

LUTHERAN CONFERENCE TO BE HERE MARCH 7-9

Homecoming Again Will Be Celebrated On College Campus

Alumni, Graduating Classes May Attend; Arrange Interesting Program; to Be Held on March 22 and 23

One of the main features of the Alumni Homecoming, to be held March 22-23, is that it will once again take place on the college campus. The custom of holding the reunion on the campus was discontinued several years back, and since that time the banquet and program were held at the Tacoma Hotel. These reunions, however, did not prove entirely satisfactory, and hence the alumni association has decided to return to the former custom. The main reason for this change is that members of the association feel that it is more interesting to come back to their alma mater than to hold a reunion at a downtown hotel.

Besides the former students now at the school, only the members of the two graduating classes will take part in the celebration. This decision was reached because of the increased enrollment at the present time, which makes it practically impossible to admit the entire school to the banquet.

Although the details of the program have not yet been definitely arranged, the plans for the reunion are going ahead rapidly.

The first event on the reunion program is a basket ball game between the college five and the alumni, which will be played at 2 p. m. March 22. The girls' team of the college will also meet a picked squad of alumni women. These games will be open to the general public.

In the evening, at 7 o'clock, there will be a banquet in the college dining room. A short program and mixer will follow this banquet.

On the next day, which is Sunday, Dr. Tingstad will address the sons and daughters of P. L. C. at the regular Sunday morning service. The college choir, under the direction of J. O. Edwards will sing at this service.

The officers to the Alumni Association are: Martha Hjerstad, 25, president; O. J. Stuen, '07, vice president; Ruth Fadness, 26, corresponding secretary; Solveig Rynning, 21, recording secretary; and Alvar Beck, 27, treasurer.

Northern Cities To Hear P. L. C. Choir

According to Mr. Elvestrom the choir will leave on or about April 1 on a trip north, possibly as far as New Westminster, if suitable arrangements can be made. This trip will include such towns as Lakewood, Ft. Stanwood, Ferndale, and Bellingham.

During the first part of May the choir will sing at the Luther League Convention in Bremerton. Later on it will appear in concert at Everett.

Although other trips are planned, no definite arrangements have as yet been made.

At the National Lutheran Students' Union Convention, to be held here March 7, 8, and 9, the choir will present sacred concerts.

REV. N. M. YLIVISAKER

Reverend Ylivisaker, Executive Secretary of the Young Peoples' Luther League, will serve as liturgist at the convention service.

Press Conference First Union Event

Student Convention to Open on March 7 With Session for School Publications

The first event of the National Lutheran Students' Union Convention, to be held here March 7, 8, and 9, will be the press conference in two sessions on Friday, the 7, at which many schools will be represented.

The morning session will begin at 10:30, and will be led by Mr. Charles Norby, editor of the Luther College paper, "College Chips." The morning session outlined thus far is as follows: Introductory remarks by Chairman Norby.

"The Responsibility of a College Paper as the Representative of a Christian College," by President O. A. Tingstad of P. L. C.

"How well do the college papers of our church meet this requirement," by Dean Ph. E. Hauge of Pacific Lutheran College.

After this the student discussion will be led by Mr. Raymond Reinholdt, of Luther Theological Seminary.

The afternoon session will begin at two o'clock. At this meeting Mr. Clifford Halvorson, editor of the Augustana Mirror, of Augustana College, will talk on "Faculty Supervision." Mr. Harvey Hoff, of St. Olaf College, will discuss the "Student Opinion Column and Other Local Columns." Mr. Frisbie L. Young, editor of the Luther Theological Seminary paper, will speak on the Lutheran Press Association and the News Bureau.

Junior College press problems will be discussed by Dr. Sigwald Fauske, of Red Wing Seminary; Mr. Norman Nelson, of Waldorf College, and John Goplerud, of Pacific Lutheran College.

The general discussion for the afternoon session will be led by Mr. Ernest Espelle, associate editor of the "College Chips."

Mistake in Announcement
The last issue of the Mooring Mast stated that there were 212 students attending P. L. C. at the present time. This was an error. The total enrollment for the year is 212. As a number of the students who were enrolled have left school, the total of those attending now is slightly less than this number.

Delegates Chosen By Student Body

Mooring Mast and Saga Staffs Also Choose Delegates for Press Conference Here

Warner Quale, Berger Jacobson, and Marie Vandinburg were elected as delegates to represent P. L. C. at the annual convention of the Lutheran Students' Union, which is to be held here March 7, 8, and 9, by the students at a special meeting of the student body held yesterday after chapel. The names voted upon at the meeting were: Warner Quale, Berger Jacobson, Marie Vandinburg, John Goplerud, Ruth Brown, Arthur Olson, Lillian Johnsen, Henry Holm-Jensen, and Elvera Hokenstad.

This is the first year that P. L. C. has been able to send its full number of delegates to a convention as all previous conventions have been held in the Middle West. This made the distance too great for the school to send more than one delegate. Martha Hjerstad was the first delegate to represent P. L. C. at a conference. The other delegates from this school have been Arthur Knutzen, Arling Sannerud and Irene Dahl.

At a special joint meeting of the Mooring Mast and Saga staffs, also held yesterday, Olaf Hagene, editor of the Mooring Mast, was elected as representative to the press conference which will be held on March 7. Any member of either staff will be permitted to attend all the press meetings and take part in the discussions, but the delegate will be the only one that will be entitled to vote.

Calendar

February 27—Debate: P. L. C. women vs. C. P. S. women.

February 28—Basketball: P. L. C. vs. Centralia Junior College at P. L. C.

March 3—Debate: P. L. C. women vs. Bellingham State Normal.

March 4—Dual men's and women's debate with Bellingham.

March 5—Dual men's and women's debate with C. P. S.

March 7—Lutheran Students' Union Convention opens at P. L. C.

GREETINGS

Mayor Jam S. G. Newbegin greets the delegates to the Lutheran Students' Union convention.

Mr. Maurice Wee, President, Lutheran Students' Union, Pacific Lutheran College, Tacoma, Washington.

My dear Mr. Wee:

Will you please convey to the delegates of the National organization of Lutheran Students' Union our very great pleasure on having them as guests in the City of Tacoma.

As Mayor of the City of Tacoma, I have been commissioned to welcome you, your visiting members, and I find it a pleasurable duty indeed, to extend greetings to an organization with such fine ideals and purposes.

We hope your deliberation here will be both enjoyable and profitable.

Sincerely,
J. G. NEWBEGIN,
Mayor.

REV. J. A. AASGAARD

Reverend Aasgaard, president of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, will preach the convention service on Sunday, March 9.

Season Opens With Successful Debates

Forensic Activities Heavy for Next Week; Season Prospects Are Shiny

Prospects for a successful debate season received a decided boost Friday night when varsity debaters took the decisions in two debates with Pacific College of Seattle. The men's affirmative team consisting of Fred Walter and Olaf Hagene defeated their visitors from Seattle at P. L. C.

Ruth Jacobson and Ruth Norgaard, who traveled to Seattle, took a 3 to 0 decision from the Pacific college women's affirmative team. The P. L. C. girls presented splendid arguments and held the upper hand through practically the entire debate.

The question for both clashes was, "Resolved, That the nations should adopt a plan of complete disarmament, excepting such forces as are needed for police purposes."

A large and appreciative audience heard the men's debate. Mr. Hong acted as chairman, and Weaver J. Allison, Lincoln High School debate coach, was critic judge. After the debate, the boys' quartet sang a group of songs.

The debaters face an exceptionally heavy schedule next week. On Thursday afternoon, February 27, the P. L. C. women's negative team will meet a group from Bellingham State Normal. On March 3, the women's affirmative team will clash with Bellingham. March 4 will see a dual debate between the men's teams of the two colleges.

As a climax to the week's debates, both the men's and women's teams will engage in a dual debate with C. P. S. on March 5.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAYS

The Dramatic Club's three plays, "Forty Miles an Hour," "Mix Well and Stir" and "The Ghost Story" were given Tuesday evening at the Lake View Sanitarium.

On March 14, "Forty Miles an Hour" is to be given at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Tacoma.

Delegates Reach Pacific Thursday Of Coming Week

Forty Visitors on Still-Growing List; Local Committee 45 by Completing Worth Plans For Meeting

Approximately forty student delegates, pastors, and speakers from "east of the Rockies" will arrive in Parkland March 6 to take part in the annual convention of the Lutheran Students' Union assembling at Pacific Lutheran College March 7-9.

If enthusiasm among both visiting delegates and local students and teachers can indicate anything, a most inspiring convention is in store. The list of delegates and visitors is growing and local committees are completing plans which they hope will make Pacific Lutheran a hospitable and worthy host. Following is a list of delegates received to date: Luther Theological Seminary—Harold Martinson, Frisbie Young, Raymond Reinholdt, Morris Wee; Luther College—Charles Norby, Ernest Espelle, Ernest Thompson; Waldorf College—Norman Nelson; Red Wing Seminary—Sigvald Fauske; Madison Normal School—Herbert Landahl; Augustana College—Melvin Nelson, Clifford Halvorson, Myrtle Lokken, Agnes Erickson, St. Olaf College—Glenn Tigan, Hale Aarnes; Concordia College—Kermit Overby, Harold Groningen, John Stær; Pacific Lutheran College—Warner Quale, Berger Jacobson and Marie Vandinburg.

Speakers: Dr. O. A. Tingstad, Prof. Ph. E. Hauge, Pacific Lutheran College; Rev. L. M. Stavig, Northfield, Minnesota; Rev. A. J. Towe, South Bend, Washington; Rev. A. K. Vinje, Everett, Washington; Rev. H. L. Foss, Silverton, Oregon; Rev. C. H. Norard, Everett, Washington; Dr. Arthur Rholl, Red Wing, Minnesota; Rev. Alf. M. Kraab, Portland, Oregon; Dr. J. A. Aasgaard, Rev. N. M. Ylivisaker, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Dr. T. F. Gullixson, Minot, North Dakota.

The program worked out by the executive committee of the Union will bring to this school some of the finest speakers of the church. "What Shall I Do With My Life?" the convention theme, based on 2 Corinthians, 5: 15. (Continued on Page 4)

To Present French and German Plays

Mrs. Bondy's German and French classes are presenting two one-act plays entitled "Karl Hat Zahnschmerzen" and "Le Medecin Mystifie."

The cast for the German play is: Karl, Stanley Berenson; a relative, John Goplerud; Karl's sister, Mina, Inga Goplerud; the cook, Anna Mickelson; homeopathic doctor, Alvene Schlerman; Karl's sister, Emma, Nelma Gullison.

The plot of the play: Karl has a toothache and withdraws from the rest of the company to rest. The women find him and sympathize with him so much that it makes his tooth ache worse. A friend finally comes to the rescue by suggesting that he go to the dentist.

The cast for the French play is: Le Medecin, Harold Johnson; La Dame, Dakny Hjerstad; La Vieille Pauvre, Maudie Nelson.

Varsity Balances Wins and Defeats In Oregon Games

Loss to Astoria High School, Win From Campbell-Holmes Scores Are 33 to 23 and 24 To 21 Respectively

Although they dropped the first game played on their trip through Oregon to the Astoria High School five by a 33 to 23 count, Pacific Lutheran college varsity hoopers came back strong the following night to nose out the highly touted Campbell-Holmes five of Astoria by a 24 to 21 score on the mammoth high school floor.

The game with the high school, which was played on Wednesday, February 19, was fast, with the Fishermen having the advantage of playing on their own floor, against the P. L. C. boys who were tired from their long trip. John Gardlin was the leading player for the Gladiators, with nine points to his credit.

In the Campbell-Holmes game, the Lutheran boys showed the best form of the season by nosing out the home team by three points. Up to the time they played the Gladiators, the Astoria team had won 17 consecutive games, with the Astoria high school being one of the teams to fall before the mighty attack of the Campbell-Holmes five.

For P. L. C. Johnson and Colton led the way with eight points each, besides showing good teamwork. Wilson, lanky center for the home team, also showed up well with 4 points. Oscar Hauke, former P. L. C. student, played a bang-up game at guard for the Astoria quintet.

The lineup:

P. L. C.	Astoria High
Johnson	F
Colton	F
Mitton	C
C. Mo son	C
Nyman	G
Substitutions: P. L. C.—Gardlin, C. Colton; Palo for Monson; Thostenson for Nyman; Astoria—Lindgren for Palmberg; Lowe for Jeffers; Malon for Zimmerman.

"GLAD" GIRLS SNAP OUT OF LONG HOOP SLUMP

Snapping out of the long slump they have been in, the Gladiator girl hoopers outfought and outplayed their opponents to check in a 27 to 24 win over the Summer High six, Friday night. The game was played on the Parkland floor, and was by far the most thrilling contest the girls have played on the home court this season.

The Lutheran girls started out with a bang, and for a time it looked as if the Summerites were in for a bad beating. The Summer girls were not to be denied, however, and gradually diminished the Lutheran lead, with the result that the score stood 12-12 at the end of the first half.

During most of the second period the score seesawed back and forth with neither team having an advantage. Gradually, however, the Gladiators wore their opponents down to win the game.

Victory Over Yakima Boys Makes Fourth Straight Game Win

Checking their fourth straight victory, the Gladiators humbled the Yakima Junior Collegians on the local floor Monday evening, February 17, by a 30 to 26 count. The Lutherans were in the lead all the way and only at the end of the third period, when the score was 23 to 22, did the Yakima men look dangerous.

Werner, of the invaders, because of his long, perfect shots, proved to be unusual. He accounted for 10 of the apple-pickers' points. For the Lutherans Johnson with 10 points and Mitton with 8 took high-point honors.

The lineup:

P. L. C.	Yakima J. C.
Johnson (10)	F (2) Carlson
Colton (4)	F (3) Mathews
Mitton (8)	C (10) Werner
Nyman (2)	G (6) E. Nelson
	G (0) McPhee
Substitutions: P. L. C.—Gardlin, C. Monson, Thostenson, Yakima J. C.—Epperson, Hagman, Mitchell, Whitmore, (4).

Officials: B. O. Beal, Tacoma, referee; scorer, Cronquist; timer, Lee.

GIRLS LOSE GAME TO MOUNT VERNON

In the curtain-raising affair the girls team from the Pacific Lutheran College suffered their third defeat of the season by dropping before the Mt. Vernon Junior College six, by a 39 to 44 victory. The Lutheran girls were not able to function properly on the large floor in the northern city. Their team-work was not up to the standard of previous games. The Lutherans, however, managed to have things their own way during the first half and were leading at half time, 19 to 15. This five-point lead ended soon after the whistle of the third quarter and was never regained.

The Mt. Vernon six played beautiful ball to defeat Miss Stixrud's Lutheran outfit. Because the latter had defeated Mt. Vernon by a 46 to 32 count earlier this season, they were almost two to one favorites to win this game.

VARSITY PLAYS JAYSEES

Gladiator varsity hoopers play their last scheduled game of the season when they meet Centralia Junior College Friday night on the P. L. C. floor. Centralia has defeated the Gladiators once this year, and our boys will be out to even the count.

Gladiators Chalk Up Third Straight Win

Lutherans Score 27-26 Victory Over Mt. Vernon Hoopsters In Close Fracas

In a close and thrilling game the Gladiator basketball five from P. L. C. managed to handle the Mt. Vernon Junior College nicely during critical times, and walked off the floor with a 27 to 26 victory tucked under their belt. The victory at Mt. Vernon Saturday was the third of the week, the Lutherans having defeated the C. P. S. Reserves Wednesday and the strong Astoria, Oregon outfit, Friday.

Minihahn, diminutive Mt. Vernon forward and last year's all state prep performer, made the first score of the game by sinking a foulshot. This was followed by a long basket by Anderson, the other Cardinal advancement. The score was four points against the Lutherans before they could get started. Colton sank two foul shots, while Johnson, Nyman, and C. Monson accounted for a field goal each. At the end of the first quarter the Gladiators had a two-point advantage, which they worked up to seven at half time.

Play was fast during the third period, the Cardinals cutting the Lutherans lead to one lone point. With but six minutes to play, the Mt. Vernon team took the lead, and for a while it appeared that they had things their own way. However, their five point lead was cut to one about two minutes before the gun, and the Lutherans took the lead themselves, when Johnny Parkland forward, made a perfect field goal. After this the Lutherans were penalized six times, but the juniors were not able to knot the count. There were thirty fouls called during the game; twenty on P. L. C. and ten on Mt. Vernon. Minihahn, Mt. Vernon performer, walked away with scoring honors, when he checked in fifteen points. The entire Parkland team worked together better than they have in any other previous game.

The lineup:

P. L. C.	Mt. Vernon
Colton (3)	F (5) Anderson
Johnson (9)	F (15) Lippert
Mitton (5)	C (3) Minihahn
Nyman (4)	G (3) Ness

Substitutions: P. L. C.—Gardlin, Thostenson (2), R. Monson, Palo (2), Mt. Vernon—Starr.

DEFEAT LOGGERS TWICE

Score of 30-22 Shows Hoop Supremacy Of Lutherans

For the second time this season, Gladiator basketekers defeated the C. P. S. Reserves in a rather slow game on the Logger court Wednesday, February 13, by a score of 30 to 22. The Lutheran boys seemed lost at first on the long G. P. S. floor, but regained their usual teamwork and accurate shooting in the second half to put the game on ice. Colton was the outstanding player of the night, making 12 points and showing good all-around playing. For C. P. S. Grant led with 6 points. In the first game of the season between these two teams, the Gladiators also won easily, by a 29 to 19 score.

OPEN THE DOOR AND LET ME IN

"Oh, Christine! Open the door and let me in!"
Such was the plea that floated plaintively over the library transom yesterday.

"Oh, Christine!" and Christine—yes, one of our much-esteemed twins looked up (like a startled deer at bay!) and then blushed!

Yes, the teltale color suffused her beaming face.
Of course the library had to be full of prospective school teachers at the time. And my! Do we love scandal!

Anyway, the scene was a study in colors and shades while George Cronquist impatiently waited without the door.

She had no key—what was she to do? Next time, perhaps, Christine, you can borrow Mr. Stuen's key—but that isn't the point.

We're wondering, seeing that they both teach at Larchmont, whether that has anything to do with it?

She was vibrant; lovely; eager for love.

So mu h so, indeed, that she drew him, unwittingly, into her life, her heart.

And she, so worshipping and unseeing, noticed not his coldness of manner; his calm acceptance of all the love and benefits she heaped upon him.

But awakening, we find, comes eventually to all—who do not seek it.

A rude, bitter awakening shattered Bertha's romance; her very life became a matter of existence only. She saw this man—her husband—in unflinching, brutal clearness. His vulgarity, crudeness, egotism and selfish acceptance of her love deadened her soul and stifled the fast beating of her heart.

And then, too late, came love, such as hers was, into her life. Gerald, young and living—Edward, cold and already old.

What should she do? Was she not entitled to some happiness?

Her soul had become warped; her love snuffed out. Why not try again? Then is the conclusion written—a horrible accident—and her life goes on, drably, quietly, in deadly monotony.

"Mr. Craddock" is something different, an engrossing study in characters; an insight into somebody's life.

One of the newest and most popular fiction books on press. Read it—by Somerset Maugham: "Mrs. Craddock."

ON 'LIFE' AT MEETING

Mission Society members discussed the theme of the coming convention, "What Shall I Do With My Life?" at their regular meeting, Wednesday evening, February 19. The parts of the theme were introduced as follows:

"A God-Given Life," by Christine Johnson; "A Redeemed Life," by Thora Rasmussen; "A Life With Great Possibilities," by Arthur Olson; "A Life of Serious Responsibilities," by Sena Johnson; "A Life Intended for Christian Service," by Walter Young; "A Life Designed for Immortality," by Arthur Olson; and "My Life for Christ," by Viola Taw. Anna Aamodt played a piano number.

After the program the secretary drew up a list of the active members of the club.

Mount Tacoma Shows
Students' Beat Time Ever

A trip to Mt. Tacoma last Saturday gave sixty P. L. C. students a full day of thrills and fun from six o'clock a. m. until 9:30 p. m.

The fun began when Mrs. Hinderlie, the cook, served the participants with a good breakfast of bacon and eggs.

At six o'clock the two trucks were ready to start. Everyone clambered on to the plank seats, which they found a fine resting place for their still-yawning selves.

The trip to Longmire was uneventful, with only one stop, at the place where all the passengers registered. At Longmire rain began to fall, filling the minds of the hikers with dire forebodings.

But nothing can stop P. L. C. students from enjoying themselves.

Arrayed in parkas, the whole bunch marched single file along the narrow, rugged and slippery path towards Paradise Inn, a six-mile hike uphill from Longmire.

However, as some were able to go faster than others, the party broke up slowly, dropping some by the wayside. It took an average of three hours to make the hike.

Although it is mostly covered by snow at this time of year, Paradise Inn is a beautiful place. At this time, however, the best thing about it was the dinner served there. After two hours' rest, the party, laboring under the extra burden of the dinner, struck out for Longmire.

The journey back was made with greater ease, sliding taking the place of climbing.

The party returned to the college at about 9:30 p. m.

Except for a few black and blue spots and some sore muscles, most of the students stood the trip well.

Miss Stixrud and Mr. and Mrs. C. Olson, acted as chaperons.

CHAPEL TALK

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me."

"To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

"He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches."

The first question that we would ask ourselves is, who is it that stands at the door and knocks? By reading other parts of the Book of Revelation we find that it is Jesus Jesus continually presents Himself to us and wants to enter into our lives. He is pleased to be a part of us, and we should feel and know that that is the kind of a fellowship Jesus wants with us.

Now, when does Jesus knock? He persistently knocks, but there are times when He is more persistent than at other times. To all those who hear the

some good advice
on golf —

It's this—fill your bag with matched clubs, as quickly as possible. We sell them in sets or one at a time.

We suggest SPALDINGS. For Spalding originated matched clubs. And Spalding patents cover the fine points.

Spalding Kro-Flite Related Irons are the same in pitch, lie and swinging weight—so that an entire set asks you to master only one swing. $6.50 each.

Kro-Flite Irons in Registered Sets.
Set of 6, $50—of 9, $75.

Spalding Symetric Irons are made to the same idea. $3.50 each. The 5 essential irons only $17.50.

"We have everything you need for golf, at prices that don't make it the 'rich man's game'!"
