

PACIFIC LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

REPORT TO INVESTORS
1986-87

President's Message

It is a pleasure to report to you on the progress and value of your investment in Pacific Lutheran University. That the value continues to increase is a result of programs and facilities made possible in significant measure by an expanding base of donor support.

The academic quality of the institution, according to a recent survey conducted by my office, is the primary reason students enroll and remain at PLU. This is borne out by the fact that again this year, with a total enrollment of 3,857, and in the face of generally declining enrollments elsewhere, more undergraduate students chose to attend PLU than any other independent school in the Pacific Northwest. The same holds true regarding our sister institutions of the church; PLU is now the largest Lutheran university in North America. The growth trend is being sustained for the coming year, with pre-registration and payments up 6.5%.

Various professional schools within our academic structure are evaluated on a regular basis by state and national accreditation teams. This year our School of Education was scheduled for evaluation; the final report from state accreditors drew highest ratings. Likewise, as an indication of quality, our history of having one Fulbright scholar per year was maintained. In comparison, a number of larger state institutions have not had one for a decade.

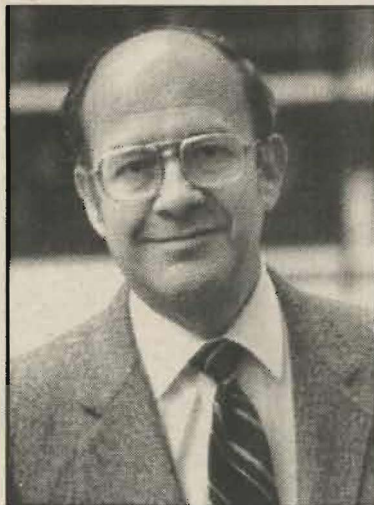

Gifts, grants and other financing have funded the much-needed third floor addition to the Robert A.L. Mortvedt Library, which was completed on target this summer. Formal dedication took place in conjunction with our Opening Convocation on September 8. With approximately 350 study spaces, the third floor is equipped with state-of-the-art laser disk resources and technical equipment. It is a superb facility, enhancing an already outstanding library. We are indeed grateful for assistance from all sources and persons to complete this project.

As the university grows in quality, diversity, and service, it is apparent that a great many people care about its progress. This year was a record year in the area of financial assistance, as you will note from the text of the report. To all who join us in supporting Pacific Lutheran University in any way —by gifts, good will, student recruitment, attendance at university events, and by your continuing prayers — on behalf of the entire university community, I express our most grateful thanks!

Sincerely,

William O. Rieke

William O. Rieke, M.D.

Those who watch things happen
Those who wonder what happened”*

The pages of this Report to Investors list the names of many friends and alumni who are among those who have helped to make things happen at Pacific Lutheran University this year. They have demonstrated in a very tangible way that they care about students, instruction, programs and the campus with the result that PLU will continue to be a place of growth into its next century of service.

Some of the things that “happened” as a result of support of friends and alumni include:

... the fact that the Q Club topped the 1500 member mark this year. Generous Q Clubbers contributed a record breaking $774,274 this fiscal year. This is a healthy increase of 17.7% over last year.

... twenty-four new members were added to the Heritage Society. The membership, those who have included PLU in their will or created some other type of deferred gift, grew from 162 to 186.

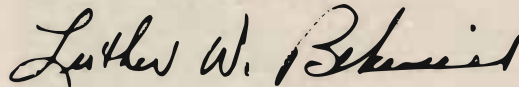

... the fact that the face value of Irrevocable Deferred Gifts written on behalf of PLU this fiscal year topped a million dollars, $1,007,919. These include two life insurance policies, two charitable remainder annuity trusts and eight gift annuities.

... that the number of donors who support PLU each year continues to grow at a significant rate. For example in 1982, 4603 persons made a gift, in '84 the number grew to 6950 and last year 9164 donors made a contribution.

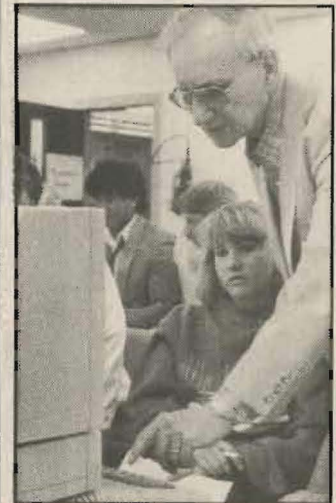

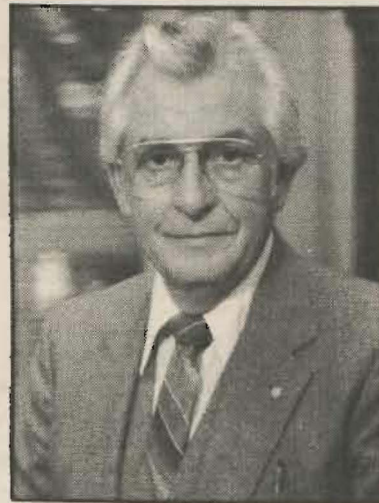

The development directors and staff are very much aware of the fact that growth and progress are the consequences of the clarity and value of the mission of the University — the mission is supported by committed investors — those who want to make things happen at PLU. These investors span all of the University's constituent groups and contribute not only investments of money, but also talents, energies, advice, direction and prayers. I am grateful for all of them.

In 1990-91, the University will celebrate its centennial under the theme “Educating for Service - Century II.” A new program to accomplish a series of goals including a new music/fine arts center, other campus building improvements, scholarship endowment, and special program needs will be announced in the year ahead.

As we anticipate the centennial and the second century of service, I invite your review of the Report to Investors and your continued support.

Vice President for Development

June Summer Sessions added a new "early term," the popularity of which contributed to a new record summer school enrollment. PLU's was the only summer school in Washington State to show an enrollment increase.

■ The PLU endowment fund was increased by $1.5 million as the result of a challenge from Lutheran Brotherhood Insurance Company three years ago. PLU successfully matched LB's two-for-one $450,000 challenge.

■ PLU athletes completed the 1985-86 season with national rankings. Women's teams were second nationally in all sports; men's teams ranked tenth. Photo A

July PLU played host to over 13,000 visitors attending conventions, workshops and camps. PLU-sponsored highlights included an Elderhostel for senior citizens and Summer Scholars, Middle College and sports camp programs for high school students.

■ Seven PLU chemistry majors participated in a summer research program funded by grants from the Ben Cheney and National Science Foundations and PLU's Robert C. Olsen Chemistry Fund. They invested over 400 hours of lab time under the direction of professors Larry Huestis and Fred Tobiason. Photo E

■ Three exchange faculty began studies at PLU. They were Hu Jungjong, an economics professor from Zhongshan University and Xie Yongnain from Chengdu University of Science and Technology, both in the Peoples Republic of China. M. P. Iyakorwa came from the University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Photos F, G

August PLU announced the receipt of a half million dollar gift from Dr. Carlisle Dietrich of Parkland. Earmarked for construction of the $2.1 million dollar Mortvedt Library third floor addition, it was the largest single unrestricted gift in the university's history. In September the Board of Regents named the new addition in honor of Dietrich. Photos B, C

■ Dr. S. Erving Severtson was appointed acting vice-president of Student Life. The long-time PLU psychology professor and clinical psychologist succeeded Dr. Mary Lou Fenili.

■ At summer commencement exercises the first four graduates of PLU's master's program for Japanese teachers of English received their degrees.

September Sixteen students departed for Chengdu University of Science and Technology in the People's Republic of China under terms of an exchange agreement formalized the previous year. Photo D

■ The first Project Head Start program in unincorporated Pierce County opened as an affiliate program at the PLU Family and Children's Center. Photo H

■ Kari Lenz of Minnetonka, Minnesota, became the first Presidential Scholar to enroll at PLU. She was one of 141 in the nation. There were also 10 Merit Scholars in the freshman class, up from three the previous year.

■ Already the largest undergraduate institution in the Northwest, PLU became the largest Lutheran institution in North America as the result of a six percent enrollment increase over 1985-86. Total enrollment was 3,857.

■ The PLU Board of Regents approved a measure calling for divestiture of funds from companies doing business in South Africa. A study showed that some 20 percent of PLU's $4.5 million endowment was invested in mutual funds which may have investments in companies doing business in South Africa.

H

October Dr. David Olson, dean of the School of Physical Education, was appointed NAIA representative to the United States Collegiate Sports Council. He is past president of the NAIA.

■ Vice-President Emeritus Milton Nesvig was named 1986 Distinguished Alumnus. Alumnus of the Year was mathematician Dr. Wally Rogelstad of Milwaukie, Oregon. Photo I

■ Mortvedt Library acquired the first of more than 30 new video disks. The new high tech equipment features a 20th century video encyclopedia, bibliographies of more than 2 1/2 million book titles, National Museum of Art works and much more. Photo J

November PLU President William Rieke was ranked among the top five percent of college presidents nationwide according to a study funded by the Exxon Foundation. He was one of 165 presidents named by peers from among the more than 3,300 colleges nationwide.

■ Twenty-five PLU athletes were named NAIA Academic All-Americans. That is one of every 20 of the 510 in the nation; the national average is 1.4.

■ The Board of Regents approved the establishment of a Center for the Study of Artificial Intelligence by the computer science department. The Center is intended to increase cooperation between local industry and PLU in the development and application of artificial intelligence technology in the Northwest. Photo K

■ Summer Sessions dean Richard Moe was installed as president of the North American Association of Summer Sessions.

December The annual Christmas Festival Celebration featured concerts in Spokane, Seattle, Portland and Tacoma's Pantages Centre. Photo N

■ Elbert Baker, publisher emeritus of the Tacoma News Tribune, was the recipient of an honorary doctor of humane letters degree during mid-year commencement exercises. He was cited for leadership in journalism and publishing for more than 50 years and service to the Tacoma/Pierce County community. Photo I

■ Anne Marie Larson of Everett was crowned 1986 Lucia Bride at the 39th annual Scandinavian Christmas celebration Dec. 12. The elementary education major is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Duane Larson. Photo M

■ A team of PLU math students participated in the Putnam exams, an annual North American competition. In the spring they were notified that they finished 35th (top 10%) among the more than 350 schools participating.

■ The PLU Q Club set a new annual giving mark of $750,000.

■ During the first six months of the school year Northwest Lutherans pledged $175,000 to fund scholarships for Namibian students at PLU. Campaign coordinator Ron Tellefson was appointed PLU director of church and university support.

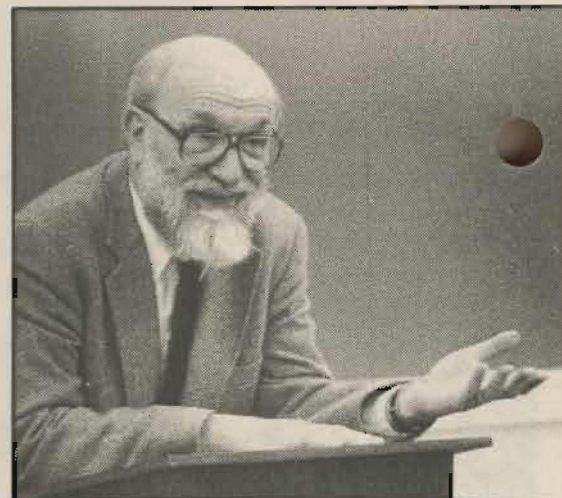

■ Author Stephen Becker and theologian George Forell joined the PLU faculty as distinguished visiting professors for the spring semester. Photos E, F

■ Religion professor Joanne Brown was named to the U.S. delegation to the Oxford Institute of Methodist Theological Studies (July/August 1987) in Oxford, England. She was one of 50 selected worldwide.

■ Yukiko Sato, a PLU fine arts major from Tokyo, Japan, placed fourth in a nationwide photo contest which attracted 15,000 entries. Competition was sponsored by Photography Forum magazine.

■ Fifty-seven PLU Norwegian students were honored February 17 by the Tacoma-Alesund (Norway) Sister City Committee. Several hundred Tacomans attended the gala downtown reception.

■ Three Salem (Oregon) civic and professional leaders were honored by PLU Feb. 19. Receiving PLU President's Medals were Maurice Burchfield, retired Stayton (Oregon) school superintendent; Eric Lindauer, attorney and former chair of the Salem Downtown Development Board; and civic arts patron Delia Miller.

F

March A China and the Church symposium featured two internationally known China scholars: Dr. Andrew Hsiao, president of Hong Kong Theological Seminary, and Dr. Richard Bohr, president of the Midwest China Center in St. Paul, Minnesota.

■ The PLU forensics squad placed first in Region I Cross Examination Debate Association competition. It later placed 23rd among 322 teams in the national tournament. Professor Ed Inch was team coach.

■ Q Club directors voted to create a Junior Q Club, open to young people and recent graduates 26 years of age and younger. A junior membership is $120 a year, half the normal gift amount.

■ PLU Parents of the Year, honored at the annual Parents Club banquet, were James and Betty Duck of Wenatchee and Al and Marilyn Hanson of Mission Viejo, California.

■ The 60th annual meeting of the Northwest Scientific Association was held on campus March 26-28. Dr. Donald Malins of the Pacific Northwest Research Foundation was featured.

■ Scene, PLU's quarterly periodical, received the Gold Award in competition sponsored by District VIII, Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). The Mast, the weekly student newspaper, placed second in Sigma Delta Chi Society of Professional Journalists competition.

April Dean Pinto, a December 1986 graduate, became PLU's 14th Fulbright Scholar in 12 years. He began studies in German and business administration this fall at the University of Karlsruhe in Karlsruhe, Germany. Photo G

■ Internationally-renowned architect Pietro Belluchi was the recipient of a PLU Distinguished Service Award. His designs during a 62-year career included the Juilliard School of Music, Bank of America's world headquarters, and nearly 50 churches. Photo H

■ The Pacific Northwest Region of the American Academy of Religion held its annual meeting on campus April 23-25. Feminist theologian Elizabeth Bettenhausen of Boston University was a featured speaker.

May Dr. Adefemi Sonaike, a Nigerian educator and journalist, discussed communications technologies in Third World countries during a PLU visit.

■ Richard Sparks was one of eight conductors nationwide to receive a full conducting scholarship from the Association of Professional Vocal Ensembles.

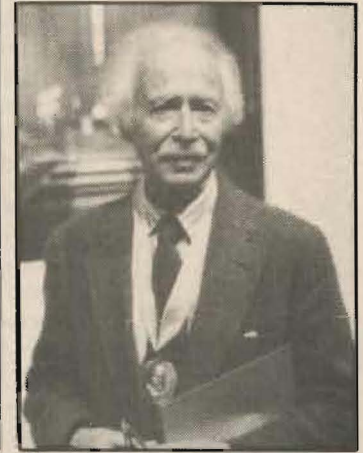

■ Perry Hendricks Jr., vice-president for finance and operations, and four faculty members retired. Faculty members were English professor Ray Klopsch, 33 years of service; Harry Adams, physics, 29 years; Tony Lauer, business administration, 20 years, and Lenora Weirick, 12 years.

■ Four choirs, three conductors, two orchestras and three soloists combined talents to perform Benjamin Britten's War Requiem in the Puget Sound area for the first time in 20 years. A Seattle reviewer called the Department of Music production "inspired."

■ The Q Club reached its goal of 1,500 members by the annual banquet May 9. There were a record 255 new members, and gifts increased 17.7 percent over 1985-86. Photo I

The Annual Fund

Gifts to the University's Annual Fund provide vital support to every area of the institution. Scholarships, faculty salaries, library resources, and facilities' maintenance represent some of the more significant areas where Annual Fund gifts are put to use.

Taken together with other income sources, Annual Fund support subsidizes the cost of education by approximately $600 a year for each student who attends the University. These gifts strengthen our ability to provide quality academic programs and help the University operate in the black.

While all Annual Fund gifts are important, the University has encouraged increased support through a special donor organization known as the PLU Q Club. Donors qualify for membership when their unrestricted and/or scholarship gifts to the Annual Fund reach $240 or more a year.

The PLU Q Club

The Q Club was started in 1972 to thank friends and alumni of Pacific Lutheran University who gave vitally needed unrestricted gifts to the University's Annual Fund. These gifts help secure PLU's commitment to Quality education.

Q Club gifts

- help underwrite the cost of education for each student
- provide scholarships and financial aid to needy students (nearly 70% of our students both need and receive some financial assistance)
- allow the University to keep a balanced budget without sacrificing quality.

To help accomplish these goals, members commit themselves to a specific amount of support each year. There are four recognized giving levels:

Member	$240/year	$ 20.00/month
Associate Fellow	$480/year	$ 40.00/month
Fellow	$1000/year	$ 84.00/month
Senior Fellow	$2400/year	$200.00/month

NOTE: Alumni and friends age 26 and under may join the Q Club as Junior Members at $120/year or $10/month.

The Q Club began with 100 members who contributed $51,000 to PLU in 1972. Today, there are over 1,500 members who gave over $774,000 to the University during the last fiscal year.

The following pages list the names of alumni, friends, businesses and churches who have supported the Annual Fund at Pacific Lutheran University during the past fiscal year, June 1, 1986 through May 31, 1987.

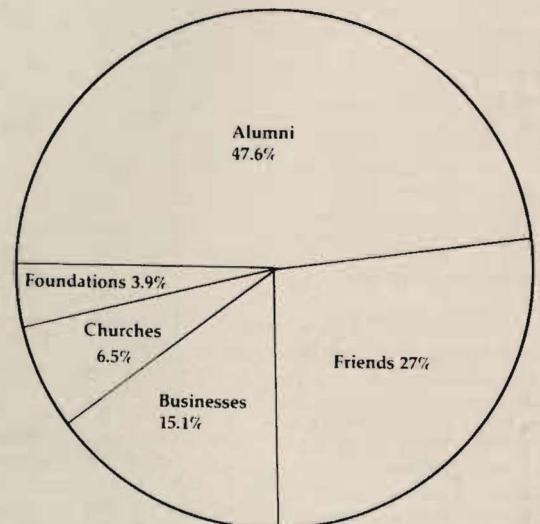

"If one leaves PLU unchallenged and without new perspectives on our world, then that person did not take full advantage of the community's commitment to integrating faith and practice. PLU is fertile ground in which to enhance and expand one's faith."

"P.U. is special, not only because of challenges handed out in the classroom, but also because professors are available to help with the challenges they have given. It's a warm atmosphere for learning, even when it gets difficult."

"Academics are much more interesting because of the attention professors are willing to give to students. Teachers have rearranged their time to meet with me during my free time. When a professor is willing to try that hard, I am motivated to try harder."

"When you're just finishing high school, it's hard to think about careers and college. Yet, in this day and age, we have to think seriously about going out on our own, making choices about education or work, and our future—where do we fit in? We want to find careers that fit us, that we enjoy, and that will be rewarding.

Alumni Annual Fund Honor Roll of Donors By Class

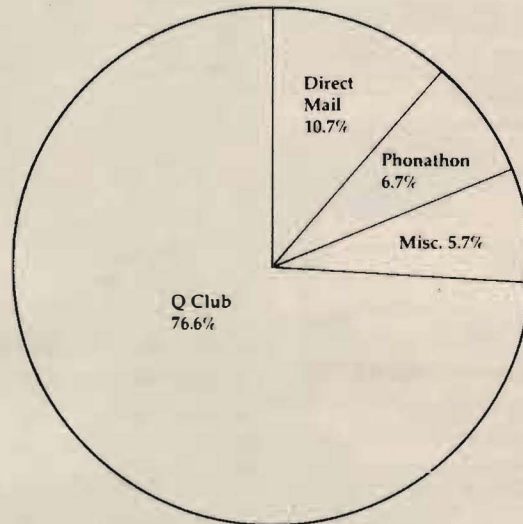

Annual Fund gifts from PLU alumni help preserve and strengthen the quality of the educational programs which the University offers. These contributions help with everything from scholarships to faculty salaries and library books to athletics.

This past fiscal year 2,835 PLU alumni (about 17.7%) made a gift to the University's Annual Fund. These contributions, which we call the Alumni Annual Fund, are recognized in this special Honor Roll of Donors.

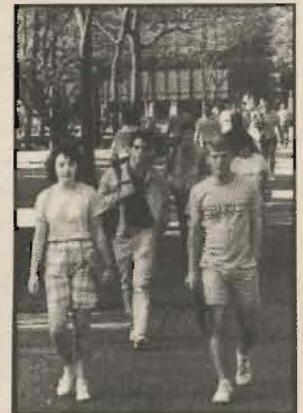

Our goal over the next 3-4 years is to increase the number of alumni who give to the Annual Fund to at least 20%. The number or percentage of alumni who give—as opposed to the size of their gift - is important because it is considered by many major donors and foundations as a key "barometer" of support from those who know us best.

The second criteria is, of course, total dollars contributed. As the chart to the right indicates, over ¾ of alumni gift income is generated by individuals who are able to contribute at the Q Club level of $240 or more a year.

The following lists recognize Alumni Annual Fund Donors by class. Where two alumni are married, the asterisk (*) indicates that their gifts have been split between their respective classes.

Why is the percentage of alumni who give each year to the Annual Fund important?

One of the first questions which foundations and major donors ask of us is this:

How many of your alumni regularly support your institution?

Our answer to that question often determines the size of their gift.

The Heritage Society

Members of the Heritage Society are those individuals who have included Pacific Lutheran University in some type of deferred gift-bequest, charitable trust, revocable trust, charitable gift annuity, life insurance, pooled income fund agreement, or a gift of a residence or farm with a retained life estate.

Membership is not based on the amount of the deferred gift. The sole criterion is the remembrance of Pacific Lutheran University in one's estate planning.

Capital and Endowment Gifts 1986-87

Gifts to Pacific Lutheran University's capital and endowment programs help fund new construction, major campus renovation projects and provide endowment monies for scholarships and general operations.

The following list, represents donors who made contributions to capital and endowment purposes during the fiscal year June 1, 1986 through May 31, 1987.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this list. If an error is found, please notify us so that we may adjust our records.

Seven PLU chemistry majors spent their summer doing research at PLU's Rieck Science Center under auspices of grants from the Ben Cheney Foundation, National Science Foundation and PLU's Robert C. Olsen Chemistry Fund.
