Mooring Mast Changes Editors

With the passing of the first semester came also the passing out of one MOORING MAST editor and the passing in of another. Anita Stuen, Liberal Arts senior from Parkland, has left her post to Alice Brudie. Anita, who started as a reporter in her sophomore year, was co-editor last year and editor the first semester this year. She was one of five senior girls from our campus chosen for the 1946 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. Anita will continue with the M. M. as a special writer.

The new editor-in-chief, Alice, is a junior in the College of Education. She has also come up from the reporters ranks and was co-editor of the M. M. last year and associate editor the past semester. In addition she was the PLC reporter for the TACOMA TIMES the last half term.

Associate editors for the remainder of the school year are former reporters Ardy's Bredvold, Liberal Arts sophomore who is also ASB secretary, and Ruth Johnson, another Liberal Arts sophomore who has been PLC reporter for the TACOMA NEWS-TRIBUNE for more than a year. Marv Shaw, M.M. associate editor in 1942, has joined the staff as a special writer.

Rev. Hellman to Lead Religious Activities

The Reverend Walter H. Hellman, pastor of the Peninsula Peace Lutheran Church, Portland, Oregon, and father of Daphne, PLC sophomore, will be guest speaker during Spiritual Emphasis Week, February 11 to 15. Reverend Hellman will speak in chapel each day except Monday, and will be available for consultation in the student body office during the day. Meetings will be held in the dorm immediately after dinner each evening, during which there will be opportunity for special discussion.

Frosh Go Undercover With 4-F Mixer Plans

Flash! There's a mystery brewing in the shadows and throughout the corridors of PLC! A big event is speeding this way—we know when to expect it, but we don't know what to expect. All details have been cut off at the source leaving imaginations to run riot.

The event is known to be the Freshman Mixer, the time is known to be February 16; there is a sign known to exist containing something about 4-F; other details . . . missing! Our best campus detectives are failing in clues. Our finest students in the schools of espionage, sabotage, and try-and-dodge have been unable to uncover any concrete facts. The only information the Freshman will convey is, "Be at the gym the night of February 16 . . . Then you'll know."

Veterans Return to PLC From Wide Field

Returning alumni will see many familiar faces this weekend when they come back to school for their annual reunion. Veterans with diverse and impressive service records are back at school under the GI aegis after long absence from the PLC family.

Gus Anderson, lute choir member from '41 to '43, spent 34 months in naval aviation and was based for two and one half months on Okinawa. Ted Baird, campus photog fiend from '41 to '43, has returned after three years' service in the Army's C.W.S. Charles Billingsley, P.L.H. prexy in '43-'44, has come back after two years in the Army Air Corps.

Marty Gulhaugen, choir member from '41 to '43, was an Army field artilleryman with 31 months service, 25 of which were spent in the ETO where he gleaned five battle stars for fighting in campaigns in Italy, France, and Germany. Bob Hadland, M.M. reporter in '41 and '42, was a Coast Guardsman for three and a half years, with two years Aleutian and one of S.W.P. duty and is now back with invasion memories of the Aleutians, Iwo Jima, Luzon, and Okinawa.

Harry Lang, basketball headliner in '38, '39, and '40, is back after three and one half years in the Army Air Corps. Nate Fuhr, '39 and '40, was a field artilleryman with the 94th division and saw action in France, Belgium, Holland, and Central Europe. Ronald Gratius, ex '43, was 33 months an Army Air Corpsman, with one year of duty at Anguar and Okinawa and

FIRST POSTWAR ALUMNI REUNION RETURNS TO THREE-DAY SCHEDULE

With the return of our long-absent veterans, the PLC annual Alumni Reunion, traditionally held three days each year but cut to one during the war, returns to the old schedule. Beginning this afternoon, reunion activities continue through Sunday (February 8, 9, and 10).

The reunion opens with a basketball game between Eastern Washington College of Education (Cheney) and PLC.

COLLEGE BOARD EXPANDS PROGRAM

A building and expansion program of the College plant for 1946, to cost $512,000, was voted by the Board of Trustees at a special meeting held Tuesday, January 29, in the Reception Room.

This sum is a full $100,000 more than was originally planned. The increase was necessitated both by the general rise in prices, and by the change in plan of the science hall. Instead of rebuilding the old gymnasium, a new science hall will be erected, and the present gymnasium will be used for a variety of purposes, awaiting further study.

The new gymnasium is expected to seat 2,100 spectators and will be one of the largest physical education centers in any of the private colleges in Washington. It will be placed west of the present tennis courts.

The girls' dormitory is designed to take care of 83 students, and when complete will cost in the neighborhood of $190,000. The present building program calls for the completion of the first and second (Continued on Page 4) which will be played tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the Parkland Junior High School gym.

On Saturday, February 9, there will be open house in the Viking room from 3 to 4:00 p. m. The afternoon schedule also includes an alumni assembly and Little Symphony concert in the chapel at 4:30 p. m., followed by an alumni business meeting at 5:00 p. m.

The reunion banquet, high point of the three-day gathering, will be held in the PLC dining hall at 5:45 p. m. Clarence Monson will be toastmaster at the program, which includes a solo by Harry Soloos and short talks by Walter Simonson, Phillip Norby, Laura Hauge, Marvin Tommervik, and Olai Hagenes, all returned veterans and each representing a different branch of the service.

Saturday's schedule closes with a second basketball game between Eastern Washington College of Education and PLC, in the Parkland J.H.S. gym at 8:30 p. m.

The Reverend Theodore Gulhaugen of the First Norwegian Lutheran Church of Astoria, Oregon, and an alumnus of Pacific Lutheran Academy and father of Grace Elaine, Rumohr, and Martin, PLC students, will preach the Sunday morning sermon, in the Parkland Trinity Lutheran Church at 11:00 a. m. The reunion will end with a concert by the PLC Choir of the West.

Planning the reunion are Miss Anna Marn Nielsen, faculty advisor of the Alumni Association, Bert Myhre, president, Linka DeBerry, Gertrude Tingelstad, Wilfred Jewell, Carl Colton, Mrs. Stanley Willis, Marvin Shaw, Mrs. Olai Hagenes and Delmar Mortenson. Those carrying out the program include Gertrude Tingelstad and Mrs. Olai Hagenes, reservation committee; Mrs. Kenneth Jacobs, banquet decorations, and programs; Bernice Eklund and Lorna Rogers, publicity and programs.

Attention Please!

President Eunice Torvend urges that petitions for candidates for ASB vice-president to finish out the school term be circulated immediately and that the petitions be given either to herself or Ardy's Bredvold by Monday evening, February 11. Thirty signatures are required for each petitions.

Miss Dora Berg invites all alumni, faculty and students to visit the exhibit sponsored by the art department this Saturday and Sunday afternoons in Room 104 of Old Main.

Copies of the Vol. XVII, No. 10, 1940, and VOL. XVIII, Nos. 3 and 7, 1940, editions of the Mooring Mast are wanted by the library to complete their files. Anyone having these copies and wishing to donate them should contact Miss Gertrude Tingelstad at the library.

Welcome Back!

It's reunion time again for the many PLC alumni who will this weekend return to their Alma Mater to renew college friendships and talk over old times. This year's reunion is eventful because many ex-servicemen who have not been able to attend reunion for several years will be among the campus visitors.

We current students extend you our heartiest greetings. We are glad to see you, and we know you are going to enjoy your visit here. You will see many refurbished rooms and added equipment, and next year you will see several new buildings. But the more we change, the more we remain, the same. And it is in the Old, One-Big-Family spirit that we welcome you home today.

Return to Normalcy

With the return of more and more ex-servicemen to our campus it begins to look as though the brief era of feminine rule is coming swiftly to an end. No longer will the girls alone be wielding most of the gavels and making the decisions for they are now on the verge of becoming equaled in numbers by the trouser-clad contingent. From a war-time "girls' school" PLC is quickly reconverting to its normal status of co-educational college.

Your Mooring Mast extends to the returned servicemen and to all new students a hearty welcome. Even within these first two weeks of the new semester we have felt an upsurge of spirit which bodes fair for the future. The return of Winko League basketball competition has done much to enliven college activity and morale. We anticipate a growing vigor in our student body as the months go by.

Perhaps this would be a fitting time to give credit to those students, and that group is mostly feminine, who expended an extra large share of effort to keep affairs alive and functioning during the past critical years. Special mention goes to Agnes Mykland, ASB prexy for 1944-45 and Eunice Torvend, present ASB head, and their cabinets. Certainly under their leadership the days of manpower shortage have not been "dead days" at PLC.

The days of reconversion have reached us. As the men and women begin to share college activity again may we strive harder than ever to keep our student life alert, progressive and active.

Growing Pains

That's what your Mooring Mast is now experiencing. What we need is an expansion, but because of uncontrollable circumstances we have found it impracticable to increase the size of our paper at this time. We have hopes that next fall the M. M. can again appear in its 5-column pre-war style.

For the present we shall try to give our readers the best possible publication by condensing our news, printing what we think you most want to read, and killing off an ambitious ad-chaser or two. (We hope Mr. Stuen won't read this!)

You can help by letting us know what you would like to see printed in your college paper and by reporting news and "personals" to the editors or staff members. As the student body continues to grow we will need to render account of more items than before. This is your paper; tell us what you would like to find in it, and give us your ideas!

In a recent letter from Brazil, Mrs. Arling G. Sannerud (Victoria Rasmussen, '28) told of her interesting trip to South America. Mrs. Sannerud with her children, Catherine and David, sailed from New York last September on an Argentine combination cargo and passenger boat for a twenty-nine day trip to meet her husband in Rio. Mr. Sannerud, who has been in Brazil since the fall of 1944, was a member of the PLC faculty from 1939 to 1943.

Coming into Rio was "just like the pictures we've seen of it," wrote Mrs. Sannerud. Recently the family has moved to the country where Mrs. Sannerud has been teaching the third grade in an American school.

Married last month, January 25, was former M.M. editor Mildred Reese, '44, to the Reverend Walther Gullixson, pastor of the Parkland Evangelical Lutheran Church. The ceremony took place in Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Kennewick, Washington. Isabel Harstad, secretary to Dr. Eastvold, was maid of honor. Other PLC grads attending were Virginia Michelsen and Virginia Seaburg, both '45, who were candlelighters. Mildred was editor of the Mooring Mast in 1942-43.

Mary Louise Preus, '33, became the bride of Dr. Christian Bruusgaard on December 22, 1945, at a ceremony conducted in the Aker Church, Oslo, Norway. Mrs. Bruusgaard sailed from New York on the Stavangerfjord December 8, and reached Oslo on the 19 where she was met by Dr. Bruusgaard. This culminated a romance of six years, begun when Mary Lou visited Norway in 1939. At that time she was studying social service in Oslo. She was on the last boat to leave Norway before the German invasion and on the Christmas boat on her return trip to Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Willis of Parkland became the proud parents of an eight pound boy on Friday, February 1. The new arrival was named James Stanley. Mrs. Willis, the former Thelma Daniels, graduated from PLC in '36, and Stan in '38.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuen of Colfax, Washington, welcomed the arrival of a son, born January 12. The new addition was named John Paul. John, '36, is the oldest son of Prof. and Mrs. O. J. Stuen of Parkland.

Another wedding taking place during the Christmas holidays, December 26, was that of Mildred Hoff, ex '43, and Lt. Frank Swanberg, Jr. The ceremony took place in Central Lutheran Church, Tacoma, with the bride's father, the Reverend P. B. Hoff, officiating.

Returned Missionary To Be Chapel Speaker
The Rev. Albert Anderson, missionary in China for the Norwegian Lutheran Church since 1913, will speak in Chapel next Monday, February 11.
Home on furlough after serving during the entire Chinese-Japanese War in an area 60 miles from the Japanese occupied territory, Rev. Anderson is touring the United States and will be on the West Coast for several weeks telling of his experiences in wartime China, where our mission field was constantly exposed to the dangers of Japanese invasion.
Rev. Anderson was the president of Hauge Academy in Francheng, Hupeh Province—Dr. Harold Ronning's birthplace.

Hard-Fought Battle Lost to Cross-Towners
High point (from the Lutheran point of view) in the cross-town game with CPS Monday, February 4, came at the beginning of the second half, when the Lutes staged a magnificent rally, wiping out the 13 point lead of their opponents, and tying the score for a few thrilling seconds at 31 all.
Facing a 29-16 scoreboard at the opening gong of the second half, the Lutes, led by Perrault, Neal and Zurfluh, started out at a blistering pace and in the next five minutes chalked up 15 counts to the Loggers 2, which tied the score at 31.
The Loggers finally succeeded in halting the rampaging Lutes and again took the lead which they held for the remainder of the contest. The final score was 63 to 47.
The Lutes were greatly weakened in the final ten minutes of play by the loss of regulars Perrault and Neal on personal fouls.
Despite the scoreboard reading, the PLC quintet showed its best form of the season in this game and prospects look good for the forthcoming weeks.

LUTES WIN, LOSE SEATTLE GAMES
The PLC Gladiators won their first Winko League victory Saturday, February 2, in a second close game against Seattle College. The final score was 23-21. On the previous night the Lutherans were defeated by the same team by a 47 to 42 score.
The Saturday game was a slowly played affair with neither team displaying any ability at hitting the hoop for counters. The last half was filled with excitement as the two teams took several turns at holding the lead.
Ernie Perrault scored the game-winning basket with a minute to go after the score had been deadlocked at 21 all. The Lutes were able to get possession of the ball and successfully froze it until the end of the game.
Milt Theno, Lute guard, took individual scoring honors for the evening's proceedings as he hit the hoop for a total of 8 points.

ORCHESTRA HAS NEW MEMBERS
The orchestra has added three to its membership this semester: Mary Jane Brehon, flute; John Nicolai, bass; and Harriet Root, drums. It will present a half-hour program for the alumni Saturday, February 9, at 4:30 p. m. in the chapel.

SEMESTER ENROLLMENT
Approaching 300 Mark
Concluding the second week of the spring term, PLC finds its enrollment nearing the 300 mark, with returned veterans comprising one-third of the entire student body.
Among the new enrollees are many former students of the college whose education was interrupted by the war, as well as a large mid-term freshman class. The freshman class receives the bulk of the new enrollment with the addition of 58 members; the sophomores and juniors each received 10; and the seniors gained 7 new members.

Monson in Title Role Of Theater Guild Play
The top starring role in the Tacoma Theater Guild production, "Uncle Harry," will be enacted by Clarence Monson, '34, advance publicity on the play reports.
Monson, recently discharged from the Army Air Force, after long service in the South Pacific, is to be toastmaster at tomorrow night's alumni banquet. Active for many years in dramatic circles, Monson has appeared in several plays including "Candlelight" and "My Heart's In the Highlands" for the Theater Guild. He will play the title role in Thomas Job's melodrama Feb. 12, 13, and 14 at Mayflower Hall in Tacoma.

Two PLC Staff Members To Be Seminar Speakers

Dr. S. C. Eastvold and Dr. J. P. Pflueger will leave this week to speak at various Lutheran seminars to be held this month.

The seminars, sponsored by the American Lutheran Conference, are to be held in thirty-odd cities throughout the country. Three speakers will be at each seminar, one from the American Lutheran Conference, one from the United Lutheran Church, and one from the Missouri Synod.

Dr. Eastvold and Dr. Pflueger, both from the American Lutheran Conference, will speak on "The Centrality of the Word in the Contemporary Church."

Dr. Eastvold will go as far east as Chicago and will attend the meeting of the NLCA Board of Education in Minneapolis. He left last Tuesday and will return February 18.

Scheduled as a seminar speaker in Great Falls, Montana, and Winnipeg, Manitoba, Dr. Pflueger will in addition deliver an address at Luther College in Regina, Saskatchewan, where his brother, Professor Luther Pflueger, is on the faculty. Dr. Pflueger, who leaves Saturday or Sunday, will return in a week.

HE GAVE ME A C!

Scene:—First floor hall of Old Main surrounding the Registrar's Office. Time: 12:40 Monday, February 4. A milling, surging crowd is awaiting that momentous occasion—the issuance of semester grades.

Freshmen, going through this ordeal for the first time, stand in line with seasoned upperclassmen. Both are tense, eager, expectant, and at times, vocal.

"What do you think you got in comp?" "I think I deserve at least a B, but I suppose she gave me a C." "I hope he grades according to the test."

As the summings up of a semester of hard or semi-hard work are finally out in the open, some students remove themselves meekly to a quiet corner where they can view and meditate in solitude. Others join the crowd to compare grades. Again the comments are varied. "She only gave me a C after all that extra work I handed in." "That B he gave me spoiled my record of all A's." There is even that rare individual who takes the Manna-from-Heaven slant. "I got an A in history and I don't deserve it. Oh well, if she wants to give it to me—" "I wonder what my folks will say when they see these grades!"

Oh well, cheer up, kiddies. It's all over until the end of this semester—and that's not until next May. You've lots of time—or have you?—before you have to start studying to go all through this again!
