Fellowship Application Deadlines Near

Deadlines for fellowship, stipend and scholarship applications, in many cases, are approaching rapidly. Below are thumbnail sketches of types of fellowships offered at present, as announced by the college of arts and sciences this week.

Further information in each case may be obtained by checking with the dean's office.

Among the applications available are:

*National Endowment for the Humanities fellowship and summer stipend. One applicant for each from a single school. Age limit is 40. Deadline: Oct. 27, 1969.

*National Endowment for the Humanities senior fellowships for 1970-71. Scholars, teachers, writers or interpreters in humanities fields (as above). Deadline: Oct. 13, 1969.

*Rhodes Scholarships (students), ages 18-24. Scholarship, character, athletic ability. December election.

*Woodrow Wilson Fellowships and independent study awards. Potential college teachers; first year graduate students, seniors also. Nomination by a faculty member by Oct. 20, 1969. (Contact Dr. George Arbaugh, philosophy).

*National Science Foundation Science Faculty Fellowships. Mathematical, physical, biological, engineering, social sciences, history and philosophy of science. Deadline: Oct. 6, 1969.

*NSF NATO post-doctoral fellowships in science (areas same as above). Deadline: Oct. 3, 1969.

*NSF Senior post-doctoral fellowships in science (areas same as above). Deadline: Oct. 6, 1969.

*Dansforth Foundation Graduate Fellowships for Women. Masteral, doctoral programs, teaching fields primarily. Deadline: Nov. 25, 1969.

Gary Hammer converts one of his five extra points during Saturday's UBC game, tying a school record.

Lutes Dump UBC 47-12; Play Whitworth Tomorrow

Off to a blistering start with a 47-12 victory over the University of British Columbia Saturday, PLU is looking ahead to its second non-conference clash of the season, an afternoon contest in Spokane with the Whitworth Pirates.

The Pirates are somewhat of an unknown quantity in Western Washington, but are expected to be stronger than last year, especially on defense. The 1968 Pirates and Lutes had only one common opponent, the University of Puget Sound. UPS stopped Whitworth 41-14; the Lutes fell 21-6.

Saturday's battle will be held in Albi Stadium in Spokane; kickoff time is 1:30 p. m.

Against UBC, Lute standouts included quarterback Jim Hadland, ends Dave Roller and Vic Eaton, halfback Dave Halstead, fullbacks Gary Hammer and Dave Pritchard and guard Randy Jorgenson on defense; end Ross Boice, guards Bob Nordstrom and Don Aiken, linebackers Pete Ugstad and Stan Pietras and halfback Jack Irion on defense.

Following the 28-0 first quarter blitzkrieg, Coach Carlson made liberal substitutions. Hadland, playing his first college varsity game, ran and passed for 175 yards. Seven Lutes scored, with Hans Lindstrom the only man to score two touchdowns.

Schedule of NSF Programs for Education in the Sciences—Calendar Year 1969

This consolidated table presents important time-schedule information concerning NSF programs for education in the sciences. It is intended as a convenient reference for: (1) individuals applying for fellowships and (2) institutions submitting proposals for the conduct of all other listed programs and projects. Award announcement dates are approximate and on occasion may be somewhat later than the dates indicated.
