OLD MAIN — This is the most popular building on campus — the four top floors comprise the girls' dormitory. The main floor contains classrooms and offices, including the president's and the dean's offices, while the basement is used for the dining hall and health center.

CHAPEL-MUSIC-SPEECH — The latest building added to the campus is the CAS building, which was dedicated on May 1, 1952. It serves as the medium for all music, speech and religious activities on campus.

STUDENT UNION BUILDING — Popularly known as the SUB, this building is located on the south side of the campus. Since its completion in 1947, it has been the hub of the social life on campus with the lower lounge and the Coffee Shop serving as the favorite "hang-outs."

SCIENCE HALL— It houses all of the sciences in its well-equipped laboratories, as well as serves as a meeting place for many campus organizations.

LIBRARY — This center of study was erected in 1939 and completed in 1948. Classes in the social sciences meet on the first floor, while the reading room composes the entire second floor. Incidentally, it is one of the favorite rendezvous spots.

GYMNASIUM — The center of all inter-collegiate, intramural and extra-curricular activities is the new Memorial Gymnasium, which was constructed on the lower campus in 1948.

Dr. S. C. Eastvold

The Saga Staff wishes to dedicate the 1953 edition to Dr. S. C. Eastvold. Dr. Eastvold will close his tenth year as president of Pacific Lutheran College on June 4, 1953.

During Dr. Eastvold's incumbency as president, the institution has advanced in every field. A modest sum has been added to the endowment of the college, but most of the additional investments have been made in the buildings on the one hundred and twenty-five acre campus.

The new buildings that have been constructed during Dr. Eastvold's leadership as president and business manager of the college include the Student Union Building, the Science Hall, the Gymnasium, the completion of the Library, and the complete remodeling of Old Main. The latest building to be added is the Chapel-Music-Speech building.

Looking back on these ten years, one wonders what new advances the next ten years will bring to the campus under Dr. Eastvold's able leadership.

To all of his fine works, his sincere guidance and to the many contributions in the future, we dedicate the Saga of 1953 to our president, Dr. S. C. Eastvold, on his tenth year at Pacific Lutheran College.

Why Go To College?

Not all young people ought to go to college. Some go to college for fun, to take a four-year loaf, to prepare for a lucrative job, to arrange for marriage, or to get ready for a life of usefulness.

An education is a process which begins at the cradle and ends at the grave. Education is life. It is the largest subject that can engage our attention.

Christian education moulds character, produces culture, and imparts knowledge. The difference between no education and an education may be likened unto the difference between the iron ore in the rough state and the steel that goes into the watch spring. Christian education fits men for the largest, fullest and noblest living.

A human being is not pure and right in proportion to the amount of knowledge he possesses. Some of the worst criminals who have been the monsters that have damned society have been found among the best chemists, geologists, or artists. Some of the greatest scientists are found among the Communists of Russia, or among the Nazis of Germany. The great gulf that exists between a Communist in Russia and a Christian in America is the gulf that exists between atheistic Marxism and the Biblical conception of man.

Christian education enlarges life, intensifies enjoyments, and gives direction to the whole of life. At the top of everything, a Christian education, when rightly accepted, will blend time with eternity. The only knowledge that is of final importance is the knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, Who shed His blood on Calvary and rose again for our justification on Easter morning.

May God grant this conception to all those who call Pacific Lutheran College their "Aim and Master."

—S. C. EASTVOLD.

Alumni Association

For the first time in its history, the Pacific Lutheran College Alumni Association has provided itself with a full-time Executive Secretary in Mr. O. J. Stuen, who is professor and librarian emeritus at the college since September 1, 1952. Mr. Stuen has given great attention to making up an accurate mailing list of two thousand former students and graduates.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic Alumni Reunion meetings ever to be held on the campus was convened on February 21, with Roy E. Olson, Director of Public Relations, as the chief speaker.

Alumni Board—ROW 1: Joanna Terapitz, Ole J. Stuen, Executive Secretary; Elizabeth Stuen, Bill Ramstad, President; Vicki Rasmussen, Secretary; Olaf Hagness. ROW 2: Harry Lang, Rhoda Young, Clarence Lund, Carl Furdoo, Roy Olson, Bud Markov, Margot Spa, Senior Representatives; Robert Lutness.

Keeping PLC before the public and the public for PLC was the job of Mr. Roy E. Olson, Director of Public Relations, for the college. His position carried him to North Dakota with the Chair of the West and to many high schools in the area helping students select the college they will attend.

Eunice Swenson, Ramona Warbur and Marilyn Trumble help to keep the office running smoothly.

Serving the entire campus in more ways than just the intellectual one is the library. Here students gather at most any time of the day or night to do research, study, sleep and occasionally talk. This indispensable part of Lueville is under the supervision of Mr. Frank Haley, assisted by Miss Gertrude Tingelstad.

Mr. Mykland

Bookstore

Supplying PLCities with everything from books to sweat shirts is the campus bookstore located in the Student Union Building. Here, students may purchase the necessary textbooks, notebooks, pencils, and, of course, the "Short Outline" for each class. The bookstore is under the supervision of Mr. Albert A. Mykland assisted by a staff of competent students.

The coronation ceremony, the ~~game~~ the parade, the Powder Puff Bowl and the various teas all combined to carry out the Homecoming Theme. "The Cutes Welcome You in '52." The play "Good Housekeeping" was presented Saturday evening for the enjoyment of the returning alumni. No one will deny that the defeat of Eastern 20-19, climaxed the week-end to make Homecoming, 1952 a memorable one.

Working hard to make the campus festive.

Christmas on Campus

Cuts were found in many precarious positions as they decorated the campus in preparation for the Yuletide season. When all the buildings were appropriately adorned, students gathered in the SLD for the annual Christmas party. Perhaps the climax of the season was the presentation of the "Christmas Carol" and the evening of caroling when over a hundred voices joined in song before the Nativity scene on the president's lawn.

Omnibus of the Arts

The guests began to arrive on opening night.

In its initial presentation, Omnibus of the Arts, the Student Drama-Music Festival opened with the band appearing in formal concert on Thursday evening, February 26. House lights dimmed on a capacity audience Friday evening as the student production of "Job" was presented. To complete the festivities the Choir of the West was featured Saturday night in their final concert before leaving on tour of the Northwest. Following the concert they were honored by a reception in the Student Union Building. And so, Omnibus of the Arts became an institution on the PLC campus.

Garden of the West

Proudly the "Garden of the West" glided down the street representing PLC in the annual Puget Sound Valley Daffodil Parade. In 1949, PLC was proud when this island of beauty returned winning first-place honors in the Education division.

Fashioned with masses of bright yellow daffodils, the float contained a small replica of the CMS building in its center, while the back portion was a scene depicting the change from the covered wagon days to the skyline of the modern city in honor of the Washington centennial. As the crowning feature "Miss Evergreen," Darlene DeJardin, took her place at the front.

Bob Johnson organized the construction of the float, while Robert L. Johnson, Industrial arts professor, spent many hours in actual construction, assisted by a number of students.

The Drama-Music Festival

Due to the outstanding success of last year's Festival, the administration proposed to make this an annual event on the campus.

The weekend of festivities, May 7, 8 and 9, began with the coronation of Grace Foege as May Queen. For the formal opening Thomas L. Thomas, renowned baritone soloist, presented a program of sacred music.

The next afternoon found Walter Abel, star of stage, screen and radio, entertaining with Shakespearean readings. That evening Mr. Abel appeared in "Noah," a religious fantasy, assisted by the college drama department.

The Seattle Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Dr. Stanley Chapple, was heard in afternoon and evening concerts Saturday. Soloists in the afternoon program were Bonnie Jean Douglas, violin virtuoso, and R. Beard Fritts, professor of music at the college. The evening program was augmented by the 150-voice student chorus with Frederick L. Newburn, soloist. Closing the weekend was a worship service held in the Chapel auditorium.

Music Library

During 1952 and part of 1953 PCLites impatiently watched the development of an abiding room at the back of the second floor in the Chapel-Music-Speech Building. As the room took form, more and more music majors were seen peering in the windows. In its final phase the Music Library appeared, beautifully decorated, equipped with separate earphones for each booth and stocked with a host of fine records. Students came here, request a record of the librarian, and enjoy their favorite musical selection.

Radio

ANNOUNCERS— M. Hendrickson, O. Johnson, J. A. Ydeman and J. Doughty.

With the modern facilities of the new Chris Krudzen Radio Studio, radio production has become a well known and unique feature of campus activities. Programs are produced each week over the networks of KJMT and KAO in Tacoma and KGY in Olympia.

A special Sunday broadcast is presented by Dr. Eastvold each week and is released over the three networks at different times during the day. Director and producer of this program is Mr. Karl.

"Campus Showcase," a weekly Thursday evening presentation, is a student production that is carried on in an informal setting featuring campus talent. Fred Doughty is producer and director.

Additional programs are given other than the regular weekly broadcasts. The play, "Murder's Paw" was presented under the direction of Anita Hellbaum. Also, the classes in radio production are allowed time to put their training into actual practice.

By

Pastor

Grewenow

February 8 to 14 was designated Spiritual Emphasis Week on the campus with the Reverend George J. Grewenow, pastor of Queen Anne Lutheran Church in Seattle and a member of the American Lutheran Church clergy, as guest speaker. Pastor Grewenow began his series of "Confronting Christ" with a chapel talk Monday and elaborated on it throughout the week in evening meetings, devotions at the Goema, and other chapel talks. He was to be found most any time of the day eating in the boarding club with the students, telling of his interesting experiences over a cup of coffee in the Coffee Shop or counseling with students in the Student Body Office.

Ken Johnson, District President, discusses plans for the year.

Meals can be fellowship hours, also.

Retreats

Some fifty Pacific Lutheran College (PLC) students attended the annual fall retreat held at Camp Ghermby, near Yakima. With a theme centered around that of the 1952 Advent, "Summoned to Serve," the group of some 150 students from the Pacific Northwest Region met in worship, Bible study, recreation, and seminar discussions on vocations.

A record number of PLC students traveled to Lutherhaven on Lake Cushman in Astoria for the spring conference-retreat in April.

Progress

Beginning with a small frame building and enormous amount of faith, Dr. S. E. Eastvold made his hopes and dreams become a reality on the college campus. In the spring of 1951, after much planning and preparation, the actual land clearing for a new chapel began and gradually a beautiful brick building took shape.

February of 1952 saw the dedication of the new Chapel-Music-Speech Building, the finest of its kind on the Pacific Coast. To mention only a few things, it houses a stage which has no comparison in the Northwest, sound-proof practice rooms, a radio studio with the latest of equipment, and an auditorium seating 1238. Still not satisfied with its accomplishment, the college faculty became the owners of a Casavant organ by the fall of 1952. A concert featuring Virgil Fox, New York virtuoso, officially dedicated this fine instrument. Completely a product of private capital and undaunted faith, this building stands as a monument to the loyal supporters of Pacific Lutheran College.

A GREAT YEAR IN FOOTBALL

We won the conference . . .

. . . and the Totem Pole.

The Inspirational Award from Coach Harshman to next year's co-captains, McGrath and Jim [Name]

Assistant coach Mark Salzman

Head coach Marv Harshman

Assistant coach Bob Nielsen

A slow start and a triumphant finish probably best describe the Lutes' '52 football campaign. Held winless for their first three non-conference starts, the Gladiators bounced back with a 7-7 tie against Western in the conference opener. This comeback indicated the gathering momentum, and the Lutes rolled undefeated through the remainder of the season, marking up such formidable scores as 45-9 and 41-7. For the first time since 1947 CPS fell to the Gladiators, and the prized Totem Pole came into our possession. The score of the year came at the hands of Eastern in a thrilling upset that saw the Lutes emerge as 20-19 victors.

Versatility was the keynote of the Lute squad. Glen Huffman, an early-season center, was switched to the quarterback spot, where he performed brilliantly. It was a year that saw Miles Barnes, Magnuson and Forsland carrying the ball, and scoring. But the only star on the team was one Marv Harshman, whose coaching ingenuity led his men to football laurels. Under his able leadership they emerged from the darkness of three defeats to the light of victory.

Head Coach Marshman

BASKETBALL

Coach Marv Marshman had to depend heavily on freshmen during his seventh year at PLC. Although they were lacking in experience, the Lutes capitalized on enthusiasm and came up with a tie for second place in the Evergreen Conference, as well as placing second in the Washington State N.A.A. Tournament.

Captain Glen Huffman was the only holdover from last year's starting squad, and was the only senior on this year's quintet. Besides being an excellent floor leader, Huff was invaluable because of his defensive ability. This was Glen's fourth year on the maples, and he has lettered in three sports each year.

The Lutes this year were a well-rounded organization. There were many outstanding performances, but, in general, a good job was done by all.

Perhaps the season's record of 16 wins in 26 starts doesn't look too impressive, but for games against such teams as Seattle University and CPS, the Lute Group was often composed of all freshmen with the exception of Huffman.

Junior Varsity Basketball

This is Coach Marv Harshman's second year as head baseball coach, and his team started out the season in fine fashion by sweeping a double-header from the Seattle Pacific Falcons.

This year the Lutes will play a full 20-game schedule according to the limit set by the Evergreen Conference. All home games will be played at Cheney Field, formerly known as Tiger Park. The schedule consists of nine double-headers and two single contests.

The squad will be paced by such returning lettermen as Glen Huffman, last year's leading hitter; Dick Larson, Bob Ross, Art Swanson, Jim Ball and Andy Helling.

Leading the pitching staff will be Vern Hanson and Bud Lester, both of whom saw action last year.

At this stage of the baseball season, with the material on hand, it appears that the Lutes will continue to bring home their share of the wins, and have a highly successful season.

 ROW 2: Coach Mark Marshman, Glenn Huffman, Bob Bass, Gordon Hunsby, Joe Bell, Bob Lester, Jack Hoover, Don
 Coffey, Larry Anderson, Vern Hansen, Larry Eggan

Baseball

Once again Coach Mark Salzman guided his Junior Varsity basketball squad to a very successful season. The Jayvees lost only six of over twenty starts, which included two out of three from the CPS JV's.

The old saying that a team is only as strong as its reserves was proven at PLC this year. Vern Hansen and Al Gubrud were shifted to the varsity squad in mid-season, and Larry Eggan, Paul Forseth, Jack Hoover and Jerry Schimke saw some varsity action.

If this season's record is any indication of the future, PLC should continue to turn out top basketball teams, from the experience and development gained in junior varsity play. We'll be watching for these players to move forward and take positions of the varsity squad in the future.

Track

It has only been three weeks since the Lute cindermen began their turnouts, but they are rapidly rounding into shape. Coach Salomon should be looking forward to a fairly successful season.

Three returning lettermen make up the nucleus of this year's squad. They are Dick Brown, in the 550, hurdles and mile runs; Ole Magnuson, in the 800 and 1000; Ted Slick, in the mile and two-mile. Other men who are showing promise in pre-season turnouts are Dave England, Stan Jacobsen, Garnet Lund and Roger Matheson.

The thunders opened their season with a narrow 48-43 victory over the CPS Lancers. The only contest played at the Sagadahoc 10 press.

Golf

The golf team this year was led by student coach Len Nelson (not pictured). Their season will consist of six matches, and will be climaxed in the Evergreen Conference Golf Tournament, to be held in Spokane.

Tennis

With the advent of spring, the formation of the tennis ladder is well under way, but is not yet firmly established. Student Coach Pete Luvas presently occupies the top rung, and is the coordinator of the team. On tap for the tennis team are eleven matches and a tournament, to round out a full schedule. The first match with Central was rained out as the Lutes trailed, 1-3. The second match found the Lutes victors over Seattle Pacific, 6-1, but they were downed by Seattle U., 7-0, in the third.

Central Parkland's Football Champions

Intramurals

Pictured above is the representative team of the Central Parkland, that is leading the leagues in the total points as the annual goes to press. That they will emerge on top in the finish seems inevitable, as they are leading the second-place team, Tacoma, by more than 100 points. Central placed first in touch football, College League basketball, and in the singles of the table tennis tournament to amass their lead.

Intramural sports are becoming increasingly popular on the campus, largely due to contributions and efforts of Mark Selmer. Under his guidance, the intramural program has been reorganized, and greatly improved. The standings of the intramural teams as the Saga goes to press are:

Central	844.9
Tacoma	688.2
Ivy Hall	565.3
Eastern	532.2
Clover Creek	477.7
Western	135.1

Mixtures of feelings are running through my mind right now as I sit here in the Saga office with the last-minute details being completed by the staff. Sadness mixed with just plain relief that the 1953 Saga is finally completed. Anyone know of a job for a worn-out editor?

Seriously, I want to thank everyone who has helped or cooperated with me to make this annual a reality. To Max and Doris McKewen, who worked night and day, always willing to take another picture—even taking pictures I had forgotten to order. To Ron "Saga King" Oaugless for all the editorial advice in addition to keeping me from going wild on expenditures. To Marcel Fink, my Associate Editor, who put in so much time behind the scenes gathering information and details that you could almost see her head spinning like a top. Beverly Green took the difficult Organization section and handled it so smoothly, the first thing I knew it was completed—all this while ~~continuing~~ teaching and editing the Blazing West. Ed Hakanson would be a rich man if he had a penny for every minute spent mounting all the portraits of the Classes and Administration section. Janet Franklin always seemed to be there to write that extra bit of copy that was needed in about five minutes. Bill Dunning and Nick Glaser handled the Sports section in fine style. Not to be forgotten are Miss Huglen and Betty Brown who interrupted their regular work to compile lists and facts that were necessary. There are a multitude of others, such as Jack Hoover, Martine Stuhmiller, Mildred Van Buren and Delores Beck, to name a few, who helped to make a job a little easier.

The Art staff of Kathy Hennrich, J. P. Carlstrom, Dolores DeJardine and Bob Randoy always seemed to be able to take my vague ideas (?) and put them into something concrete. You can thank J. P. for the cover of the 1953 Saga.

Mr. Saue from Lawman & Hanford, Inc., the lithographers, gave me advice on this new printing process that we are using for the first time at PLC. Patience was very evident when it came to deadlines that we never quite seemed to make.

The main thing, though, is that you, the students, enjoy the 1953 Saga for the: & what the staff and all concerned have been striving toward.

—MARILYN QUARF, Editor

The cost of the Saga is far more than the amount received from both subscriptions and the Saga Carnival.

Thus, again, we have turned to the business men of this area. Very graciously, through advertising, they have made the 1953 Saga possible. They have supported us, LET US SUPPORT THEM.

There's Security In Knowledge

The enjoyment and fulfillment of life is governed a great deal by our assurance of security. Yet security is only obtained through knowledge. Keeping this in mind, your education should be treasured—it is probably the most important step in the development and building of a greater understanding of FREEDOM, SECURITY and importance of THRIFT.
