pacific on the Loggers' home field.

The Lutes and the Loggers were battling it out until the very last few events but when the last race was run the Lutes were on the long end of the meet.

St. Martin's Pete Muir and Bill Casey seemed to dominate every event they entered by taking six first places, two second places and one third place between them.

Jim Lund was the point-getter for the Lutes by taking first place in the mile and two miles.

The Lutes will play host to a three-way track meet this Saturday between Central Washington and Seattle Pacific College.

The greater the diameter of your knowledge, the greater the circumference of your ignorance.

Saga May be Tardy Because Copy Late; Staff Did Its Best

Because clubs and organizations have not cooperated with members of the Saga production staff in getting their copy in, it is doubtful that the Saga will be out on May 15, the day scheduled for distribution of the yearbook, according to Bob Brass, editor.

Brass states that it will probably be out on the Friday before graduation, or possibly even later. He emphasizes the fact that it is certainly not the fault of the staff, as its members have done all the work possible.

Due to a mix-up about editorship, work on the Saga was not even begun until the middle of October this year, and all that work has been made up so that they are not behind schedule, except for copy which hasn't been turned in.

If any organization secretary has material for copy which is not yet in, this is positively the last warning which will be given. The annual must go to press, and it will, with or without copy.

Think, the prophet, did not wait till his name was called to say, "Here am I, Lord, and here." Isa. 6:8. What are you waiting for?

Marv Tommervik Resigns Coaching, Teaching Post In Favor of Oil Business

One half of the illustrious player and coach combination of the Maryknoll Marv, Tommervik and Harshman, will be lost to the Parkland institution when Marvin C. Tommervik ends his career as coach and teacher in August.

"The Tommygun," who was head mentor in football and baseball for four years, beginning in 1947, will be manager and part owner of a fuel oil establishment in Parkland.

His first football team at PLC in 1947 won the title of the Wines league and defeated Scabbers Oregon, 27-21, in the Bear Bowl in a post-season affair.

The same year, 1947, his baseballers won the Wines title.

Together with Harshman, Tommervik wrote many pages of history in PLC record books. In the three seasons from 1939 to '41, the Gladiators compiled a 20-game win streak and won the championship all three years.

Marv is best known for his passing wizardry. He averaged 17.2 yards per pass and had a completion average of 36%. However, he showed equal prowess as a passer and punter.

After graduating in 1942 from PLC, he entered the Navy as a chief specialist in athletics. He was the chief engineer in a tremendous upset over USC as the San Diego Navy team trounced the Trojans, 33-0.

He did graduate work at the U. of W. after his discharge from the Navy, and played the 1946 season with the Tacoma Indians of the Pacific Coast pro league.

The final say in the matter of appointing a coach to take his place lies in the hands of Dr. Eastvold. He was not available for comment since he is on a 10-day trip to the midwest.

College To Give Draft Deferment Exams

PLC has been chosen as one of the centers for the selective service college aptitude test which may be used in granting deferments for college students.

Information regarding the test is available in Dean L. O. Eklund's office. All men registered under the Selective Service Act who are under 26 years, regardless of class standing, may take the test and the local boards will interpret the results as they see fit.

The test presupposes no schooling beyond ordinary high school preparation for college and scores on the test will not in themselves determine eligibility for deferments. Instead, the scores, plus actual scholastic performance in college, will be used by the local boards when considering registrants for deferments.

Lute Netsters Meet Chieftains Today at Seattle

Seeking their second match victory, the Gladiator tennis squad will journey to Seattle this afternoon for a match with the Seattle University Chieftains.

The Chief netsters have annually proved to be a tough outfit for the Lutes, and this year should prove no exception. Five singles and two doubles matches will fill the match draw. Nonreturn match will be played.

Madigan Hospital gave the Lutes their first test yesterday on the PLC courts, with the results ending in a tie. PLC won 2 singles, lost 1 single and 1 double.

Future matches have been scheduled with CPS, Uwu, and UBC.

The loss of Jack Bowron, number four man on the ladder, last week hurt the Gladiator cause considerably. Jack, a freshman, had to quit to devote more time to his studies and other activities.

LSA Bible Class Studies "Revelation" Sunday at 9:30 A.M.

"Informality," says Bob Martenson, "marks the LSA Bible class conducted by Dr. Magnus Nodtvedt, co-director of the history department in 8-229 at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday."

The class has been studying the Book of Revelation, the last book of the Bible. At the next class session the 14th chapter will be under consideration.

Dr. Nodtvedt has a rich background for teaching such a class. Revelation is listed as one of his favorite portions of the Bible; he is well acquainted with the original language of the Bible, having majored in Greek for seven years.

Martenson, the past regional president of the LSA, continued: "Now all this background contributes to the interest of the class as Dr. Nodtvedt brings it into play. We are challenged, strengthened by a greater assurance of our faith, and we are learning to appreciate the Book of Revelation as a result of these classes. Before school closes avail yourself of Dr. Nodtvedt and the class—you'll be glad you did."

The test will include sections on charts and graphs, mathematics, English and reading skill.

Ten Voice Students to Appear In Formal Recital in SUB Monday

Ten voice students of Mr. Frederick Newham, will appear in concert recital, Monday evening, April 30. The recital, which will also include piano selections by Doris Harvey, student of R. Byard Frites, will begin at 8:15 in the SUB.

Appearing in the concert will be seven women, Eleanor Hanson, Ann Knorr, Marilyn Hanich, Joanne Schwartzwaller, Barbara Hedlund, Carol Reardon, and Marguerite Thompson; and three men, Luther Secco, Herb Neve, and David Kautson.

Reule and Svare Thrill Audience With Program

By D. B.
Appearing before a capacity crowd in the Student Union building last Tuesday, April 24, Kathryn Reule and Richard Svare, students of Godrun Ness Rønning, accompanied by Marilyn Hanich, presented their joint recital comparable to professional concerts.

Miss Reule, beautifully glowing in a pale blue gown, and Mr. Svare opened their flawless concert with a duet, "Sound the Trumpet," by Purcell. Their pleasing soprano and baritone voices blended perfectly in the singing of the long phrases of this instrumental composition.

Kathryn, whose voice has become more full, more beautiful, and whose breath control is unbelievable, sang seven difficult songs. Opening her group, she sang "Voi Che Sapete" (from Mozart's Marriage of Figaro); "With Verdure Clad" (from the "Creation" by Haydn); the spinning "Stanchen" by Strauss; Elton Rønning Warren's "Down in the Glen"; the clever "Will o' the Wisp," by Gilbert Spring; the breath-taking, moving "moss," by Sigurd Lie, and Faldin's "Dancing Doll," arranged by Frank LaForge.

Miss Reule's interpretation and technique were outstanding and her pianissimo were as soft and beautiful as velvet.

Richard Svare's voice was put to the test perfectly in his eight varied songs. The solid "Alma Mia" (from "Fidelio") by Handel, was Dick's first selection and was followed by Schubert's "Ungeduld"; the flowing "Der Nussbaum," by Schumann; "Zueignung," by Strauss; the dramatic "Der Skrag en Fugl" (The Lone Cry of the Gull), by Christian Sanding; the tricky "Med en Vandilije," by Edvard Grieg; the amusing "Heigh Ho, Heigh Ho," arranged by Benjamin Britten; and the beautiful, soft, "The Cloths of Heaven," by Thomas Dunhill.

Mr. Svare was in perfect voice and his knowledge of German and Norwegian provided almost perfect diction. The final tones in "The Cloths of Heaven" were superb.

Incomparable and making the concert a complete success was Marilyn Hanich, accompanist. Miss Hanich's ability to capture the mood of the artist and to follow is unbelievable.

Recital Planned By Eugene Ahrendt

On Thursday, May 3, in the Student Union building, Eugene Ahrendt, one of PLC's most accomplished musicians, will present a violin recital. Gene, a fifth year student in education, has appeared many times on programs on and off our campus and is noted for his beautiful, full-tone production on his violin.

Mr. Ahrendt, assisted by Richard Svare, baritone student of Godrun Ness Rønning, and accompanied by Marilyn Hanich, will present the following selections: "Clarencia," by Vitali; 13th and 14th Paganini Caprices; first movement of the Tchaikovsky violin Concerto, "Barbata," by Josef Suk; Ernest Bloch's "Baal Shem"; "Alziden With Flaxen Hair," by Debussy; and the Rimsky-Korsakoff "The Bumble Bee," arranged by Heifetz for the violin.

Senior talent will be presented in the half hour slot, which will be a native on college professors. Following this, games and other entertainment will be enjoyed. Mrs. Walter Young will direct this part of the evening, which Bob Brast is planning. He reminds students that street shoes are not allowed on the gym floor.

Refreshments will be served. Admission to the event will be 25 cents.

Business Club Has Top Booth At Carnival

After a week of anticipation, including a stinging campaign for Saga games and much hard work on colorful booths, the Saga carnival came off on schedule last Friday and Saturday night and netted the Saga yearbook more money than ever before.

Backed by Alpha Sigma Lambda and many campus friends, Judy Larson topped top honors as Saga queen. Harry Malnes won the king title after hard work by the DRG.

Although all organizations displayed originality and good wits in their booths, the judges had to limit their choices to three winners. Top award of $10 went to Alpha Sigma Lambda, business club, which sponsored the House of Terror. The freshman class, with its Sponge Throw, won the $5 second prize, and Alpha Phi Omega, boy scout fraternity, took third place with its athletic prowess booth.

The booths were judged on appearance and on the cooperation they maintained with the Saga committee in decorating and cleaning up the gym before and after the festivities, according to Carl Bachner, chairman.

Drawing the most participants were the Big Splash and Pie Throw, where the students and faculty had a chance to dunk senior girls and honored athletes and coaches.

Lute Chatter

By D. B.
Congratulations to Ray Tobiasen and Karl Bachner on the best Saga Carnival in PLC's history, and a sincere thanks to each and every student and faculty member which made the carnival successful.

Ho, Ho, Cannibal Cook! Shall I hold the indignatory, bow? Another Cannibal Cook! Don't be silly. That's a friar.

Five more weeks of school left and time to start reviewing for finals. They tell me it pays not to wait until the night before! Why not try it out and see.

Hee, Hee. "I've got my husband eating out of my hand." "Saves dish-washing, doesn't it?"

Congratulations to Queen Margie of the May Day, and to her attendants, Amy Knutson and LaWanna Wellhaudt. Mark May 4 on the calendar as a Red Letter day on PLC's campus.

Ho, Ho, Jim Keith: I'm a little stiff from rowing. Tommorrow: I don't care where you're from. Get in there and play first base.

Campus Day was a success because of your cooperation. Tawani and the Seadest Body says: Thanks a Million!

Ter, Her: A motorist and his wife had quarreled. They hadn't spoken for weeks, and neither would judge. Suddenly the man pointed to a male in the pasture they were passing. "Relative of yours?" he asked. "Yes," snapped the wife, "by marriage."

A welcome to the Luther League which will be on our campus Sunday. We hope your day is pleasant and that you'll be students of Pacific Lutheran in the near future.

My apologies for the "scanty humor" in this week's column. Guess your editor has spring fever!

"I have been driven many times to my knees by overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me, seemed insufficient for the day."

—Abraham Lincoln

Shakespeare prayed: "Oh Lord, Who lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness."
