

VOL. 9 NO. 27 Pacific Lutheran University, April 30, 1971

Nursing Anniversary, Mayfest On Tap Saturday

See pages 3, 4. . .

Mayfest dancers

ROUNDTABLE

Arthur Bearse and Tony Lauer (bus.) and Marlen Miller (econ.) attended the PNW Regional Economics Conference April 26-27 in Pullman. . . Dwight Oberholtzer (soc.) has edited a book, "Is Gay Good?", published this month by Westminster Press. . . he wrote an introductory integrating chapter. . . John Schiller (soc.) was in New York early this week for the council on Social Work Education's Board of Director's annual meeting. . . he is chairman of the committee on undergraduate education. .Later in the week he, Bill Gilbertson (soc.), Bob Green (p.t. soc.) and Layne Winklebleck of the American Lake VA Hospital were in New Orleans for the final reporting session of four U.S. School (including PLU) which have spent the last 18 months an a VA project to develop undergraduate field experience education models. . . Gilbertson and Winklebleck reported on the results at PLU, which will be included in a Council on Social Work Education publication. . . Alice Napjus (educ.) will serve on a panel discussing the writing of children's books at a meeting of the Seattle Freelance Writers May 4. . . Kay Hirst (prov. office) will be back soon following successful surgery and a pleasant convelescence in Florida. . . Ray Klopsch (Eng.) attended a meeting of the PNW College Teachers of English in Ellensburg April 23-24. . . Bill Johnson (math) participated in a meeting at Reed College April 16-17 at which former and current math students discussed their discipline, jobs and related matters. . . Johnson presented a 15-minute panel statement on "Math and Morality: Why Study Math in 71?". . . Virginia Nichols (formerly cent. ser.) gave birth to a baby boy, Timothy Darin, April 21. . . Congratulations! . . . Gundar King (bus.) will be participating in meetings of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business and its Western counterpart next week. . . Business and vacation will take Howard Vedell (bus. mgr.) to Arizona through May 10. . .Jerry Kracht and Larry Meyer (mus.) judged bands and orchestras at the SW Washington Instrumental Contest in Olympia last week. . . On Friday Meyer conducted a brass and stage band clinic for SW Washington high school students, hosted by Tenino. . . Saturday he was a judge at the Bremerton Area Music Festival. . . Members of the religion faculty, with the exception of ailing David Knutson, attended the American Academy of Religion convention in Portland Friday and Saturday. . . Knutson spent last week on the shelf with the flu. . .he's back this week. . .Jean Holm, secretary in the University Relations office from 1963-65, has been named administrative assistant to the vice president for student affairs at the University of Washington. . . Members of the President's Council and their spouses attended an informal party Monday evening in the President's residence honoring Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Wiegman on the occasion of their 19th wedding anniversary. . . A. Dean Buchanan (v.p. bus. & finance) and Howard Vedell (bus. mgr.) will attend the annual convention of the Western Assocatiion of College and University Business Officers in Phoenix May 3 to 5. Buchanan is a member of the WACUBO executive committee which will meet for one day previous to the conclave. . President Eugene W. Wiegman will chair the NAPCU (Northwest Association of Private Colleges and Universities) executive committee meeting this Thursday (April 29) in Portland. . . Buchanan will attend as an advisory member. . .

* * * * *

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Among the books that have unhappy endings is the family checkbook. --anon.

* * * * *

BIRTHDAYS

Emmet Ecklund and
Betty Brown	May	1
June Murphy		2
Edna Meade		3
Jim Peterson		5
William Giddings and
Richard Moe		7
Val Berntsen and
Anna Fuller		8

* * * * *

SCHOOL OF NURSING CELEBRATES 20th YEAR TOMORROW Nursing alumnae from around the country will be on hand for the 20th anniversary celebration of the PLU School of Nursing Saturday, May 1.

Activities begin at 10 a.m. in the University Center with a report and discussions of the PLU nursing program emphasizing the celebration theme, "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." The visitors will also have an opportunity to inspect the College Union Building, currently being remodeled to house the School of Nursing and Department of Art, beginning next fall.

Following a 1:00 p.m. luncheon, a meeting will be held to discuss the possibility of formation of a nursing alumnae organization at PLU. From 3-4:30 p.m. there will be a coffee hour in the Regency Room, U.C., to which faculty and staff are cordially invited.

Dr. Jo Eleanor Eliott, former president of the American Nurses' Association and currently director of nursing programs for the Western Interstate Council for Higher Education, will be featured speaker at a 5:30 p.m. banquet for nursing alumnae and their spouses at the University Center.

* * * * *

DEADLINE DATES

Attn: Deans, Directors, Division Chairmen, Department Chairmen. May 3 is the deadline for proposals for Summer 1972 Schedule.

QUEEN CORONATION, MAYFEST DANCERS HIGHLIGHT CELEBRATION Coronation of the 1971 May Queen and folk dances by the PLU Mayfest Dancers will highlight the 37th annual Mayfest at PLU Saturday, May 1.

The gala event will be held in Olson Auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

The 40 Mayfest Dancers have a repertoire of folk dances from a dozen different countries throughout the world, though there is still emphasis on Scandinavian dances. Advisor to the group is Audun Toven, assistant professor of foreign languages and a native of Norway.

Dances included on the program originate from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Poland, Israel, Italy, Mexico, Rumania, Russia and Austria. Nancy Schultz and Kathy Watness have assisted Toven in teaching the new dances to the group.

The queen and her court are selected from among candidates representing the women's residence halls on campus.

* * * * *

PLU APPOINTS NEW UNIVERSITY MINISTER

Rev. Gordon W. Lathrop of Darlington, Wis., has accepted an appointment and call as university minister at Pacific Lutheran University, PLU President Eugene Wiegman announced this week.

Rev. Lathrop, who has served as pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Darlington since August 1969, will take over his new duties at the beginning of the 1971-72 school year.

He was extended the call following recommendation from the PLU Religious Life Council to President Wiegman, and approval of the executive committee of the Board of Regents.

A native of Glendale, Calif., Rev. Lathrop, 31, was ordained in 1969 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Agoura, Calif. He received a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy from Occidental College, Los Angeles, in 1961, and a bachelor of divinity degree, cum laude, from Luther Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., in 1966. He completed doctoral studies, cum laude, at the Catholic University of Nijmegen, the Netherlands, in 1969.

He has been extremely active in church and civic organizations since 1957, when he was international president of the Key Club, Kiwanis-sponsored high school service organization. He has taken part in many youth functions of the Lutheran World Federation, National Council of Churches and the American Lutheran Church.

In making the announcement, President Wiegman stated that students, faculty and administrators had been involved in making the recommendation. "Because of the commitment of the University--as well as that of its individual members-to the Christian tradition," Dr. Wiegman said, "the University Minister plays a vital and unique role on the campus."

Rev. Lathrop's wife, Carolynne, holds a bachelor's degree from Hood College, Fredrick, Md., and a master's degree from the University of Minnesota.

The Lathrops have one child, Nathaniel, 4.

Appointed as an intern pastor to serve with Rev. Lathrop during the 1971-72 school year was James Beckman. He is a graduate of Wartbury College and is currently studying at Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa.

* * * * * *

"An Arab Point of View on the Middle East Conflict" will be the topic of a talk by Dr. Elias S. Shoufani at Pacific Lutheran University Friday, April 30.

The program will be held in Eastvold Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Dr. Shoufani is an assistant professor of history at the University of Maryland. Between 1967 and 1969 he was a visiting assistant professor of Arabic language and literature at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Born in Palestine in 1932, Dr. Shoufani is a 1962 graduate of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem with a major in Islamic civilization. He received his Ph.D. from the Princeton University Department of Oriental Studies.

He has written numerous articles and has lectured extensively throughout the United States on various aspects of the Arab-Israeli conflict.

PROFESSOR TO AIR ARAB VIEW OF MIDDLE EAST CONFLICT YOUNG TO PRESENT FINAL ORGAN SERIES RECITAL Unique combinations of organ and brass music will highlight a recital by Michael Young, noted Vancouver, B.C. organist-composer Friday, April 30.

The recital is the final program of the 1970-71 organ series cosponsored by PLU and Trinity Lutheran Church in Parkland. It will be presented on the Schicker organ at Trinity at 8 p.m.

Seattle brass musicians will be featured with Young in the world premiere of Duncan Robertson's "Theme and Variations, Fugue and Epilogue" for two horns and organ, and Young's own 1969 composition, "Music for Organ and Brass," opus. 17. The brass musicians are Dan Harrington and David Leavens on Trumpet, Scott Wilson and Jens McManama, horns, and Dan Van Gasken, trombonist.

A four-part brass choir joins Young in the 16th Century work, "Canzona noni toni" by Gabrieli, and two trumpets complement the organ in a 16th Century sonata by Aldrovandini.

Young, an organ instructor and concert performer who holds a master's degree in organ study from the University of Washington, will also play Bach's "Prelude and Fugue in G Major" and "Allegro for a Mechanical Organ" by Beethoven. Part of the "L'Orgue Mystique" of Charles Tournemire, "Fanfare for Organ" by Richard Proulx and Choralpartita on "Salzburg" complete the recital repertoire.

A native of San Francisco, Young studied organ with Walter Eichinger and Edward Hanson. His compositional training has included study with John Verral, Greg Short, and the late George Frederick McKay.

Tickets for the recital are available at the door.

* * * * *

Johanna (Jody) Schwich of Murray, Utah, a junior at PLU, was named Woman of the Year by Associated Women Students of PLU at the annual AWS Awards Program Tuesday evening.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Schwich, Jody is majoring in biology at PLU. She has served this year as president of AWS, as a student legislator and has been active in women's sports. Recently she was elected executive vice-president of ASPLU.

She starred on the PLU women's basketball team that compiled a 13-4 record this past season.

Other awards presented included the Ladies of Kiwanis Award, which went to Linda Nelson of Gig Harbor, Wa.;

PLU HOLDS AWS AWARDS PROGRAM Kristine Peterson of Ione, Ore. was awarded the Emily Goldsbury Scholarship of the Tacoma Pierce County Public Health Nursing Association; and Lynn Murray of Portland, Ore. was presented the Mu Phi Epsilon Alumnae Scholarship.

The Pierce County Medical Auxiliary Scholarship went to Geraldine Cowell and Wanda Boltz. Martha Dorris received the PLU Faculty Wives Scholarship.

The Tacoma Women of Rotary Scholarship was awarded to Nancy Larson of Tacoma, Elizabeth Boltz was honored by the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease organization of Pierce County, and Norma Glover received the Tacoma Altrusa Club Scholarship. Terry Monson was the recipient of the Delta Iota Chi Scholarship.

Janine Galbraith of Seattle was elected president of the AWS Council for the coming year. Carol Silflow is the new vice-president; Kristine Baldwin was elected activities vice-president; Nancy Peters is the new secretary and Suzanna Rooks is treasurer.

New members of Spurs, a national sophomore women's honorary, and Tassels, a senior women's honorary, were also announced.

* * * * * *

Following a successful spring concert tour and a delightful Homecoming Concert, the PLU choir of the West prepares for a concert appearance at the Seattle Opera House Sunday, May 2.

The program, which begins at 8:15 p.m., features the works of Daniel Pinkham, Heinz Zimmerman, Bach, Henrich Schutz, Karl Heinrich Graun, Ralph Vaughn Williams, Samuel Barber and Norman Lockwood.

The 69-voice choir is under the direction of Maurice Skones.

* * * * *

More than 150 political scientists will be here Friday and Saturday, April 30-May 1, for the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Political Science Association, hosted by PLU.

Among the current issues to be covered by the gathering in panel discussions are "Bureaucracy and Comparative Defense Systems, USA-USSR," "Politics/Anti-Politics of the Young" and "Changing U.S.-European Relations."

CHOIR OF THE WEST TO SING AT SEATTLE OPERA HOUSE

PLU HOSTS NW
POLITICAL SCIENTIST'S
ANNUAL MEETING

Washington State Attorney General Slade Gorton will be the featured speaker at a Friday evening banquet at the PLU University Center. His topic is "The Politics of Reapportionment in Washington."

Panels and symposiums will be held all day Friday and Saturday morning. Discussion chairmen Friday include Henry D. Kass, Eastern Washington State College; Lynn Iglitzin, University of Washington; Edgar S. Efrat, University of Victoria; Hans J. Peterson, Northern Montana College; and Lawrence Pierce, University of Oregon.

Saturday's panel chairmen are James E. Holton, Lewis and Clark College; Frank Munk, Portland State University; and Lowell Culver, Governor's State University, recently a political science professor at PLU.

A Saturday luncheon will feature PNWPSA president Robert Y. Fluno of Whitman College. His topic is "The Floundering Leviathan: Pluralism in an Age of Ungoverna ility."

In charge of meeting arrangements is Dr. Donald Farmer, chairman of the PLU political science department.

* * * * *

Dr. Walter Schnackenberg, chairman of the history department, is currently on a tour of the Far East for a series of educational conferences.

Schnackenberg, who will return early in May, is representing the Franklin-Pierce School District, which he serves as school board president.

His trip is taking him to Vientiane, Laos; Osaka, Tokyo and Kyoto, Japan; Bangkok, Thailand and Hong Kong.

* * * * *

Soloists and a guest ensemble will perform with the PLU Concert Band Thursday, May 6. The program will be held in Eastvold Auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

A woodwind quintet will be heard with the band in a composition by Newell Long. Daniel Dube, a PLU sophomore and a student of David Robbins, will be featured on timpani. Along with the band he will play a composition by Alexander Tcherepnin.

Elaine Biovoino of Federal Way will play Mendelsshon's "Piano Concerto in G Minor." Miss Biovoino was chosen for this performance from a group of participants in a recent competition sponsored by the Tacoma area Music Association.

SCHNACKENBERG ON SOUTHEAST ASIAN TOUR

CONCERT BAND
PERFORMANCE FEATURES
GUEST SOLOISTS

John Brye, a freshman student of Larry Meyer and a band trumpet soloist, will play Ron Collier's "Lyric for Trumpet."

Selections by the Concert Band include Alfred Reed's "Jubliant Overture," "Italian Symphonic Concert March" by Bonelli and Ballet music from the opera "Prince Igor" by Borodin. The popular Norwegian march "Valdres" will conclude the program.

The band is under the direction of Prof. Gordon O. Gilbertson.

* * * * *

STUDENT'S PARENTS LAUD UNIVERSITY'S PROGRAMS, LEADERSHIP Dear President Wiegman:

"We have received many letters of communication from the University and your office since our son, Richard A. Libsack, has been a student. He is now ending his freshman year.

"This letter is to express our appreciation for what I feel is a very considerate feeling you have for the parents as reflected by these pamphlets, letters, etc., that we receive.

"My wife and I have also attended some of the school activities and feel that we have become well acquainted with the sincere efforts and programs the University has adopted to insure the direction of their young people.

"Every since our son made this University his personal choice, it has been a very pleasant experience for the entire family. We have another child, a daughter, who is also considering Pacific Lutheran University upon graduation from high school next year.

"Your university, programs, educational offering, moral leadership and out-standing staff are an example for the whole State to be proud of especially in these trying times. We wish you continued success."

Thank you,

Ralph H. Libsack Bremerton

* * * * * *

WHO'S WHO ON CAMPUS (Counseling and Testing)

Seiichi Adachi

Gary Minetti

Judy Baker

Linette Sparacino

Al Albertson

CINDERMEN WIN TWO; COMPETE IN VANCOUVER SATURDAY In a final tuneup before the Northwest Conference Track Meet, Lute thinclads will join 500 athletes at the 23rd running of the Vancouver Relays Saturday, May 1 in the Canadian metropolis.

* * * * *

PLU captured fifteen blue ribbons in the Linfield meet of April 17, losing only two events, the long jump and triple jump, to score a 106-39 decision over the Wildcats.

Coach Paul Hoseth, who is gearing his training program towards the conference meet rather than attempting to peak for a dual meet, was pleasantly surprised at the outcome of the April 24 PLU-Seattle Pacific meet, won by the Lutes 83-1/2 to 61-1/2.

Randy Shipley upped his shot mark to 50'll" while a second school record was penned to the books--a 42.9 clocking in the 440 relay featuring Bernard Johnson, John Oberg, Neil Martin, and Glen Higgins.

* * * * * *

TENNIS TEAM
ANTICIPATES
CONFERENCE MEET

The availability of two top netters, freshman Ted Carlson, idled since April 6 with mononucleosis, and senior Dave Anderson who, with a 4-1 record, has missed four of the past five matches due to class conflicts, holds the key to Coach Mike Benson's hopes of breaking a six match losing streak and making a strong showing in the conference meet May 6-7-8.

* * * * *

'FOURS' WIN; HOST SMALL COLLEGE REGATTA SATURDAY PLU served notice on the west coast rowing powers that last year's Western Sprints title and trip to the IRA Regatta at Lake Onadaga was not a fluke by winning their third consecutive four-man-with cox race Saturday at Corvallis.

The Lutes out-stroked Oregon State and Oregon in a triangular meet.

UPS and PLU will jointly host Washington, Seattle U., Oregon, and Western Saturday at American Lake.

* * * * *

BASEBALLERS HALT NINE-GAME LOSING STREAK Going nowhere in the Northwest Conference standings, the Lutes nonetheless continue to harass the league leaders, dealing a crippling blow to Lewis & Clark's chances of winning the NWC title with a 2-1 extra inning win last week. PLU nearly duplicated the feat on Saturday coming from behind to knot the score against first place Linfield before bowing 7-6.

In other games, the Lutes lost to Willamette 5-1; Whitman 5-2, 5-4, and 1-0; College of Idaho 5-2, 3-1, and 4-1; Lewis & Clark 10-2; Linfield 4-0.

* * * * *

Sara Officer's women's track squad plays host to Seattle Pacific, Washington, and Central Saturday at Spanaway Park's Sprinker Complex.

The Lutes finished sixth at the Northwest District meet at Central April 24. At a triangular meet in Ellensburg April 17, Sandy Fairley won the 3,000 meter event. Nancy Myklebust placed second in the shot.

* * * * * *

Lyle McIntosh has been elected president of the PLU Lettermen's Club for the 1971-72 school year. The basket-ball captain from Anacortes will be joined in office by Phil Lavik, Vice Pres., Kirk Sandburg, Treas., Bruce Willis, Sec., and Terry Finseth, Program Chairman.

* * * * *

LADY LUTES HOST TRACK MEET THIS SATURDAY

LETTERMEN ELECT 1971-72 OFFICERS