By Dave Nesvig
Today, the Mooring Mast resumes publication for the first time since

Campus Day Slated For Wednesday

Campus clean-up day will begin officially at 8:30 a. m. on April 23, with students reporting to their assigned areas. Classes will be suspended and students will don their working clothes for a welcome change in the week's schedule.

Several Blue Key members will be in charge of each group to take roll and to supervise the morning's work.

At noon the activities on the campus will be followed by the annual picnic at Spanaway. Art Broback will announce final plans at a later date.

All members of the student body have been classified according to class and then listed alphabetically. These lists are to be checked on the main bulletin board by all students.

George Nowadnick and Lloyd Eastman have been selected as co-chairmen for the six work groups in the morning. Other chairmen include: Group 1, Alvin Fink, Jim Kauff and John Rose, Old Main, parking area and fish pond; group 2, Don Reese and Don Reiman, behind C. M. S.; group 3, Bill Rieke, John Liming and Paul Wangamo, creek and hillside; group 4, Otto Reitz and Phil Thorleifson, tennis courts and gym; group 5, George Nowadnick, Don Ellertson and Art Broback, golf club house and Clover Creek Hall; and group 6, Lloyd Eastman and Bob Knutson, athletic fields.

March 21. During this period many students and faculty members made inquiries of me and other staff members about the paper, so I will herewith try to explain the situation to you readers.

In brief, the story is this. After issuing the March 21 edition, our funds were down to virtually nothing and we were faced with the problem of either suspending publication or operating in the red for the remainder of the year. After our plea for additional money was rejected by the college administration we went, as a last resort, to the Student Council, which unanimously decided to donate $300 to the Mooring Mast cause. Without the Student Council gift, we would not be circulating today, either.

Now, you would no doubt like to know how the paper approached near-bankruptcy on March 21. Here are the facts. Actually, though it sounds paradoxical, the Mooring Mast has had the best year, financially speaking, in its history.

Each issue of this newspaper costs $103 to print plus an additional $3 weekly for postage and an average of $6 for cuts. Our average advertising income is $50 to $60 per issue. The weekly loss which is usually $50 or more, is made up by funds provided by the college to the extent of $1 per student each semester.

During the school year, 1949-50, the Mooring Mast received $1,738 from the college; in 1950-51, $1,468, and this year, $1,298. Each year, with the decrease in enrollment, correspondingly the allotment for the paper decreased. Also, this year's staff paid off a debt of $300 owed to the Student Body treasury since 1949.

Now you can see what we had to (Continued on Page Four)

Festival Directors Hope To Make PLC Cultural Center

By Beverly Green

Irina Petina

To establish Pacific Lutheran College as the "cultural center of the Northwest," Professors Karl E. Weiss and Theodore O. H. Karl have arranged for the first Drama-Music Festival, which will be presented May 1, 2, and 3 in the Chapel-Music-Speech Building.

On Thursday evening, May 1, the Metropolitan Opera Company's most versatile singing actress, Irina Petina will inaugurate the three-day festival.

A mezzo-soprano, Irina Petina, has starred in "The Song of Norway" and "Carmen," and has made singing tours in the United States, Canada, Latin America and Europe.

On Friday afternoon, May 2, Clarence Derwent, Broadway's greatest character actor, will give interpretive readings, some will be Biblical, others Shakespearean. In his evening performance, he will star in Christopher Fry's play "A Sleep of Prisoners." He will be assisted by an all-male student cast.

Clarence Derwent has played opposite such leading ladies as Helen Hayes, Katharine Cornell and Mary Martin. Famous not only for his Shakespearean performances and character roles, he is also president of the Actor's Equity and vice president of the National Theater Academy.

Saturday, May 3, will be a day filled with inspiring music by the Seattle Symphony under the baton of Conductor Dr. Stanley Chapple, director of music at the University of Washington.

The afternoon performance of the Seattle Symphony will feature R. Byard Fritts as piano soloist, playing "Variations" by Cesar Franck.

The evening performance will feature Frederick Newnham, baritone. A festival chorus of some 125 members will also sing several songs accompanied by the Symphony directed by Gunnar Malmin.

Special events include: an art exhibit of Northwest artists, loaned by the Henry Galleries. Professor George Roskos is in charge of this event; daily concerts by the Festival Band, the coronation of the May Queen, and interesting departmental displays.

Musical directors for the festival are Gunnar J. Malmin and Karl Weiss.

On Sunday, May 4, Morning worship services will be presented at 11 a. m. in the C-M-S auditorium. Twenty-fifth anniversary dedication services will be held at 3:30 p. m., at which time President S. C. Eastvold will deliver the message and formally dedicate the Chapel-Music-Speech building.

In a Silver Jubilee concert Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m., the Choir of the West will celebrate in song its 25th year of musical existence.

A prominent woman in Tacoma cultural affairs made this genuine comment about the great cultural event, "It is a thrill to see a college the size of P. L. C. making such gigantic strides."

Junior Class Extravaganza On Tomorrow

Complete mystery surrounds the extraordinary Junior Class production to be released this Saturday night at 7:30, entitled "The Junior Class Celebratorium." It is directed by Cecil B. Cespool and sponsored by Stoppette.

Although the Mooring Mast has tried every trick to obtain even the smallest amount of information, all Co-Chairman Marilyn Wallace will reveal is that this is the most stupendous, colossal, extravagant, absolutely original, terrific production ever to hit the P. L. C. campus.

However, through some hidden channels, it has been established that Alan Hatlan will definitely be emcee. And did we hear that the Web boys were to perform? Strictly rumor, however.

The only real statement to be released was a concoction of the minds of Marilyn and Everett Savage. It reads as follows: "You've all heard of an 'American in Paris.' Well, did you ever hear of an Irishman in Brooklyn?"

They say it's not a talent show, thus the only way to find out is to come and see. It was also said that no one would be disappointed.

Louise Stephenson Chosen May Queen

Fragrant spring flowers, a bevy of pretty girls, and a rainbow of pastel colors will be present to welcome the coming of May in P. L. C.'s annual May Day ceremonies. This year the event will be a part of the Drama-Music festival.

Coronation of the May queen will be on Thursday, May 1 at 3 p. m. in the Memorial gymnasium. Clarence Derwent, famous Broadway star, has agreed to crown the lovely queen, Louise Stephenson, senior.

Queen Louise's senior attendants will be Dolores Johnson and Margaret Lucas. Nan Ageeson and Audrey Engstrom.

May 6 ASB Ballot Due

Candidates selected by a student council nominating committee for 1952-53 Associated Student Body executive positions were announced this week. Voting is slated for May 6 and 7, with primaries on the 6th and finals on the latter date.

Chosen to vie for the presidency were two juniors, Bill Rieke and Paul Wangamo. Three male students, Lloyd Eastman, Glenn Huffman and Alan Hatlan, comprised the nominations for vice president. Conversely, four members of the opposite sex were selected as candidates for the job of secretary. They are: Marguerite Thompson, Darlene DeJardine, Joyce Genz and Marilyn Wallace.

Richard Stuhlmiller, Dick Larson and Everett Savage were picked as aspirants for the handling of the student body treasury. The position of Saga business manager has three candidates, Ron Douglas, Don Keith and Bob Johnson.

Also on the ballot will be yell leader hopefuls. Students interested in yell leading are asked to contact Art Broback.

Petitions may be taken out for any of the offices until the deadline, April 28 at 4 p. m. Each petition must bear the signatures of 65 persons, and should be turned into any student body officer.

Re-vote Today For LSA Executives

Nineteen fifty-two-fifty-three officers elected yesterday are: Hal Rued-dick, vice president; Norm Vorwick, treasurer; Bonnie Mulholland, secretary; Everett Savage, spiritual growth leader; and Dr. Magnus Nordvedt, adviser.

The race for presidency and I. C. C. representative was so close that a re-vote will be held today. Bud Lester and Alan Hatlan are the candidates for president and for I. C. C. representative, Jesse Swanson and Evelyn Peterson.

Carol Brace celebrated her nineteenth birthday far away from home but her roommate, Iris Nordman, and other friends, surprised her with a party held in Mary Ensborg, Marcine Vohs, and Jeanne Fricke's room. Many freshmen girls enjoyed ice cream and cupcakes and saw Carol's many presents.

Several engagements have recently been announced on the P. L. C. campus. Monday night Arlene Wangensteen surprised her friends and was somewhat surprised herself, when she came into her room and found a number of girls there. Everyone was very surprised when she took her hands out of her pockets and revealed the ring. Barbara Espedal served cake and sandwiches. No wedding date has been set.

Tassels, senior women's honorary, held a coffee hour Wednesday afternoon in the Girls' Lounge in honor of girls whose names appeared on the honor roll last semester. Coffee and cookies were served and the purpose of the organization was explained to the girls.

AWS Teas and Election of Officers in May

During the month of May the Associated Women Students has three main events planned, a May Day tea, the election of officers for the 1952-53 school year, and the annual Spring Awards tea, May 14.

The following have been nominated for A. W. S. offices: President, Joyce Genz, Betty Hanson and Betty Riggers; secretary, Inga Astrup, Anita Hellbaum, June Nelson and Marguerite Thompson; treasurer, Marciel Fink, Peggy Holbrook and Marianne Pfeiffer; social chairman, Darlene Bronkhorst, Darlene De Jardine, Margie Hill and Joanne Poenget; publicity chairman, Judy Bargman, Martha Coolick, Phyllis Grahn, Kathy Hinrichs and Joanne Schwartzwalter; Inter Club Council representative, Grace Foege, Ellen Heesen, Marilyn Lund, Mary Olson and Lynn Scherwin. The runner-up for president will automatically become vice president.

Prexy Says . . .

I believe an explanation is in order concerning A. S. B. elections. It is to have no campaigning for student body officers. Candidates should be judged on what they are, not what they are bragged up to be, if you catch the point. Because of the size of our student body we feel that most of the students are well enough known that we don't have to have any campaigning.

The candidates who have been nominated thus far are all very well qualified. They are also known by most everyone because of their outstanding work in the past. If we had campaigns it would only lead to more confusion, and what would be worse would be the hard feelings which sometimes result.

All the candidates will be introduced in chapel on Tuesday morning before voting begins. If there is any doubt in your minds who some of the people are you will be able to straighten yourselves out then.

TED and RON Sports Once Over

With the exception of track, the P. L. C. spring sports program shifted into high gear this week with the high point coming in a clean sweep over our cross-town friends from C. P. S.

The highly touted baseball team was not too impressive in its grapefruit league games against Lincoln and McCord Field, but looked good against the Loggers. The Lutes also showed flashes of brilliance against Seattle U. but costly errors by the normally "old reliables" built up the score with unearned runs. Gerry Hefty looked very good in his only pitching assignment to date with a 3-hitter against C. P. S. while Frosh chucker Bud Lester has turned in some fine relief performances although he couldn't find the plate in his one starting role.

Incidentally a story from the Western paper, after they defeated C. P. S. 2-0 and 6-3, quoted Coach Joe Martin as saying that he didn't believe there was a team in the Evergreen Conference that could touch the Viking baseballers this season. We'll see!

John Waldorf won the Loggers' hole-in-one contest with a drive that came to nest 1 1/2 inches from the cup and was awarded a table radio. The all-school ping pong playoffs are well underway in the SUB. A tentative schedule, will have all of the championship matches played off at one time. Watch for further announcements.

It's a little late now, but congratulations to Glen Huffman, Bert Wells and Ed Brown for making the all-conference second team in basketball. It is still hard for this column to believe that there were a better pair of guards around than Wells and Brown. . . . Ralph Polson, the Whitworth giant, was named to the national NAIB second team.

In answer to numerous queries, although Dan Walton, Ed Honeywell and Earl Luebker from our own branch sports office down town may be underpaid and determined to strike, we are very satisfied and will continue to serve our large reading public.

A few times from a triangular meet between Western, U. B. C., and Vancouver A. C. that our trackmen might be interested in include: mile—4:27; 120 high—16.0; 880—2:02; two mile—10:13; shot—46'1"; javelin—174'11"; and broad jump—20'7".

Intramural volleyball got into full swing the past three weeks and now stands with a five way tie for first place.

The feared Central Spikers were sitting in first place quite contentedly until last Tuesday night when the Central Married Men pulled an unexpected upset and dumped them in one of the seasons most thrilling games. The Married Men played with a squad of only four men, Feax, Herigstad, Kimball and Jeffers; while the Spikers carried a full crew: Johnson, Ross, Krejci, Helberg, Bickner, Tollefson and Neilson.

Badminton Begins

The Intramural Badminton Tournament begins Monday April 21. Champions from all six physical education classes are entered.

Track

The Intramural track meet will be held Thursday, April 24, at 3:30 p. m. Varsity track men are not eligible to compete. Events will include: 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, high jump, broad jump, shot put, football throw, and 880 yard relay.

Softball

April 28 is the date set for the beginning of the softball league. Districts should get their teams organized at once and hand a roster into the intramural director no later than Wednesday, April 23. Varsity baseball players are not eligible.

Three Glad Teams Will See Action Today vs Viks

P. L. C. fans will have an opportunity to see three Lute teams in action this afternoon as the Western Washington Vikings invade Luteville. The main event will pit the baseball nines of the two schools against each other in an afternoon twin bill on lower campus at 3 p. m.

The Vikings are highly regarded and to date have lost twice to the strong U. of Washington team and, like the Lutes, swept a twin bill from C. P. S. Pitching is the Vikings' strong point with big Bob Hansen, who threw a one-hitter against C. P. S. and Puss Nielson, who gave the Loggers only 3 bingles ready for duty. Spud Wally, who also pitches them on the gridiron, is available for mound duty.

At the same time, also on lower campus, the tennis teams of the two schools will be vying for honors. The Vikings so far have lost to Seattle U. by a 4-3 score and defeated the C. P. S. racketmen 6-1. Their two doubles combinations swept every game in these matches.

Meanwhile, on the Brookdale Golf Course, the linksmen of Western and P. L. C. will also be competing.

In this sport the Vikings lost to the strong Seattle U. team, 14-1, and defeated C. P. S. by an 4-7 score. In the latter match Carbonatto and Swenson led the Vikings with scores of 78 and 80 respectively.

CPS Host to PLC Thinclads

The PLC thinclads open their season tomorrow in a dual meet against C. P. S. with the Loggers as hosts. Coach Mark Salzman's squad is rounding into shape with inexperienced men slated to see action in many events.

Lute Netsters, Club Swingers Win Openers

The P. L. C. tennis and golf teams went into action this week with creditable performances.

Against the Loggers, Luvaas, Olsen and Jaeger won their singles events and Spitzer and Olsen came through in doubles to give the Lutes a 4-3 victory.

The crack Seattle U. team defeated the Lutes by a 6-1 score on Wednesday as Pete Luvaas was the lone Lute winner.

The Lute golf ladder finds Wendell Watts as number one man followed by Len Nelson, Don Koessler, Rich Gogl, Punk Wollueter and Dwight Seymore. Box score on the C. P. S. match is as follows:

P. L. C. (12)	G. P. S. (3)
Watts 1/2	Osborne 2 1/2
Nelson 3	Gange 0
Koessler 3	York 0
Gogl 2 1/2	Dean 1/2
Wollueter 3	Moyles 0

Len Nelson was the medalist for this match at Brookdale with 75. Because of a mixup in scheduling, the Lute golfers did not meet Seattle U. this week.

Diamond Squad Splits in Openers

The Lute diamond squad opened their season by winning three and losing three of their first six ball games.

In its first game again at McCord Air Base, the Gladiators lost a close decision by a 7-6 score.

The next day on its home field the boys found the going a little tougher by running into a highly spirited Lincoln Hi team and coming out on the short end of a 9-6 count. In a game the following day the Lutes won their first game of the year by bouncing the same Lincoln squad, 12-6.

Returning from vacation, the Luthcrans made a clean sweep of a double header from CPS. Gerry Hefty turned in a neat three-hit performance to set down the Loggers, 4-1. Bud Lester and Wally Feax combined their efforts in the second game to turn back the Lutes' cross-town rivals, 10-6.

Wednesday the game weary nine journeyed to Broadway Field in Seattle only to be dumped by the Seattle University Chieftains. A combination of erratic fielding and shortage of base hits caused the Lutes to end up at the wrong end of a 10-1 score.

To Claim Festival Tickets Immediately

The directors of the Drama-Music festival, Professors Karl and Weiss, had especially favorable comments to offer this week on the progress of ticket sales for the coming three-day event.

The festival directors wish to enlist the interest of faculty and students in personally contacting people who would like to know of the event.

ads, and keeping our books in order, certainly deserve a pat on the back. Without the tireless efforts of advertising manager Joanne Poenect and her assistants, Gloria Kvinge and DeLores Hagevik, and business manager Erv Severson, publication would not be possible. Also our thanks to Professor Dwight Zulauf, our financial adviser, who took the initiative to help us out of our financial dilemma.

Debate Squad Wins Two More Tourneys

The P. L. C. forensics squad continued in its winning fashion in two northwest tournaments since the last edition of the Mooring Mast.

At the St. Martin's Invitational, P. L. C. copped the grand sweepstakes trophy, as well as the men's and women's sweepstakes. The winning of the over-all sweepstakes brought the grand trophy to P. L. C. permanently, as the Lutes have walked off with top honors for two consecutive years.

Janet Klippen and Edith Engel went through women's division debate undefeated to take first place. Miss Klippen also nabbed the first place award in women's extemp. Alan Hatlen was first in men's extemp., and John Rydgren came through with a first in oratory.

Journeying east to the Pi Kappa Delta Northwest Provincial tournament at Washington State, our Epsilon chapter made another splendid showing. Joanne Schief placed first in women's extemp., Janet Klippen and Edith Engel tied for second in women's debate, and Joanne and Janet Klippen tied for third in women's oratory.

It is an understatement to say that this year has been another good one for the P. L. C. debate squad; it has been terrific. At five tournaments the speakers have brought back 35 first place awards, with innumerable seconds and thirds. With only the West Point national tournament in sight for Jon Ericson and Bill Rieke, the squad is looking expectantly for another big season next year.

Mural of PLC Being Painted In Cotee Shop

Color is being added to the college coffee shop in the form of a mural which depicts the entire P. L. C. campus. The mural is being painted by Vern Newhouse and Jens Knudsen.

Painted in oil the 6½' by 10' mural was copied from an aerial photograph of the campus purchased at McKuen's studio. At the present time it is half finished and approximately 130 hours of work has been spent on it. During the Easter vacation the artists averaged 14 work hours daily.

When completed, it will cost around $200. It is estimated that the cost would have reached $500 if done by a commercial artist.

The mural was painted at the request of Al Bjerkestrand, coffee shop manager, who comments "we are trying to decorate the place and make it more attractive." At the present the group is looking for sponsors who will help meet the material costs of the mural.
