

VOL 6 NO 1 Pacific Lutheran University November 22, 1968

'Barber Of Seville' Here Dec. 3

"The Barber of Seville"
by Rossini
Act 3
see page 3

One of these lovely Lucia Bride candidates will be selected as Queen of Light during the annual Lucia Bride Festival in Eastvold Chapel at 8 p. m. Dec. 7. A reception follows at Chris Knutzen Hall. From left, back row: Laurel Clark, Ellen Bakke, Gayle Severson, Marcia Anderson, Joanne Bommersine; second row: Debbie Hutson, Chayo Herdman, Kathy Johnsen, Kathyellen Case; front row: last year's bride Judy Zatterberg, Ann Caswell, Karen Christianson and Lynda Slovik.

* * * * *

ROUNDTABLE

The man who makes this column a success, Rev. Milton Nesvig (U. Rel.), is in the middle of a two-week trip to Europe where he is arranging for the 1970 Choir of the West tour. In a letter this week he told of a visit with the Archbishop of Canterbury and his Chaplain as well as a forthcoming luncheon with the Primate of the Church of Norway, a visitor at PLU last March. "Things are pretty well under control and it looks like we are going to have an excellent trip," he says. . . Dwight Zulauf (Bus.), was the featured speaker at Concordia College's 5th Annual Professional Ethics Seminar Nov. 9 in Portland. . .he also spoke recently at the Administrative Management Association in Tacoma. . .Jon Olson (Alum. Dir.) is preparing for a trip to Alaska the first week in December.

BIRTHDAYS

Donald Pattie	November 22
Eleanor Peterson	23
Jerry Haralson	25
George Roskos	25
Herta Cousineau	26

Canadian Opera To Appear Here

The Canadian Opera Company, Canada's first professional company, is performing at Eastvold Auditorium Tuesday, Dec. 3, at 8:15 p.m. with a full-length production of Rossini's "Barber of Seville," one of the universal favorites of the operatic stage.

The appearance is the third of five Artist Series programs to be presented at PLU.

The Company's great success with its previous tours has made a return engagement a "must." This is the Company's 16th tour.

The new production features the best of Canadian and International operatic singers and is made possible by federal and provincial grants. This is also the first time the cast has been accompanied by a touring orchestra.

The musical direction for this famous opera is provided by John Fenwick and the stage direction is by Dr. Herman Geiger-Torel.

Fenwick, Ontario born and a graduate of Toronto spent several years as an orchestral musician, studying with Boyd Neel and later under the guidance of Leonard Bernstein. Formerly music director of the Halifax symphony, he became associate artistic director of the Charlotte-town Festival in 1967 and the same summer conducted CBC's Summer Symphony in Toronto.

Geiger-Torel is a name synonymous with Canadian Opera. In 1950 he was the moving force in the formation of the Canadian Opera Company, acting as its first stage director and producer. In 1958 he became its general director and under his guidance Canadian opera has attained invaluable stature throughout the music world.

Among the members of an outstanding cast are Richard Braun as Fiorello; Cornelis Opthof as Figaro and Sheila Piercey as Rosina.

John Fenwick
The Canadian Opera Company

UNIVERSITY CHORALE SCHEDULES TWO CONCERTS

Pacific Lutheran's University Chorale, under the direction of David Urness, will present its first two concerts of the season this Sunday, Nov. 24.

The first will be given at 3 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church. The second concert will be held at the University Methodist Temple, 43rd St. N.E. and 15th Ave. in Seattle, the same evening.

Appearing with the 45-voice select choir will be a chamber orchestra consisting of members of the Pacific Lutheran Symphony. They will be heard with the Chorale in performances of the Bach "Cantata #196, The Lord Smile on You," and "Missa Brevis in F Major K. 192" for soloists, chorus and orchestra by W.A. Mozart.

In addition to these two major works, the Chorale will present a group of Renaissance motets by Palestrina, Thomas Morley and Jan Sweelinck. The final work of the concert will be the "Lamentations of Jeremiah" by the contemporary Argentinian composer Alberto Ginastera.

The public is cordially invited to these concerts.

A disbelieving Orgon listens in anger as his son Damin tries to convince him that the pious Tartuffe is really an evil hypocrite in one of the scenes from "Tartuffe," the all-school play being presented Nov. 21-23 at PLU. His wife, Elmire, played by Phyllis Booth, attempts to cool the volatile tempers. Damin is portrayed by Scott Green. Orgon is played by John Elmer.

Knight Cagers To Open Against CWSC

Coach Gene Lundgaard's court wizards open the 1968-69 basketball season on the road at Central Washington State College.

The Knight's will be out to break Central's two-year hex which has resulted in six straight wins for the CWSC quintet. Last season the two teams clashed twice in the first three games as they will this season, Central winning both by substantial margins, 68-63 and 97-73.

Knight chances are considerably improved this year as all but one of last year's starters have returned. The PLU roster includes two all-conference choices, Leroy Sinnes and Al Kollar, along with Tom Meeks, Kevin Miller, Ron Groth, Rick Ancheta and Bruce Shamp.

To replace graduated Dennis Buchholz, Lundgaard has a 6-8 freshman from Sweden, Ake Palm, a 22-year old with all the moves.

The Knight coach, as well as the team, figure to improve on last year's 17-9 win-loss mark and bring home another Northwest Conference championship in the process.

Following the opening game the Knights return to PLU for two games. They face Western Washington State College here Dec. 6, followed by a second tangle with Central Dec. 7.

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH FELLOWSHIPS

This is a reminder that applications for a National Institutes of Health Predoctoral, Postdoctoral, or Special Research Fellowship must be submitted by Jan. 2, 1969. Please bring this fellowship information to the attention of students preparing in health and health-related areas. Among the fields supported are: behavioral sciences, biochemistry, biology, biophysical sciences, and others. For further information and application materials regarding these fellowships are available in the Deans' Office.

PLU Gridders Fail In Upset Bid

Pacific Lutheran University football fans watched a group of young men grow this season.

They grew, not only as gridders, but as men. As the season wore on they learned teamwork, drive, that second effort. In spite of setbacks, several of those "almost" wins, they finished the season with a winning attitude. There were no doubts in any of their minds that they were as good as any team in the Northwest Conference.

There was genuine disappointment after the 21-20 loss to Willamette Saturday. The Knights were convinced they were capable of winning that game.

The team, ranked near the bottom of the pack at the beginning of the season, improved to a point where they were only three-point underdogs before the Bearcat game.

They finished with a 3-4-2 season record, however, all but one game were close. Only six seniors are graduating, so next year should be a big one for the Lutes. * * * * *

The first quarter was nearly over when Willamette hit pay dirt for the first time Saturday. After several turnovers, Bearcat quarterback Mike Shinn hit halfback Bob Riley with the third of his 13 record-setting completions. The play carried to the PLU one-yard line.

On the second play halfback Osa Morgado dived over for the score.

The Bearcats continued to dominate the game. On their 30th play (PLU had 13), Shinn tried to hit Riley again. But the Lutes' Jack Irion picked off the pass and raced 38 yards for the score. Hammer's kick made it 7-7.

Following the kickoff Willamette drove for 17 more plays to the PLU nine before Tim Chandler intercepted a Gib Gilmore pass on the two and returned it 30 yards. Gilmore had faked a field goal.

PLU gave up the ball shortly thereafter only to retrieve it again as Ross Boice pounced on a Bearcat fumble at the Willamette 14. A Lovell to Hammer aerial was one yard short of a first down on the five but PLU got the ball back four plays later.

President Robert Mortvedt and Coach Roy Carlson:

The glow reflects a good season
* * * * *

With one minute left in the half Halstead hit for 11 to the Bearcat 33, Rod Bolek hit Mike Murphy on the 15, then Lovell came in to hit Hammer with an 18 yard TD aerial. Score at halftime: PLU 14, Willamette 7.

In the third quarter Willamette took only two plays to tie the game after a Mike Robbins punt went out of bounds on the PLU 24. Shinn hit Riley again for 22 yards and the score.

PLU came back with the help of a fourth down Bearcat penalty to march 88 yards for the go ahead touchdown. Lovell set up the score with a 62-yard romp around left end to the Bearcat 10. Grant Spencer went over from the two. The kick failed; the score was 20-14 with 8:31 left in the third quarter.

Another two-play drive gave Willamette their winning score as the final period began. Shinn tossed to Morgado, who rambled 62 yards to pay dirt after Tim Chandler almost intercepted the pass. The ball bounced out of his hands into Morgado's.

Dave Halstead, running on a badly sprained ankle throughout the game, fell

continued on page 6

cont. from page 5

short of John Fromm's school rushing record of 695 yards. Halstead finished the season with 691 yards, best in the conference.

PLU's other H-bomb, Gary Hammer, finished the season with 594 yards rushing, second or third in the conference. The two sophomore halfbacks tied for team scoring honors, each with 42 points.

Several PLU defenders had their best game Saturday. Senior Bill Tye was in on 12 tackles, junior Neil Bryant had 11, and junior Paul Ferguson was in on 10.

Tim Chandler and Doug Jansen shared 11 interceptions for the season. Chandler finished with six.

PLU grid fans bid a grateful farewell to a sextet of tremendous seniors: Bill Tye, Ben Erickson, Fred Moe, Bob Lovell, Bill Ranta, and Phil Goldenman.

BIRTHDAYS

Melvin Edwards	November	27
Herbert Ranson		28
Joe Broeker		29
Jane Williamson		29
Jimmie Sole		29
Jeanne Harshman		30
Carl Clark		30
Robert Mortvedt		30
Azel Clark	December	1
Ione Brunstad		2
Blanch Emerson		4
JoAnn Mucci		4
Cliff Sanders		4

Swimmers Prepare For Season Opener

A 16-man PLU swim team, including nine lettermen, is working out for the Knights' season opener against Western Washington in the PLU pool Dec. 6.

Coach Rich Alseth's veterans are led by John Bustad, senior from Mount Vernon, and Steve Bennett, junior from Scottsdale, Ariz.

Bustad is Northwest Conference 100-yard butterfly record-holder (59.4 sec.) and swam the third leg on the 400 medley relay foursome which holds the circuit mark. Bennett is conference diving record-holder of both the one and three-meter boards.

Other returning PLU lettermen include Wally Nage, Dick Quinn, Sully Hester, Jon Nelson, Jim Bergstrom, Dave Brook and Rich Hundven.

REMINDERS

FACUL Y WIVES: "CHRISTMAS SHOW & TELL" AT 8:00 P. M. IN CHRIS KNUTZEN HALL.

"ADVENT FAMILY PARTY" DEC. 1--CHILDREN WREATH MAKING IN PFLUEGER HALL AT 3:30 P. M. FAMILY BUFFET DINNER AT 5:30 P. M. IN C.C. CALL GERI PEDERSEN, LE 1-2934, FOR INFORMATION.

NO KNIGHTLETTER NEXT WEEK. . .