No Mooring Mast Until April 5th

No Mooring Mast will be printed next week because of mid-semester tests. Staff members will rest for a week from the rigors of meeting deadlines and gathering news. The next Mooring Mast will be issued on Friday, April 5.

Student U. Auditorium To Be Recreation Center

The auditorium of the Student Union building will be transferred in the near future into a student recreation center.

Three ping pong tables and two shuffleboard games will comprise the new equipment. Also a cabinet will be installed for the storage of paddles, balls and other necessary equipment.

Upon the recommendation of the Dean of Women, Miss Wickstrom, and the Dean of Men, Mr. Eklund, the funds were appropriated to make the new center possible. The Social Activities committee authorized the recommendation after studying the social life problem for some time.

The SUB auditorium is not being used as often with the completion of the new C-M-S auditorium, so the "rec room" will be open most of the time. At present, the plan is to have it open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. during the week. The weekend schedule has not yet been decided.

Alpha Phi Omega, men's honorary, will move the equipment when necessary, such as for meetings in the auditorium, etc.

Rules for the use of the games will be made by the Student Council and announced at a later date.

Saga Carnival Success; Queen Marciel, King John Reign

King John Liming and Queen Marciel Fink reigned over the "most successful" Saga carnival presented in the twenty-two years of its existence.

The financial proceeds cleared on the event were over $1,600, an amount that will aid greatly toward publication of this year's Saga.

Stan Borgeson's entertaining program on Friday evening brought 900 people to the CMS building. Proceeds were doubled over any previous year.

The Spur Farm, a picture-taking booth sponsored by the PLC sophomore women's honorary, won first prize. Spurs were awarded $10 for their clever and popular booth by three judges: Professor Karl, Miss Wickstrom, and Miss Berge.

Pretty Marciel Fink, gracious freshman from Odessa, Washington, reigned as queen over the weekend's activities.

John Liming, handsome senior from Vancouver, Washington, ruled with kingly dignity. John majors in business administration and is past president of Alpha Sigma Lambda.

As a result of the Saga Carnival's success, the annual is already in the process of being printed.

The time and effort involved in making this year's carnival an unforgettable event is praiseworthy. Chairmen Paul Wangsmo and Al Fink are largely responsible for its success.

Music-Speech Fest To Close With Sunday Program

Sunday, May 3, will mark the end of the first Music-Drama Festival with the formal dedication ceremonies of the Chapel-Music-Speech building.

At 11 a. m. there will be a regular morning worship service with Dr. J. P. Pfeuger, head of the religion department, preaching, and Dr. H. L. Foss, president of the board of trustees and president of the Pacific District of the ELC, as liturgist.

The combined choirs of the Tacoma and Pierce County Lutheran churches, under the direction of Professor Karl E. Weiss, will present several anthems during the formal dedication ceremonies in the afternoon. Dr. Seth C. Eastvold, president of the college, will deliver the dedicatory address.

Mr. Joseph Edwards, founder and former director of the Choir of the West, will be the guest conductor of the choir when its Silver Jubilee concert is given that Sunday evening. Mr. Malmn will join with Mr. Edwards in leading the group.

The credit for presenting this festival goes to Professors Karl E. Weiss and Theodore O. H. Karl. They have planned for and scheduled the artists and the Seattle Symphony that is to appear during the three-day festival, May 1, 2, and 3.

Malmn to Judge At High School Music Festival

Professor Gunnar J. Malmn, director of the Choir of the West, has been selected to direct a choral group of about 500 voices in concert in the Bremerton Armory this Saturday evening.

This will be the completion of a high school music festival. In addition to the 500-voice chorus, there will be an orchestra of about 150 pieces that will accompany the chorus.

On Saturday, March 29, Mr. Malmn will be one of the judges at a music contest in Edmonds, and on the following week, Mr. Malmn and Mr. Harley Christopherson will be judges at a similar festival, to be held from April 3 to 5.

See Ridiculous, Sublime At Theatre Night in CMS

As its first production on the CMS stage tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15, Alpha Phi Omega will present the formalized reading, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and the one-act melodrama, "Her Fatal Beauty."

This double feature will demonstrate a contrast in dramatic style. "The Barretts" will be presented in interpretative reading style, without the use of properties or costume. The actors interpret a written script, lending dramatic expression by vocal quality and gesture. The melodrama will display the exaggerated dramatic style which was popular during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

The story of the Barretts involves the love of the Victorian poets, Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett, and the domineering will of Elizabeth's neurotic father, Edward, who tries to direct the lives of his daughters.

The one-act play, "Her Fatal Beauty," presented for sheer entertainment, is an "old school" story involving the traditional bright-eyed hero, blue-eyed heroine and evil-eyed villain.

Tickets for the plays and refreshments will be available at the door, with 75 cents being charged for adults, and 50 cents for students.

Christopherson To Judge at Festival

Professor Harley Christopherson, director of band and orchestra, has been selected by the Northwest Washington Music Educators Association to judge band and instrumental ensembles at its competition-festival for high school students.

Host college for the festival, which will begin at noon Thursday, April 3, and conclude at the same time Saturday, April 5, is Western Washington at Bellingham. Several hundred high school students are expected to compete.

Christopherson had considerable experience in the public school music field before coming to PLC last year. He served as instrumental director in several large high schools, including Aberdeen and Mitchell, South Dakota; Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Boone, Iowa.

Student Guide Service Begins

To accommodate the increasing number of visitors to the campus, a student-guide service has been set up under the direction of the Student Council.

Chairman of the new group is Al Fink. Assisting him are Marion Cummings, Marciel Fink, and John Waldorf.

These students will have their class schedules in the Public Relations and Registrar's offices, and at the switchboard. "When a strange student or adult asks you for information, and you don't have the time to help him, contact one of the four guides. They will be excused from classes to acquaint the person with the campus and buildings," Al explained.

However, students are urged to help visitors whenever possible and not to push the load onto the guide service.

Carnival Chairmen Say "Thank You"

The Saga wishes to thank all the individuals and clubs who participated in the Saga Carnival of 1952.

Special thanks go to the faculty for their part in making the carnival a success.

The Lettermen's club deserves special recognition for their Saturday night minstrel show.

To the Spurs for ushering on Friday night.

The sponsors of the King and Queen candidates also deserve a vote of thanks.

We, of the Saga staff, feel the Carnival was a success because of the cooperation of the students and faculty, and again we thank you for your part.

—Paul Wangsmo and Al Fink.

Eastvold To Speak In Chapel Next Week

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, PLC president, will speak daily on the theme, "What Shall I Do Then With Jesus?" Matthew 27:22, in chapel next week, March 24 through 28.

This is to be a special week of Spiritual Emphasis. His daily themes, Monday through Friday, and including Student Body Day, will be as follows: Monday—"Shall I Be Indifferent?"; Tuesday—"Shall I Compromise Him?"; Wednesday—"Shall I Be Prejudiced?"; Thursday—"Shall I Desert Him?"; and Friday—"Shall I Crucify Him?"

In addition, Dr. Eastvold will deliver two talks on baptism on the next two Wednesdays. The time and place will be announced later. A special invitation is given to relatives and friends of the student body to attend the chapel services.

QUESTION of the WEEK

"What is your opinion of the new 'hostess' system for the girls' dorm."
 Norm Vorrick—I think it's a good thing because now we will have someone intelligent to talk to during the long wait for the girl to come down.
 Al Stolte—For some people it may be okay, and for others not.

Martin Simmons—I am of the personal opinion that the idea will not function to the greatest perfection because of the degree of odor emanating therefrom. (In short, the whole plan stinks.)

Ivas Tompason—It makes no difference to me. I'm no operator anyway.

Charlotte LeQua—Anything for culture!

Dale Roley—It sounds like a great idea. That is if the woman can stay out later.

Everett Savage—It seems to me that they are saving up an excessive bureaucracy when the present system works all right.

Carol Sletto—Let's face it, the bars are up now.

Marilyn Wallace—Sign out? When did we start signing out?

Garnet Lund—They have a better system at McNeil Island.

Kit Carson—I feel sorry for Mrs. Nick.

Darlene Bronkhurst—I don't believe the girls' dorm as it is now has the facilities to accommodate such a program.

Wally Rogelstad—It isn't a good idea because of the complications it will make concerning meeting your girl.

DPK Tolo Slated For Next Saturday

"Top of the Ocean" is the place, and March 29 is the date for the Delta Phi Kappa Tolo, one week from tomorrow.

The tolo, sponsored by DPK, is an annual affair in which the girls ask the boys to an evening composed of dinner and whatever they wish to plan after the dinner.

This year, chicken has been decided upon for the main course. "After five" or "dressed" dresses will be appropriate attire for the girls and suits and ties for the boys. Also corsages are in vogue.

Tickets may be obtained at any time from Marian Christensen, ticket committee chairman, or Carol Emerson. They are $4.75 per couple.

Helen Huswick, DEK social chairman, is also general chairman of the tolo. Other committee chairmen include Pat Kilmer and Carol Sletto, decorations and publicity, respectively.

State Seeking Welfare Visitors

Applicants are being sought in many areas of the state to fill Visitor positions in local county welfare departments, H. A. Lang, state personnel board supervisor announced today. These are merit system jobs which start at $242 with possible increases to $288 per month. Duties include the interviewing of applicants and recipients of public assistance grants.

College graduates or those who have had at least two years of college and two years of full-time work experience are eligible to apply for the written test. The examinations will be given by appointment in centers as

Prexy Says . . .

A special greeting goes out this week to our alumni association. We hope that their visit here this weekend will be an enjoyable one.

Many grads will be coming from far and near for old times sake to meet old friends and to greet new ones. This campus, more so than many others, is one of many changes. It is like a little seed sprouting out and growing up. It seems that every time our alumni returns we have something new on the campus, the latest of course is the new Chapel Music-Speech building. We, as students, are very proud of this building and I am sure the alumni are just as proud. I hope the alumni association will continue to grow as the college is growing. I also hope that the relationship between the alumni and students will continue to grow and become even closer.

Once again I would like to say welcome back, alumni, and I hope that you will come back more often.

—ART BROBACK

Feature Attractions

By Janet Franklin

Three PLCers enjoyed birthday parties lately. Girls on third floor of Old Main helped Marlene Wendt celebrate her eighteenth birthday Monday night.

Friends of Ed Kennedy surprised him last week with a birthday party in their apartment. The cake was placed on a revolving platter which played "Happy Birthday."

Surrounded by a happy circle of his many friends, John Osburn celebrated his nineteenth birthday with a party in the Coffee Shop.

Marilyn Salo, fiancée of Marvin Fink and student here last semester, was the object of a surprise bridal shower given by Marciel Fink last Sunday. Marilyn visited the campus for the Saga Carnival. She and Marvin will be married March 29 in Odessa.

A treasure hunt on fourth floor of Old Main Wednesday night led to Cordy Proctor's room where a picture and verse revealed Cordy's engagement to Stan Evers. Their wedding will take place in late summer.

Construction Soon To Begin on Float

The float which will represent PLC in the Daffodil Parade, April 5, will be under construction in the repair building behind the gymnasium on March 28, at 9 a. m.

Beginning next week the members of Alpha Phi Omega, Boy Scout fraternity, will ask for volunteers who have time to give to the construction and art work involved in building the float.

Gay Ness, general chairman, has revealed that the amount of material needed has been computed by "Professor" Robert Johnson. The promotion of the float has been backed by several merchants in the area, according to Johnson and Everett Bakke. They hope that all construction may be finished by April 3. The following day, all interested students are asked to help decorate the float with daffodils.

Sports Once Over

Spring sports have arrived on the PLC campus this week, along with more snow and hail. Things are shaping up in baseball, track, tennis and golf. The baseball outlook is the best, with 13 lettermen on hand to greet Coach Harshman. These men are holdovers from a good team, as last year's Lutes had an enviable 10 wins in 14 games.

The tennis outlook is also quite good, with LeRoy Spitzer as the mainstay. "Spitz" won all but one of his matches last year, including a victory against WSC.

The track outlook, however, is a different story. Turnouts so far have been disappointing. A good schedule of meets has been lined up, and positions on the Lute team in many events are wide open. Coach Salzman can use sprint men and hurdlers and the way things look now, very much previous experience is not necessary.

Harsh has given us a tentative baseball schedule which we will pass on to you:

- April 7—At McChord Field.
- April 15—College of Puget Sound, here (2 games)
- April 16—At Seattle University.
- April 18—Western Washington, here.
- April 22—Seattle Pacific.
- May 2—At College of Puget Sound.
- May 9—At Western Washington.
- May 13—At St. Martin's College.
- May 16—St. Martin's College, here.
- May 26—Seattle University, here.

Another game with McChord and two with Fort Lewis will also be worked into the schedule.

SPORTS SHORTS

Ken Eriksen, Lute hurdler of 1951, won the U. of Wash. middleweight boxing championship and was voted the Inspirational Award of the U. boxing team recently.

Overheard Prof. Ramstad telling about the early days of his career when the coaches in the small high schools of northern Minnesota played on the high school teams and a former college player would score as high as 80 points in a game. Understand they had nothing on PLC. When Dean Hauge first came to PLC as a professor, he was also a member of the Lute basketball team.

Punk Wolhueter is organizing the PLC golf squad for this year and this five-man team will have their first match on April 15 with CPS. Anyone who is interested should contact Punk.

Ole Magnuson, Lute footballer and trackster, is assisting in coaching track at Lincoln high.

Lute Thinclads Need Bolstering

The PLC track squad held their second week of turnouts with the squad still small and inexperienced.

Men who have looked good so far include Ted Sick, freshman miler from Grand Coulee Hi, Jerry Schimke, broad-jumper from Entiat Hi, and Dick Griswold, letterman javelin tosser. Other possible milers include Dick Brown, frosh from Aberdeen, and Paul Steen from Clover Park.

Bob Johnson and Bill Hash are out for the sprints and Ren McCracken, sophomore from Queen Anne, is running the 880. The weights will be handled very well by Ole Magnuson, Roger Larson, soph from Clover Park via WSC, and Bill Barnhart. Garnet Lund will be back this year in the high jump.

The first meet is at CPS on April 4, while triangular meets will follow between the Lutes, CPS and Western with each acting as host. UBC and St. Martin's may also enter these affairs.

The annual relays have been shifted from St. Martin's to Central and will be held at Central on May 3. The Evergreen Conference meet will be at UBC later in the season.

Gladiator Diamond Squad Begins Season. Turnouts With Lettermen For Every Position

with three years of experience at Luteville behind him, Wally Feax, letterman from last year's club, and Keith Fredmore, who lettered at CPS. The first base job will be in capable hands with Bob Ross, regular from last year, and Jim Ball, who played this position on the WSC frosh team, on hand.

The rest of the infield is also loaded with experience with George Nowad, nick back for his fourth year, and letterman Frank Karwowski, Dick Larson and Andy Helling available. Art Swanson has held down both infield and outfield positions. Other outfielders include Ron Billings, ball-hawking centerfielder from last year's team, and Gene Reiber, top hitter of the 1950 Lutes.

Some of the other members of the squad include Dale Roley, Bob Brokaw, Ed Morken, Chuck Forsland, Bert Wells, Al Fink, and Vern Hanson and Bud Lester, frosh pitchers.

A schedule is being drawn up to include games with the other colleges of Western Washington as well as some service teams.

Baseball practice got underway at PLC this week and although the weather greatly hampered workouts, the outlook seems very bright.

Coach Marv Harshman will have experienced men to draw from at every position. At catcher, he has Jack Johnson and Glen Huffman, both two-year lettermen who can also play the outfield. The all important pitching duties will be handled by Gerry Hefty.

Hole-in-One Event Slated For Mar. 31

The Lettermen's Club is sponsoring a hole-in-one golf contest beginning March 31 and lasting through the week.

Participants will tee off from the SUB towards Clover Creek. There will be a charge of 10 cents a ball or 3 for 25 cents, with clubs available for use.

The contest will last from 10:20 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. The closest ball to the hole each day will get a prize, while the best drive of the week will be awarded the grand prize.

Prayer Services

All-School Prayer Services will be held regularly throughout the remaining school year on Monday evenings at 6 p.m. in the Tower Chapel.

Previously the meeting was held only the first Monday of each month.

Chief: "Why didn't you turn out? Didn't you hear the bugle blow reveille?"

Recruit: "Honest, Chief, I'm afraid I'm going to be a flop as a sailor. I don't know one tune from another."

Intramural Volleyball Begins Monday; Plan Competition In Only One League

Volleyball will be in the limelight in intramural sports starting Monday night. The Central Parkland "Spikers" will meet one Ivy Hall squad while the Eastern Parkland "Jectors" will play the other.

So far only nine teams have been entered, so there will be only one league. The league will consist of a round robin tournament with play being held on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings.

INTRAMURAL SCHEDULE

- Monday, March 24
- 8:00 p.m.—Ivy Hall vs. Central "Spikers."
- 9:00 p.m.—Ivy Hall vs. Eastern "Jectors."
- Tuesday, March 25
- 7:30 p.m.—Central "Set Ups" vs. Eastern Parkland.
- 7:30 p.m.—Central "Married Men" vs. Clover Creek Hall.

Lute Tennis Squad Has Experience

The Lute tennis team is rounding into shape with some good prospects. LeRoy Spitzer, letterman and number one man on last year's team, is back for another season. Jim Jaeger, Dave Nesvig and Dave Kent are also experienced men on hand.

New prospects include Tom Warsinske, Peter Luvaas, frosh from Kennewick who won the Yakima Valley junior singles title, and Frank Olson, who was number one man on last year's Stadium Hi team.

The tennis players will travel with the baseball team and have nine matches already lined up, including Seattle U. and the U. of W. JV's. The all-conference meet will be at UBC, late in May.

Debaters to Travel To St. Martin's For Tournament

Members of the debate squad will travel to St. Martin's on March 28 and 29 to attend the two-day annual spring speech tournament. This year the squad will be defending their grand sweepstakes trophy and the grand trophies gained in the men's and women's division. If the main sweepstakes trophy can be brought back for a second time it will become the possession of the PLC department.

The divisions which will be entered will include Interpretative Reading, Oratory, Extemp., Impromptu and Debate. This year there will be no one-man debate. As usual there will be no junior and senior classes, only a division between men and women.

Those attending the tournament will be Jon Ericson, Bill Rieke, Alan Hatless, Dick Borrud, John Osborn, Janet Carson, Joanne Schief, Charlotte LaQua, Edith Engel, Janet Klippen, Joan Werley, John Rydgren, Carol Bracc, Sharon Morgan, Phil Mhyre, Joyce Genz, Everett Savage, Don Keith, and Bob Johnson.

Plastic Carpeting Installed In Chapel

Vinatred plastic carpeting with embossed surface has been installed on the two main chapel aisles and on the area between the front seats, the orchestra pit and the two exits. The carpeting was purchased from the General Plastics Manufacturing Company.

According to the manufacturer, "Vinatred is by far the most durable floor covering known; it is, in fact, the ideal floor covering for public buildings where hard wear requires a material of unusual durability that will insure years of wear." This flooring reproduces the texture, patterns and colors of carpeting.

Its non-skid surface is an important factor as well as its special easy to clean, sanitary qualities. Such a rug requires a minimum of time and expense to maintain. The product is fadeless, stainless, and cannot be damaged by various chemical substances or moths. It does not require waxing, polishing or other treatment and will not chip, flake or crack. Since it is cushioned with Vinatred foam rubber it has excellent indentation recovery.

"Revere" was the pattern selected by the committee for the chapel. This vinyl carpet has been cemented to a foam rubber padding, which in turn has been cemented to the floor. The carpet is supposed to last a life-time.

Students are asked to treat the carpet with care.

Singers Needed For Festival Mass Choir

About 125 P. L. C. students will have the privilege of singing with the Seattle Symphony orchestra when it appears here May 3 in the Music Festival, according to Gunnar J. Malmin, choir director.

Malmin said that the combined efforts of the Choir of the West, the Chorus, and the Madrigal group will be further reinforced by students who haven't the opportunity to sing in these groups but would like to participate in the festival.

The groups are practicing at 4:45 p. m. on Monday and Thursday of each week. Anyone wishing to attend these practices should contact Mr. Malmin.

The numbers which the choirs will sing are Bach's "Sleepers Awake," and Brahms' "Song of Destiny."

Reunion This Weekend

The Music department will be in charge of the Sunday afternoon program that is a part of the alumni reunion this weekend.

The PLC band, chorus and choir will be combined with the program to begin at 3 p. m. All the alumni members of the choir will join with the present choir in singing "Beautiful Savior."

At 11 a. m., Rev. Harold Hauge will be guest preacher at the 11 a. m. worship service at Trinity Lutheran. A member of the class of 1950, Charles Martin, will be soloist.

Tickets for the "Spring Reunion Banquet" will be on sale at the entrance of Old Main prior to the dinner. Special recognition to the graduates of the classes of '42, '32, '22, '12 and '02 will be given at the banquet. The dormitories will have open house from 4 to 6:30 p. m. Saturday.

Evangelist Merv Rosell and Troupe Present Unique Chapel Program

Evangelist Merv Rosell and three members of his troupe presented the gospel in a unique program during the Chapel period yesterday morning. Rosell and company are ending the first week of a two-week evangelistic campaign in Tacoma. Meetings are held nightly at the CPS fieldhouse.

Feature of the program given here was a chalk drawing of the Good Shepherd, masterfully done by Mr. W. Karl Steele. While the pianist of the group, Mr. Howard Skinner, provided background music, Steele rapidly created a likeness of "The Good Shepherd" on a portable background. It was lighted with ultra-violet light, and with the house lights off produced a luminous picture of Jesus tending His sheep.

Previous to the artist's part on the program, Hilding Halvorsen, active in youth work in Seattle, sang a solo, "The Unveiled Christ," and Rosell spoke "off the cuff" for a few minutes.

During his impromptu talk, the evangelist commented that "the countries in Europe that are now successfully combatting Communism and Atheism, are the ones in which the Reformation, under Martin Luther, took place."

Orders Now Being Taken for All-PLC Ring

All-college ring sales are advancing rapidly. At this time 48 orders have been taken.

The Balfour-Gov representative was here last Wednesday and Thursday and explained that the payment of $5 is due by April 1. He also said that it was asked that students sign up previous to making their down payment so there will be a more accurate indication of the total prospects.

He explained also that all type stones could be purchased and that faculty members were considered as purchasers. The alumni will also be made aware of the ring at their reunion here this weekend.

... There the hermit slaked my burning thirst

Tennyson: Holy Grail

Could he be found
Coke at the hermitage.
For Coca-Cola is everywhere
... and everywhere it has the same delicious and refreshing quality.
