

Unique Record of Placing Graduates Continued in '28

Six Placed in Pierce County; School Represented in Three States

The unique record that the Normal department of Pacific Lutheran College holds in placing all the Normal graduates who desire positions was not broken in the class of 1928. Complying with requests which have been made concerning where those of last year's class are teaching, we here publish the names and addresses of these new teachers from this school.

Addresses Given

It will be noticed that six graduates are teaching in Pierce county and all but six are in Washington, of these five are in Montana, and one in Idaho. The complete list is as follows:

Intermediates of Stadium to Play Second Stringers

The varsity squad of the Gladiators will be idle this week, but the usual football game will be dashed up when the Stadium Intermediates clash with Coach Ramstad's second stringers at 3:30, Thursday at Parkland.

The strength of the invader is not known but that the Gladiators will place a strong eleven on the field is certain. Probably the same lineup will start that took the Lincoln Intermediates into camp. This was their first game, and they got off with a flying start by downing the Rallsplitters to the tune of 18 to 7.

Previous games, whether we can count much on them or not, may give us a slight idea as to how to figure the coming contest. It is reported that the Summer High School players scored as many touchdowns against Stadium as they did against the Lincoln Intermediates. If such is the case, the Gladiators would seem to have the edge. But competitive games and scores are not always the best means with which to judge the outcome of a game. The best way to form your conclusions is to witness it yourself. All indications, however, point to an interesting contest. Let's all be there to help out the coming game. The Gladiators need your support!

Among the former students who attended last Friday's game were Agnes Glason, 21, and Beulah Conley, a student here in '28.

Former Student of P. L. C. Passes Away

Hilmen Magell, a former student of P. L. C. passed away at Fort San Sartarum, near Meyronne, Saskatchewan, Canada.

While at Pacific Lutheran College, Hilmen had very many friends and was liked for his ever cheerful disposition. His death will be keenly felt among the faculty and students who knew him. He was a member of the Class of '28, and of the Midget basketball team.

One year ago last April Hilmen, with his parents, moved to Canada. On their arrival, Hilmen took ill with measles. Later a cold settled on his chest, which changed into consumption in the last months of the patient's life.

Girls' Pep Flows Freely in Meeting

Girls' Reception Room is Scene of First Meeting of Year; New President Chosen

"Your pep—you've got it, now keep it, don't lose it, your pep." This is the spirit with which the Pep Club started out, and the members intend to keep this pep at a high pitch throughout the year.

The first meeting was held in the Girls' Reception room Wednesday evening, September 19, with Eliot Michelson in the president's chair. Every one enjoyed sitting around the crackling fire in the grate, listening to the program, which consisted of a short talk by Mrs. Kriedler on the rules and "un-written laws" of the dormitory, a vocal solo by Elvera Hokenstad, a saxophone solo by Lillian Anderson, two comical readings by Miss Stixrud, and a ukelele number by Agnes Klippen. In the election of officers that followed, Margaret Jacobson was chosen president, Eliot Michelson vice president, and Miriam Heimdahl secretary-treasurer. An excellent lunch was served, followed by the initiation, which every one enjoyed.

Second Meeting Held
The second meeting was held in Mrs. Kriedler's apartment on October 3 with Margaret Jacobson presiding. Mrs. Kriedler gave a talk on general principles. Lelah Grass and Cora Vista both played piano solos, and Lillian Anderson and Marie Gardin added to the fun of the evening by a dialect reading. After a short business meeting refreshments were served by Eliot Michelson and Elna Trulsson. These were thoroughly enjoyed by all in spite of the fact that the lights were out and the lunch had to be eaten in the dark.

DR. JOHNSON PRESENTS INSTRUMENT TO SCHOOL
Doctor Johnson, the school physician, has presented to the athletic department of this institution an instrument called a scallo. Its penetrating rays have a healing power especially valuable in the treatment of sprains and bruises. The school authorities are very grateful for this gift and hereby wish to express their sincere thanks for the gift.

Esther Tove and Gladys Jorgensen, both members of last year's graduating class, are at their homes in Silverton, Oregon, studying music. Gladys Jorgensen is also taking a correspondence course with the University of Washington and an extension course with the University of Oregon.

Death of Father Calls Chris Nelson Home to Norway

Mr. Chris Nelson for the past three years a student at P. L. C. is leaving October 28 on the Stavangerford for his home in Norway, whither he has been called by the sudden death of his father and two brothers. As the spokesman for the students and faculty of Pacific Lutheran College, the Morning West wishes to say that Chris carries with him the sincere wishes of his friends here.

Has Unique Record

Chris first entered our halls three years ago as a short course student and returned each fall of the following two years to resume his studies. As a student he has attained a record unique in the history of this institution. During his two years stay as a high school student, he received but three grade-markings below an A, and of these, two were B plus and one a B. He was on the high distinctive honor roll of the school every quarter excepting twice and is within two units of graduation at the present time.

We most certainly hope that his recent misfortune will in no way hinder what promises to become a brilliant career, and that in his home land he will find sufficient opportunity to exercise his talents.

Classes Elect New Officers for '28-'29

The Sophomore College and Normal students have elected their class officers as follows: president, Walter French; vice president, Rudolph Sanderson; secretary, Lelah Grass; treasurer, Elna Trulsson, and class adviser Mr. Hauge.

The Freshman College and Normal students have also chosen their class officers. Margaret Jacobson was elected president, Gerhard Molden, vice president; Inna Dahl, secretary-treasurer, and Stanley Berntson, sergeant at arms. Mr. Edwards has been chosen class adviser.

The Senior class of the high school department has elected officers as follows: president, Robert Knutson; vice president, John Johnson; secretary, Ida Hinderle; treasurer, Gertrude Bygdow. Miss Stixrud will be class adviser.

'Shur Stop' to Fire Found in Red Globe

Forty red eyes gaze at one. Forty small eyes follow one around. Forty ever one goes one sees—just forty red eyes!

Why? Just that Pacific Lutheran College has installed a new make of fire extinguishers called the "Shur Stop."

Forty small red bulbs have been placed about the walls of the entire dormitory and in the Chemistry Laboratory. In case of fire breaking out in the immediate vicinity of these glass bulbs, the heat breaks them, and the chemical element contained, carbon tetrachloride, flows out resulting in a "shurstop" of the flames.

W. G. McGovern Tells of Trip Thru Tibet as a Native Coolie

Carrying his audience through a mass of interesting events, Dr. W. G. McGovern spoke at the Central Lutheran Church last Friday, October 19. His lecture dealt with the topic of "Going to Lhasa and Back."

His first trip into the forbidden land of Tibet was an utter failure. All methods failed—diplomacy included. The party was sent back by the native rulers.

His next attempt was to learn the language of the native coolies but they could not even be bribed to speak it. Finally he got a room near the kitchen where all the servants went, and where free speech was often the day's only work. Here he took a brick from the wall and listened by the hour for different sayings and phrases used by the Tibetans. These dialects in addition to the classical language which he had learned in college aided him in reaching his destination.

What price one must pay for the privilege of doing what no other man has done! In order to play the part of the native coolie to perfection, he used lemon juice in his eyes. This process accomplished the desired end and turned his eyes a dirty brown, but it also irritated them to such an extent that he was forced to wear goggles.

At all times he had to play the part of a native coolie and this sometimes proved difficult for the officials had learned that a white man was touring their country.

The next lecture at the Central Lutheran Church will be given by Albert Wiggam. His topic will be "What Civilization is doing to us."

South Puget Sound Circuit Start Year

On Tuesday morning, October 23, the opening service of the South Puget Sound Circuit Convention was held at Trinity Church. Instead of having the regular chapel exercises, the faculty and students attended in a body.

Rev. M. Lono of Tacoma delivered the sermon. A vocal solo was rendered by Gerhard Lane and a song was given by a group from the College Choir composed of Anna Mikkelson, Nelma Gousson, Ida Hinderle, Elvera Hokenstad, Franklin Lacy, Gerhard Lane and Alf Myhre.

The sessions are held daily at 10 o'clock in the morning, 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. A large number of delegates and visitors from all parts of the South circuit are attending these meetings.

Short Course for Beginners Began Here October 22

Mrs. Taylor, a Former Teacher of P. L. C., Will Have Charge of the Beginners' Courses

The short course in English started on Monday, October 22. This course is for the benefit of the young men or women who have not had the opportunity of studying the English language, or who wish to prepare themselves to enter high school classes.

Pacific Lutheran College has been approved by the Secretary of Labor as a school for immigrant students. Persons desiring to enter the United States temporarily should first apply to the administration board of this institution for admission. If the applicant is accepted as a student, he or she makes known this fact to the American consular officer in his or her district. Through this officer entrance into the United States if possible.

Mrs. Estruand Taylor, of Seattle, who taught here last year, has been engaged as the regular English teacher for the short session.

This Beginner's English Course puts special emphasis on the study of words, spelling, reading, pronunciation, and conversation. Special work this year is offered in citizenship.

HALLOWE'EN

Next Wednesday, October 31, will be Hallowe'en, or All Hallow's Eve, as it was first called. This day, which is perhaps more widely celebrated in our land than any other day not a national holiday, does not make us think of doing good things but rather the contrary. We are prone to couple Hallowe'en with evil, and often rightly so, for things are apt to be performed on this occasion by persons who would never think of doing them other times. Why not, for a change, try to do as much good as we can on Hallowe'en? By maintaining a kindly attitude toward every one every one we shall still be in keeping with the spirit of this festive occasion. Why not, therefore, make it a point to refrain from malicious mischief and instead help someone along with pleasant words, and kind deeds? After all, " 'Tis the songs you sing and the smile you wear, that's making the sun shine everywhere." And the truth of this saying holds good at all times, even during Hallowe'en.—I. D.

ASK!

Ask the losers why they lost;
Ask the winners how they won.
Ask the highest if they've crossed
All their valleys in the sun!
Ask your Soul what is your goal,
And race for the task you haven't done.

Students of Pacific Lutheran college! The aim in the present subscription contest is to have the Mooring Mast reach more people than ever before.

With the beginning of this year our school entered a new era. The creation of an endowment-fund, the increase of the faculty and the many new projects under way are all evidences of a wide-awake, active, progressive life.

Old and new students! Let us keep up the spirit of devotion and unselfish service shown our school by its former students and graduates. Those of us who graduate next spring have here the very last opportunity to raise the "Mast" of our ship while we still are aboard.

Let us get more subscriptions for the "Mooring Mast" than it ever has had! Let us set ourselves a goal and strive to reach it.—P. J. F.

TWO KINDS OF CRITICISM

There are two kinds of criticism, destructive and constructive. Any individual with a whit of intelligence can break down what others have built up, but it takes super intelligence to criticize constructively. Destructive criticism should be entirely foreign to a college student. His aim should be to help to boost, and improve rather than to destroy, disable, and pull down.

FOUR YEARS AGO AT P. L. C.

The Mooring Mast made its first bow before the reading public.

The Thespian Dramatic Society put on a program, in which the following students took part: Ruth Bull, Luetta Swinh, Walter French, Martha Hjermstad, Edwin Beck, Sylvia Larson, Dorothy Lehman, and Erna Heimdahl.

The merit system was very much in evidence at this time.

The Mooring Mast offered a prize for the greatest number of subscriptions sent in from any Luther League.

A LETTER

Oct. 15, 1928.

Dear Ma and Pa:
P. L. C. is the cat's pajamas, and I sure like it. I suppose you don't know the meaning of cat's pajamas. Maybe you think it is a college or what wears pajamas and looks like a Paris doll, but it ain't. It really means O. K., fine and dandy, tastes like more and best yet. A sophomore learned that to me. He is not as dumb as he looks. He looks just like that picture of Pa standing on one foot on top of the organ in the parlor.

Well, as I was saying, I sure like P. L. C. ... best thing I like is one yell practice. You folks don't know how loud and how fierce I can yell. As Shakespeare says, "Practice makes perfect." It was not for nothing that I used to keep the family awake and made the tired men quit in early childhood. If you could have heard me at the game the Gladiators played with Bellarmine, you would've been well rewarded. A man standing in front of me said:

"St. Lays has nothing on you. That last roar you gave would chase any lion back to the Jungles."

I wrote a poem about college for English today. We have wrote prose before, but now the prof. wants me to write verse, which is not difficult for people which is poetic like me. There is four verses to this poem.

P. L. C. is a mighty fine place
For learn that has come to learn.
They join in the yells and the football chase
The they ain't got no money to burn.

Some of the studes sure are bright,
And some are sort of dumb;
But most of them are just 'bout right
When they're taken all in a sum.

Some are as purty as movie stars.

But as for me, I'm right at home; You see, I'm sort of maddening; I'm not so smart or dumb as some. And with boys I'm never fiddling. I think the prof. will like this better than the prose I wrote for him. He is kind of particular about some things, but I don't hardly think he could write a poem like this himself.

Gladiators Avenging Centralia Defeat by Tying 2 Fast Games

Parkland 'Cubs' and Lions' Litter Meet in a 0-0 Game at Bellarmine College

The Gladiators playing their second important game of the season battled the Bellarmine football eleven to 0-0 score last Friday.

The Gladiators out-weighted the Tacoma boys in the line, but they were about even in the backfield. The town boys were considerably lighter than last year's. Owing to the lightness of their opponents the Parklandites marched through the line time and again for large gains, the invaders opening holes big enough for a box car to go through. The Lutherans made twice the yardage, and their number of first downs was greater. Although the Gladiators marched down the field for long gains, they seemed to lack the necessary punch to place the pigskin across their opponents' goal line.

Steidel, the punting halfback for the Tacoma Lions, was the big cog in the Bellarmine backfield machine. He was the only one making any yardage through the Pacific line.

Lisherness is Good
Carlson, for the Lutherans, played his usual game, evading the Bellarmine tacklers time and again for large gains. Palo showed up well, being the big spark in the Pacific's defensive. E. Jacobsen, the lanky tackle, caused considerable trouble for the opponents. Jacobsen has the right build for a tackle and is coming along at a fast clip. Jack Lisherness, a new man, was given a chance to show his ability, going in as guard in the second half. Jack was one of the outstanding line men, playing a scrappy game, fighting every minute.

The Gladiators chose to kick, the Lions returning the ball to their 35-yard line. On a series of line bucks in which they failed to make any yardage, they lost the ball on downs. It was Pacific's ball. On the first play Carlson made six yards around the end. On the next two plays Parkland failed to make their yardage. Red kicked. The Lion's received the ball but fumbled and recovered again. The two teams battled, but Parkland had the edge on territory gained. It was in the last of this quarter that the Gladiators showed their prowess when they held the Lions on the one-yard line.

In the second and third quarter Parkland continued gaining ground but were unable to cross their opponents' oval line. Captain Carlson made the longest run of the day, when he skirted the Lion's end for 22 yards.

In the final period both teams were battling for yardage with the play about even. In the last part of the quarter the Lions started a rush that brought them within scoring distance, threatening to cross the Pacific's chalk line, but Parkland held, getting the ball on their own 5-yard line just as the whistle ended the game.

The lineup for the game was:
Coltium LT Champagne
Jacobsen LF Gaudette
Schoel LG Gruppenacker
Knutsen G Tuoc
Cronquist RG Petrich
Wiese RT Brown
Kriedler RE Hall
Carlson QB Faugh
Sanderson LB Palmer
Anderson RB Steidel
Palo F Spadofore
Substitutions: Bellarmine—Shaw for Gaudette, Pipe for Petrich. Parkland—Thostenon for Coltium, Lisherness for Cronquist.

C. P. S. Reserves and Gladiators Featured in Tie; Spectacular Plays Thrill Crowd

Playing the finest brand of ball they have exhibited so far this season the Gladiators staged a brilliant comeback in the second half of last Friday's game and held the strong C. P. S. squad to a 6-6 tie.

The first ball was decidedly in favor of the Loggers. Time and time again they broke through the Lutheran line for substantial gains. The Gladiators, however, seemed unable to find themselves and, except for a couple of end runs which netted considerable yardage, did not gain much ground. Carlson, Lutheran quarterback, did some beautiful kicking and managed to open the reserves' play to mid-field. One of his kicks from behind his own goal line spiraled through the air for a distance of sixty yards. With only a few minutes of play left in the first half, the Reserves opened up with a series of passes and line plays that advanced the ball to Pacific's three-yard line. The Gladiators held the reserves in their first two attempts, but on the third play the visitors pushed the ball across just as the whistle sounded ending the first half.

The second half opened with Pacific playing much better ball. The forward defence annihilated many plays before they got started and their offensive playing was very much better. Palo, the Lutheran fleetfooted little back, gave the crowd its largest thrill of the game when he intercepted a pass and raced sixty yards through a broken field for a touchdown. The play, however, was called back by the referee. This stirred up the Gladiators fighting spirit and a moment later Coltium, star end, received a pretty pass from Palo and ran forty yards for a touchdown. The Gladiators' passing attack netted some neat yardage throughout the latter part of the game, and their goal line was never threatened.

The entire Lutheran lineup, led by Captain Carlson, played their positions in great style. For the Reserves, Kellogg, their big fullback, was the most consistent ground-gainer, although he was aided in a capable manner by Smith at Quarter and Kovach at half. Wade played a great game at guard for the visitors.

P.L.C. Reserves Beat Abe "Middies," 18-7

Frequent Fumbles on Part of Lincoln Give Gladiators an Edge on the Final Score

In one of the most interesting contests ever witnessed on the Lutheran gridiron the Pacific Lutheran Reserves downed the Lincoln 18 Intermediates, Saturday October 13, on the local field, 18-7.

The game was a thriller from the beginning until the final whistle. Fumbles were frequent, and one play found the ball in Pacific's possession and the next play in Lincoln's. The young Gladiators held the edge throughout the game, however, and played a more consistent game than did the visitors.

Try For Points Fall
The Gladiators played the ball close and thereby obtained advantage of most of the breaks. Coltum starred at end, scoring all three touchdowns, and two of these resulted from forward passes and one one the recovery of a fumbled kick. Jacobsen's tries for point failed. Late in the third quarter the Rallspitters opened with an aerial attack which dazed the Lutheran defense and put the ball on the five-yard line. Three consecutive line plays put the pig-skin across. A fumbled pass was recovered and the try for point was successful.

Brilliant plays exhibited by Knutsen and Nyman in the backfield and by Coltum, Jacobsen, and Lisherness in the line caused the opponents lots of trouble and exhibited some brilliant defensive work. The team worked well as a unit and seemed to have the fight which the varsity failed to show against Bellarmine on the previous afternoon. A return game is slated later in the season. This tilt will be played at the Lincoln bowl.

The Lineup
The starting lineup: Thostenon, Hoff, half; Nyman, quarter; Quae, full; Coltum and Goplerud, ends; Hauge and Lisherness, tackles; Piott and Klippen, guards; "Jake" Jacobsen, center.

Substitutions: Knutsen for Quae, Berentzen for Piott, Erickson for Goplerud, Padness for Berentzen.

Grid Gossip . . .

It's queer how many first downs the Gladiators made as compared to their opponents, or literally speaking, the amount of yardage gained. The Lutherans netted twice as much yardage, but the Bellarmine eleven came closer to scoring. In the first quarter they were within one yard of scoring distance. In the fourth quarter their big threat of scoring came in the last minute of play through two blocked punts as the final canto the game was saved.

Capt. Carlson's educated toe was not up to its usual form, as his boots were below the average. He booted one for 30 yards in the close of the third quarter, however.

Coltium, Kriedler, and Thostenon, Lutheran wing men, were not up to their usual form. The boys missed several chances of getting the runner, Arnie falling short several times. By the way, Arnie and Lyle don't have a habit of missing their men, but Friday's game showed they are human.

"Ben" Palo really proved himself one of the big guns in Friday's battle. His defensive playing was outstanding. He broke through time and again to hold the opponents for no gain. In the last half Ben featured in close to 50 per cent of the defensive play.

Jacobson, the Gladiators' oft-maligned tackle, came through in fine style, breaking through in several plays to hold Bill Bardie's runners for no gain.

"Red" Carlson, Pacific's triple threat proved to be the greatest ground gainer of the day. Red's long and sensational end runs netted big yardage for the Gladiators.

The moral and fighting spirit that generally goes with a fighting team was missing Friday. The boys lacked the necessary and usual zest; furthermore the right mental attitude was not with the boys.

"And I say unto you, Ask, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

"For everyone that asketh receiveth, and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

We are physical, mental, and spiritual beings and have certain privileges. It is a student's privilege to ask his teacher questions; similarly it is our privilege to come to our Saviour with all our wants, physical, mental, and spiritual. "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." This is our privilege. It is also our duty to search for the things of the spirit.
