DR. MORTVEDT ATTENDING SEVERAL CONCLAVES IN EAST

Dr. Robert Mortvedt, our busy president, left Tacoma Wednesday on a two week business trip to Minneapolis, Chicago, Washington D.C. and Spokane. He will attend four conventions make several speaking engagements and interview prospects for teaching positions.

From Saturday, January 11, through the 16th, Dr. Mortvedt will be in Washington where he will participate in the following conventions: National Lutheran Educational Conference, Council of Protestant Colleges and Universities, Citizens National Committee for Higher Education and the Association of American Colleges. He is a member of the AAC's Commission on Higher Education which will also meet there next week.

Enroute home he will be the featured speaker at PLU Alumni Club banquets to be held in Spokane on January 18 and in Kennewick January 19.

MUSIC DEPARTMENTS SCHEDULES STUDENT RECITAL WEDNESDAY

The PLU music department will feature two of its students and the Madrigal Singers in a student recital Wednesday, January 15 at 8 p.m. in the Eastvold Chapel Auditorium.

Miss Merrily Worrell, senior voice major, will sing several numbers including Purcell's "Dido's Lament," "Aria from Joshua" by Handel and "Voi Che Sapete from the Marriage of Figiero" by Mozart.

Jeffery Morrison, piano student, will play a French suite by Bach.

Under the direction of Prof. Fredrick L. Newnham, the Madrigal Singers will sing "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves" by Purcell, "I Know a Young Maiden, Wondrous, Fair" by Di Lasso and Moiley's "Sing We Enchanted."

The recital is complimentary to the public.

ADMISSIONS DEPARTMENT SLATES PARENT-STUDENT CONFERENCES

Two parent-student college conferences will be held by the PLU Admissions Department next week. On Wednesday one will be held in the Williamsburg Room of the Olympic Hotel in Seattle while one will be held Saturday in the Hall of Doges of the Davenport Hotel in Spokane.

The conferences are open to all prospective students of these areas and their parents. They will have an opportunity to become acquainted with PLU and its program and meet various members of the PLU administration, faculty and student body,

Besides J. E. Danielson, Sid Shelver and Jim VanBeek of the Admissions staff, others attending the Seattle conference will be Dr. John Amend, Anna Marn Nielsen, Eline Morken, Charles Peterson, Dr. Vernon Utzinger, Dr. Charles Anderson, Lucille Johnson, Dr. Walter Schnackenberg, Robert Weber, Dr. Eric Knorr, Dr. Kristen Solberg and Dr. Phillip E. Hauge.

Dr. Robert Mortvedt, Cliff Olson, Milt Nesvig, Larry Hauge, Dick Kunkle and Alumni president Carl Fynboe will be the other representatives at Spokane.

MAIL ROOM ESTABLISHES OUTGOING MAIL DEADLINES

The staff of the PLU Mail Room (Room 126, Administration Building) have established the following daily deadlines for outgoing mail--9 a.m., 1:30 p.m., 4:15 p.m. These deadlines had to be established to enable the staff to process the mail in time for its daily departures.

The staff also requests that anytime there are more than a few letters to mail that it would be a great help if rubber bands would be put around each particular group (this means separated by departments). These rubber bands are furnished by the mail room.

THE ROUNDTABLE

CONGRATULATIONS to DR. and MRS. GUNDA KING (business administration) on the birth of their second child, Marita Austr, on December 29 in Tacoma General Hospital. She joins brother John, age 8. Marita came at an opportune time...an income tax deduction.

DR. W. C. SCHNACKENBERG, (history) addressed the Downtown Rotary Club (Tacoma) at its weekly luncheon meeting yesterday (Jan. 9).

The entire GUNN R MALMIN (music, languages) was together for Christmas. Son Olaf came home from Iowa State University where he is doing graduate work in music, and daughter Anne came out from Northfield, Minn. where she is a sophomore at St. Olaf College.

The BOB OLSENS (chemistry) were all home for Christmas, too. Son Richard came up from Corvallis where he is working on his doctorate in chemistry at Oregon State; Jim came home on furlough from the Army, and Bob, Jr. came out from Dubuque, Iowa where he is a first year man at Wartburg Seminary.

DR. JOHN KUETHE, filling in for an ill Roy Olson, represented PLU at a Luther League Leadership Workshop last Thursday and Friday in Kalispell, Montana. Dr. Kuethe also represented the University at a coffee hour last Saturday in Missoula, Montana for PLU alumni, students, prospective students and parents. The latter affair, held at St. Paul Lutheran Church, also was attended by Coach G ne Lundgaard and the PLU basketball team and Dick Kunkle of the News Bureau.

Three members of the Public Relations staff--MILT NESVIG, LARRY HAUGE AND DICK KUNKLE--will attend a joint meeting of the American College Public Relations Association and American Alumni Council from Tuesday to Friday in Portland.

UNIVERSITY IN PROFILE

Don't miss this week's University Profile program entitled "What is a Liberal Education." The weekly TV series directed by Judd Doughty of PLU's speech department will be presented on KINT-TV, Channel 11, at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Appearing on this week's program are Dr. John Kuethe, Dr. Earl Gerheim and Mrs. Lucille Johnson, all members of the PLU faculty.

The program resulted from a phone call from a parent of a student who was concerned about the term "liberal education."

THE COPY HOOK

Campus Mail envelopes (the new ones) are getting bogged down in some offices. If you have a much larger supply than you need, please turn your surplus over to Laurel Nelson in the Public Relations office. Thanks.

With the growth of our faculty and staff, parking becomes an increasing problem. Persons parking in the area on the west side of the Administration Building (Yakima Ave.) are requested to park as close to the neighboring car as possible to allow more room for others. Also, please do not park on the pedestrian crosswalks and pull to the front of the parking stall to allow room for traffic behind your car.

Persons calling the various offices in the Science Building are requested to let the phone ring seven or eight times since many times the instructors are in a lab and are unable to get to the phone immediately.

C. E. Hutchins, the new Commanding General of Ft. Lewis, will be the speaker in Chapel next Friday.

Lute Jerstad, PLU's Mt. Everest conqueror, will appear on the Steve Allen Show next Wednesday, January 15 from 11:10 to 12:40 p.m. on KIRO-TV, Channel 7. Lute will have some of his mountain climbing equipment with him and will try to teach Steve the art of climbing.

A program featuring a discussion of techniques used in working with emotionally disturbed children at Ryther Child Center will be held January 14 at 4 p.m. at Lowell School, 1058 Mercer St., Seattle. Interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. John Kuethe (philosophy) represented the University at meetings in Montana the first days of January. He was the featured speaker at a retreat for Lutheran high school youth at Essex in Glacier National Park January 2 and 3. Then on January 4 he addressed a meeting of PLU alumni, students, prospective students and parents in Missoula.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Jan. 10 -- Roger Guilford

Jan. 11 -- Klaudia Barnes

SEVERAL MORE PLUers MADE HOLIDAY TRAVEL

In the last issue of this publication we listed some of the folks who were traveling to various areas for the Christmas Holidays. Several others made jaunts and we list them for you.

The Bartekys (library) went to southern California where they visited friends and relatives. They lived down there before coming here last fall.

Carl Spangler (Spanish) hopped the "rattlers" and spent the vacation with his family near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Carl, by the way, is a railroad hobbyist and subscribes to both American and European railway magazines.

Theodore J. Theusen (sociology) went back to Des Moines, Iowa and environs to visit with his family and friends. It was his first Christmas at home in many years.

Dr. Kristen Solberg (Dean of Students) made a quick trip to Thousand Oaks, California where he picked up his aunt, Mrs. Olga Marquardt, and brought her up here for the Holidays. Mrs. Marquardt former PLU housemother; has a similar post at California Lutheran College.

Arne Pederson (education) and wife spent a few days in Oregon visiting relatives.

Leighland Johnson (ass't to Dean of Students) and family drove to Arizona to visit relatives and friends.

Anne Knudson (English) and Margaret Wickstrom (Ass't Dean of Students) came back from Hawaii with star dust in their eyes and leis around their necks. Those gals had a ball.
