ALUMNI ANNUAL FUND REPORT

“PLU students experience the results of Alumni gifts everyday. Scholarships funded by your support make the dream of attending PLU a reality for many students. Your contributions also support dedicated professors who continue to build relationships that last a lifetime. Thank you for making a real difference in their lives.”

“The totals this year were terrific. Due to a wonderful Challenge Fund response, Alumni Annual Fund gifts increased over 23% this year! Special thanks are due once again to the many class representatives who make this program a success. Your dedication and hard work are deeply appreciated.”

LEIGH ERIE, '77

Alumni Board President

Here are some of the top success stories during the past year . . .

JIM HAALAND - CLASS OF 1958

35th "Grand" Reunion Sets New Standard

What began as a casual conversation over five years ago blossomed into the biggest success story of the year. At the 30th reunion of the class of '58 Neal Arntson, Joe Danielson, Class Representative Jim Haaland and others started talking about having a 35th reunion. The idea was kept alive by Haaland and rekindled by Norm Forness last spring. Working with David Berntsen, another '58 classmate and Director of Development at PLU, Neal Arntson suggested they set an incredible goal of raising $35,000 for the Alumni Annual Fund during their 35th year. That represented a quantum increase over a normal year's gift income of just under $16,000.

The ball began rolling and over time a committee of 32 classmates became involved. Classmate Carol (Sheffels) Quigg gave a challenge gift, others responded to a survey which resulted in a 35th reunion class booklet assembled by David Knutson. The booklet gives a brief summary of what everyone in the class is doing now. The reunion also helped locate many lost alumni.

The gathering at Homecoming in October was a great success - but only the beginning. The final results were nothing short of amazing:

- The reunion gift total exceeded $38,000 - a 141% gain!
- The average gift increased from $221 to $447
- Class donors increased from 72 to 85
- Class participation in the Alumni Annual Fund rose from 35% to 43%

DREW NELSON - CLASS OF 1981

Creativity and Humor Appeal to Younger Alumni

Drew Nelson '81 is building a reputation as one of the most original - and effective - class representatives. Even the office staff in Alumni and Development look forward to seeing his letters.

Last year he used a modified version of David Letterman's "Top Ten List" of reasons classmates should give to PLU. This year he produced a tongue-in-cheek letter which purported to quote the reasons "some of the leading people in our time" want to contribute to PLU. Those "quoted" included Bill Clinton, Ross Perot, Nancy Reagan, Pete Rose, Imelda Marcos, Geraldo Rivera, Paul McCartney, Vanna White, Michael Milken, and Leona Helmsley.

Some examples:

Bill Clinton: "I will gladly contribute, my wife handles all the finances and will send you a check."

Ross Perot: "This will stop that sucking sound of contributions heading toward your cross town rivals at UPS"

Michael Milken: "My contribution is enclosed, any school that has Loot for a mascot is my kind of place."

Vanna White: "Here is my $250 contribution to buy the vowel in PLU."

ALUMNI ANNUAL FUND REPORT

PHYLLIS GRAHN CARROLL - CLASS OF 1955

Personal Attention Moves Class into the Top 10

Phyllis Grahn Carroll '55 has demonstrated the value of personalization. By adding a hand written note to each letter, she has increased participation from 37% to 47% this year. This kind of personal attention has more than doubled the number of donors from her class in the six years she has served as their representative.

This fall, Phyllis will join the Alumni Board, bringing both experience and energy to the position. The notion of service to PLU is a strong tradition in her family. This past spring, Phyllis' mother, Olga Grahn, was the recipient of one of the first Q Club Service Awards at the 23rd Annual Q Club Banquet.

ARDEN OLSON - CLASS OF 1974

Top Class in Combined Support Has History of Achievement

Under Arden Olson's recent leadership, the class of 1974 has continued a tradition of top performance in the "all around" category of combined support. Classes in the Top Ten of Combined Support rank high in all categories: dollars, donors and participation.

It is an achievement for any class to make the top ten. The class of 1974 is ranked #1 three times in the last eight years. This year's performance ties '74 with the class of '71 - another three time winner under Paul Wuest's leadership.

Each class has made the top ten eight consecutive years, with '71 never ranked lower than 4th and '74 never lower than 7th.

Olson, and his wife Kathy '75, have a personal history of achievement and service as well. Currently an attorney in Eugene, Arden was recognized among PLU's 100 Centennial Alumni. Kathy is a professor of music at Oregon State University. Olson's class letter this year focused on the quality of the learning environment PLU offers both students and faculty. "PLU students are not numbers in the crowd, but have every opportunity to develop personal relationships with the quality minds of professors who treat teaching as their primary skill rather than as a lost art."

TIM AND TISH QUIGLEY - CLASS OF 1967

New Class Reps Bring Personal Experience as PLU Parents to the Job

Tim and Tish (Burchfield) Quigley brought the recent experiences of their daughter Siri, a PLU junior, to their class letter. What better way to talk about the impact of Alumni gifts on the university?

"In the three years she has been at PLU, we have seen our daughter's confidence blossom and grow - intellectually, emotionally and socially."

The Quigley's extended family boasts seven alumni in their generation (late 60's and early 70's) and five current PLU students or recent grads among Siri's cousins during the past few years. Tish Quigley's parents, Maurice and Mildred Burchfield of Salem, Oregon, were recipients of the PLU President's Medal for outstanding community service several years ago.
