

DOREE SACHS ELECTED TO REIGN OVER ANNUAL MAY DAY FESTIVAL

Doree Sachs, fourth year College of Education coed, will reign as Queen Doree I over the May Day Fete on our campus on Friday, May 14. Doree was selected for this royal position by an almost unanimous vote on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 20 and 21.

Presiding over the festivities with Queen Doree will be eight attendants, two having been chosen from each class.

Rhoda Lee and I Lee Rod, both juniors, were chosen to represent the combined junior and senior classes. The sophomores elected Anne Nelson and Patricia Kennedy to carry their colors in the royal procession. In the freshman class most votes went to two blondes, Mildred Hanson and Doris Jurgerson, Janice Kittleson and Janet Hauge will be the high school representatives in the royal procession.

Flower girls for the occasion will be Jo Ann Hanson, daughter of Joseph Hanson '35, and Sandra Jacobs, daughter of our Superintendent of Grounds, Kenneth Jacobs. Bearing Queen Doree's train will be Lois Lono, youngest daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Mikkel Lono. David Malmin, eldest son of Prof. and Mrs. G. J. Malmin, will carry the royal crown.

General chairman for the May Day festivities is Isabel Harstad, aided and advised by Mrs. Rhoda Young. Georgiana Atkinson is in charge of program arrangements. Carrie Person is head of the decoration committee; her helpers are Mary Peterson, Alice Pflaum, Florence Reiman, Earl Gullberg, Gerry

Summer School To Begin June 16

Plans for summer school have been drawn up, with the first session lasting from June 16 to July 16 and the second extending from July 19 to August 18. A large number of courses are to be offered, and others will be added if the demand is sufficient at the time of registration, according to Dean Ronning.

Students are urged to accelerate their programs by attending summer school because our country needs college graduates urgently in many fields at the present time. High school graduates may attend summer sessions and begin earning their Freshman credits.

Although teaching certificates are frozen at the present time, it is wise for those continuing in the education profession to take now the courses required for the renewal of their certificates. For those returning to teaching positions or seeking advancement, the summer courses will be especially helpful.

Following is the list of courses and the number of the session in which they will be offered:

Introduction to Fine Arts, 2; Art History and Art Appreciation, 1; Public School Art, 1; Junior High School Art, 1; Comparative Anatomy, 1; Independent Study of Biology, 1; Personal Typing, 1; Army Office Training, 1; General Inorganic Chemistry, 1; Public School System, 2; School Administration, 2; Special Education Projects, 1 or 2.

Choral Speaking, 1; Elementary School Curriculum, 1; Elementary School Supervision, 1; Literary Backgrounds, 1 and 2; Modern Poetry, 2; American Literature, 1; Literature, French, 1; Descriptive Astronomy, 2; Literature, German, 1.

History and Government of Washington, 2; History of Latin America, 2; History of the Far East, 1; Current Events, 1; Household Economics, 1; The School Library, 2; Higher Algebra, 2; Plane Trigonometry, 1 and 2; Survey of Mathematics, 2; Voice, 1 or 2; Piano, 1 or 2; The World of Music, 1; Music Methods, 2; Literature, Norse, 1; History of Philosophy, 2; Principles of Health and P. E., 2; Meteorology, 1.

ANNUAL CAMPUS DAY SET FOR WED., MAY 5

Wednesday, May 5, is set as Campus Day, the annual day when students and faculty get into their work clothes and give PLC a spring housecleaning from golf course to classrooms. Goopy Gregersen and Burt Thorpe have been named chairmen of the day's activities. They are planning enough jobs to keep everyone busy, and enough activities to keep all happy and carefree for the occasion.

Immediately following breakfast the labors will commence, including the erection of the platform for the May Day festivities.

During the afternoon, after the morning of strenuous work, a vigorous program of events will provide relaxation. The historic dorm stude vs. day stude rivalry will blossom out in the annual tug-of-war across Clover Creek. A baseball game and several contests will provide additional excitement. A treasure hunt is scheduled for early evening, which will be followed by the Lute Booster-produced amateur hour program. Students will be encouraged to sponsor contestants. Winners, selected by acclamation of the audience, will be awarded suitable prizes.

Hauge Gets Promotion To the Rank of Major

The announcement that Dr. Philip E. Hauge, former Dean of P. L. C., was recently promoted from the rank of captain to that of major was received with joy by all at PLC and those outside the college who knew him.

Major Hauge is in the Near East at the present time, serving in the overseas Army.

LET'S WRITE TO THE BOYS

Imagine yourself as a private in the U. S. Army, hundreds of miles away from home, in an immense army training center, with thousands and thousands of soldiers on all sides of you in the camp but not one whom you know. This is your first month in the Army, and every day it is the same old grind—back-breaking calisthenics, intense drilling, and a long hike. At the end of the day you are so tired that you flop into bed for the night, almost too tired to bother even to take your clothes off.

Before you know it, the bugle sounds for another day's training. You make a mad dash to wash for breakfast, and then stand in line in the cold morning air 20 or 30 minutes for chow. Then comes mail call. Hundreds of names are read off, and you strain to hear them. Then the clerk says, "That's all, men." No mail for you again. It was the same story last week, except for the letter from mother and dad. "What's the matter with all those kids I used to pal around with? Surely they must have my address by this time."

Many of the boys that have left PLC for the Army go through this every day. One of our boys in the service recently wrote this paragraph:

"If you really want to do something for our boys in the service, write to them and then write some more. Don't be afraid to write again before they answer. Sometimes the boys are so busy that it's impossible for them to write at once. Nothing helps a fellow's morale more than to know that there is someone that thinks of him once in a while. So if you have any free time, drop them a line. The note will be appreciated many more times than the little effort.

Dr. Eastvold Accepts Presidency

Above are Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Eastvold who will arrive at PLC in mid-July. Dr. Eastvold has recently accepted the presidency of the college.

Wis. Minister To Head PLC

Tingelstad to Continue As Pres. for This Term

Dr. S. C. Eastvold resigned his position as pastor of First Lutheran church, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, last Sunday to accept the presidency of our college. His arrival in Parkland is tentatively set for mid-July, and Dr. O. A. Tingelstad, retiring college head, will continue his present duties until June 30. The Board of Directors met yesterday to draw up plans for Dr. Eastvold's arrival.

For the past ten years Dr. Eastvold has served as pastor in Eau Claire's largest Lutheran parish. Early this month 1000 families of his congregation made an urgent spontaneous appeal to him to continue his work as their pastor and to decline the PLC call. At that time he said to them, "As the population of America drifts westward, Pacific Lutheran College's unique and strategic position becomes increasingly significant since it is alone in this vast field. . . . With this challenge before me I find it will be very difficult to decline this call."

Dr. Eastvold is the son of the late Rev. C. J. Eastvold, who served for 40 years as an active Lutheran clergyman. He was graduated from Jewell College in 1913 and from St. Olaf College, B. A., 1916, and received the degree of C. T. from Luther Theological Seminary in 1920. At Augustana College and Seminary he earned three degrees: B. D., 1924; S. T. M., 1926; and S. T. D., 1931.

Since being ordained into the ministry in 1920, he has served as pastor in four congregations in four states: Marshall, N. D., 1920-23; Jackson, Minnesota, 1923-27; Madison, S. D., 1927-33; and Eau Claire, Wisconsin, since 1933.

Dr. Eastvold was married on June 20, 1918, to Enga Olena Eastvold of Leroy, Minnesota. Their two children, Donald Wallace and Eleanor Melva, have been graduated from St. Olaf College.

He has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Education. (Continued on Page 4)

Jack Bratlie Snaps First Prize Photo For 'Saga' Contest

The SAGA Picture Contest was a great success, over 400 pictures having been submitted. First prize ($3) was awarded to Jack Bratlie, second prize ($2) to Lloyd Nyhus, and third prize ($1) to John Larsgaard. Honorable mention was given to Rhoda Lee and also for other pictures submitted by these winners. The rest of the pictures are now being considered for the SAGA. Those pictures not used will be returned next week.

The yearbook is now beginning to take form. The majority of the seniors have had their photographs taken, and all the various clubs and organizations have been photographed. Engravings of these pictures are now being made.

From the business offices of the SAGA, Financier Mark Stuen reports that all ads have been obtained. Although the deadline for subscriptions is passed, arrangements are being made to enable those who have not yet paid

from the inkwell

Fellow students, I ask you, do you know there's a war going on? I mean really and truly do you realize that you personally are fighting in this cataclysmic conflict which our country entered after the treacherous attack in December, 1941? Are you in on this all-out effort 100 per cent?

Of course we all know that almost all of the world is embroiled in battle and that human beings are working and suffering and dying, some gloriously and many unobtrusively, a few for what they consciously believe in and the multitude in obedience to their government's command. We have a vague idea of the Four Freedoms which our boys are called upon to defend and which are the only basis of a tomorrow that lives up to our heritage and ideals. Our newspapers, magazines, and radio constantly confront us with war news and "Propaganda."

Yet, somehow, this has fitted all too easily into the routine of living and is usually accepted as an unavoidable unpleasantness to be overlooked as much as possible. Beyond a shiver of horror at war movies and worry over the complexities of point rationing, the war seems remote and unreal to us. We live in our small world and can't or won't see the holocaust beyond its narrow horizons.

We must wake up to reality and face it truthfully. This is not a matter in which to play ostrich. We cannot take the benefits of others' sacrificing and suffering and refuse to recognize our duty to help. It is easy to rationalize our carelessness and unwillingness by saying that the oldsters who got us into this mess are responsible for getting us out. But that is just as foolish as blaming a poor report card on the ancients or scientists that dug up the material to learn.

We are not in this to clear up the problems created yesterday but to insure a tomorrow free from these problems. Tomorrow belongs to us of the younger generation and not to the past. It will be ours no matter what we make of it. We will receive in the future in proportion to what we give now. We cheat ourselves if we waste the 25 cents paid per class hour here by not attending classes or if we shirk our responsibility to help Uncle Sam at every opportunity. Our apathy robs us of the peace and freedom that should be ours in the future, of our right to safety and home and work.

It is up to each of us to find the big task into which we fit best and perform it at 100 per cent efficiency. There are countless little, ignoble services, too, that are important contributions to the effort from air raid duty to knitting sweaters. Right now an immense drive for the second war loan is being carried on. Invest in your own tomorrow by purchasing bonds and stamps for Victory.

Within the remaining five weeks of school most of the elections for next year's society presidents and A. S. B. officers are to be held. None of us can be sure what the next school sessions will be like, but we can be certain that good leaders will be needed to guide our student activities.

Be sure to nominate for these positions candidates who you honestly think will do the finest work. Forget your loyalty to your own clique or society and be loyal to PLC as a whole in your voting.

PLC students and faculty members offer their sympathy to Prof. and Mrs. Franck in their recent bereavement. Mrs. Franck's father, Mr. Otto Swanson of Eatonville, passed away

Dear Pal

No doubt you will be serprized to hear from this old boy. Time flies and so do soldiers in Uncle Sam's army, and thus I am now far away from the good old U. S. A. It took three months for your letter to catch up to me but I finally got it and believe me, it was interesting to read the news of PLC, etc.

Well, old pal, lots of water has passed the bridge since I last seen you. We left New York for points unbeknown and finely ended up in (CENSORED). I like this place fine except for the sand flies and meskeetoos. The meskeetoos are so big that we waisted 500 tons of anti-aircraft on them in one month. War doesn't upset the lives of meskeetoos as they evidantly have no ration system on me. I have lost six quarts of blood in three weeks and the way these bugs feed burns me up every time I think of my friends going hungry at home.

I hear the football and basketball teams didn't do so good without me this year. Tell Baron I will be back after the war and we won't loose so many towells with me as manager.

I sure do miss PLC. Specially all the girls. Is Anne Nelson still going to school? I guess she is. Remember the night we double dated and she wouldn't let me say a real goodnight? I bet she would now if she could see my PFC stripe. And Gladys. Boy! A man don't know what he's missing until he gets put on dessert duty. Say hello to Gladys for me, will you, and tell P'lee Rod that if she wants I will bring her back an Italian helmut or something.

So most of the fellows are gone now, eh? I suppose Skip has been drafted. Good old Skip. He will make a good tank man.

Is that true about Pflueger and Newton? I remember when they wouldn't even look at a girl. Go around holding hands, eh? I guess there must be a shortage of males alright.

And Orv Dahl came back! He's a guy that don't like much competition, I guess.

So Rhoda Lee is really going steady now. What happened to her and Kapus? Is Kapus got some other interest? What's this Gulberg like? Ha ha. This sounds like a quiz program.

I got a couple of Mooring Masts with your letter and they were sure newssy. I guess I will have to look up Mr. Hauge seeing as how we are practically neighbors. He is a captain, huh? I remember when I first registered. He asked me what courses I would like to take and I said I wanted lots of gym classes. Ha ha. Well, what did he expect?

I wonder if I should write to Maggie Hill. Sat across from her in English and we shot spitwads at each other nearly every day. Ha ha. Once she yawned and—bullseye—half a page of Life right down her gullet. I guess she thought I was a pretty good shot alright.

Who is this Ruth Knutson that was Saga Queen? At first I thought it was Cleo but her name is Eunice, isn't it?

I suppose you will be having campus day pretty soon. I suppose they will be throwing guys in the crick again this year. Remember when Mr. Reid got dunked in the pond? And last year Don D'Andrea pulled about fifteen fellows in with him. I suppose Big George will anchor one of the tug of war teams and Sis and Fern and Moe, etc., will have to take the place of some of the boys that have left. I guess.

So Rammy got a new topcoat and hat. That's a sign of the times, like they say. I can't feature all those professors working at the shipyards. Next thing you know, Mrs. Kreidler will be welding, I guess.

I think I will write to Miss Blomquist. I'm not sore even if she did flunk me in english. You see, I have improved my grammer and I think if I wrote her it might impress her. Don't you think? Yes? Well maybe I'd better not then.

Things are sure diffrunt around here. The women all wear vales and the sheeks will kill you if you even speak to them so I haven't said nothing when I go to town. I suppose you are wondering what's going on around here. Well, I'll tell you. I was one of the troops that (CENSORED) the (CENSORED) on the day after (CENSORED) When we drove in on the (CENSORED) flank we (CENSORED) about (CENSORED) prisoners. Some fun, eh? We expect to (CENSORED) the (CENSORED) in about (CENSORED) weeks. Does this clear up the situation for you? When you write feel free to ask me anything as I am a jeep driver for Major (CENSORED) and naturly am "in the know," as they say.

You know, tell Mrs. Bondy I was lucky to have French from her. Last week I drove the Major and a French Admiral out to camp and during the coarse of our conversation I sprung some frog lingo at the old boy. He didn't get it, and the major looked at him suspicious-like. I don't say the old boy was a fifth-colyumnist, but it's funny he couldn't understand his own lingo.

Well, old pal, old pal, I guess I've been "shooting the breeze" (as we say in the army) long enough. Write to your old pal, will ya? Give me the lowdown on good old PLC. See if you can't start me up a corresponce with one of them freshman girls you was telling me about. Dorothy Ankleman or Jerk Rogen. Tell me more about Polute's sister and whoever Whitey is taking out this week. And be sure and give my love to all my other friends, even Anne because she never realised that I would be a PFC some day.

As they say over here, "Agfa tula ben ger manna tuly tuly tuly" which means "so long."

Your pal,

He has also been on dining room duty, a higher form of K.P.

Jack Bratlie, prominent ex-halfback on this year's football team and also a tricky basketball player, was drafted several weeks ago, and was placed in a military police training center. Address—Pvt. Jack R. Bratlie, Co. D, 28th In. Bn., M.P.R.T.C., Fort Custer, Michigan.

Farce In Pantomime

Presented by Juniors

Climaxing the Junior Mixer program Friday evening, April 16, was the operetta in pantomime in three acts, directed by Georgiana Atkinson. The melodrammer farce was performed by such well-known Thespians as Hal Bruun, Roy McKinley, Pat Iverson, Hjordis Rogen, George Anderson, Evan Carlson and Earl Gullberg.

Other features on the program were a clarinet duet by Art Larson and Lloyd Nyhus, two vocal solos by former student Gig Svare, a tap dance by Georgiana Atkinson, and the "Barbershop Quartet" rendition of "There Is a Tavern in the Town."

After this special entertainment, the group joined in games and relays and a grand march. After refreshments had been served the evening's frolic ended with schottischesing and singing.

PLCite Hurt in Collision

While en route home, April 21, Margaretta Miller, freshman dorm girl who transferred from Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon, was seriously injured when the car her father was driving collided with another car. Margaretta's eye was badly injured, and although doctors say it will not have to be removed, is still in serious condition. Margaretta will not be able to attend college, the remainder of this year.

Alumni

The Alpha Beta Gamma, Tacoma field branch of the Phi Delta Kappa, honorary educational fraternity, will hold its annual social meeting sometime during the first week in May (date not yet set).

Talking It Over

with ART LARSON

Now that the outdoor season for track has definitely started, P. L. C. has many athletes turning out down below the hill. These warm spring days make you feel like running. Why, even Big George Anderson has been down there running around the track and throwing the shot around. Many people who ride past in their cars wonder what that bunch of scantily-clad morons are doing out in our typical April mist. No, it's not a back-to-nature fad that we are introducing, but just Evan Carlson showing off his muscle.

ON THE MARK

To give you an idea of the kind of runners we have out this year, here are a few close-ups of the gang. In the sprints we have Les "G. I." Whitehead and "Grampa" Harshman. Both of these boys are running the century in 10.5 and better, depending on which way the wind is blowing. Whitey and Ster also run the 220 and broad jump. Ster has hit over 20 feet already.

Running the 440 are Gerry Lider, Paul Pflueger, and Whitey. Gerry and Les have both run this in 53 flat and can probably do it faster if necessary. In the longer distances we have Hal Bruun, Herbie Nienstedt, John Baglien, Evan Carlson, Goocy Gregersen, and Cliff Johnson. These boys are really turning in some surprisingly good times considering that it is the first turnout for some of them. Dave Wright, "Booger" Carlson, Robert Larson, and Earl Gullberg are other hopefuls.

Holding down the field events end of the track team, we have Ted Iufer throwing the discus, pole-vaulting, and maybe tossing the shot. Big George and "Fog Horn" Bruun are throwing the shot. Ster also throws the discus, while Roy "Birdman" McKinley soars up and over the high jump bar. If any of you spectators want to see something beautiful you ought to see Mac floating over the bar around six feet.

MEET CPS FRIDAY

Tomorrow comes a meet with our arch rivals, C. P. S., which will show us what we have and what we don't have. We want a lot of the students from school here to come over and cheer the boys on. Last year I think we had three rooters in the crowd, and they were afraid to yell because they would probably have been lynched by the competitors.

IT CAN BE DONE

Talking about track meets, it seems that the other day Greg Rice broke another record by running the two mile in 9:12.2, which is really trotting around that track. Also a six foot four high-jumper from Texas jumped six feet eight for a new record. Hal Davies, the once supposedly unbeatable century man from California, was beaten the other day when a Naval ensign stepped the distance in 9.7 to beat him by a whisker.

DOWN ON THE LINKS

I can guarantee that Harty Hoff and Burt Thorpe got in plenty of golf during this recent Easter vacation. They ought to be plenty good by this time. They were supposedly out weeding greens on the course, but whenever I saw them they were shooting golf from the fifth hole to the sixth one. Our golf team is the first of the spring sports teams to bring honor to the school. They downed St. Martin's by the score of 7½ to 4½. Orchids to our divot-diggers! One thing that this school does need badly is two more men to turn out for the tennis team. Many matches can be had, according to Mr. Strombo. Turn out and show your real skill.

COACH JOHNSON REPORTS

Now is the time for all good baseball players to start warming up for Campus Day. Every one must be in good shape for the baseball games and also for the annual Creek session. According to reports handed to me by the manager, coach and water boy of the High School's baseball team, Louis Johnson, the team received its first defeat at the hands of the Parkland Junior High School. Coach Johnson said, though, that he believed his boys would revenge this crushing defeat later in the season.

McKINLEY TAKES A HIGH JUMP

GLADIATOR TRACKMEN TO INVADe CROSTOWN LOGGER TERRITORY

The 1943 edition of the Lute cindermen will meet its first test in the initial go of the season against CPS tomorrow at 12:30 p. m. on the Loggers' oval. Strombo's strutters are out to avenge the defeat handed to them by the Loggers last season.

On paper the Lute aggregation looks good with returning veterans such as Ster Harshman, Gerry Lider, Les Whitehead, Ted Iufer, Roy McKinley, Art Larson, and George Anderson. In recent time trials the sprinters turned in some good performances. Ster Harshman showed his old driving power in running the 100 yd. dash in 10 flat and the 220 in 23 seconds. Les Whitehead, who has been finishing second to Harshman in the 100 and 220, registered the best 440 at 53 seconds, but was pressed close by Gerry Lider. Hurdler Art Larson has been skimming the low and high hurdles in true form, but to date hasn't taken any time trials, having concentrated on speed. Art has finished third to Harshman and Whitehead in the 100 yd. dash several times.

The new "find" of the season appears to be Galloping Hal Bruun, who has been clocked at 2:12 in the half mile. In two weeks Bruun has cut his time 10 seconds and is improving steadily. If Evan Carlson can learn to lean forward when he is running, he should collect a few points in the half mile. Carlson has been trailing Bruun in the time trials, but shows plenty of endurance. In the mile run the aspirants have been starting slow. John Baglien has turned in the best performance at 5:40, with Cliff Johnson second. Ted Carlson and Dave Wright are training for either the mile or two mile runs . . . if they can pick up some spare lungs.

In the field events are four returning veterans who hope to capture some firsts at CPS tomorrow. Birdman McKinley has been seen rolling over the high jump bar at 5 feet 9 inches and 5 feet 10 inches—good performances for early season. Ster Harshman has been making some terrific leaps in the broad jump event, going as far as 20 feet 10 inches. Les Whitehead has been passing the 19 foot mark in the same event. Tossing the shot in ordinary practice style has not been enough for big George Anderson, who has been pushing the iron sphere over the cross bar of the field goal posts. Ted Iufer and Harshman have been throwing the discus with no small degree of success. Iufer won't have the excuse in the pole vault that the bamboo poles are too weak for his muscular body because Coach Strombo just purchased a new aluminum pole long enough for Ted to clear 14 feet if he feels that good.

Strombo will be looking for a winner out of the "dark horse" group, including Herb Nienstedt in the dashes, Goocy Gregersen in the mile, Stan Arlton and Bob Larson in the half and Paul Pflueger in the 440. Strombo will take a squad of about 18 runners over to CPS.

The strength of the Logger thinclads is still an item for the prognosticators. The ranks of the Lumberjacks have been considerably thinned this spring, leaving only a few returning vets.

DAY BOYS DRUBBED BY DORM CASABISTS IN ANNUAL HOOP TILT

In the annual traditional casaba supremacy feud of PLC, on Monday, April 19, the Dorm boys fought off a last half rally by the Day boys to emerge on the long end of a 45-41 score.

The Dormers, led by "Smiles" Lider, who took his eyes off the girls in the balcony long enough to toss 18 points through the hoop, opened the game at a blistering pace, building up a 26-13 halftime lead. The dorm quintet used an effective zone defense to limit the much-talked-about accuracy of the Dayers. The Dayers showed a surprising offense in the second half with Art Larson and Birdman McKinley, P. N. T. star, leading the attack. After Chuck Cvetich and Dean Martin fouled out of the game and after "Booger" Carlson came in for the Dormers with his long white socks, the Dayers began to score with regularity. But Lider's boys had too much of a lead for the Day boys to overcome, and the game ended 45-41.

The Dormers, with 14 fouls called against them, showed more of the caveman tactics than the Dayers who escaped with 10 under the refereeing of Baron Barofsky. Art Larson and McKinley led the losers with 15 and 10 points respectively. Chuck Cvetich was second to Lider in the box score for the Dorm boys with 12 points.

Lutes Down Rangers In First Golf Match

Defeating the St. Martin's divot diggers 7½ to 4½ on the Rangers' course, PLC's newly formed golf team got off to an auspicious start in Winko competition, Saturday, April 17.

St. Martin's golfing brothers, D. and T. Sweeney, copped medalist honors with scores of 82, followed by Orville Dahl of PLC with a card of 83. Burt "Barrel" Thorpe and Dick Langton scored 86's for the Lutes to capture full matches from By Tardiff and Bob Tardiff, another Ranger brother two-some. Orv Dahl led the field for the best nine hole score with a 39. The Lutherans' strength in the number three and four positions cinched their victory. A return match slated for the Parkland course is tentatively scheduled for this week-end.

| PLC     | St. Martin's |             |    |
|---------|--------------|-------------|----|
| Dahl    | 1            | D. Sweeney  | 2  |

| Thorpe  | 3            | Bob Tardiff | 0  |

Thorpe, Stewart Top Racket Tournament

Burt Thorpe and Kirk Stewart reached the final round of the annual PLC elimination tennis tournament by defeating all opposition. Burt defeated John Baglien, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, and Kirk triumphed over Al Nordeng, 6-0, 6-0 in recent matches.

Because of the many vacancies left in the ranks of net aspirants by the exodus into the armed forces there are several places yet to be filled on the tennis squad. Anyone desiring to play on the team should contact either Dean Schnackenberg or Kirk Stewart as soon as possible.

The annual conference tennis tournament is slated for Ellensburg this spring. Other Winko competition is being scheduled.

Lute Lassies

By MARYBESS DADDOW

The basketball season is over for this year in the W. A. A. The honor teams had the final play-off Tuesday, April 13. Team I scored over Team II by the narrow margin of 23 to 22. Members of the winning team are: Forwards—Gardlin, Capt., Satern, Thoren, Daddow. Guards—Jurgerson, A. Johnson, Harstad, Lider.

Weather permitting, baseball turnouts will start this week. Just watch the old football practice field for further developments. Teams will not be chosen for some time.

Remember, you W. A. A.-ers who wish to get a letter or a pin—your points must be turned in soon. Golf, hiking, badminton, and tennis each receive 50 points. Practice up on your game, then inveigle one of your unsuspecting friends into playing a game or two.

Instead of the banquet for awarding letters, this year a cruise will be held—an all-day cruise with plenty of fun—on May 16. Dinner will be eaten ashore and awards made then. Tickets will be on sale in the near future.

Eastvold to Become College Executive

cation of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America since 1932; trustee of St. Olaf College and member of the executive committee since 1932; member of the Board of Directors of the Zion Society for Israel since 1936; Vice President of the South Dakota District of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America from 1929-33; Vice President of the Eastern District since 1937; and member of the Board of Directors of the Lutheran Welfare Society of Wisconsin in 1943.

During his ministry in Eau Claire he has been in great demand as a speaker at many public functions and at church gatherings. During the past six years, his sermons have been broadcast regularly over radio station WEAU. It is estimated that nearly 100,000 people have heard his sermons every Sunday during the last years.

Dr. Eastvold is author of many religious books and various brochures and articles on theological subjects. He has written the biography of his father, "Rev. C. J. Eastvold, D. D., His Life and Work."

Concerning his decision to accept the PLC call, he told his congregation, "I have arrived at this decision through a gradually dawning conviction that it is my Lord calling, Whom I serve with body, mind, and soul. It is the same Divine Counsellor now calling me to depart from you Who led me to leave a loyal and sorrowing flock to come into your midst ten years ago this coming August. Who will question His will of ten years ago? May we be as sure now as we were then. We shall, like Jesus, 'Steadfastly' set our faces toward doing His will . . . It seems to me that I can best serve my Church during the years which lie immediately ahead by accepting the challenge at Pacific Lutheran College, which stands in the midst of a great surging empire on our western most frontier."

CLUB NOTES

FIRESIDE

Miss Grace Blomquist presented a short talk concerning Christian education and the church school at the Fireside meeting on April 11. Hjordis Rogen led the meeting, and John Larsgaard read the Scripture text. The group held the meeting out of doors on the front lawn.

Rhoda Lee was elected president of the L. D. R. girls for next year at the recent meeting on Wednesday afternoon, April 14. The program was devoted to explaining the Pocket Testament Movement and encouraging the girls to join by buying a Pocket Testament during last week's drive.

Emma Thoren presented a vocal solo for the group. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. N. B. Thorpe, with Miss Grace Blomquist, Mrs. Lora B. Kreidler, and Mrs. Eleanor Barofsky as assisting hostesses.

NOON DEVOTIONS

A candlelight service, sponsored by the Noon Devotions group, was held Tuesday evening, April 20, in the college chapel. Various students presented Scripture passages and inspirational poems against a background of organ music by Helen Smick.

Vocal selections were solos by Margaretta Miller and Clifford Johnson and a duet by Betty Wrigley and Jeanette Buzlaff.

VIKING CLUB

Although organized rather late in the season, the Viking Club members plan to meet the second Tuesday in each month. At the coming meeting Gerhard Ness will be in charge of the program, assisted by Anne Nelson and Anita Stuen.

Officers recently elected for this group are Olaf Kvamme, president; Corinne Fosso, vice president; and Doris Jurgerson, secretary-treasurer.

All-College Play Is Well Attended

A large, enthusiastic audience attended the all-college production of Dana Thomas' play "Lease on Liberty" in the Parkland auditorium on April 9. Under the direction of Ursula McDonald, assisted by Lee Rod, the 20 cast members gave an excellent performance that will long stand out in PLC dramatic history.

The matinee of the play on Thursday, May 8, for the Parkland grade and junior high school students was also well-attended. Receipts taken in there were large enough to pay the royalties on both performances.

After the production Miss Grace Blomquist, faculty adviser, gave a party for the cast and staff members in the Senior Girls' Dormitory.

D. R. G.

The D. R. G. girls are leaving Saturday afternoon, May 1, at approximately 1 p. m., for their annual house party at Lake Kilarney. They will return Sunday afternoon. General plans are being managed by Florence Reiman and Mary Peterson. Alice Pflaum heads the transportation; Dorothy Cook, initiation; and Helen Church, Sunday morning services.

L. S. A.

Pocket Testaments can still be purchased from Lois Ludwig, president of the L. S. A. If you were unable to get yours during the recent drive, be sure to contact Lois and join the Pocket Testament Movement.

Tragic Occurrence Blights Happiness Of PLC Coeds; 2 Sleuths Solve Mystery

With woeful faces and solemn expressions PLC femmes climbed down the steps of the girls' dorm and meandered aimlessly along main hall last Monday morning. Among the smiling males there were two conscientious individuals, imbued with the familiar PLC family spirit, who wondered and worried about what perpetrated calamity had befallen their adopted sisters from dorm and day room.

After a careful observation and much scientific study that involved several resulting absences from Prof. Stuen's trigonometry laboratory, our two true detectives gathered a few meager clues and a scrap of circumstantial evidence that indicated that a great catastrophe had occurred. Now the only remaining problem for the two enterprising sleuths was to discover the identity of the mysterious blight on feminine happiness. Here are a few of the theories they evolved—and rejected:

1. Was it because all the boys were gone? No. Ted B. Carlson is still on the campus occasionally.
2. Was it due to unpleasant spring vacations? No, all the girls appeared healthy, and according to accurate figures secured, there was an average increase in weight of ten pounds per capita.
3. Was it because of the overabundance of mice and other rodents? No, upon careful investigation it was found that all the mice had signed in with Mr. Fadness at 11 p. m. sharp and gone directly to bed in Chuck Cvetich's "snooze garden."

With all hypotheses rejected, the boys turned to asking questions of the despondent dormites. They discovered that the girls were so aroused over a despicable, infamous wrong-doing that they had raised a valuable bounty by solicitations. Specifically the loot consisted of the following items: one bottle of Parkland Prize Pickles from Anita Stuen, one-half sack of coal and three buckets of sawdust from Gladys J. Andersen, one jar of the far-famed Ballard pickled herring from Norma Linder, six photographs of Evan Carlson from Francis Scherleble, one second-hand bathroom scale from June Belaw, one pound of sweet cream butter from Hjordis Rogen.

WIPE THAT SNEER OFF HIS FACE!

Winko Sport Flashes

Ellensburg (CWCE) — Twenty-nine Wildcat track aspirants are getting in trim for the Inland Empire Meet scheduled for May 1. Hal Berndt, 100 and 220 winner at the conference meet last season, is among the few returning vets. Hank Oechsner is preparing for another year at tossing the javelin. Coach Sarboe has a difficult time getting competition for distance man Bob Lynn. Six tennis aspirants give indication of a strong team.

Cheney (EWCE)—Eastern Washington's only three-sport man, Bill Lothspeich, senior from Colfax, was presented with the Scarlet Arrow inspirational award for basketball, the highest honor paid an athlete at Eastern. Savage track squad is in process of conditioning.

Bellingham (WWCE)—Two track lettermen returning for this season are Larry Munizza and Don Leu. Five other prospects line up with Munizza and Leu. Track as a varsity sport this coming spring is in doubt according to Sam Carver who reports that other conference teams are folding.
