

Two New Transfers Enroll For Fall Semester

Some transfer students entered PLC family this fall. There were 15 men and 24 women. The school having the most transfers was Puget Sound, followed by the University of Washington and Washington State College. Following is the list of transfers and school from which they transferred: Margaret Ferguson, CPS; Betsey U. of W.; Phyllis Bergren, Anna Junior College; Lois Concordia College; Catherine Northern Idaho Junior College; Marion Gabrielsen, Concordia; Mary Herran, State University; Marjorie Hill, San Francisco State College; Gwen Havey, St. College; Connie Jacobsen, U. of Maine; Johnson, W.S.C.; Char-Kinney, Pennsylvania Teachers' College; Louise Kleinert, Concordia; Dorothy Kloth, Dana College; JoAnn Knudsen, Fresno State; Shirley Laursen, Long Beach College; Bella May, Whitworth; Peterson, Seattle Pacific.

Thorliefsen Nominated For State PTA Post

Thorliefsen, PLC senior, was named treasurer of the Washington Association of State Future Teachers. Nominated by Bob Knutson, the very PLC chapter contributed the part of the F.T.A. booth at Puyallup Fair. Knutson, John and Ernie Templin constructed a map of Washington, located the F.T.A. chapters in the will be host to a regional conference in the latter part of the month. Its purpose will be to strengthen the newly organized state group. The F.T.A. merged to form a state unit.

Regular meeting time for the local chapter will be the last Thursday of each month. For the first time, this year anyone interested in the teaching profession as well as education majors is eligible for membership.

Siqueland Elected Club Prexy

Siqueland, PLC sophomore, chosen to head the Viking Club for the year. The officers for the year are: Phil Siqueland, president; John Siqueland, vice-president; Norman Siqueland, secretary; Helen Eger, treasurer; and Arnold Gregerson, ICC representative. The last two are juniors.

Old Dorm Elects

Vorvick, president; J. P. Carlsson, vice-president; and Duane Tolson, treasurer, will reign over the Old Dorm this year. They were elected at a recent meeting.

Mooring Mast Announces Staff For Coming Year

Heading the staff of the Mooring Mast for the coming year are Dave Nesvig, editor-in-chief; Jerry Martin, sports editor; Erving Severson, business manager; and Phyllis Grahn, Joanne Poencet, Delores Hagevik and Gloria Kvinge, associate ad managers.

Dave, a sophomore, attended Queen Anne high school in Seattle, where he was sports editor of the Kuay Weekly. He was also Mooring Mast sports editor last year.

This year's sports editor, Jerry Martin, has had experience on the Puyallup high paper, The Viking, and was sports editor of Tacoma's Lincoln High year book, The Lincolnian.

Business Manager Erving Severson attended Augustana Academy in South Dakota, where he was business manager of their school paper.

The associate advertising managers all hail from Seattle and have had experience working on their respective school papers.

Phyllis Grahn was editor of the Lincoln Totem, Joanne Poencet reported for the Roosevelt News, and Gloria Kvinge and Delores Hagevik both worked for the Ballard High Talisman.

Filing the exchange papers from afar, is Ernie Johnson, senior student, majoring in education, and Marilyn Sannerud, circulation manager, makes sure the Mooring Mast's advertisers and exchanges receive copies.

Reporters and solicitors include Janet Franklin, Iris Nordman, Joyce Genz, Irene Hansen, Rose Larsen, Kathy Hinrichs, Beverly Allen, Ernie Johnson, John Holm, Lloyd Sayer and Don Keith.

Sophomores Annoy Frosh Boys, Girls Dormitory Rooms

It was all in fun, and oh what fun it was! The sly sophomores selected Tuesday night as a good time to punish the insolent frosh.

A meeting was called at which all frosh were required to attend. During this meeting a few sophomores spent one-half hour in telling them everything they already knew about the week's initiation. While this was going on, the sophomore boys were doing these things in the unsuspecting frosh's rooms: emptying drawers on the floor, piling bedding on the same place, tipping bunks, writing with toothpaste on mirrors, greasing door knobs, hiding light globes, and other miscellaneous things.

While the fellows were not allowed to inspect the girls' rooms, it was understood that much of the same happened to them.

Results of Elections In Oct. 5 Issue of MM

All four classes at PLC will complete their elections by next Wednesday. The junior class will be the first one to complete elections, probably today. Sophomores will also begin today.

Results of all elections will be announced by the Mooring Mast next Friday, October 5. No announcement will be made until then.

LSA Sponsors Suppers On Sunday Evenings

Beginning Sunday evening, LSA will sponsor suppers, which will be served for a small fee.

The initial supper will be in the form of a picnic at Lake Spanaway, at 5 p.m. Following luncheons will probably precede the regular LSA meetings in the Student Union.

LSA members will act as a serving committee.

Another innovation in the LSA program for the coming year will be Bible studies, every second and fourth Sunday, conducted by Herb Neve.

Selective Service Gives Information On Draft Law

In order to clarify the position of college students not under an R. O. T. C. reserve program, Brigadier General Louis H. Renfrow explained their draft status in the latest Selective Service bulletin.

"Recently enacted Selective Service legislation provides a student cannot be drafted after he has entered his academic year until the end of that year, BUT such a student can receive only one such deferment under the statutory provision.

"If induction of a student was postponed under the 1948 Act, he becomes eligible and remains eligible for induction at the end of the year.

"A student deferred once under the statutory provision may or may not be deferred under the regulation. The statutory deferment is determined by Act of Congress; the deferment by regulation is a determination of the local board using class standing or test score as a guide and subject to appeal."

Day Girls Elect, Make Plans for Year

At the last meeting of Delta Rho Gamma, organization of day girls, the following officers were elected: Secretary, Rosemary Needham; treasurer, Mary Olson; ICC representative, Betty Hall, and historian, Mary Hogarth.

President Delores Johnson, who was elected last spring, also announced that Friday night, the DRG's freshmen are sponsoring a dinner for the upper classmen. This will be followed by the pep rally, games in the gymnasium and a slumber party in the dayroom. Miss Wickstrom will be the chaperone.

Fewer Vets In '51

Veteran registration decreased considerably this year and has dropped 50% from the peak veterans enrollment of the years 1946-49. A total of 135 have registered for the fall semester.

Old Folks Homes

Fifty-nine students, largest group to visit the Old Folks homes in two years, journeyed to the Midland Old Men's Home and the Criswell Old Ladies Home last Thursday.

Arnold Gregerson spoke at Midland and Einar Siqueland at Criswell.

Schools From Alaska to Ohio Claim PLC Grads

Keeping up its excellent record of student placements, Pacific Lutheran College boasts eighty graduates of 1951 and twenty-two five-year students holding teaching positions as far north as Alaska and east to Ohio. Through the office of Miss Nielson, education director, these students are placed in suitable teaching positions upon their graduation. Most of the graduates are working in the elementary level.

The following are teaching in the Clover Park system: Bonnie Heen, Louella Johnson, Stanton Stowe, Lois Swanson, Lenore Taylor, Dorothy Tiedeman, Frank Treloar, Luverne Ward, Emily Holsapple, Richard Haglund, and Maryon Holte.

Clover Creek District: Corrine Aune, Marion Lundgaard, Harland Malyon, Jo Ann Meyer, Donald Christian.

Bethel District: Jack Justice, Burton Morris, Elsie Neil, Elsie Pease, Emilie Zulauf.

Franklin-Pierce District: Wesley Benson, Mabel Galbraith, Marie Haglund, Elizabeth Sullivan, Robert Winters, Robert Richardson, Norman Scott, Charl Mansen.

Tacoma: Ralph Baird, Mildred Olson, Marion Roach, Vella Van Arnam, Anthony Rakas, Milton Theno.

Puyallup: Richard Molter, Doris Shaw, Elizabeth Snyder, Ray Tobias.

Soph Boy Designs Homecoming Emblem

"Round Up the Wildcats" was depicted this week by John Rydgren in a drawing that will be used as the official emblem for the 1951 Homecoming, which is now only two weeks away. The emblem shows a ferocious wildcat being tamed by a confident gladiator.

This emblem is being used on the stationery used to invite some 1,200 graduates to return to their alma mater. These letters, outlining all of the Homecoming activities, are going out in this weekend's mail.

Other advertising media are also coming into use. Two hundred and fifty bumper strips printed in glowing fluorescent yellow ink will be

Pep Rally, "Viking Fling" Tonight, 7:30

A "whip Whitworth" pep rally, at 7:30 p.m., in Memorial gym, followed by a mixer, "The Viking Fling," will provide entertainment for all students tonight.

The pep rally will be led by the yell team to give the Gladiators a boost in their first Evergreen contest, with the Whitworth Pirates.

Following this, the Viking club will sponsor a mixer. Art Broback, who will "emcee" the show, promises some excellent talent in addition to the folk games.

PLC Band Plan Activities For Coming Season

Another musical group on the PLC campus which was hard hit by both graduation and the draft, is the college band. Harley Christopherson was greeted by only 14 returning students this fall.

Alums of PLC will see the band lead the Homecoming parade, and perform in the half-time activities of the PLC-Central game.

At the present there are 34 members in the band, but positions are open for anyone who can play a musical instrument.

All twenty of the new members are freshmen. They are: Floyd Olman, Kathryn Biery, Harold Hillesland, Donna Flynn, Donald Wolf, Beverly Tranum, Robert Turner, Glenn Hull, Mary Estergreen, Richard Borrud, Marjorie Bevan, Jean Bjerkeset, Ada Brookhurst, Richard Brandt, Faith Bveltmann, Marjorie Hamilton, Marion Leonard, Sonja Ranes, and Jerald Sheffels.

The band adds to the pep and spirit of all our games as well as representing us in all of our school activities.

Eastvold Speaker For Trinity Brotherhood

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of Pacific Lutheran college, will speak and show moving pictures that he took in the Hawaiian islands on his recent trip there at the Trinity Lutheran Brotherhood meeting Monday evening in the church parlors at 8 p.m. The pictures include shots from the air and on the ground from four of the eight islands in the Hawaiian group.

Among the very interesting pictures are those of Pearl Harbor, the sunken Arizona, the pass in the mountains through which the Japanese planes approached and thus escaped radar detection. It is also expected that graphic pictures of the eruption of Mauna Loa in 1950 will arrive in time to be shown.

The meeting will be a "Ladies Night" event. Therefore, men and women among the members and friends of the church are invited. Lunch will be served following the meeting.

Chapel Quotes

Dr. Eastvold: If Pacific Lutheran College does everything decently and in order, this can and will be the finest year in fifty years.

Pastor Roy Olson: The world's greatest need is educated Christian leadership. What we see today must be a result of non-Christian leadership. We must get Christianity plus brains—a zeal for God with knowledge.

Pastor Steen: Disaster always attends neglect. Human nature is so susceptible to neglect.

"How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation?" God authored these words! He gives us message after message on this theme. Back of this warning is the radiant love of God. Glorious is the result if we accept the salvation, but how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?

It is an ever present danger to neglect. Is there neglect of prayer fellowship with God? Have you neglected God's means of grace? What about Sundays? Therefore, the whole teaching and preaching of the Christian Church, for we need all the help that God gives in the means of grace and the fellowship of the Church.

Dr. J. P. Pflueger: "Will ye also go away?" This presents an interesting picture of our Savior's love. It presents the liberty of the child of God in the kingdom of God.

The only tie that binds a Christian to his Lord is love and free choice. There is no comparison between the relationships of choice and those not by choice. Jesus does not bring any restraint upon his disciples. This is the highest relationship know to us—a relationship of our choice. God could have made us slaves in which there would be no choice. That would not be worthy of God or worthy of man.

We could never choose unless God had given the power.

Foreign Films Billed At Broadway Theater

Immigrant Girl Enjoys American, PLC Atmosphere

Among the freshmen from "far away places" attending PLC this fall is Julia Bendikas, from Tausage, Lithuania.

Julia was born in November, 1929, and lived in Lithuania until 1944. At that time the Reds had her stationed in a displaced persons' camp in Germany, where she remained until 1950.

From there Julia boarded the ship, General Taylor, as a DP and arrived in New York just nine months ago. She then proceeded to St. Louis, Missouri, where she has made her home.

Julia, who is five foot one, with brown hair and big blue eyes, is majoring in English and also taking some art courses. She has no definite plans for the future.

She especially wanted it known that she would not be attending PLC, but for the help of Miss Mary Huth, a friend of her older brother George, who graduated from PLC in 1951.

When asked what she thought of the Parkland school, Julia enthusiastically replied, "It's just a wonderful place. It's a place where I can get some peace after traveling around so much."

Julia was not worried about freshman clash day, as in Europe, high school students are not allowed to wear any makeup and their hair must be perfectly straight at all times.

"Americans are so good hearted and make friends so easily," remarked Julia. "Europeans usually have only one real friend. Americans seem to have such deep feelings in their hearts for others."

Some other interesting differences Julia noted about the U. S. were that bobby sox were worn extensively. In Europe, hosiery is worn almost entirely.

Also she was surprised that the majority of Americans seemed to be in such a great hurry. Europeans like to take their time and do a greater amount of walking.

Rail freight shipments in and out of Washington were checked recently. Biggest export item was baled waste-paper. Largest inbound was stationery.

"He enjoys much who is thankful for little; A grateful mind is both a great and happy mind."

—William Secker, English clergyman.

QUESTION of the WEEK

What would you think about an R.O.T.C. unit on the PLC campus?

Don Hefty: Well, it might be okay if its weren't compulsory; but, not for me.

Jerry Sheffels: Okay on a voluntary basis—you can be in or out if you wish.

Marvin Bolland: Very good idea.
J. P. Carlstrom: I'm against it because you have the Selective Service and students have a full time course without military et cetera.

Fred Muensch: It would be all right.

Don Keith: I think more freshmen boys would enroll in PLC if we had such a unit.

Maurice Fink: I think it would be great.

O. B. Fjelstad: It looks like the Pentagon is going to get us somehow, so I think it would be better to take training while you are going to college, rather than to interrupt your schooling.

Dick Borrud: Ooooff!!

Marvin Fink: Pretty good idea.

Jim Jaeger: If R.O.T.C. came to the campus it would build up the population of the school and it would give the boys that are going to have to go into the service anyhow some military background and a little experience in the field of military training. The college men of today will be tomorrow's military officers.

Jim Traynor: There are too many obligations when you join an R.O.T.C. unit, but it would be good for the school.

Ben McCracken: Not an R.O.T.C. but an N.R.O.T.C.; however, I would

Spurs Elect Five New Members

Five new Spur members were accepted into the Sophomore organization this week by the girls who were tapped last spring. The new candidates were selected by last year's Spurs. Included in the list were Jeanette Fos, Kathy Eide, Janet Klepen, Irene Hanson and Anna Lee.

Preparations for the group that will be arranged by Joyce Genz, president of the Spurs. Other committee members will be chosen at a later date. Other Homecoming activities will be taken over by the organization, but final plans are as yet undecided.

"Lute-fiskers" Return

Probably the largest percentage of late registrants at PLC each fall is made up of those boys who, following their Scandinavian heritage, journey to Alaska each summer as commercial fishermen.

Among the many "Lute-fiskers" this fall were Paul Wangsmo, Waldorf, Glen Werner, Dale Kelly, Kenny and Dave Olson, Einar Skjold, and Walt Braafldt.

Reasons that sound good aren't always good sound reasons.

prefer an Air-R.O.T.C.

Lloyd Eastman: I'd just as soon without it.

Bob Brog: Being in the Marine Corps, I don't know if I'd like men on campus.

Paul Arlton: Anything military sends shivers up and down my spine—I don't mean it scares me, but gives me the heebie-jeebies.

utes Hope To Make Pirates Talk "Gladiator Gang Plank"

"We're absolutely going to win this today's game!"

answered the entire PLC staff when asked if they had care to prognosticate concerning tomorrow night's game with Whitworth College in the Lincoln Bowl.

Past statistics lend strength to the joint statement of the Gladiator bosses. In the past six years the Pirates have bowed in defeat every time they have faced the Lutes.

Religious Class Begins

The fall semester confirmation class students will be organized Tuesday evening at the home of the Rev. Kelmer N. Roe, 3345 So. 120th.

Classes will be conducted for eleven weeks. Students who desire membership in the Lutheran Church at the end of this period will be received by the Lutheran Church in Confirmation ceremonies on December 9.

The present group will be the seventh as many semesters. As a result of the classes 63 students have entered the Lutheran Church, 36 men and 27 women. Twenty-five of these were also baptized.

Invitation is extended by Profr. Roe to all students who are not members of a Christian congregation attend the class. Anyone interested should call Reverend Roe at GR.

Whitworth, however, has developed a strong aerial attack in the form of Ed Kretz, strong armed quarterback, and fleet-footed ends, Ollie Wright, 20 and 440 yard all-conference champion, and Sam Adams, '49 Little All-American.

When confronted with this, Head Coach Marv Harshman answered nonchalantly, "All we have to do is develop a strong pass defense."

Willamette already has developed such a defense and proved it by slipping a losing number to the Whitworth eleven when they stopped them 21 to 13 last Saturday in a non-conference battle at Spokane.

When Whitworth and Pacific Lutheran clash tomorrow night, two lettermen who were not in uniform last week will be ready for a full sixty minutes of play. John Waldorf, three-year letterman guard, and Glen Werner, two-year letterman defensive specialist. Both players have just returned from Alaska where they spent the summer on a commercial fishing boat.

Glen Huffman, Lute pass receiver, who was not able to play against CPS last week because of a leg injury received in practice, will add punch to the PLC aerial attack.

Karwoski Injured!

PLC's hopes for a win against Whitworth in their Conference opener tomorrow night were dealt a serious blow when Frank Karwoski, starting quarterback, hurt his right shoulder in scrimmage.

Frank bruised the same shoulder against CPS last week, but it didn't bother him in practice. The seriousness of the injury will be determined today when his shoulder will be x-rayed.

Ron Billings, Lincoln high teammate of Karwoski's, will start at the quarterback slot tomorrow night.

Honeymooners Find Lost Loot Through San Francisco Cops

San Francisco policemen may not look like Cupid, but they certainly helped make the honeymoon of a newly-wed PLC couple a happy one.

After eating dinner at a restaurant near famed Fishermen's Wharf, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elvebak, the former Miss Betty Drivstuen, returned to their auto to find a broken window. Two pieces of luggage containing Mrs. Elvebak's clothing and a camera were missing. The Elvebaks felt like calling off the rest of the trip but reported the theft to police. They then called a cousin who tried to cheer them up by showing them the town.

Before heading home the next day, Howard called the police and was informed that the missing goods had been located in a pawn shop. Needless to say, the honeymoon continued happily, thanks to the alert police of the Golden Gate city.

Glads Lose First Contest To Loggers

For the seventh straight time Pacific Lutheran College has gone down in defeat at the hands of the Puget Sound Loggers, this time 20-0, at the Lincoln Bowl last Saturday.

The Lutes were playing a strong game the first half, allowing the Loggers to score only once and then blocking the conversion. In the third quarter things changed. Quarterback Art Viafore unloosed his great passing arm and started hitting his receivers for a total of eight completions out of eighteen-attempts. Two of them went for touchdowns.

The first TD came only four minutes after the opening kick-off when Wally Erwin went over from the four yard line.

For the rest of the first half the Lutes and Loggers battered fiercely, with neither team able to score.

Point number 12 for the "Tall Timber Boys" came late in the third quarter when the "Arm" tossed 20 yards to speedster Jack Fabulich, ending a drive from the PLC 37-yard line.

This time Wally Erwin made the conversion. The final CPS score came soon after the start of the fourth quarter when Viafore connected with End Ed Annas and Colombine doing the kicking honors.

The Lutes threatened to score twice in the final quarter but couldn't keep hold of the ball.

Art Swanson, Al Fink and Frank Karwoski all turned in favorable run performances, with Swanson bucking the line and Fink and Karwoski on run-backs.

Fink's first quick-kick of the season went the total distance of 63 yards where it bounced out on the CPS two-yard line. Al's average per punt was 45 yards.

LUTE LOCKER DUST

By Jerry Martin

CPS 20, PLC 0! So what? That was last week; tomorrow is another day.

Sure, the team had trouble stopping passes and holding their runners down, but the fans didn't play too hot a game either. Where's all this school spirit the sephs and upperclassmen have been pumping into the freshman class? It wasn't displayed last Saturday when we played CPS.

But that was last Saturday. Let's make up for it tomorrow night when the Gladiators go out to dump those Whitworth Pirates.

My prediction? Pacific Lutheran 14, Whitworth 6.

Calling all golfers, tennis players and what have you. It has been brought to the attention of your sports edito that very few students turned out for the golf two-ball foursome now in the final stage of progress.

Why didn't YOU turn out? Mrs. Rhoda Young, girls P.E. instructor, informs us that other such tournaments will be held later on in tennis, golf and any other activity which the campus shows a desire to have. These sports aren't just for experts; in fact they are mainly for those individuals who feel they haven't got what it takes to make a varsity team, but like the game and want a chance to test their abilities.

Another opportunity for recreation now under way is a "Fun Night," which takes place on those Friday and Saturday nights when there are no other major functions for the students to attend. On these nights the gym and its many facilities will be available to all students and faculty members.

Library Adds Variety To Book Collection During Past Summer

Many new books have been added to the library's collection during the summer. Fourteen departments have had new books catalogued.

Of these fourteen departments, the Biology department seems to have more than the rest.

Of course no one is going to dip into Hollenshead's "Functional Anatomy of the Limbs and Back" or Lewis' "Electrophoresis in Physiology" unless hard and fast assignments have been made in them. However, when and if the department develops an abutting genius in the field, the volumes will be there for eventual use.

Very timely is Johnson's book, "The Investigation Powers of Congress." Lest you be misled, "My Paradise Is Hell" concerns the effects that western economic imperialism has had on the people of the Caribbean Islands.

With the help of Miss Grace Blomquist, the collection of children's literature has become one of the library's finest.

If you are one of the clumsy minded who stand abashed at the intricacies of our technological gadgets, Bendick's "Television Works Like This" deals with this subject interestingly, accurately, and simply. The book is also well illustrated.

Or if you should want material for the speech class, or the English theme, get one of the ten biographies added in September.

New Biographies

Late in coming, but highly valuable, is a volume entitled "The Theol-

Four New Rooms Under Construction

Eight lucky girls will move into four new rooms now under construction on fifth floor to ease crowded housing conditions in the women's dormitory.

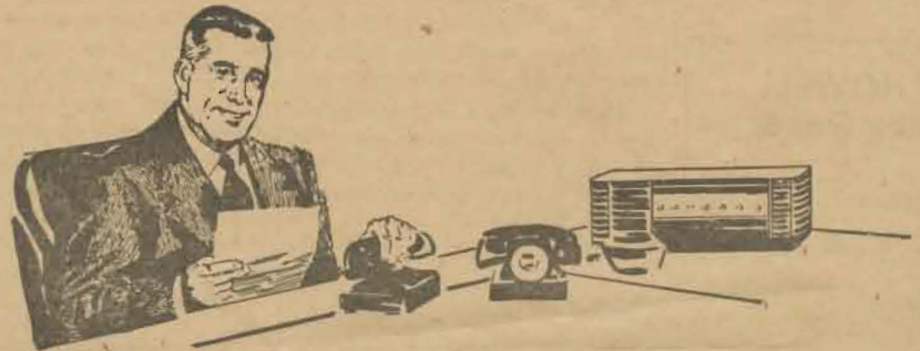

Four men are working on the rooms under the supervision of Ken Jackson, plant manager. The new girls' bathroom on fifth floor is also being completed.

Sheetrock painted in modern tones will provide inviting and attractive finishing for the rooms, which will be provided optionally with double or single beds.

"I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives; I like to see a man live so that his place will be proud of him."—Abraham Lincoln

God will surely help those who help themselves; and conversely, He will surely help those who won't help themselves.

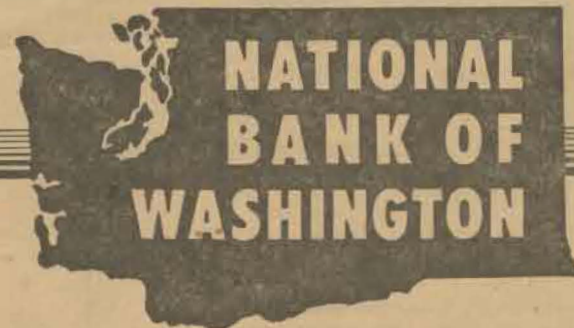

A single grain of action is worth more than a bushful of resolutions.

"This business was a depression baby"

"Back in the thirties things were tough, but I had a few thousand dollars in a savings account at National Bank of Washington. Then I got a chance to take a profitable contract . . . if I could finance equipment and the first payroll. Down at NBW I found my record as a systematic saver had given me credit standing—and the loan they granted me, together with my savings, gave me the funds I needed to start this business. I'm certainly glad I saved at NBW, because it pays to
