

ALUMNI PICNIC DATE IS SET

JUNE 4 IS DAY

Steamer Vashona Chartered for Trip, Baptist Park Is Picnic Site

As a result of a series of meetings of the executive body of the Alumni Association the plans for the annual Alumni picnic are now in order. After considering many places and means of travel and the attractiveness of each the committee decided that a launch party would best accommodate all concerned and at the same time be had at the most reasonable price.

In accordance with this plan the steamer Vashona has been chartered to take the picnickers to their destination from the foot of the Municipal Dock. It will pull out from the dock at 10:00 a. m. on June 4, all going from Parkland must be able to leave there on the 8:56 car.

The place of merriment chosen is Burton on Vashon Island. This place was chosen with a double purpose—besides being a desirable picnicking ground it will make it possible for those not able to come in the morning to leave Tacoma at 1:00 p. m. on the regular trip of the steamer and so reach the crowd for the afternoon.

The exact price that will be charged per member is not yet decided but it is not to exceed one dollar.

All students are invited and welcomed and all alumni expected. Alumni friends as well are welcome.

NUTRITION CLASS VISITS SANATORIUM

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Parr took her nutrition class out to the Mountain View Sanatorium for an afternoon's observation. They were shown around the grounds and buildings by the nurses, showing the means of sleeping quarters and porches the patients used. After the round of the buildings the head nurse gave a short lecture on the diet of the tubercular patient.

CHOIR SINGS IN SEATTLE

The Pacific Lutheran College Choir directed by Prof. J. O. Edwards rendered four musical numbers at the South Puget Sound Y. P. L. L. rally held in the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Rev. H. A. Stub's charge in Seattle, on Sunday afternoon, May 15.

This rally was held as a fore-runner, working up enthusiasm for the coming national convention this summer.

The numbers given by the choir were:

"How Shall I Flirtly Meet Thee" J. S. Bach.

"Deep River" H. T. Burleigh.

"Sweet Angel Voices" J. O. Edwards.

"Come Thou Saviour of Our Christ" F. M. Christiansen.

STAFF IS FETED BY ADVISOR

"Masters" Meet for Jolly Afternoon Prior to Final Issue

Monday afternoon, May 9, the members comprising the editorial and business staffs of the Mooring Mast, and Miss Amundson, editorial advisor, were entertained by Prof. and Mrs. O. J. Stuen at their home in Parkland. Prof. Stuen is the faculty advisor of the Mooring Mast and as the duty of the year's newspaper work will soon be over he wished to show his appreciation of the work of the staff by a farewell gathering since many of the staff will be graduating this year.

After the guests had assembled for a social time, of course the editor had to mention casually that the work of her reporters was not finished yet. Mr. Stuen immediately suggested that they he set to work and after the topic was given, everyone wrote an article which resulted in a "Campus Scandal."

Outgoing Counsel Celebrates Own Leave

Hurray we're nuts! Who's nuts? The counsel of course. Didja hear about it?—we did. The Men's Student Counsel went on a-a-a (good time) the other night. Talk about your dissipation—this one surely takes the angel food or what you have.

What d'ya say we get down to facts. Here they are: P. L. C., a student counsel decided to go on a (speer)—that is to have a good time. Well, according to reports, they did. Indeed it is whispered that the little boys, whose reputation should never, never, be soiled, didn't get home till one o'clock in the morning! Horrors! But please calm yourself, it's not as bad as you think it is. The only thing wrong with any of them was that they ate four times that night. Who wouldn't be happy! Hurray we're nuts!

MAGLI TAKEN ILL

News has been received that Hilman Magli, who left school a few weeks ago to accompany his parents to Canada where they will now make their home, has been taken rather seriously ill. He contracted measles and due to the sudden change of climate moving northward it developed into pneumonia of a severe nature. At the time however it is believed that he is slightly better.

SENIOR PLAY A SUCCESS

OVER 400 PRESENT

Entire Proceeds Revert to P. L. C. in Form of Senior Gift. Director Honored

"Bab," the senior class play was presented Friday evening, May 13, to a large and appreciative audience which numbered over four hundred. The events of the play kept the interest of the audience at a high pitch throughout the whole evening. Special mention should be made of Marguerite Folco who so cleverly took the part of "Bab," a modern miss, with all her whims and fancies. The part was done to such a natural touch that it is not at all sure that she was acting. Dorothy Fowler doing a feature part as a man, too deserves mention.

The audience was entertained between acts by several musical numbers contributed to the program by the college freshmen—Cornelia Goplerud and Esther Towe played a piano duet and Anna Thompson and Hanna Anderson each gave a vocal solo. Between two of the acts the class presented to Prof. Hauge a desk-fountain pen set in token of appreciation of his work in their class and for directing the play. Prof. Hauge is also the class advisor.

CHURCH HAS NEW ORGAN

The Trinity Lutheran Church of Parkland will be favored by a new long-hoped for attractive addition, a Reed organ, which is expected to be installed by Sunday, May 15. The new organ has been especially made for the Trinity Church and is a two manual pipe tone organ, with foot pedal and electric blower. As the latest model by the Hinner Organ Company it includes crescendo and swell pedal. The new organ, manipulated like a pipe organ, will enable the Pacific Lutheran College music department to offer pipe organ lessons the ensuing year.

English Class Has Special Projects

The Freshman High School English Class under the supervision of Miss Amundson has during the last semester completed three interesting projects.

The first was the publishing of an issue of a class paper, entitled "The Mustard Seed." A complete staff of editors and reporters, working in perfect harmony, chose the material necessary for the paper. It was well edited and made a very pleasing appearance both in subject matter and form. For the second project each member of the class made an artistically designed, illustrated booklet. Each student wrote a description of some place that particularly interested him, designed a cover and appropriate title.

The last project was the issuing of a short story magazine, containing a contribution from each class-member.

This type of English writing has brought about a greater interest and a better understanding of the various forms of composition.

Mother's Day Program By Mission Society

The Mission Society sponsored the program given at the Y. P. L. L. meeting on Sunday evening, May 8.

The meeting opened with hymn singing after which the following program was given: Mothers' Day reading by Hanna Anderson, a vocal solo by Anna Thompson accompanied by Hanna Anderson, address "Just a Mother" by Prof. Xavier, whistling solo by Beaulah Conley accompanied by Cornelia Goplerud, address on Prohibition by D. P. French of the Anti-Saloon League of Washington.

Prof. Xavier said there is no one who will do as much for us as mother. When we are ill with a fever, it is mother who lends the helping hand.

Mother is often mentioned in the Bible. God finds no better example of a comforter, in joy and in grief than a mother. In our childhood it was mother to whom we went in time of trouble. We will have our greatest grief when we lose our mother.

You may think mother is old-fashioned and plain-looking and ignorant, but if she had spent as much time on herself as she has on her children she may have been different now. Many times mother love is not shown until it is too late and she is gone. Let it be our prayer to God that our country may have an army of good Christian mothers.

PLANS FOR GRADUATION READY

Closing Program Announced. Ivy Planting Will Be Feature of Class Program

BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY

On Sunday, June 5, the farewell sermon will be given the graduating class of the year. The services will begin at eight o'clock in the evening. In an interview Prof. O. J. Ordal stated that Rev. Stub announced speaker for that night, will not be able to reach the coast in time to fill this place. He stated further that he feels assured that one of the visiting pastors will give the sermon. Special music will be given by the P. L. C. chorus.

On going to press it is announced that Dr. O. H. Pannkoke of New York City will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon.

CLASS DAY

The Class Day program for the class of '27 will take place on the evening of June 7 at eight o'clock. At a meeting of the graduates today the following program was drawn up for the night.

This class has thru its history at P. L. C. always been a most unique group and now at the time of its departure it had no desire to break that precedent, it had set for itself—hence the Class of '27 will give P. L. C. its first formal tradition, when on the evening of June 7, an ivy will be formally planted at the front of the main building. This will from now on be carried thru as a tradition.

NEW CABINET FILE GIVEN MAST OFFICE

Mr. Bill generously contributed a valuable addition to the Mooring Mast office, when he presented a filing cabinet to the office. Such a cabinet has been needed sorely by the staff as there has been no place to file old issues, hence the new addition is highly appreciated by the Staff and other students.

All previous issues of the Mooring Mast may now be rescued from the "archives" where they rested in perfect peace, and may be filed in such a manner as to be on hand for future reference.

LANGUAGES IS ADDRESS THEME

The Contemporary Civilization class had the pleasure of a visitor on Friday and also an address when Rev. Simundson from the east, now guest of Prof. Ramstad, spoke to the class. The lesson for the day had been Roman literature and Rev. Simundson took his topic from the theme saying in substance: there are three great parallel languages in the world. These are Hebrew, Roman and the Greek. These three have produced literature unequalled. There is nothing finer in the realm of literature than the twenty third psalm. It is told that once some learned men met in France and during the course of their meeting they decided the finest story told is that of Ruth from the scripture.

On Calvary's hill there stands a cross upon which is written a text in three languages, the Hebrew, Greek and Latin. "This is the King of the Jews." These three languages helped to produce the time called the "fulness of time."

HOW DO I KNOW

It is not what you are able to do but what you really do that counts. Though you be the most brilliant student, the most accurate and skillful workman, unless you do something to back the statement, one must needs say—"How do I know?"

We are just a trifle spoiled by having been termed honest men and find that our word can at all times be trusted, so we have fallen into the easy habit of—oh, yes that is easy—it won't take long and I can do that at such and such a time, taking no time. The rest of us have fallen under the same spell and always believe—we know you can do it—and yet must ask—How do I know.

If we were exacting enough with ourselves to be honest we would have to admit that these words we continue giving and taking are not sufficient when the crucial moment of a show down comes. If you do not show me that you can do it—How do I know.
—R. O. M.

WHY LIVE?

When blank disappointment stares one in the face and the worn poet but yet true axiom falls upon us with all its calmness, that "there is nothing left to live for." When we search that place where we can appreciate the utter despair of those who end it all—it is in truth the task of a life time to square ones shoulders, put on that daily smile and pretend one sees only the roses.

We flippantly meet life the next day, and for all the worlds knowledge have no power to feel—and floating to us comes that distracting "Oh, for a life so carefree." They cannot see, they cannot understand and know it is only that another star actor has been added to the role.

In moments such as these just when it gets so bad we can seem no possible worse then through that dark cloud hanging heavy over our horizon peeps the tiniest ray of light, at first little more, just lighter black, yet how welcome, how strengthening,—tis Hope. She is the one true in the mad unjust and beauty crushing universe. To the time worn minds, to the life sentenced prisoner, to the darkest sinner whom all others have for saken, she is yet true.

That little steadfast friend finds in our broken spirit mysteriously the were-will-all to rebuild new. Cured as we may be of faith in mankind we yet have hope and the courage to bear up under the load and suddenly we find a new and greater faith in One who cannot be false. Our sky, though never again the innocent blue of our happier life—yet takes on a new blue—more somber and more deep but equally clear. Once more we find we can sing, "One there is for whom I am living. And so, though despairing, and crushed, through hope and Faith we live.
—R. O. M.

A regular meeting of the Young Peoples Luther League was held Sunday, April 8. The following Mother's Day program was given by the P. L. C. Mission Society: Mother's Day Poem: Hanna Anderson.

Vocal Solo: Anna Thompson
Prof. Xavier was the speaker, his theme being "Mother."

Mr. D. P. French of the Anti-Saloon League then gave a talk in relation and asking for the support of the young people.

A social hour followed the program.

Rev. Geo. Lane and Mr. C. J. Gunderson both of Stanwood were Tuesday guests at P. L. C. While here

Rev. Lane visited with his son Gerhard, '27, and they also attended some of the classes.

Marie (after chorus) goes gaily trooping up the stairs singing "How Shall I Fly Meet Thee," and around the corner comes Mrs. K.

MISSION PROGRAM WELL ATTENDED

Rev. Svare Speaks on Mission Text

The Mission Society met in the chapel for its regular meeting on Wednesday evening May 11.

The following program was rendered: Piano duet—Eather Towe and Louise Henriksen.

Selections: P. L. C. Octette Address: Rev. T. O. Svare.

The synopsis of Rev. Svare's address was somewhat thus: "He saved others; himself he could not save." You must give yourself in order to save others. If we are to do Mission work we cannot think of self. In Matt. 10:39, we find these words—"He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it." Christ had to sacrifice all in order to perform the work assigned to him. What did He gain? What did the prophets in the Old Testament gain? What did the disciples gain? What does any who does true Missionary work gain? Nothing but a seeming life of misery. It is a misery if we look at this life, but it is the life beyond that we must look to.

"He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully."

Happy is the person who can look for the need of others and not for the need of himself.

Intelligence tests in the form of guessing contests were next indulged in. That the staff have truly intelligent and artistic minds is shown by the following descriptions:

"She has radish hair, a turnip nose, cherry lips and a peach complexion. The hero says that his heart beats for her and asks, 'Do you carrot all for me? Lettuce squash all difference, and be married.' To which she answers, 'I cantaloupe,' but peas finally religned between them."

At six o'clock a lovely informal luncheon was served to the guests. As favors, prettily decorated candy dolls were given. Following the luncheon various other games were played, including an "imitation game," and it can truly be said that the members of the staff are fine actors.

We wish to thank Prof. and Mrs. Stuen for their kind hospitality and assure them that a very pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent.

Elnor Knutzen, a brother of Christina, and Glen Dixon of Burlington were visitors on Friday night and Saturday May 13-14. They attended the play "Bab" on Friday evening and left for Burlington on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitley and children of Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson of Centralia visited with Evelyn Sneve on Sunday May 15. Evelyn accompanied them on a picnic near Spanaway.

Luetta Svinth spent the week-end of May 14-15 at her home near Roy.

PACIFIC LUTHERAN CHAUTAUQUA

Beginning August 22, this year a chautauqua will be held on the beautiful grounds of Pacific Lutheran College of Parkland. The chautauqua will begin on Monday morning and continue until the following Monday morning August 29. This week has of late years been set aside for the pastor's summer school, but there has been a demand for a chautauqua in connection with this school so that anyone could attend who wished to do so and now it has finally been decided. It was practically impossible for all pastors to attend both the summer school and a chautauqua. Furthermore, it has been customary to invite some leading man from the East for the pastors and many of our people would like to hear this man. Now the opportunity has come for every man, woman and child to enjoy a well prepared and well organized chautauqua when special stress will be given Bible work. In connection with the summer school for pastors we shall have lectures and Bible classes for everybody including the boys and girls for whom there will be a special encampment. Committees have been elected and preparations are under way and we look forward to a very successful chautauqua. The committee for the summer school has joined in with the chautauqua committee arranging for everything from the pastors summer school to the boys and girls encampment.

Where could be found a more suitable place on the entire Coast for such a chautauqua than on the college grounds. Here we have a large auditorium in the gymnasium. Here we have a beautiful camp ground. Here we have all the class rooms we need. With the good roads we have this place can be reached easily from any direction. Tents will be supplied when wanted. Those who have their own tents may bring them. The college dining room will be thrown open for the purpose but those who wish to camp in real style may make their own meals. In this way it is possible for the entire family to spend the week here with very little expense.

Pacifics Pop Summer Surprise

P. L. C. Nine Overcomes 6-0 Lead in Sixth Inning and Wins by a 10-8 Score

Overcoming a 6-0 score in the sixth inning, the P. L. C. pastimers scored a 10-8 victory over the Snappy Summer High School lads on the Summer field on May 5. To all appearances the Summer nine had the game sewed up tight until the sixth frame when the Parklandites chased the bases to total four runs.

Thostenson, rookie twirler for the Lutherans started tossing the pill until Al Beck relieved him in the third. Arnie pitched good ball while he lasted. Sannerud was on the receiving end. The P. L. C. boys collected four runs in the sixth, one in the seventh, and ran away from the Summer boys in the ninth, getting five runs across the pan. Wallenberg and Johnston formed the battery for the valley team. French played for the first time this year in centerfield and did fine work in the outer gardens. He has heretofore been kept out of the game on account of sickness.

Knutzen, Kiel, Sanderson, Fedt, Thostenson, Sannerud, French, Langlow, Lund and Beck made up the P. L. C. lineup while Danforth, Ward, Davis, Sterling, Johnston, Yount, Zehnder, Luthale, Wallenberg, and Edwards worked for the Summer squad.

STADIUMITES HIT WAY TO VICTORY

Win Over P. L. C. Pastimers in Seven-Inning Fracas, Final Score Is 8-0

Last Monday afternoon the Pacific nine lost to the Stadium High school squad from Tacoma by an 8-0 score. The game was played on the Parkland diamond. The P. L. C. squad collected a total of nine hits but were unable to make any of them count while the Stadium lads gath-11 bingles and were able to score. Witter, Stadium southpaw, did the mound work for the Tacoma team and kept the College hits scattered.

Hopner, star P. L. C. basketball player worked for the first time in this game and showed lots of ability in covering ground. Two double plays were chalked up to his credit. Hopner has been out of the game because of injuries received during basketball season. He played center and left field.

Knutzen, Thostenson, French, Fedt, Sannerud, Kiel, Beck, Hopner, and C. Lund formed the College team while Carlin, Linder, Lees, Anderson, Kaputof, Kenrick, Sproule, Carbone, and Witter worked out for the Stadium nine. Joe Glasco and Art Col-tum refereed.

"Polly" Scores Again!

—Cut courtesy Ledger.

"POLLY" LANGLOW

This is the likeness of Palma "Polly" Langlow, star forward of the Pacific Lutheran College basketball team, who challenges the claim of Miss Anna Bell Stought of Crooksville, Ohio, to the national record in scoring baskets during the 1926-27 season.

Miss Stought scored 208 points last season while Miss Langlow, in a total of 12 games, made 256 points or 178 field goals and also 14 from the foul line giving her a total of 270 points for the entire season. "Polly" has played with the College girls team for three years and is an ideal forward. Her playing, combined with that of Miss Agnes Wierson, her running mate, made a combination that was mighty hard to beat.

Miss Langlow is from Santa Barbara, California and Miss Wierson from Hemet, California. Both girls have played their last game for P. L. C. as they are graduating this June.

The play was also a success from a financial point of view as the business manager announced that $150 was received. These proceeds are to go to P. L. C. in the form of a gift from the class of '27. The nature of this gift has not yet been announced.

CENTRALIANS WIN OVER LUTHERANS

On May 6 the Centralia Junior College met the P. L. C. nine on the home field and defeated the same by a 20 to 0 score. It will be remembered that the Lutherans defeated the Centralia boys rather decisively in basketball and of course the P. L. C. boys regard it as tit for tat. However that may be, credit must be given to the Centralians for having a mighty strong aggregation. Stout pitched good ball for the victors and Pumphy was right there when it came to banging off to the ball.

The Centralians knocked the ball to all parts of the lot at opportune times and "Big Beck" was minus his usual support and could do nothing to curb the biting streak of the winners.

P. L. C. played the regular lineup and Arreson, Stout, Omes, Randlett, Thompson, Pumphy, Rainey, Blankenship, and Drew worked out for the Centralians.

Another game is planned for today with the same team, the contest to be fought out on the Centralia field. Joe Glasco and Ringstad called decisions in the game.

STAR ATHLETE LEAVES SCHOOL

A week ago today, Rudolph Sanderson, star P. L. C. athlete and all-around student left school in order to work for the government in Alaska. He will be working with Pete Welle, former short course student here. At the Chapel exercises, Coach Ramstad presented Rudy with a baseball letter and a tennis letter. Rudy played second base on the team and was an ideal pivot man. He was batting around 400 and was a big help to the team. Rudy graduated from the High School department here this year with honors as a good student and a staunch supporter of athletic contests of all kinds at his alma mater. As his farewell speech, Rudy expressed his regret at leaving the school and his friends and also his desire to return again next year.

Avast, mates! The blue skies brighten again for a few moments and then down floods the rain.

Whereupon we the baseball team, the tennis players, and those bitten by the spring bug do tear our hair and don our sack cloth and ashes.

Among the mottoes up for consideration in the senior class are: "Homebrew or Bust," "Blow your own Horn," especially encouraged by Prof. Hauge, "Sink or Swim, Dive or Perish," "Safety First," "Carry your Ford the Street Car can Walk," and "Honor the auto, it Makes the grade."

Other suggestions will be greatly deprecated.

A Condemnation!!
Quaffs there a soul of ozone pure. Who hath never felt the Home To close his books and skip from School?

Whose heart hath ne'er within him scorched To forget the wisdom from midnight torched?

If there be such go give him— He may be spurned but he's marked too well.

The one in which you struggled with the furniture in hopes of finding the light switch.

We decided to celebrate the golden jubilee of what not today and attended Oral Expression class. We were greatly effected. Not only astounded by the quality of the words but the quantity; the editor of this paper stirred up her usual hash and threw the traces with a bountiful flood of oratory. . . . Whereupon we learned the where, when, and why of education. A pleasant time was had by all.

French of the Anti-Saloon League of Washington quoted from Luke 6:46 "Why call ye me Lord, and do not the things that I say?"

Prior to 1918 there was less than 25 saloons in the city of Jerusalem which was at that time under the rule of the Turks and was inhabited by Mohammedans. Since 1918, under the rule of Great Britain, a Christian nation, there are 1200 saloons. We will not be able to enforce the eighteenth amendment unless we have public sentiment in its favor. The people must be educated to the knowledge that there is a prohibition law. That is what the Anti-Saloon League of Washington is doing.

Create Student Body Fund

At a student body meeting today a decisive measure was passed. In the future P. L. C. will have a standing student body fund. This has never been the case before. A charge will be made at registration which will create this fund.

The proceeds so derived will go toward defraying all active student body affairs. The fact primarily in mind was that it will enable a delegate to be sent to the Lutheran Students' Union each year without special levy.

RECITAL TO BE GIVEN

On Friday evening June 3 a "Music Night" will be given by the Pacific Lutheran College choir, mixed octette, male quartette, and pupils enrolled in the music department. The recital will be given in the Trinity Lutheran Church, where the new Reed Organ will add a decided feature to the evening.

The date, June 3rd was decided upon in preference of June 4 as previously announced, due to the alumni picnic which will be held on the latter date.

MANY EXCHANGES ON MAST FILE

Nine College Papers Find Mast Worthy of Repetition

As the work of the staff of the Morning Mast will soon be completed and as this is the last issue that will be published by the present staff we wish to take this opportunity to thank all the schools who have been exchanging papers with us. We wish to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to these schools because we feel that through their interest in desiring to exchange with us we have had a better paper and that from them we have received aid both inspirational and technical. We have enjoyed reading their columns and it gave us an opportunity to compare their results with our paper and showed up how to improve our issues.

We wish to especially thank the following schools for they have printed portions of our paper in their issues and we appreciate this fact greatly for it shows that they are taking an interest in our school and our work: "The Trumpet" of Central Wisconsin College; The Pleasant View-Pleasant View Lutheran College, Ottawa, Illinois; The Informant, Silverton High School, Silverton, Oregon; The Waldorf Lobbyist, Waldorf College, Forest City, Iowa; The Black and Red, Watertown, Wisconsin; Seattle Pacific News, Seattle Pacific College; The Lincoln News, Lincoln High School, Tacoma; Puget Sound Trail, College of Puget Sound, Tacoma.
