Pierce County candidates debate

The PLU Forum will host a free debate for the three candidates for Pierce County Executive at 7:30 pm on Oct. 16 in the CK. Republican incumbent Doug Sutherland, Democrat Wendell Brown, and Independent Dale Washam will discuss county issues such as crime, property taxes and growth at the 90-minute debate. The PLU Forum is new on campus, and was created to promote awareness of public policy issues and provide a forum for community debate.

Hop a ride

If you carpool, ride the bus, telecommute, walk or bike to work at least once this week, you'll participate in Rideshare Week. The Oct. 14-18 event is a grassroots, volunteer program to help reduce traffic and pollution problems in Washington state. Complete a participation form and return it to Nancy Scott by Oct. 23, and in addition to the bonus of clean air, you'll be eligible for PLU, county and statewide prize drawings.

'The Foreigner'

University Theater opens the 1996-97 season with "The Foreigner," a play by Larry Shue starring a shy, insecure individual who pretends not to understand or speak English, with hilarious and perceptive results. Directed by William Becvar, the show starts at 8 pm on Oct. 17-19 and 25-26, and at 2 pm on Oct. 27. Tickets are $4 for students, faculty & staff, and can be reserved at 7762.

Come down to the Cave

The welcome mat rolls out for everyone at the Cave. Staff and faculty are reminded that the Cave is not just for students, but everyone is encouraged to attend events sponsored by classes, professors or students. Call Cave director Nate Sears, 4027, with questions. The Cave lunch hours are 11 am-12 pm Mon.-Fri. Evening hours are 6 pm-12 am Mon.-Thurs. and 6 pm-1 am Fri. & Sat. Starting Oct. 28, evening hours will begin at 7:30.

Help ghosts and goblins

South Park Community Center seeks volunteers to help with its annual Monster Mash Bash on Oct. 25. Last year, more than 200 children attended the party, so many volunteers (in costume, of course) are needed to assist the little ghosts and goblins with carnival games and a Haunted House. Orientations will be held soon. Either individuals or groups can participate. Call the Volunteer Center, 8318.

Pastors for Peace

Join the Pastors for Peace in their journey to promote peace in and take humanitarian aid to Mexico and Central America. PLU students will be collecting medicines and school and office supplies, as well as raising $600. Watch for the collection sites in the dorms and around campus. Checks may be made out to IFCO-Pastors

Documentary explores identity

Marlon Riggs, prize-winning filmmaker and gay black man, and his colleagues explore spirituality, sexism and homophobia in the documentary "Black Is, Black Ain't." The film begins at 6:30 pm on Oct. 14 in Ingram 100, with a panel discussion following at 8 pm. For info., call Beth Kraig, 7296, or Lisa Marcus, 7312.

Cave hosts debate

Debate Watch continues with the second presidential debate at 6 pm on Oct. 16 in the Cave. Free ice cream is served and a faculty-moderated discussion will follow. The Cave would like to thank the Political Science department and Prof. Dick Olufs for participation in the Debate Watch and for support of the Cave as a student-oriented service organization.

Business seminar

A "Financial Options for Business" seminar will be held on Oct. 18 in the World Trade Center. The conference, which will run from 8 am to 4:30 pm and cost $35, will include topics such as preparation for a securities offering, options for business in the securities market, and making a decision to sell. The seminar is sponsored by the Educational Consortium of the Economic Development Board for Tacoma Pierce County and the Washington Development Finance Authority. For registration or information, call the Center for Executive Development, 7330.

Flu bug exterminators

Flu shots will be available for PLU faculty, staff and students at the Health Center later this month. The vaccine is recommend in particular for people over 65 and for anyone with a chronic health condition, especially of the heart or lungs. A limited number of doses is available on a first-come, first-serve basis for $10 with a required PLU ID. Questions? Call the Health Center, 7337. The vaccine is available without an appointment on:

Oct. 23, 8-10 am & 11 am-12 pm

Oct. 25, 1:45-3:45 pm

Oct. 28, 8:15-11:45 am & 1:45-3:45 pm

For a shorter wait, call 7337 to schedule an appointment on the following days:

Oct. 23, 1:45-3:45 pm

Oct. 24, 8:15-11:45 am & 1:45-3:45 pm

Oct. 25, 10-11:45 am

Oct. 29, 8:15-11:45 am.

for Peace. Call James Predmore, 7243, for more info.

Parking reminders issued

When hunting for a parking spot in the rush for work or class, keep in mind the following parking restrictions to avoid a $28 county parking ticket. To further avoid parking problems, make use of spaces in Olson, Rieke and Tingelstad lots that are also open each day.

No parking within 30 feet upon the approach of a stop sign.

No parking in front of a public or private driveway or within five feet of the curb radius leading to it.

No parking within 20 feet of a crosswalk.

No parking within 15 feet of a fire hydrant.

You must be parked within 12 inches of the curb.

All parking, unless otherwise posted, must be parallel and in the direction of traffic.

No parking in a fire lane, by any red painted curb, or any place signs prohibit.

Music Attractions

The University Jazz Ensemble will perform classical and contemporary jazz selections for an evening of toe-tapping, hand-clapping, finger-snapping good time vibrations under the direction of Roger Gard (Music) at 8 pm on Oct. 15 in MBR.

The Lila Moe Memorial Scholarship Fund for women returning to college in the arts will be the beneficiary of a recital by pianist Richard Farner (Music) at 3 pm on Oct. 20. The program includes works by Mozart, Rachmaninoff and Scarlatti.

The University Symphony Orchestra under direction of Jerry Kracht presents Masterpiece Series I with works by Mozart and contemporary composer Hanson at 8 pm on Oct. 22. Featured are flutist Zart Dombourian-Eby (Music), oboist Bernard Shapiro (Music), hornist Kathleen Vaught Farner (Music) and bassoonist Francine Peterson (Music).

Lisa Ganung '87 (Music) won the district finals of the National Association of Teachers of Singing at the University of Washington on Sept. 21. This weekend she will take part in the regional competition at PLU, starting at 1:45 pm on Oct. 19. If she continues on, she will compete in December at the NATS national convention in St. Louis. The national winner takes home $10,000 and a spotlight on stage in an individual recital at the 1998 convention in Toronto. For competition, Ganung memorizes 18 songs. When it's her turn on stage, she chooses the first work to sing, then the judges pick the next pieces for her and she sings as many as 15 minutes will allow. At district competition, Ganung sang three-and-a-half pieces before time was called.

Margaret Worley (Computing & Telecommunications) attended a conference sponsored by the Association for Computing Machinery's Special Interest Group on University and College Computing Services, a group devoted to the technical activities of its members. The conference was titled "The Cyclone of Change: Natural Disaster or Carnival Ride?" and covered issues directly related to the technology explosion at PLU.

Christmas Break: All university offices will officially close at noon on Dec. 24, marking Christmas Eve as the start of Christmas/New Year's break. The university will reopen at 8 am on Jan. 2.
