

FORMER STUDENTS PLAN REUNION!

COLLEGE MENTO MAKE TRIP; WILL LEAVE ON FEB. 18

Coach Hauge Chooses Sannerud, Omdal, Christenson, Jacobson For Trip

Prof. Ph. E. Hauge, Dean of the Normal and Forensic Coach, here at Pacific Lutheran College, announced last Monday his selection for the College Varsity debate team. Arling Sannerud and Walter Christenson compose the affirmative team while Sverre Omdal and Erling Jacobson will uphold the negative. These men will debate the college question as announced by the National Forensic League. "Resolved that the United States shall cease to protect by armed force capital invested in foreign lands."

On Saturday, February 18th, the College Varsity together with Prof. Hauge and the basketball squad will leave for Spokane where they will debate with Spokane College—a sister institution of Pacific Lutheran College.

Plans are being made to meet both the Spokane University and Whitworth College in forensic clashes while on this trip. As this will be the longest trip to have been taken by P. L. C. debaters it is looked forward to with great enthusiasm and will mean much to debate activities at the college.

A mixed team composed of Mary Fowler, Esther Tows, and John Wiese will meet Centralia Junior College at Centralia in a debate on February 24th. P. L. C. will uphold the affirmative of the question: Resolved that the present armed intervention in Nicaragua is justifiable.

During March two dual debates will be held, one with Bellingham Normal and one with Seattle Pacific. A men's debate with St. Martins is being scheduled.

OCTETTE GIVES P. L. C. PROGRAM

Sunday, Feb. 5, a P. L. C. Day program was given at the Mt. View Church, sponsored by Rev. D. B. Ross.

The program, which was given entirely by P. L. C. students and faculty consisted of the following numbers:

- Male Octette—3 numbers.
 - Vocal Duet—Mrs. P. E. Hauge and Mrs. J. O. Edwards.
 - Vocal Solo—Mr. Harry Sannerud.
 - Vocal Solo—Mr. Arthur Olson.
 - Piano Solo—Prof. J. O. Edwards.
 - Talk—Prof. Ph. E. Hauge.
 - Male Octette—2 numbers.
- After the program, which was well received by the audience, delicious refreshments were served, and those taking part report a very pleasant day.

Pacific Calls To All Former Students

NEW STUDENTS ENTER PACIFIC

Several new students entered Pacific with the coming of the new semester. Pacific gives them a most hearty welcome. They are as follows: Normal Department—Ethel Johnson, Tacoma; Irene More, Tacoma; Martha Sizer, Tacoma; Mae Wohlmaecher, Tacoma; Bertha Rod; Parkland; Doris Sailor, Firwood. In the college department, Left Kilpen of San Francisco, California. In the High School are Marion Aalba, Seattle; Fred Young, Tacoma; Kirsten Holland, Portland, Oregon; C. R. Ellefson, Parkland; Elwyn Dawning, Raymond; and Alf Myhre, Matsqui, B. C.

"GLADIOLAS" WIN OVER MT. VERNON

One defeat was sufficient for the "Gladiolas" on their trip to Skagit County. On Saturday evening, Feb. 4, the girls reversed the order of the evening before and defeated the Mt. Vernon Junior College girls by a score of 28-13. The "Gladiolas" played just as good a brand of basketball the preceding night, but they outplayed the Mt. Vernon lasses on their floor. There were no two ways about it, The "Gladiolas" had the better team.

The line-up was as follows:
 P. L. C. (26) (13) Mt. Vernon
 Langlow F Nelson
 Larson F Pierce
 Benson J. C. Shate
 Rasmussen S. S. McKenale
 Leland G Moore
 Jacobsen G La Fond
 Substitutes—P. L. C.—Samuelson for Rasmussen, Mt. Vernon—Herrie for Moore, Raymond for Pierce.

P. L. C. QUINT DEFEATS ELLENSBURG NORMAL

Pacific Stages Surprise To Win Over Teachers; Final Score: 38-27

Coach A. W. Ramstad's Pacific Lutheran College hoopsmen demonstrated their actual ability as basket "hookers" a week ago Friday when they stepped out and defeated the Ellensburg Normal five with a decisive 38-27 count.

Because the Ellensburg five is noted for its superlative ability at the cage art and also for the players they produce, the Gladiolas were rather skeptical of their chances for victory. But by excellent team work, a steady, baffling defense, fast passing and clever floor work coupled with ability to break the Ellensburg defense, the Pacific Lutheran College men maintained a large margin of points over the Teachers throughout the game. At the end of the half the score was 21 to 7 in favor of the Gladiolas. Ellensburg men put up a game fight and did their best to stop the swelling of the Lutheran total of points but the Sanderason, Carlson, Fowler, Howick, Hoban combination was working to perfection and the Normalites were weak. Every man in the Lutheran line-up played stellar ball and all had a weather eye on the basket.

It was this Lutheran combination that demonstrated its fighting ability as they played and fought their hearts out to smash the Ellensburg defense, break their plays and

MISSION SOCIETY HEARS TALK BY REVEREND STAVIG

"The greatest cesspool of ignorance and filth is India. The one sore spot above all the sore spots in the world, having sores of infection is in India. This country is only a little more than half as large as our country, yet its population is 319,000,000, almost three times that of the United States."

"In India there is almost a complete lack of morality and the most cruel of customs is that of child marriage, the position of woman-kind. A philosopher of India has written, 'Parents take care of the boys but God takes care of the girls.' Girls are left to shift for themselves and are not educated. Only 18 girls out of every thousand are able to read and to write while the remaining nine hundred eighty-two are illiterate. When a girl marries, which is at about the age of eight or nine she is taught to look upon her husband, as the only god she knows. In case she becomes a widow, she has incurred the wrath of the gods and must become the servant of her parents-in-law. The death rate among the women of India is forty per cent higher than that among the men."

"One of the things which have prevented India from progressing at a better rate is the caste system. Of the 319,000,000 people 60,000,000 are outcasts—that is, are considered less than human beings. It is among these outcasts that Missionaries are developing a splendid class of Christians."

"To Christian men and women the picture of these terrible conditions existing in India ought to be a challenge to spread the Gospel of

HOMECOMING TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER

Former Students To Have Banquet; Large Number Expected To Attend.

Is there to be a reunion? There is. Reunion last year was good—this year, it will be better. That's the idea—A Bigger and Better Reunion! Has anything been done about it? Yes, verily! Committees are working with real vim, vigor and vitality for this year's reunion will be a Reunion of reunions in the real sense of the expression.

At a meeting of the Board of Control, the date was set for March 3rd and committees were selected to take charge of festivities. Mr. Oyen, head of the committee for arrangements has secured the Viking Room of the Tacoma Hotel for the dinner. This place was chosen again because the consensus of opinion seems to be that it was quite satisfactory last year.

The program will be made up of five minute speeches and interesting musical numbers. The male octette, under the direction of Prof. J. O. Edwards, will be a feature of the entertainment. There will be no business meeting, so the evening will be given over to the enjoyment of reminiscences of school days.

The committee heads are: Arnt Oyen, arrangements; Alvar Beck, program; Nina Eide, decoration; Martha Hjerstad, reception; Solvey Rynning, publicity.

The report is current that the custom of annual alumni reunions originated at Pacific Lutheran College. Every year our Alma Mater has staged an annual reunion with a banquet as the nucleus of attractions. P. L. C. began her career with a reunion banquet the first year and not a year has passed since then without a midyear reunion of alumni.

If you have been coming every year, you will want to come this year, and if you have not been attending these annual get-togethers—then you NEED to come!

THE DATE IS MARCH 3RD AND THE TIME IS 7:30.

STUDENTS TO GIVE VALENTINE PARTY

Tonight at 7:30 a Leap Year Valentine party is to be given in the College recreation room—for the students, by the students and of the students—faculty invited.

Committees in charge: Eliot Michelson, Esther Tows, John Wiese, and Gerhard Lane form the General and Entertainment committee; Marie Gardlin, Bobby Henriksen, Marvin Howick and Lawrence Hauge were chosen as the Decoration committee; Alyce Casperson, Warren Bowman, Dorothy Zimmerman and Gerhard Soll will do duty on the Refreshment committee.

The slogan of the party is: "Everybody on Deck!"

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

ARE YOU BEING LOYAL? Are you doing your bit to put Pacific Lutheran College on the map? Do you talk Pacific, argue Pacific, dream Pacific, believe in Pacific, defend Pacific in other words—ARE YOU BEING LOYAL?

The greatest advertisement a school is able to put before the public is the product of its teaching—the students. Do you regard yourself as an advertisement of the school you attend? Is your conduct outside of the school walls of such a nature that you automatically become a credit to Pacific—an advertisement of its character—building propensities?

Another view: Do you actually advertise Pacific? Do you tell outsiders of the many advantages Pacific has to offer the students who enter its portals of learning seeking an education? ALL OF YOU LOVE YOUR SCHOOL. Are you interested in its ultimate growth? Do you want to, in years to come, be able to point to a bigger and better Pacific Lutheran College and say, "That's my Alma Mater? CERTAINLY YOU DO! ADVERTISE PACIFIC!" —N.S.L.

A TIMELY TIP TO TIPPERERS!

A new semester means new and more difficult courses. We are beginning a new semester. Are you going to better your scholastic record this quarter? If you are—begin NOW and not tomorrow!

AN EXPLANATION

Because this issue of The Mooring Mast is a day late, we thought that it would be rather appropriate if we used the following discourse which appeared in a recent issue of The Aromaz—The Spokane College paper. The Aromaz editor and the Mooring Mast editor certainly must have a lot in common. Anyway, "Ye Ed." said that he hopes the readers can appreciate the article as much as he does:

Just Gotta Get The Paper Out

Wearing, tearing, foaming, he prances about. Just gotta get the paper out on time, in spite of everything! Just gotta get that paper out on time. Just gotta!

"Here reporter will you write this article up and please do it as soon as possible."

Wearing, tearing, foaming, he prances about.

"Gosh haven't you got that stuff yet? Just gotta get that paper out on time. Please hurry and write it up."

"Ye but I can't, I haven't got time, let someone else do it."

"For the love-of-mud aren't you interested in seeing your own paper out on time?"

Sure, but I don't know anything about that subject. Let someone else do it."

"So kindly find out something about it and hand in what you have written. Just gotta get that paper out."

Miss Elvera Hokenstad, a former student at P. L. C. and Miss Berenice Turner, both of Bremerton, visited at the college Monday morning.

WHAT A LINE

All good things must have a beginning and an ending. Wherefore with the setting of the sun on January 27, the first semester of the year 1927-28 at P. L. C. made its exit, ushered out by our welcome visitor Mr. Examination. And by the way, that worthy gentleman (Mr. Exam for short) left this parting message: "Au Revoir but not Goodbye."

What a line! It grows longer and longer and ones keep growing weaker and weaker; such is the story of registration day. And from then on it is something like this "I can't help that I'm late to class because I couldn't find the room," or "Where's room 113?" or "Are you taking Oral Expression," or "What did you get in Psychology?" (sh—h) or last but not least, "Has the bell rung?" Sometimes one wonders whether being hard of hearing is a habit or a native tendency at P. L. C.

The story goes on and on—classes, lessons, chorus, debate, o-tette, basketball, gym, etc., for there is nothing new under the sun. But we like it!

Entres!—St. Valentine

Notice: Has anyone seen cupid lurking around the girls' dormitory?

This is leap-year and St. Valentine's Day will soon be here. Already shrieks of delight and Ohs and Ahs may be heard around the vicinity of the girls' dorm for many of the fair sex are receiving dainty sonnets in lace or frills. Even if this is 1928 the boys are doing justice by sending Valentines. However, if notice is taken there are several young men wearing the most "gorgeous" smiles. Wonder what's the reason? 'S funny but "Mr. Kress" seems to contribute quite a bit toward sentiment.

Here's hoping the P. L. C. girls will distribute a number of comicks this year the boys need to be cheered up—especially after the semester grades (if any).

Enter—St. Valentine, he's the head man in this show!

CALENDAR

Feb. 9.—P. L. C. High School affirmative debating team meets the Stadium negative team at Central School, Tacoma.

Feb. 10.—At 1:00 P. M., P. L. C. negative team debates Stadium affirmative team at P. L. C.

DAILY DIARY

Jan. 24—"Don't hypnotize me, my heart is weak!" I really didn't believe in hypnotism until that night in the Girl's Dorm.

Jan. 25.—Mr. Examination begins his regular inspection of Achievement of P. L. C. students by visiting Educational Measurements Class.

Jan. 27.—The most exciting basketball game ever played in the history of P. L. C. took place in the Gym on Friday afternoon. Two Champion teams were fighting for Championship but Champion had to lose. In this case the Champion Champions were members of the faculty while the losing Champions were the Short Course Students.

Jan. 30.—Registration. Are general science, biology, and Am. History easy?

Jan. 30.—P. L. C. Midgets victorious over team of the Stuart Intermediate School.

Feb. 1.—Midgets win another victory this time from Lincoln Midgets.

Feb. 2.—When one has nothing to say he usually remarks on the weather. Just to be original, we'll leave that to the Weather Man.

Figure this out—Washington beats Illinois and other big teams. It looks like a potential champion. After losing a game to the Purple, Puget Sound comes back and mops up the floor with the Huskies. Now Ellensburg plays P. L. C. and gets walloped. The next night the Normal squad, beats C. P. S. What's the conclusion. We dunno. Is P. L. C. really better than coast conference teams?

FURIOUS FACULTY FEATURES FREAKY FUNNY FRACAS

Yes, the Faculty is the best. No matter what they attempt they always come out on top, at least the dose so far this year has proved that way. When the Short-course Students organized basketball team of Pacific Lutheran College challenged the Intelligensia of the school way back in November, those wise gentlemen were reluctant, realizing perhaps the opportunity the students would have of revenge on their betters. But after much persuasion and promises of good behaviour, the Organized Faculty of Pacific Lutheran College consented to partake of an athletic contest with the afore mentioned short course boys.

And what a contest! The splendid physical training of the Faculty was the downfall of the new course, for time and time again, these hard-working fellows would carry the ball down the floor only to lose it by the close ducking of Messers Edwards, Larsen and Freed. This took so the pep out of the aggressors so all the faculty had to do in the second half was shoot at the basket. He hopes that the ball would go through. Now isn't that physical training for how many teams would have the patience to wait for the other team to lose heart before demonstrating their own ability.

The faculty teamwork was very much handicapped by the absence of Stuen who was eliminated from the game for reasons he does not desire to publish. Grades do make a difference in a players standing on the team, though. (We know that!)

Forward Hauke's scheme of standing on Captain Ramstad's shoulder close to the basket and receiving passes from Joe Edwards was a total failure.

Alf Haukalle, brilliant defensive guard, told him he would tickle Capt. Ramstad and this would leave the man on top in the air, so forward Hauke positively discarded the idea. How's that for head work in the game?

There were no stars in the game—no, not one. Hauke displayed great shooting ability in the second half, and so did Capt. Ramstad; but only Mr. Hauke's shots went through the net. We must write up Joe Edwards playing, however. His back passing was superlative and although seriously hurt in the early part of the game, he came back strong—keeping the morale of the team.

The Short-course players tried their best to win and they would have if the game had ended at the half. If all the foul shots Thompson converted had counted they might have won. Now don't get the idea that the faculty fouled. They didn't but the referee was prejudiced and called them against them.

It was a great game all in all, and all in all. It proved again that the faculty is the best. It put the boys in a condition to win from Ellensburg; it gave the students a relief from nervous strain after the examinations; but most of all it settled forever the dispute between the Short-course Organized Basketball Team of Pacific Lutheran College and the Faculty of Pacific Lutheran College.

P. L. C. GIRLS LOSE TO KIRKLAND HI

The P. L. C. Gladiolas met with their first defeat Friday evening January 27, when the Kirkland girls in a fast and furious combat succeeded in running up a score of 39-36 in Kirkland's favor.

The "Gladiolas" line-up was changed three times during the game, the final line up ending with Olga Benson and Victoria Rasmussen as centers. Pauline Larson and Polly Langfow as forwards, and Ann Leland and Stella Samuelson as guards. During the last quarter the P. L. C. girls raised the score to within one point of the Kirkland score. At their rate of speed, three minutes more would have ended the game in P. L. C.'s favor, but just before the final whistle the Kirkland girls caked another shot, thus winning by a margin of three points.

Margaret Jacobson, who has been unable to play because of an injured knee, was allowed into the game for a short time during which she prevented numerous shots, and on the whole played a remarkable game though she has been unable to practice nearly all season.

During the past two weeks the P. L. C. Middlets have added three games to their long string of victories by defeating the Roy High five 39 to 18, the James Stewart Intermediates 21-19 and the strong Lincoln High Middlets, 18 to 12.

The Gladiolab babes had no trouble with the Roy quint, because everything came their way, throughout the fracas. The Roy five tried hard to overcome the lead taken early in the game by the Luthierins but were unsuccessful.

Dahl, P. L. C. forward scored 18 points—equalling the total of the Roy score.

In the second game, the paperweights won their second game over the Stewart Intermidates by a two point margin. This game was fast and exciting and the victors were not sure of the game until the final whistle had blown. Although they led in scoring throughout the fracas, the margin was never very large. Both teams displayed plenty speed and fight while teamwork was somewhat ragged because of fast, close checking.

The Lincoln middlets came to play their return game with the Lutheran babes with confidence written all over their action and style of play. The score of the first game between the two was something like 40-12 in favor of the Rathewer youngsters and evidently they expected to repeat the performance. However, before the half was over, it was evident that the Lincoln youngsters were not able to handle themselves on the floor as well as did the Lutheran featherweights.

PACIFIC WINS OVER MT. VERNON

With the victory at Burlington tucked away under their belts the Gladiolas next journeyed to Mt. Vernon to play the Mt. Vernon Jr. College on Saturday night where they met and defeated them by the close score of 26 to 20.

With the absence of "Bill" Fowler from the lineup the boys went in to fight. At the end of the half the score stood 10-8 in favor of Mt. Vernon but this was only an incentive for more fight. Soon after the start of the second half the Gladiolas took the lead by a free throw and a field goal.

Mt. Vernon was never able to overtake the lead, that P. L. C. had started. With Rudy under the basket and "Tink" to take the long ones made a scoring combination that was hard to beat. No one player could be picked as the "star" of the game but five men working together accounted for the victory for P. L. C.

LOSE TO BURLINGTON

Although the Gladiolas worked fast and furious to defeat the Burlington Town Team on Friday, February 3, they received the smaller number in the score of 32-14. There was nothing wrong with the girls but they were simply outplayed by the Burlington lassies. The "Gladiolas" had no high-point scorers, while Neeley for Burlington was the stellar player.

The line-up was as follows:
Lankow F. Neeley
Larson F. I. Knutzen
Benson J. C. Shake
Rasmussen R. C. Doran
Jacobson G. Solite
Leland G. C. Knutzen

The Pacific Lutheran Gladiolas have seven games remaining on their basketball schedule—most of these to be played away from the home court. Tomorrow, the University of Washington Frosh will tangle with our cagers here at Parkland. This will be the last home game of the season. The other six will be played away from home.

Final arrangements are being made for the trip to Spokane and way points. Nine basketball players, Coach A. W. Ramstad and Manager Elmer Hauke will make the trip. The debate squad, together with Forensic coach Ph. E. Hauke will make the trip. The debate squad will also travel with the Lutheran cagers. The party will leave on the morning of the 18th—arriving home exactly a week later.

Four games have been arranged for the quint and the debators are lining up as many arguments as they will be able to argue their way through. The expectation is that these two teams will establish a good record for the school while on the trip.

The team will play Centralia Junior College at Centralia on March 3rd. Everyone of the students is expected to attend the U. of W. Freshman game on Saturday evening because it will be the last big home game of the season.

Inglaw Fedt. who was obliged to take a short lay-off on account of his health because of overstudy during examinations, is now with us again. He was on the verge of a nervous breakdown but with a mother's care and proper hours he is now well on his feet once more.

"There's one word in the English language that is always pronounced wrong."

"What's that?"
"Why, wrong, of course."
—The Aromaz.

If you want to head the class,
Be prepared.
If you simply want to pass,
Be prepared.
There is one way to do it
And you'll have to go through it.
Don't say "I never knew it!"
Be prepared.
—The Gleaner.

A smile can heal a breaking heart
As easily as the sun does the dry morning dew.
A smile will pierce the darkest part
As artfully as the sun does cast her purple hue.
A smile will travel many miles
As quickly as the bees do gather sweets from flowers
A smile can be in any style:
It will uplift a soul or make it glad for hours.
—The Gleaner.

Freddie: "My girl ran her car into the fence yesterday and knocked some of the paint off."
Irving: "Off what, the car or the fence?"
Freddie: "Neither, off my girl!"

The Mission Society met again on the evening of Feb. 1, and the following program was given:
Scripture Reading—Walter Christenson.
Reading—"Better than Gold" Ida Hinderlie.
Talk—Dr. Hoff.
Vocal Solo—Arthur Olsen.
Election of officers for the new semester took place and the following were elected:
President—Arthur Olsen.
Vice Pres.—Elliot Michelson.
Secretary—Evelyn Sneve.
Treasurer—Inglaw Fedt.

"My kid brother is awfully dumb."
"How so?"
"I can't learn him to say teach."
—Bird Eye Hi. News
He—"Yes, my father has contributed a great deal to raising the working class."
She—"Is he a Socialist?"
He—"No, he makes alarm clocks."
—Gleanerian

Tune—"Let me call you sweetheart"
Let me call you flivver
I'm in debt to you
Let me hear you rattle
Like you used to do
Keep your headlights glowing
And your tail light, too
Let me call you flivver,
I'm in debt to you.
—The Wichitan.

I have been eagerly searching the last issues of our paper and waiting for some student with nerve enough to express his or her opinion of confidence.
But, the question may arise, as is usually the case around here, "Why bring that up?" This is why. We as a whole and as individuals have a tendency to get that vain conception of ourselves or of our accomplishments that is known as conceit. We base our opinions mostly on imaginary reasoning and as a result we get a flattering opinion of ourselves.
Let us as young Christian men and women try to rid ourselves of that evil, that will perhaps make us look a little outstanding now, but do so much to injure us in the days to come.
